On March 15, 1965, a ~~confidential~~ source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that leaders of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, were planning a picket demonstration on March 18, 1965, at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel when Attorney General NICHOLAS KATZENBACH appeared to speak to the Philadelphia Crime Commission. The picket was to protest treatment of Negroes in Selma, Alabama.

A characterization of the DCA is attached.

On March 17, 1965, the source advised that Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) have initiated the above demonstration and DCA may not be allowed to join as a sponsor. The picket was set for 5:30 p.m.

On March 18, 1965, Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Civil Disobedience Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, advised he learned the above demonstrations might include sit-ins at the hotel.

On March 18, 1965, at 5:30 p.m., Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed about 40 demonstrators gather in front of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Broad and Walnut Streets. Lieutenant FENCL advised they represented SNCC and CORE.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the following persons among the demonstrators that gathered:

On March 18, 1965, a third ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that JARVIS TYNER is the East Coast Regional Coordinator, W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA); SONDRA PATRINOS is President of the Philadelphia Chapter, DCA; RITA ANN GABOW is Secretary of the Philadelphia Chapter, and NURELDEEN STOREY is a member of the Philadelphia Chapter.

Lieutenant FENCL advised that the demonstrators conferred before beginning the picket as they learned the Attorney General had to cancel his appearance. They decided that a demonstration would now be futile against anyone of lesser stature than the Attorney General.

No demonstration was held and no incidents occurred.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

This memorandum recommends an airtel to all continental offices reminding them of the necessity for fully developing all information available concerning possible communist influences in the demonstrations presently taking place throughout the country in sympathy with the voter registration efforts of Negroes in Selma, Alabama.

As you are aware the Communist Party, other similar communist groups and communist individuals generally, never overlook the opportunity to exploit racial and similar situations in their efforts to attain communist objectives. The current situation in Selma offers a ready-made springboard for participation in or influence of the various demonstrations occurring around the country. Communist involvement generally takes many forms, some open and some more subtle. Likewise, participants, include actual Party members, as well as others with lesser subversive backgrounds.

Although current Bureau instructions provide for the field developing information concerning communist influences in the racial situation, it is believed that the broad scope and intensity of the demonstrations growing out of the Selma situation dictates that we again remind the field of its responsibilities in this regard.

RECOMMENDATION:

Attached for approval, on plastiplate, is an airtel to all continental offices reminding them of their responsibilities in this matter. After approval this memorandum should be returned to Supervisor S. F. Phillips, Room 808 Riddell Building, for the preparation and mailing of the airtel.

As you are aware, the current voter registration efforts of Negroes in Selma, Alabama, and demonstrations there have precipitated a rash of demonstrations throughout the country. These demonstrations are being organized by a wide variety of groups, some of which are legitimate racial organizations and others having definite communist connections. As expected, communists of various shadings are involving themselves in these demonstrations.

This is to remind you of the Bureau's continuing responsibilities in captioned matter and that appropriate investigation be conducted to determine the full extent of influence and/or participation of subversive individuals and groups in the demonstrations around the country relating to the Selma situation. Information suitable for dissemination should be promptly submitted to the Bureau by letterhead memoranda.

The foregoing should be brought to the attention of all Agent personnel engaged in security and racial matters and civil rights work.

In the future you should eliminate lengthy characterizations of individuals such as are set forth in this letterhead memorandum in regard to Edward Mosk. In addition, you should eliminate the information which has no bearing upon the individual's subversive activities or affiliation. This observation is particularly true in connection with Henry W. Sands who is identified on page nine of the letterhead memorandum as an attorney with offices in Los Angeles. Individuals who have no subversive affiliation should not be mentioned in memoranda or reports prepared for dissemination.

Los Angeles should insure that Agent personnel handling this and related investigations are aware of these instructions.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE.

On March 12, 1965 Sergennt Samuel Nolan, Human Relations Unit, Chicago Police Department, advised that at 7:00 AM on March 12, 1965, a protest demonstration in sympathy with the racial situation in Selma, Alabama was organized by the Student Non-Violent Co-Ordinating Committee (SNCC), on State Street in the Loop area of Chicago, Illinois. This demonstration was also a sympathy demonstration over the death of Reverend Reeb of Selma, Alabama and continued throughout the morning of March 12, 1965, at various locations on State Street in the Chicago Loop area, as well as the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois.

Sergeant Nolan also advised that at 12:00 Noon, the original SNCC group which originally consisted of approximately 40 demonstrators were joined by some 200 students from Chicago Teachers College, North. Sergeant Nolan advised the demonstration continued until approximately 1:00 PM at the Federal Building when two representatives of the demonstrations presented a petition protesting the Selma situation to United States Attorney Edward V. Hanrahan.

Subsequent to the presentation of the petition to United States Attorney Hanrahan, the demonstrators began to dwindle in number until approximately 4:00 PM when only 20 picketers remained in front of the Federal Building.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

At 4:30 PM, this remaining group was joined by representatives of the University of Illinois, Downtown Campus group, as well as students from Northwestern University, Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) and other additional SNCC representatives.

At approximately 5:30 PM, twelve demonstrators consisting of seven male demonstrators and five female demonstrators, all white, attempted a sit-in in the lobby of the Federal Building at 219 South Dearborn.

With the beginning of this attempted sit-in, the building doors of the Federal Building were immediately locked and at approximately 6:15 PM, the sit-in group agreed to leave the Federal Building after being informed by a United States Marshal that if they did not depart the building they would be arrested and jailed until March 22, 1965.

Also, United States Attorney Hanrahan spoke to representatives of this group in the building lobby and expressed his concern over the situation in Selma and advised the group he would communicate their opinions to the Attorney General of the United States. This group then agreed to leave the building. The demonstration before the Federal Building at 219 South Dearborn subsequently terminated at approximately 7;00 PM with no additional disorders, incidents or arrests.

Concerning the aforementioned demonstration before the Federal Building on March 12, 1965, it is to be noted that Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), during the course of this demonstration, observed the following individuals participating in the demonstration during the late afternoon:

Ted Pearson
Ricky Kling
Edward Heisler

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

Concerning Ted Pearson, referred to above, it is noted that a source advised on March 9, 1965 that Ted Pearson was a member of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, Youth Group. The same source also advised on March 9, 1965 that Ted Pearson is also chairman of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs, Chicago, Illinois.

A characterization of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs is appended hereto.

Concerning Ricky Kling, it is to be noted that a second source advised on April 21, 1964, that Ricky Kling attended a meeting of the Modern Teens group on April 12, 1964. (U)

The first source, referred to above, advised on December 4, 1964 that as of November 28, 1964 Ricky Kling was co-chairman of a north side unit of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of Chicago. This same source also advised on December 4, 1964 that Ricky Kling, also known as Richard Kling, is the son of Jack Kling, a member of the CP of Illinois. (U)

Concerning Jack Kling, a third source advised on March 9, 1965 that as of that date Jack Kling was a member of the CP of Illinois, State Board. (U)

Concerning Edward Heisler, referred to above, it is to be noted that a fourth source on March 8, 1965 advised that Edward Heisler was a member of the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP). (U)

Appended hereto is a characterization of the CBSWP.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

On March 16, 1965, a ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (organizer of the March on Washington) and Harry Wachtel were in contact on that date. They discussed the speech of President Johnson before Congress on the night of March 15, 1965, which concerned a voting bill insuring the right of all Americans to vote. Wachtel said it covered every part of the "battlefront." Both agreed that the speech was the most forthright ever made by a President, but agreed that compliments should wait until they saw what the bill contained. (U)

In considering what they should do in light of President Johnson's willingness to "go all out" for the Negro, Wachtel suggested that Rustin seek permission to speak before one of the Congressional Committees that will consider the voting bill. In that regard, Rustin said the battle has shifted from Selma, Alabama, to Washington, D.C., therefore, they need to get a group of Senators and Representatives to meet with Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) in one of the caucus rooms. Wachtel answered that it could be arranged very easily. (U)

Reairtel 3/9/65.

Title in this matter has been changed from "PROPOSED DEMONSTRATIONS AT FEDERAL BUILDING, LONG BEACH AND LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, MARCH 9, 1965," to delete the words "proposed" and "Long Beach" as the demonstrations were held and is to be a continuing affair in Los Angeles.

For the Bureau's information, there are enclosed nine copies of a lettermead memorandum (LHM), dated and captioned as above, setting out information concerning the continuing demonstrations being held in the vicinity of the Federal Building in the Los Angeles Civic Center, by representatives of various groups in sympathy with the activity of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING in Selma, Alabama.

As noted in instant LHM the office of the General Services Administration and the United States Marshal's Office were furnished with advance information regarding the proposed activities of the demonstrators today. The Los Angeles Police Department is cognizant and affording coverage; and Region II, United States Army is aware of the continuing nature of this demonstration.

ROBERT STEPHEN SEDORE, Security Index subject of the Los Angeles Division (Burlington [redacted]) is one of the two individuals arrested 3/9/65, mentioned herein.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT FEDERAL BUILDING
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
MARCH 9, 1965

Reference is made to prior memoranda captioned "Proposed Demonstrations at Federal Buildings, Long Beach and Los Angeles, California, March 9, 1965." The following information has been furnished by sources who have furnished reliable information in the past:

Source one advised that some demonstrators had stayed in front of the Federal Building, Los Angeles, California, all night March 9, 1965. Prior to 8:30 a.m., March 10, 1965, less than 25 demonstrators were on the scene. At 11:00 a.m., March 10, 32 Caucasians and 8 Negroes made up the entire demonstration. The followers of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) indicated they intended to turn out in force at noon; and members of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA)(See Appendix) indicated their intention of swelling the ranks of the demonstrators at 2:00 p.m., and in addition reportedly planned to attempt to go to the sixth floor in the Federal Building and stay there."

Shortly after 12:00 noon, March 10, 1965, three members of the American Nazi Party (ANP)(See Appendix) arrived in the vicinity of the Federal Building by automobile. They started to approach the demonstrators; but were ordered by an unidentified Los Angeles County Deputy Sheriff to march on the west side of Spring Street, across the street from the Federal Building (it being noted that the Federal Building faces on the east side of Spring Street, and the bank of the building is on the west side of Main Street.)

At approximately 1:00 p.m., March 10, the combined crowd of demonstrators and curious onlookers, in front of and on the front steps of the Federal Building was in excess of 500 individuals. Newsreel cameramen, and news reporters of the press, radio, and television were present.

Chief Deputy United States Marshal Dwight P. Snyder advised that two demonstrators, Claude Albert Liggins, Negro, [redacted] and Robert Stephen Seborer, Caucasian, born [redacted], were arrested on the night of March 9, 1965, for bodily attacks on Deputy United States Marshals, who were in process of clearing demonstrators from the Federal Building in Los Angeles. According to this source, these two individuals were arraigned before United States Commissioner Russell R. Hermann, during the morning of March 10, 1965. At the request of the United States Attorney bond was set at only $250.00 a piece, which has been posted. b6 b7C

A second source advised in September, 1964, that Robert Seborer was at that time chairman of a Communist Party (CP) club in the Western Section, Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), at Los Angeles, California.

A third source advised that Claude Albert Liggins, born [redacted] a resident of Los Angeles, California, entered Los Angeles Metropolitan College, (a junior college administered by the Los Angeles City Board of Education) in September, 1962, on probation. He was disqualified in August, 1963; however, was readmitted again on probation in September, 1963, and last attended Los Angeles Metropolitan College in Spring, 1964. b6 b7C

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
MARCH 9, 1965

College records contain no record of a Claude Albert Leggins.

A fourth source advised in February, 1964, that Claude Leggins, a student at Los Angeles Metropolitan College, was the signer of a petition being circulated by the DCA (Informant indicated that this signature was somewhat illegible and the last name may have been either Liggins or Leggins).

A fifth source advised that between 11:30 and noon on March 10, 1965, a student demonstration was being conducted on the campus of the California State College at Los Angeles, 515 State College Drive, Los Angeles, in the so-called "Free Speech Area," adjacent to the College Music Hall. This was in the nature of an open meeting, and the topic of the meeting was, "What's With Selma, Alabama?" Following the conclusion of the meeting, transportation was to be offered to any of the campus participants who desired to proceed to the Federal Building in Los Angeles to participate in the demonstration being held there. The flyer announcing this activity on the college campus was signed by two individuals, one of whom was Marvin Trieger.

A sixth source advised in June, 1964, that Marvin Trieger was at that time Chairman, Youth Commission, SCDCP.

Subsequent to 3:00 PM, source one above, and source seven, indicated that some of demonstrators had left the picket line immediately in front of the front doors of the picket line and were lying down in the driveway used by United States Mail trucks, and thus were impeding ingress and egress of mail trucks. Twenty-nine of these individuals were taken into custody, and are to be arraigned for violation of Title 18, Section 1701 United States Commissioner (willfully obstructing United States mail trucks).

A source advised on February 23, 1961 that as of February 1961 [redacted] (U)

IRVING ROSENFELD

In 1953 a source advised Irving Rosenfeld was a team captain of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) Club of the Labor Youth League (LYL) in early 1953. He attended LYL meetings in 1951 and 1953, and was a member of the Executive Board, UCLA Club, LYL, from June to September, 1953. (U)

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the U. S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Appearing in "The Los Angeles Daily Journal" of December 27, 1962, was an article which reported in part that Rosenfeld had been elected a new Board member of the NLG in Los Angeles for 1963. (NLG - See Appendix)

In August and November, 1956 Rosenfeld was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI in Denver, Colorado at which time he admitted attending LYL meetings, but stated he never considered himself to be a member. He furnished names of other individuals in attendance at these meetings. He stated his LYL activity ceased when he entered law school in 1953, stated the reading of transcripts of Smith Act trials "opened his eyes" and was of the opinion the LYL was an organization dominated and controlled by the Communist Party. He stated he believed the CP and its front organizations constituted a threat to the internal security of the United States.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

HARRIET BUHAI

A source advised that as of March 1947 Harriet Buhai was a member of the Culver City Club, Los Angeles County Communist Party. (U)

In October 1957 another source advised Buhai stated she had been a CP member from 1941 to 1953. (U)

Another source advised that Buhai was a member of the NLG in 1958, 1961 and 1962.

Another source advised that in 1961 Buhai was present at a meeting of the Womens Commission, SCDCP. Source could not state if all those present at this meeting were CP members. (U)

In January 1963 source advised Buhai was a member of the Board and Chairman of the Program Committee of the NLG.

PAULINE EPSTEIN

On April 9, 1963 a source furnished the 13th Annual Conference Journal of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (LACPFB) (See Appendix) for the year 1963. On page eight, Pauline Epstein was listed as a member of the Legal Panel of the LACPFB.

Another source advised Pauline Epstein was a member of the NLG in 1955, 1956, from 1958 to 1962 and in 1964.

MAYNARD OMERBERG

On July 13, 1964 source advised that at an enlarged board meeting of the LACPFB on July 9, 1964 it was announced Omerberg would go to Mississippi to help register Negroes and instruct them in their civil rights. (U)

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

In April 1948 another source advised Omerberg was an Independent Progressive Party (IPP-See Appendix) candidate for Congress from the 15th Congressional District in Los Angeles.

Another source advised that during the latter part of 1950 Omerberg was a member of the Lawyers Panel of the Civil Rights Congress as of January 1949.

The Civil Rights Congress has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Appearing in the "Beverly Hills Times" of February 25, 1965, March 4, 1965 and March 11, 1965 were three articles written by Attorney George Slaff regarding his trip to Mississippi. (See Attached) In the first article Slaff wrote that Bob Shutan of Beverly Hills was one of the attorneys who traveled to Mississippi.

GEORGE V. SLAFF

From 1948 to the present, Slaff has been legal counsel for Samuel Goldwyn Productions, Hollywood, California.

In February, 1942 Slaff furnished a statement to the Federal Power Commission, categorically denying he had ever been a member of an organization which advocated the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

In 1942, source, [redacted] b7D advised Slaff was considered an extreme radical, if not a communist, by a large number of his associates in the Federal Power Commission. Source further advised Slaff believed completely in government ownership of utilities and big business.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

Appearing in the "Los Angeles Times," February 13, 1965, page four, was a letter from Slaff which indicated he was President of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), of Southern California.

ROBERT SHUTAN Bob Shutan

Records of the California State Bar Association reflect Robert H. Shutan was born [redacted] and was admitted to the California Bar on February 1, 1943. b6 b7C

On December 2, 1960 source advised Shutan was a sustainer of the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms (CCPAF) (See Appendix).

Another source advised in September 1964 that as of September 1964 the name and address of Robert Shutan, Esq., [redacted] were maintained by the NLG. Calif

Report From Mississippi

By George Slaff

(This is the first in a series of two articles by BH Attorney Slaff, So. California President of the American Civil Liberties Union on his experiences as a participant on the Mississippi February Challenge Project).

Lincoln's Birthday this year was a very special day for the Negroes of Mississippi and for me, too. For them, Feb. 12, 1965, one hundred years after the end of the Civil War, marked the last day of the first stage of a massive effort to restore to them one of the fundamental rights with which the 15th Amendment to the United States Constitution had implemented the Emancipation Proclamation, the right to vote. For me it marked the culmination of the most satisfying experience of a long legal career, as well as one of the most moving emotional moments of my lifetime.

I was in Batesville, Mississippi, the county seat of Panola County along with two other lawyers.

We had just finished three and a half days of taking testimony in the Mississippi "Challenge."

The Challenge is the contest which has been brought by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party before Congress challenging the right of the five Congressmen from Mississippi to their seats on the grounds that 95% of the eligible Negroes in the state have been denied the right to vote "by intimidation, harrassment, economic reprisal, property damage, terrorization, violence and illegal and unconstitutional registration procedures."

The Challenge was filed on the opening day of Congress, Jan. 4. The law provides that when such a challenge is filed the "contestant" has forty days in which to gather and put into legal form, in depositions, the evidence that is to be presented on his behalf.

During the week that ended on Feb. 12, ninety-six lawyers from all over the country, had come to Mississippi at their own expense to serve as volunteer counsel in the monumental job of building the legal record to unseat the Congressmen.

Bob Shutan of Beverly Hills was one and I was another. Fifteen or twenty came from Los Angeles; about twice that number came from San Francisco and the rest came from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, New Jersey and Connecticut.

Since 1890, almost three-quarters of a century ago, when Mississippi adopted a new Constitution successfully designed to deprive its Negro citizens of their right to vote, until 1962, there were only two —"two"—Negroes permitted to register in Panola County, one in 1892 and one sixty years later in 1952! They have a device in that state requiring applicants for registration to "give a reasonable interpretation" of any section of the Mississippi Constitution.

If you are a Negro you are most likely to be asked to interpret Sec. 212, dealing with the interest rate on the "Chickasaw School Fund" and other trust funds for educational purposes for which the state is responsible, or Sec. 228 dealing with the division of the alluvial lands of the state into two levee districts, or Sec. 282 dealing with the recognizances and other obligations entered into the state or any subdivision thereof prior to the adoption of the 1890 Constitution.

If that is not enough to discourage you, you are likely to be evicted from the miserable shack that you have been occupying on the boss-man's plantation, or have your few dollars of credit at the store cut off, or lose your job at the cotton gin, or find that you can't get any work any place.

These are the hard facts of life in Mississippi in the year 1965.

Report From Mississippi

PART II
By GEORGE SLAFF

(This is the second in a series of three articles by Mr. Slaff, So. Calif. president of the American Civil Liberties Union on his experiences as a participant in the Mississippi Challenge project).

It took an unusual band of courage for a Mississippian to take part in the Challenge. If you should have the unbelievable courage that it takes to be a leader and to try not merely to register yourself but to encourage and organize your people to do the same thing, as Robert Miles and William Kuykendall and C. J. Williams and the Rev. Middleton, then you are liable to have your house bombed with tear gas and Molotov cocktails, have it shot at innumerable times, or have fiery crosses burned in front of it.

Or you might have your twelve-year old daughter beaten so badly by the town marshal that she is hospitalized, because, as the marshal tells her, "your daddy is a smart NAACP nigger who's got ideas about registering."

No, these are not tales out of the immediate post-Civil War reconstruction days when the Ku Klux Klan was in its' zenith. These are the actual hard facts of life—and death—in Mississippi in the year 1965.

It is something which literally defies comprehension here in the calm peaceful atmosphere of Beverly Hills, and its detachment from the uncivilized jungle that is Mississippi today.

Negroes in Mississippi are not second class citizens—they are not citizens at all. As far as the great majority of the whites of that state are concerned they are not even people—they are serfs, helots, chattels. The word "Negro" is not in their vocabulary — only the foul corruption which they use.

In Batesville where my colleagues and I went to record sworn testimony of the facts of the deprivation of voting rights of Negro citizens we spent three and a half days in "Freedom House."

There we took the testimony of Robert Miles and the other Negro leaders of the county, the share-croppers and the tenant farmers, and of the Registrar of Voters, the Sheriff, the District Attorney, the former Sheriff and the plantation owners.

Report From Mississippi

PART III

By GEORGE SLAFF

(This is the third in a series of three articles by Mr. Slaff, BH attorney and So. Calif. president of the American Civil Liberties Union on his experiences as a participant in the Mississippi Challenge project).

It was a great occasion for the Negroes of the region. Every day of the hearing they streamed in from all parts of the country to crowd over two hundred of themselves into a room that could comfortably hold no more than a hundred and fifty.

They were very proud of their leaders and their neighbors who were not afraid to swear under oath what conditions had been like here all their lives. For three and a half days they listened intently as we put into the record the bitter history of the Panola County story to 1964 of Negro voter registration—or rather of Negro voter non-registration.

Then came the unexpected climax, for which nothing in a life-time of law practice had prepared me. We finished examining the last witness and the justice of the peace who had sat as presiding officer for three and a half days rapped the small table in front of him and announced, "The hearing is over."

The words were no sooner uttered than the entire audience rose in their places, joined hands and started—and continued for fully ten minutes—to sing "We Shall Overcome."

This was deliverance day for the Negroes of Panola County —although deliverance is still a long, long way off and they know it. But today they felt proud and strong and free, as they had all week.

For the first time in their lives they had seen the white men who have held them in bondage called to question and forced to account for their actions. For the first time in their lives they had seen themselves taking the initiative in a form of legal action on their own behalf against the white power structure that has ruled their lives and their fathers' lives and has denied them the most elementary rights of American citizenship. For this moment, they were free of fear.

It will be done sooner if the complacent people of Beverly Hills and all the other cities in these United States who read such things as these and cluck sympathetically about the awful conditions in Mississippi would stop clucking and start doing something about it.

It would help considerably if they would just put aside the cost of a few rounds of drinks or a couple of theatre tickets or an evening on the town, or more is they choose, and would send a check for an equivalent amount to the MISSISSIPPI FREEDOM DEMOCRATIC PARTY, P.O. Box 1329, Jackson, Mississippi.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT FEDERAL BUILDING, LOS ANGELES CALIFORNIA, MARCH 9, 1965

Reference is made to prior memoranda captioned as above. The following information concerning the continuing activities of demonstrators in the vicinity of the Federal Building, Civic Center, Los Angeles, California, has been furnished by sources who have furnished reliable information in the past:

Sources one and two reported that at 8:35 p.m., March 11, 1965, there were approximately 50 persons marching on the city sidewalk on the North Spring Street side of the Federal Building. These persons were predominately young adults in their late teens and early twenties, and appeared to be under the leadership of Gene Walker, of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). A token number of demonstrators remained in the vicinity throughout the night.

Today, March 12, 1965, during the morning and early afternoon the pickets continued their picket line on the sidewalk in front of the Federal Building. At 2:00 p.m. March 12th there were only approximately twenty individuals on the picket line which increased by five by 2:30 p.m. Don Smith, of CORE, held an open "press conference" during the mid-afternoon, March 12, 1965, and announced that three ministers would test the validity of the court order issued March 11, 1965, which prohibited picketing, assembly, etc., "for any purpose whatsoever," on the Federal Reservation consisting of the Federal Building and the surrounding property within the city sidewalks bounding the building. According to Don Smith, these ministers (not named) would conduct a "prayer vigil" on the front steps of the Federal Building.

Assistant United States Attorney John K. Van de Kamp reported that following Smith's announcement, three ministers came to the office of the United States Attorney's Office to discuss the proposed "prayer vigil." Prior to leaving the ministers indicated they would obey the court order and not go through with the earlier announced proposal; however, when they left the building they "fell to their knees" and proceeded to go ahead with the prayer.

The above sources have indicated, twenty demonstrators moved to the steps of the Federal Building where subsequent to 5:00 PM they were holding a "prayer vigil," while some twenty-five additional demonstrators remained outside the boundaries of the Federal Reservation, and continued to walk on the city sidewalk in front of the Federal Building. Following 6:00 PM a public announcement from United States Attorney Manuel L. Real indicated no action would be taken against the individuals defying the court order as the United States District Judges who issued the order had left for the day and were unavailable for any further action at this time.

Information furnished March 12, 1965, by the office of the United States Attorney, Los Angeles, regarding 98 individuals arrested March 10, 1965, including names (and addresses where available) is as follows:

DEMONSTRATIONS AT FEDERAL BUILDING, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
MARCH 9, 1965

Leslie N. Shaw, first Negro postmaster of a major metropolitan city, whose offices are located on the first floor of the Federal Building, has publicly deplored the actions taken by the pickets in this continuing affair, which started March 9, 1965.

Reverend H. H. Brookins, local head of the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), and Reverend Julian Keiser, civil rights coordinator for the Council of Churches, told another news conference that they hope to enlist 10,000 persons in the march, demonstration, and subsequent memorial service to be staged in downtown Los Angeles from Pershing Square Park to the Federal Building and the Los Angeles City Hall, in the Los Angeles Civic Center, tomorrow (March 13, 1965). Reverend Keiser reportedly stated, "We have no control over some individuals who don't recognize our leadership. We are trying to avoid having the civil rights movement condemned for what a few individuals do."

A third source advised that Elizabeth Searle Mc Carthy, Communist Party member, was busy contacting all members of the Long Beach Communist Party Club, Long Beach, California, during the morning of March 12, 1965, seeking their participation in the Los Angeles march from Pershing Square to the Federal Building, Saturday, March 13, 1965.

The above sources, and source four, have indicated that action for Saturday, March 13, 1965, is tentatively planned as follows:

10:30 a.m.	Assemble in vicinity of Pershing Square Park, central downtown, Los Angeles.
11:00 a.m.	As the assembled throng is proceeding from the vicinity of South Hill Street between Fifth and Sixth Streets (location of Pershing Square Park) to the Federal Building, a delegation of civil rights leaders will meet with United States Attorney Real in his offices in the Federal Building, for an "open news conference."

Later: Marchers will "ring" the Federal Building once (i.e. each demonstrator will take one tour around the sidewalk bounding the four sides of the building, and will then move on to the steps of the Los Angeles City Hall, and the area immediately adjacent to the front of the City Hall (which is one block south of the Federal Building), where speeches will be given and a brief memorial service for Massachusetts minister James J. Reeb will be held. The local news media has reported that Reverend Reeb died Thursday night, March 11, 1965, as a result of a beating he received during the racial strife in Selma, Alabama.

Source four indicated that according to local CORE office, not only would the memorial service for Reverend Reeb be held at the City Hall steps on Saturday, but that on the following day, Sunday, March 14, 1965, an additional memorial service for him would be held at the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, 2936 West Eighth Street, Los Angeles, California (see appendix).

The Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office are cognizant of the proposed activities indicated above and will afford appropriate coverage. Lt. Colonel Michael Lewis and/or Operations Sergeant Harry I. Muus, 115th INTC, Region II, United States Army, Pasadena, California, have been kept fully advised of developments in this matter as the information became available.

APPENDIX

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 11, 1964, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities."

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not of itself connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

On March 23, 1965, a source advised that a meeting of the City Council of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago (DCC), which Council is made up of officers of the three existing DuBois Clubs in Chicago, was held March 22, 1965. At this City Council meeting it was decided that the DCC would sponsor a march for civil rights on March 25, 1965, in sympathy for the marchers in Selma, Alabama, and in support of the President's voter registration bill. The exact time of the demonstration was unknown.

The marchers would start at various points located on the north, west and south sides of Chicago and proceed to the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, where the three groups would meet and picket. During the march the demonstrators are to carry signs and distribute leaflets carrying the theme "Pass the Bill" referring to President Johnson's right-to-vote bill.

Ted Pearson, President of the DCC and a Communist Party (CP) youth leader in the Illinois District, stated at the meeting that he would contact officials of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and other civil rights organizations to solicit their assistance in the demonstration.

Some doubt was expressed as to whether or not CORE and SNCC would participate knowing the demonstration was initiated by the DCC in view of the communist stigma attached to the DCC. Pearson stated that regardless of whether any of the organizations to be contacted failed to agree to participate, the demonstration would still take place with members of the DCC participating.

This source advised on March 24, 1965, that on March 23, 1965, Kathy Pearson, wife of Ted Pearson and member of the Youth Club of the CP of Illinois, stated that her husband had contacted officials of CORE and SNCC in an effort to gain their support for the picket demonstration planned for March 25, 1965. Kathy Pearson stated that officials of CORE had declined to give their support and did not elaborate further. She did state, however, that SNCC thought well of the idea and agreed to handle the delegation of marchers which would originate on the south side of Chicago and march to the Federal Building in the Loop.

The following agencies were advised of the proposed demonstration at approximately 8:30 AM on March 24, 1965:

Chicago Police Department, Sergeant Burton Lovely.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS, DALLAS COUNTY, ALABAMA, VOTING DISCRIMINATION

The Lancaster, Pa., "New Era," a daily afternoon newspaper dated March 24, 1965, carried the story stating that a group of individuals left Lancaster, Pa., by auto that morning for Washington, D.C., where they would board a special train leaving Washington at 2 p.m., March 24, 1965, for Montgomery, Ala. The special train was scheduled to arrive in Montgomery at 7 a.m., March 25, 1965.

On the outskirts of Montgomery the group was to join the Selma to Montgomery march people for entrance into Montgomery. The Lancaster people will leave Montgomery at 5 p.m., March 25, 1965, by special train returning to Washington and arriving at noon, March 26, 1965. They will return to Lancaster, Pa., by auto from Washington, D.C.

Four of the group are from the Lancaster Theological Seminary of the United Church of Christ, and identified as Rev. PAUL E. IRION, Dean; WILLIAM C. FENSTERMACHER, LESTER HELMECZI and TERYL V. SCHWEITZER, latter three students.

Four other individuals are identified as being members of the Lancaster Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and are Mrs. SAMUEL B. TOMPKINS, Rev. WILLIAM E. NIETO, MARY WOLF, and LEONARD HORST.

The Rev. WILLIAM E. NIETO when interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI in 1950 admitted membership in the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico.

The Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico has been designated as coming under the purview of Executive Order 10450.

Miss MICKEY COOPER, news director, radio station WAEB, Allentown, Pa., on March 24, 1965, advised she had been in contact with ARTHUR RAVITZ, civil rights worker of Easton, Pa., who has been in Alabama since March 20, 1965. RAVITZ went to Alabama with LEE HARRIS, Executive Committee member, NAACP, on Delta Airlines on March 20, 1965. Three-quarters of the passengers on the flight were civil rights marchers who were proceeding to Montgomery, Ala. RAVITZ and HARRIS' flight went through Atlanta, Ga., where RAVITZ and HARRIS were met by JOHN LEWIS and BOB WERTZ (phonetic) of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

~~Confidential~~ Informant PH T-1 on September 11, 1964, advised the name ARTHUR RAVITZ, [redacted], appeared on an index card at the headquarters of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware, Philadelphia, Pa., which appeared to contain the names and addresses of subscribers to "The Worker." "The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

They proceeded to Montgomery by auto, arriving at 7:30 p.m., March 20, 1965. In discussion with SNCC leaders on March 20, 1965, SNCC predicted violence in the area — according to RAVITZ; however, they had no specific information and were basing their prediction on the general tenseness in the area.

RAVITZ and HARRIS intended to proceed to Selma, Ala., from Montgomery on March 20, 1965, but RAVITZ remained in Montgomery and stated he had been arrested the night of March 23, 1965, for picketing at the Alabama State Capitol Building in Montgomery and spent the night of March 23-24, 1965, in the Kilby State Prison, Montgomery. He had been arrested for failure to obey orders of an officer and obtained $100 bond and was freed on March 24, 1965.

A hunger strike was in progress by civil rights workers in Kilby State Prison who had been arrested the previous week in Montgomery and to continue their hunger strike they were refusing to make bond.

RAVITZ stated he intended picketing the State Capitol Building in Montgomery, Ala., with a group of SNCC people on the night of March 24, 1965, and would sleep in the vicinity of the Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING marching group, a short distance outside Montgomery, Ala., that night.

Miss COOPER also advised that DIANE LYSON of Nazareth, Pa., went to Montgomery, Ala., on March 23, 1965, by an unknown mode of transportation and was to contact RAVITZ in Montgomery.

Miss COOPER also said that LEE HARRIS has remained in Selma, Ala.

While spending the night of March 23-24, 1965, in the Kilby State Prison, RAVITZ came into contact with STANLEY GOLDBERG, [redacted] home address [redacted], currently a student at the University of Pittsburgh. He was one of 44 Northern students arrested last week who are refusing to make bond and conducting the hunger strike at Kilby State Prison. b6 b7C

INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMITTEE

On March 22, 1965, PH T-1 and on March 25, 1965, PH T-2, who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC) held an annual conference on March 20, 1965, at the Heritage House, 1346 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

A characterization of the ICC is attached.

According to these sources, there were 50 people in attendance at this conference. The main speaker was ANDREW FREEMAN, Executive Secretary of the Urban League of Philadelphia. According to FREEMAN, the Urban League has been attempting to obtain jobs for Negroes. He himself has traveled throughout the State of Pennsylvania seeking these jobs and it was noticeable that several banks have employed Negroes as bank tellers but this is only window dressing as there are no Negroes in executive positions. He referred to the Negroes in Selma, Ala., as an example for the northern Negroes to get out and fight for their rights and not be complacent.

After lunch, those in attendance attended panels on labor, social welfare, civil rights, education, and political action. At the panel on civil rights, Mrs. GERTRUDE BARNES, Vice-President, Philadelphia Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), stated that the Negro children in the Philadelphia School System do not receive the same treatment as the white children. If a teacher employed by the School System fights for equal rights for Negroes, he becomes unpopular and often a victim of influence from the Board of Education. She encouraged two years of kindergarten before children enter first grade.

It was also made known that a national mass march on Washington, D. C., would be held on April 17, 1965. This march would initiate in Detroit, Mich., and WALTER RUETHER, an official of the United Auto Workers Union, was one of the initiators of this march, the purpose of which is to protest the United States bombing of North Vietnam. It was also indicated that seven or eight bus loads of Philadelphians would participate in this march.

PH T-1 advised that GERTRUDE BARNES proposed that a protest march be made on City Hall, Philadelphia, sometime in the spring of 1965 to protest de facto segregation in the Philadelphia School System, and if this march was unsuccessful, she proposed a march be made to the State Capital at Harrisburg, Pa.

The following resolutions were passed at this conference; however, before being adopted by the ICC, they must be presented at a general membership meeting and be endorsed by the registered members:

1. The withdrawal of all troops from all foreign bases, including Vietnam.

2. Stop bombing of North Vietnam.

3. Enter peaceful negotiations.

4. Admit Red China to the United Nations.

5. Advocate world disarmament.

Officers for the coming year were then elected and are as follows:

Chairman	ELSIE DICKERSON
Vice-Chairmen	JEAN PERMA
	JOAN LAWES
	CARL DAHLGREEN
	LOU BATTLE

INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMITTEE

Corresponding Secretary	MARION METELITS
Recording Secretary	ANN QUINN
Treasurer	CATHERINE MC CABE

On March 25, 1965, PH T-2 advised that ELSIE DICKERSON and MARION METELITS are members of the District Board, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), and ANN QUINN is a current member of the Professional Club, CPEPD.

It was also announced at this conference that the Urban League of Philadelphia planned a delegation to Harrisburg on Monday, March 29, 1965, for the purpose of seeking higher rates for welfare recipients.

On March 25, 1965, PH T-2 advised that the ICC definitely would not send a representative along with this delegation.

NATIONAL NEGRO COMMISSION MEETINGS
MARCH 20-21, 1965, NEW YORK, NEW YORK

A ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 22, 1965, that on March 20 and 21, 1965, meetings of the Communist Party (CP), USA, National Negro Commission were held at the Woodstock Hotel, West 43rd Street, between Broadway and 6th Avenue, New York, New York. Of the 30 to 35 persons in attendance at the March 20, 1965, meeting, the following CP members were observed to be present:

HENRY WINSTON
CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT
ROSCOE PROCTOR
TOM DENNIS
TED BASSETT
MILDRED MC ADORY

The meeting of March 20, 1965, got under way at about 10:15 a.m. with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT requesting nominations for chairman. TOM DENNIS from Detroit was subsequently selected as chairman for the session.

DENNIS then informed those present that the agenda for the meetings would consist of a report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, CP National Negro Commission Chairman, which would be an analysis of the political situation in view of the Negro struggle. DENNIS then said that GEORGE MORRIS would talk about labor and the Negro alliance and lastly, EARL DURHAM would talk on civil rights.

On March 29, 1965, the source advised that the CP National Center had paid all the expenses of those attending the meeting since they wanted representatives from all parts of the country. The source said that National Negro Commission meetings which would be local in character will be held later on in the year with the Mid-West and West Sections meeting as a group and the East Section meeting as another group.

During the morning LIGHTFOOT and GEORGE MORRIS made their respective reports and in the afternoon DURHAM talked about civil rights. All of the reports concerned facts which had already been made known to the world through news media and emphasized the fact that the American Negro was on the move in quest of full equality as an American citizen.

On March 29, 1965, the source said that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT during the morning of March 20, 1965, made a report which was later set forth in full in the March 28, 1965, issue of "The Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

LIGHTFOOT in making the report stated that if President LYNDON JOHNSON's voter registration bill was passed without compromising amendments, a strengthening Democratic political structure would emerge in the U. S.

LIGHTFOOT said that the registration of additional millions of Negro voters would change the political complexion of Congress and the country and that a new political force would emerge in the Southern U. S.

LIGHTFOOT emphasized that the demonstrations in Selma, Alabama, signalized a new stage in the struggle for full freedom and indicated a break with gradualism and tokenism.

LIGHTFOOT pointed out that religious groups were now active in the Civil Rights Movement along with Trade Unions and these facts showed that a new and better relationship between the Negro people's movements was developing.

LIGHTFOOT acknowledged that Negro people who lived in ghettos were not yet fully involved in the Civil Rights Movement.

LIGHTFOOT warned that an expanded war in Vietnam and Southeast Asia would make the Negro people and the fight for their freedom a prime casualty. He therefore urged that efforts be made to end the U. S. war against the Vietnamese people.

The source stated on March 29, 1965, that GEORGE MORRIS in his report of March 20, 1965, reviewed the past history of the labor movement stressing that the Party had assisted in the formation of the Congress of Industrial Organizations. MORRIS called upon the Negroes in the working class movement to form a closer association with all Trade Unions and to be more active in bringing forth their grievances. MORRIS stressed that Negro workers in the future should strive for active leadership in their unions. MORRIS stressed the necessity of Negro and white workers in full alliance.

The source also on March 29, 1965, said that EARL DURHAM on March 20, 1965, talked at length about the Civil Rights Movement in the U. S. pointing out that many and varied organizations had played an important role in the movement. He said that it was essential that these various organizations act in a unified manner in order to insure final success.

The source on March 29, 1965, said that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT during the course of the day made the statement that each person present should go back to his District and work on a program which would assist the Civil Rights Movement. There were no specific directives or programs of action set forth during the day's events.

The source on March 22, 1965, said that during the second day, March 21, 1965, CHARLENE MITCHELL acted as chairman.

Just prior to the morning session HENRY WINSTON pointed out that President LYNDON JOHNSON was sending Federal troops to Selma, Alabama, to assist the civil rights marchers who were walking to Montgomery, Alabama.

During the rest of the day there was a full discussion on the reports made the previous day and again the facts brought out were the same as those presented in various news media.

The source on March 29, 1965, advised that GUS HALL, CP General Secretary, during the course of the day made a 15-20 minute talk in which he stressed that a revolutionary movement, which was involving both the Negroes and the working class, was rapidly developing in the U. S. He urged those present to continue to have faith in the rank and file working men, both white and Negro, and asked that "The Worker" be supported since it was an organ of these revolutionary movements.

The source on March 22, 1964, said that following the discussion HENRY WINSTON told those present that before the U. S. Government had brought the most recent conspiracy charges against the CP, a CP National Convention had been planned but this had to be abandoned in view of the trial.

WINSTON then stated that "we" feel that the Party has a good opportunity to defeat the McCarran Act and that after the CP triumphs in the trial to be held next Fall, a CP National Convention will be held. WINSTON said that after the Party had won out, it would be legal and would no longer be subjected to harrassment by the Federal Government. WINSTON stated that after the McCarran Act had been defeated, the Party could hold its National Convention, project a program of action and find its way into the main stream of the Negro people's movement.

WINSTON stressed that at the present time the CP would have to be extremely cautious about involvement in the Negro movement and he was going to set up a subcommittee of JAMES JACKSON, TOM DENNIS, EARL DURHAM, and ALVA BUXEMBAUM to study the Negro struggle and prepare a resolution on various aspects of the Negro struggle.

The source on March 29, 1965, advised that WINSTON had been concerned about the CP becoming involved in the Negro movement too openly. The source said that WINSTON was afraid that if this happened, it would appear that the movement was CP dominated. The source also advised on March 29, 1965, that JACK STACHEL was to be a member of the above-mentioned subcommittee.

The source on March 29, 1965, said that the subcommittee set up by WINSTON was to draw up a resolution which would deal with all of the aspects of the Negro revolution so that after the CP won out in its coming trial in October and had become a legal Party, it would be in a position to set up an immediate program of action in connection with the Negro revolution.

The source stated that no Party policy of a specific nature was formulated during the meeting and that MILDRED MC ADORY on one occasion during the meeting had remarked that factional groups among the New York CP leaders made it almost impossible to get any program of action established.

The source also stated on March 29, 1965, that no Party tactics with respect to the Civil Rights Movement were discussed or set forth as a program nor were there any plans made relative to demonstrations, like writing campaigns, or distribution of leaflets.

The source said that there were just general comments during the meeting in connection with the demonstration then going on in Selma, Alabama, and that there was no indication that Party members were participating or plan to participate in the demonstration.

The source on March 29, 1965, said that the only instance of anyone in the Party being actively involved or giving guidance to anyone concerning Civil Rights demonstrations were comments made by EARL DURHAM which indicated that he had first-hand knowledge of things going on in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Urban League, and Muslim organization in Chicago, Illinois.

The meetings were closed with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT talking about his recent trip to a number of African nations.

A ~~confidential~~ source advised on March 19, 1965, that the West Side Unified Action Committee (WSUAC) would sponsor a demonstration on Saturday, March 20, 1965, in general sympathy with the civil rights struggle of the Negroes in Selma, Alabama. This source stated that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America would participate in this demonstration.

Special Agent personnel, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on March 20, 1965, observed a demonstration wherein 16 individuals representing WSUAC, West Side W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) and Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) assembled at 3:00 p.m. at 80th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City and marched to 103rd Street and Manhattan Avenue, New York City. At this point, the group increased to about 30 individuals and conducted a street rally. The group carried placards bearing slogans such as the following:

"Stop Police Terror in Alabama";
"Federal Intervention in Alabama";
"Protest Wallace Tyranny" and
"Protect Civil Rights."

THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS

A ~~Confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 15, 1964, that TONY CASCONE announced at a meeting of the State Board of the COMMUNIST PARTY of New Jersey (NJCP) on December 5, 1964, that a new forum had been organized to take up the cause of migrant workers and their families. CASCONE stated that one meeting had been held, and the next meeting would be held at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. CASCONE stated that he and NICK KOURAMBIS had co-sponsored the new forum. CASCONE noted that KOURAMBIS is the Chairman of the Labor and Industry Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP).

The same source had previously advised on March 24, 1964, that CASCONE was then a member of the State Board of the NJCP. The same source had further advised on August 4, 1964, that NICK KOURAMBIS had attended a meeting of the NJCP State Board on August 2, 1964.

The "Newark Evening News", published daily at Newark, New Jersey, in the issue dated December 31, 1964, printed a letter to the editor from NICK KOURAMBIS, Labor and Industry Chairman, New Jersey State Conference of Branches of the NAACP, in which KOURAMBIS stated that on January 8, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, a statewide campaign would be initiated to raise the social, political, and economic level of migrant workers in New Jersey.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 11, 1965, that a meeting was held at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, on January 8, 1965, to initiate a statewide campaign to raise the levels of the migrant workers in New Jersey, and also that this meeting formed an organization called the NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS (NJCMW). The meeting was under the leadership of NICK KOURAMBIS. TONY CASCONE was also present at this meeting.

The second source further advised on February 9, 1965, that the NJCMW held another meeting on February 6, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. NICK KOURAMBIS was elected permanent chairman. It was announced at this meeting that the mailing address of the NJCMW would be 129 Clinton Avenue,

In connection with plans of King to be in New York City 3/30-31/65 and activities of SCLC Board in Baltimore (banquet 8 p.m., 3/31/65 and meeting 4/1-3/65), following instructions should be carried out. This confirms telephonic advice given New York Office 3/30/65.

New York should attempt to cover King's activities while in New York City. Include coverage of his advisors with subversive backgrounds such as Stanley David Levison and Hunter Pitts O'Dell, particularly Levison, to determine if in contact with King.

Bureau desires Baltimore to effect such coverage as is possible of the SCLC activities in Baltimore which will identify any subversive participants, particularly such as Levison and O'Dell. In this connection it will be necessary for New York to afford appropriate coverage to principals and coordinate investigation with Baltimore, including furnishing Baltimore necessary descriptions and photographs.

Security is paramount. All investigation must necessarily be most discreet and no actions taken which could cause embarrassment to Bureau or alert individuals involved as to Bureau interest.

Atlanta should be alert through established sources to information which would be helpful to New York and Baltimore and transmit same promptly upon receipt.

All recipient offices must keep Bureau promptly advised of all pertinent developments and expedite submission of letterhead memoranda containing information suitable for dissemination.

Baltimore should be alert to possibility of developing information through news media sources as the SCLC activities will likely be publicized to some extent.

Recipient offices should note that suggested names of Levison and O'Dell are not to be considered as only individuals who would be of interest. Appropriate attention should be given to all possible SCLC people and King advisors with subversive backgrounds, including such others as Ralph Helstein and Lawrence Reddick, concerning whom New York Office is aware.

NOTE:
Telephonic advice to New York Office was given by Supervisor C. D. Brennan of the Bureau to SAC, Roney, of the New York Office 10:40 a.m., 3/30/65.

DEMONSTRATION BY CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)
AT SOUTH PARK, LOS ANGELES,
CALIFORNIA, MARCH 25, 1965,
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to the previous memorandum dated and captioned as above, concerning the proposed demonstration rally at South Park, 51st Street and Avalon Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, March 25, 1965, under the sponsorship of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). The following information was furnished by sources who have furnished reliable information in the past:

Source one advised that William Cottle Taylor, Vice Chairman, Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), was contacting leaders of all Communist Party (CP) clubs in the Moranda Smith Section of the SCDCP to urge their respective CP clubs participate in this affair.

Source two reported that Louis Lomax, author of, "The Negro Revolt," and "The Reluctant African," was scheduled to speak at this rally.

Source three advised that in addition to Lomax, the following persons were scheduled to speak at the rally:

Don Smith, Chairman
Los Angeles area CORE

Louis Smith,
Northeast Regional Director of CORE

Persons who were arrested in the Los Angeles Federal Building demonstrations, as well as demonstration monitors and picket captains, were to be given an opportunity to express their feelings and tell of their personal experiences.

ENCLOSURE 100-442529

ENCLOSURE

DEMONSTRATION BY CORE
AT SOUTH PARK, LOS ANGELES,
CALIFORNIA, MARCH 25, 1965,
RACIAL MATTERS

Source four advised that Marvin Trieger was to be one of the speakers at this CORE demonstration.

Source five advised in June, 1964, that Marvin Trieger was at that time chairman, Youth Commission, SCDCP.

Source six and three advised that the scheduled rally at South Park began at approximately 7:10 p.m., March 25, 1965. There were approximately 130 persons present, about equally divided between Negroes and Caucasians. A male Negro from Tulsa, Oklahoma, who announced he was the chairman of CORE in Tulsa, acted as master of ceremonies. Marvin Trieger was the first speaker. He made a plea for unity "among our forces." Louis Lomax, who was scheduled to speak, showed up but refused to speak, as he felt the rally was being held by the wrong group. He did not elaborate. Reverend Thomas Kilgore of the Western Christian Leadership Conference, filled in for him for a few minutes. The fact that Lomax had refused to speak was announced just before the pitch was made for the collection. As a result, a great number of people left, and the collection taken amounted to only $49.12, according to source three. Dr. Christopher Taylor, president of the local unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Louis Smith, of CORE, both spoke briefly. Mr. Smith indicated he was from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He claimed his son had been the victim of police brutality in Philadelphia, " and has never been the same since." He said that the arrests of demonstrators at the Federal Building in Los Angeles during the past two weeks, for interferring with the operations of the mails and the courts, "should wake us up." He urged more people to become involved in "lay-ins" and "sit-ins," according to source three.

CORE officials were very disturbed at the apathy in the community, that was apparent when such a small number of persons turned out for this affair. They had been predicting, prior to the demonstration, that they would have two to three thousand persons present. The small turnout and the resulting small collection greatly disappointed the CORE officials.

DEMONSTRATION BY CORE

Pertinent information above was furnished Operations Sergeant Harry I. Muus, 115th IITC, Region II, Pasadena, California, throughout the day, March 25, 1965, as it became available. An information copy of this memorandum is being furnished that agency and also to the Los Angeles Office of the United States Secret Service, Los Angeles, California.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

This morning (3/25/65) Mr. Frank Worthington, an attorney in the Internal Security Division of the Department, telephonically contacted Supervisor S. F. Phillips, Internal Security Section, Domestic Intelligence Division, and advised that the Attorney General is planning to appear on the television program "Meet the Press." Worthington was not sure, but thought that it might be this coming Sunday, 3/28/65. Worthington stated that he and Assistant Attorney General J. Walter Yeagley were intending to help brief the Attorney General by anticipating some of the questions that might be asked. They thought that there is likelihood that the Attorney General might be asked what the communist influence in the racial movement is or what the communist influence might be on some of the civil rights leaders. Worthington made no requests of a specific nature other than to state that they were seeking some general over-all answer that the Attorney General might use if he were asked questions such as the above.

Mr. Worthington was tactfully referred to the fact that a large volume of information has been, for some time, regularly furnished to the Department in the general subject matter he was making reference to and that the reports, letterhead memoranda and other communications were in the captions of "Communist Influence in Racial Matters," "Martin Luther King, Jr.," and other similarly related titles. It was also tactfully brought to Mr. Worthington's attention that practically all the material we have been furnishing the Department is classified, ranging up through ~~"Top Secret."~~

Mr. Worthington expressed his thanks for being referred to the material by titles as indicated above and stated that he felt that he and Mr. Yeagley would probably be able to satisfy the Attorney General with sufficient information.

Dear Sirs:

Civ m

The community in which I reside is an arch-conservative one and I have many times heard the charge that Dr. Martin Luther King is either a Communist or a Communist dupe. I have also heard many times that the civil rights movement is largely infiltrated with Communists. It does no good to try to refute these claims, and I therefore am hoping that you will be kind enough to give me any information that you are able to give regarding these charges.

Thank you.

FROM : SAC, NEW YORK (100-153735)

SUBJECT: CIRM

ReBulet to NY, 2/26/65.

NYO, through its established and reliable sources, has not developed any additional information regarding a group in New Rochelle, New York, which had raised $5,000.00 and desired to use it for a fund-raising project to earn more money.

A review of the bank account of MARTIN LUTHER KING and CORETTA S. KING for 1/65 did not reveal any large deposits for this period.

NYO will continue to remain alert through its established sources and the news media for any information concerning the group in New Rochelle, possibly including MICHAEL NISSELSON, which is raising funds for KING and the SCLC.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (100-442529) DATE: March 30, 1965

FROM : SAC, LOUISVILLE (100-4722) (P)

SUBJECT: CIRM

Reference Atlanta airtel, dated February 10, 1965, with respect to a Mrs. BRADEN, Atlanta, Georgia, having been in contact with EDWINA SMITH of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Atlanta, Georgia, on February 9, 1965.

From information available at Louisville, no definite statement can be made as to whether the above Mrs. BRADEN may or may not be identical with ANNE BRADEN, SI subject of the Louisville Office, as it is known ANNE BRADEN was still maintaining her residence at Louisville, Kentucky, as of March 26, 1965, but she does do considerable traveling in connection with her position of Field Secretary for the Southern Christian Educational Fund, Inc. As Atlanta files will indicate, ANNE BRADEN has in the past been in contact with the SCLC.

In an effort to resolve this matter, a check was made on March 29, 1965, with [redacted] (Protect Per Request), [redacted], Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Louisville, Kentucky, by SA [redacted] as to the toll charges made to Louisville, Kentucky phone number 774-3331 for February 8 - 10, 1965. This phone is listed to the Southern Christian Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF) as well as CARL and ANNE BRADEN, 4403 Virginia Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky.

[redacted] advised that on February 8, 1965, toll charges were made on the above phone for calls to Nashville and Knoxville, Tennessee and Raleigh, North Carolina. The records do not reflect the person making the calls nor the identity of the persons called. The numbers called in Nashville were 256-3183 and 256-6058; in Knoxville 577-8746 and in Raleigh 832-0363.

The only toll charge made to the above phone on February 9, 1965, was a call from "BRADEN" (not further identified), in Nashville, Tennessee to Louisville, Kentucky phone 582-5539 (the night numberfor the main Louisville Post Office, Louisville). It is felt this call was probably made by CARL BRADEN inasmuch as other information in the Louisville files reflect that on the evening of February 9, 1965, CARL BRADEN spoke at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

b7D

The only toll charge made to the above phone, on February 10, 1965,was an outgoing call at 10:42 a.m., to Bluefield, Virginia phone 325-7102. The records show person making the call was "Mrs. BRADEN". This would indicate that ANNE BRADEN was in Louisville, Kentucky, on February 10, 1965. However, [redacted], advised there is considerable toll charge activity with respect to Louisville phone 774-3331, and the records indicate persons other than the BRADENS charge toll calls to this phone.

If information available to Atlanta resolves the question of the identity of the Mrs. BRADEN who was in contact with EDWINA SMITH,on February 9, 1965, Louisville should be so advised.

Re Tairtel 3/29/65, copies to New York, and enclosed letterhead memorandum of same date, both dual captioned "Cointil SCLC, IS-C" and "CIRM."

Referenced communications reported a recent discussion between Martin Luther King, Jr., and two of his close advisers, Harry Wachtel and Bayard Rustin. They discussed the "pros and cons" of a proposed labor union meeting which Rustin is arranging. They discussed a general need for the timing of this meeting to be right, the need for money, and finally decided to go ahead with the affair as planned. It was indicated that approximately 30 top labor officials would meet with King and his organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. No further details concerning the proposed meeting or its purpose were known.

Receiving offices should be extremely alert through [redacted] coverage of captioned and related matters to additional information relative to the planned meeting and particularly as to any subversive influence. COMMUNIST ~~INFILTRATION OF~~ RACIAL MATTERS

On March 14, 1965, the following was observed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in San Antonio, Texas:

At approximately 1:35 p.m. the San Antonio Branch of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) led a group composed of Negroes and whites in a parade from the City Hall in San Antonio to the Alamo. The group carried a floral piece which had a banner across the front which read, "Heroes of Freedom." They also carried placards which read as follows: "One Nation - One People;" "Stop the War in Alabama;" "Negroes are Americans - Let Them Vote."

The San Antonio Branch of CORE was led by DON WATKINS who is the temporary chairman of CORE in San Antonio, and he was accompanied in the front line by G. J. SUTTON; Father SHERRILL SMITH, and Father LAWRENCE MURTAUGH, Catholic Priests stationed in San Antonio who participated in the recent Selma, Alabama, attempted protest marches on March 8 and 9, 1965; KATRINA WOOD; Father JOHN WAGNER, Executive Secretary of San Antonio's Bishop's Committee for the Spanish Speaking; MAURY MAVERICK, JR., local attorney affiliated with the American Civil Liberties Union. Also in the parade was JOHN W. STANFORD, ~~Executive Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas.~~

Organizer for the Negroes in San Antonio, and SUTTON reported having recruited three new members. At this meeting SUTTON was also elected a member of the City (San Antonio) Committee of the Communist Party. (U)

SA T-3 [2/43] (U)

Source advised that in February, 1943, SUTTON was a member of the City (San Antonio) Committee of the Communist Party and had done considerable work among the Negro people of San Antonio in recruiting new members for the Party. (U)

SA T-4 [2/46] (U)

Source advised that SUTTON attended a meeting of the Communist Party in San Antonio held at the Sutton Funeral Home on February 12, 1964. (U)

SA T-5 [4/14/59] (U)

Source advised that in the recent past, exact date not recalled, JOHN STANFORD was questioned about G. J. SUTTON and why SUTTON was not made to attend Communist Party meetings. STANFORD replied, in effect, that SUTTON was not actually a formal Communist Party member, that he was not registered in the Party; however, that his feelings were still with the Party. STANFORD said that SUTTON could do more good for the Communist Party in such a capacity. (U)

SA T-1 [10/27/64] X (U)

Source advised on that date that SUTTON is not a Communist Party member, to Source's knowledge. X (U)

SA T-1 [1/4/65] X (U)

Source advised that JOHN STANFORD continues as the main Communist Party leader in San Antonio. He has been a Communist Party member and leader in San Antonio from at least July, 1957, to the present time. He continues his efforts to strengthen the Communist Party in this area. STANFORD has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the Communist Party of Texas from at least July, 1957. He has been Executive Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas from at least February, 1958. In January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished; however, it was agreed the committee and its officers would continue to function and STANFORD has continued to do so to the present time. X (U)

SA T-6 [1/7/60] X (U)

Source advised that on that date JAMES E. JACKSON, Secretary of Negro and Southern Affairs, Communist Party - USA, identified JOHN STANFORD as a member of the National Committee, CP - USA, and District Organizer in Texas. X (U)

U.S.A.

Upon the group's arrival at the Alamo they were greeted by approximately 75 members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) headed by its President, RICHARD L. DOCKERY. During the course of the demonstration, DOCKERY acted as master of ceremonies. Speakers were Father SMITH and Father MURTAUGH who praised the work of the civil rights leaders in Selma, Alabama, and both Priests demanded Federal intervention in Selma and legislation to protect the Negroes' civil rights in connection with their voting privileges.

The closing memorial tribute was given by the Reverend WILLIAM DE WOLFE, Pastor of the First Unitarian Church of San Antonio. DE WOLFE referred to the Reverend JAMES J. REEB as "a martyr who died so that others may have the essential dignity of human beings."

On March 14, 1965, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation took photographs of various persons at the above-mentioned demonstration.

On March 22, 1965, several of these photographs were shown to SA T-1 who identified the following individuals as appearing therein:

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN W. STANFORD
G. J. SUTTON
WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTLE.

SA T-1 tentatively identified one of the individuals appearing in one of the photographs as JAMES SAGER.

SA T-2 (8/15/42)

On July 27, 1942, at a Communist Party City Committee meeting held in San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, nee SUTTON, commented that she and her husband had been members of the Communist Party for years. She said she attended a Communist Party State conference in Houston in July, 1942, and wanted to report on same. She said she was a member of the Communist Party State Board. She said she attended these State Communist Party conferences each month and paid her own expenses.

SA T-7 (12/44)

Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, also known as LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, has not made her appearance at any of the Communist Party meetings held since early August, 1944, through the meetings held the middle of December, 1944, in San Antonio.

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, also known as Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, sister of G. J. SUTTON, is not a Communist Party member to Source's knowledge.

SA T-1 (3/22/65)

Source identified WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTLE as communist sympathizers.

SA T-1 (4/25/63)

Source advised that JAMES SAGER, husband of MANUELA SAGER, was known to informant to be a member of the Communist Party in San Antonio from 1954 to the present time, during which at various times he has held local leadership positions in the party.

On March 16, 1965, SA T-1 advised that on March 13, 1965, it was learned that on that date JOHN STANFORD telephoned the residence of a Communist Party member in San Antonio and said that he wanted to see that person at the demonstration to be held on Sunday in downtown San Antonio. This was the demonstration by the San Antonio Branch of CORE and others in memory of the death of a white minister in Selma, Alabama, recently.

According to SA T-1, Father SHERRILL SMITH, Father MURTAUGH, and G. J. SUTTON were among those observed at the demonstration on March 14, 1965. They appeared to be among those leading the demonstration. There appeared to be more than 200 people there.

On March 17, 1965, SA T-8 advised that on March 16, 1965, JOHN STANFORD said he had tried to contact a Communist Party member on the evening of March 13, 1965, to remind that person about the demonstration that was taking place on March 14, 1965, for the Unitarian minister who was killed in Selma, Alabama. This demonstration was to take place at the Alamo in downtown San Antonio. STANFORD apologized for waiting so late to call that Communist Party member to remind him of this, stating that he should have called earlier.

STANFORD was very enthusiastic regarding the demonstration which was held at the Alamo on March 14, 1965, and stated that everyone who saw him and talked to him were very nice to him. STANFORD stated that with all the publicity he received as (U) having been at the demonstration, he received only one bad report and that was from the woman who telephoned him and told him that he was doing more harm to the civil rights movement by being at a demonstration than he was doing good.

In speaking about the demonstration, STANFORD was extremely happy that so many students from St. Mary's University took part in the demonstration. He was also glad to see so many Catholic nuns now involved in the struggle for civil rights.

STANFORD mentioned that more and more people are getting involved in the civil rights movement. He stated that even his 87-year old mother-in-law who is living in Alabama took part in a demonstration recently.

On March 26, 1965, SA T-1 advised that although JOHN STANFORD urged attendance at the CORE demonstration on March 14, 1965, in San Antonio, it is not believed the Communist Party had any influence in, or control of, the demonstration.

On March 18, 1965, confidential source one advised a Special Agent of the Chicago Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that her records failed to reflect that Jessie Jackson was a member of the faculty or student body of the University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois. This source further advised she had determined through inquiry at the Chicago School of Divinity, Swift Hall, 1023-35 East 58th Street, Chicago, Illinois, a part of the University of Chicago, that Jessie Jackson was not a member of the faculty or student body at that school.

On March 8, 1965, confidential source two advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he had no information to the effect that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) is attempting to establish a branch office in the Chicago area to be known as the Northern Christian Leadership Conference (NCLC). This source advised that the SCLC presently maintains a branch office in Chicago, Illinois. He stated that Reverend John R. Porter, 6409 South Sangamon, Chicago, Illinois, who is Pastor of Christ Methodist Church located at the same address, is the leader of this organization in the Chicago area and uses the church address as an office in connection with SCLC correspondence. This source further advised that Jessie Jackson, Chicago School of Divinity, Chicago, Illinois, was unknown to him.

POSSIBLE PROTEST DEMONSTRATION MARCH 25, 1965 BY GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL AND CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, FEDERAL BUILDING, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Reference is made to communication dated March 25, 1965.

On March 25, 1965, approximately 160 students, boys and girls, Negro and white, from Girls High School and Central High School, Philadelphia, demonstrated at the 9th and Chestnut Streets entrance of the Federal Building in Philadelphia from 3:30 until 4:35 p.m. The group carried signs protesting the denial of voter registration to Negroes in Alabama. The demonstration was orderly with no incidents.

Inspector [redacted] (NA), Philadelphia Police Department, Commissioner's Office, advised that the student leader of the group was WILLIAM SIMON, [redacted], student at Central High.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed BILL TYSON marching in the demonstration.

On March 25, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised BILL TYSON is a member of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), Philadelphia Branch, and has been in charge of high school recruiting in the past.

A characterization of the DCA is attached.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Reairtel 3/26/65 and enclosed letterhead memorandum of same date reporting on a demonstration held in San Antonio 3/14/65 which was in sympathy with the voter registration activities being carried on in Selma, Alabama.

The following are Bureau observations relative to the letterhead memorandum for corrective action where indicated and for the future guidance of personnel preparing communications of this type:

1. Letterhead memorandum captioned "Communist Infiltration of Racial Matters." Correct caption should read "Communist Influence in Racial Matters." Correct your copies.

2. Page one of the letterhead memorandum commences with a statement to the effect that certain activities were observed by a Bureau Agent. The third paragraph relates the identities of individuals in a parade. The last listed is reported "Also in the parade was John W. Stanford, Executive Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas." The manner in which this is reported implies that a Bureau Agent is testifying to Stanford's Party position. This is not likely what was intended and certainly unnecessary in light of information on page three which identifies Stanford's Party position as furnished by an informant. In view of the foregoing the following should be deleted from the last two lines of paragraph three, page one "Executive Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas."

3. On page two information is reported from T-4, obtained 2/46 concerning Party meeting 2/12/64. An error in dates is obvious. Advise as to corrections necessary.

4. More than one page is devoted to a characterization of G. J. Sutton. Characterizations of individuals engaged in racial matter activities should be as succinct as possible and should be aimed at revealing the most subversive type of information. The same observations are being made relative to the characterization of Stanford, it being noted that almost an entire page was devoted to characterizing this individual.

5. Pages four and five contain a characterization of a sister of G. J. Sutton, a Mrs. Lillian Taylor, nee Sutton. There is no apparent reason why a characterization of this woman is necessary. It is possible, however, that she may have participated in the demonstration and her name omitted as a participant. In the event she was a participant, advise as to corrective action indicated.

6. Two of the participants in the demonstration are identified as a William and Elizabeth Lytle. The characterization of these individuals is limited to a statement from T-1 ( ) that these two people are "communist sympathizers." Such a characterization, standing alone, is near meaningless and not desirable. When an individual is described only as a "communist sympathizer" by a person interviewed, there must follow some reasons for the description given by the person interviewed. This applies not only to citizens interviewed but to informants as well. As a matter of fact, it would appear that an informant should certainly be in a position to give his reasons for describing an individual as a communist sympathizer. b7D

Furnish advice as requested by return airtel as dissemination of letterhead memorandum being held in abeyance. Include amended pages where appropriate. Also advise the New York Office which received a copy of referenced communication. Do not take any corrective action as to copies already disseminated.

The foregoing should be brought to the personal attention of the personnel responsible for the preparation and approval of referenced communications. They should be scored with form errors.

MARCH, 1965

ReBuairtel to Atlanta, 3/24/65.

The March 19, 1965, issue of the "Pittsburgh Press," a daily newspaper at Pittsburgh, Pa., contained an article entitled, "15 Clerics Here Off to Selma," which set forth the names of 15 clergymen who left Pittsburgh that day for Selma, Ala., where they would participate in the 5-day civil rights march on Montgomery, Ala.

On 3/29/65, [redacted], University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa., an established source, who has furnished reliable information in the past (protect identity), furnished the names of 128 students from colleges in the Pittsburgh area who traveled to Montgomery during 3/65, to participate in the demonstrations protesting voter discrimination.

ENCLOSURE

The discussion agenda was a main report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT followed by two sub-reports, one by GEORGE MORRIS on the Negro-labor alliance, and one by EARL DURHAM on trends in civil rights movement, all three reports to be given one after the other and then discussion from the floor.

LIGHTFOOT's opening report, in essence, is as follows:

The tremendous significance in developments in Selma, Alabama, puts the country at the brink of a new reconstruction era. If it will be successful, it could mark the end of Dixiecrat control of the South. It would mean more than any previous political struggle in terms of political progress. The registration features of the bill proposed by President JOHNSON will make possible changes in the entire world situation. In 1960, JOHN F. KENNEDY recognized that the Negro vote in the South could hold the balance of power for the entire South. The change in political structure of the South could break the back of the reactionary bloc in Congress. It will be possible to restore what was lost in the reconstruction period. The question is what was behind JOHNSON's speech? There was a recognition on the part of certain sections of the ruling class that there could be no stopping of the movement for equality and, therefore, it was necessary to try and control the development in favor of maintaining capitalism. This action by JOHNSON proves the correctness of the Party's line in the 1964 elections. In spite of all of the problems presented by the JOHNSON Administration's attack on North Viet Nam and his slowness in Alabama, it is inconceivable that with a GOLDWATER in the White House, any fight back would have been successful. It is of utmost importance that the coalition that brought about the defeat of GOLDWATER and is now acting in Alabama, this coalition must be further strengthened. JOHNSON, LIGHTFOOT continued, is a very skilled politician and they would have to give the devil his due. In spite of tremendous pressure and opposition, he has been able to keep the coalition together. However, the Party must not give up its political criticism of the Administration, even through the proposals of some amendments to the bill. There must be no more casualties in this civil rights struggle. There must be promotion of the civil rights fighters. The literacy tests must be thrown out completely. For labor, there must now begin their organizational drive in the South. The line of struggle in the South is quite clear and the North must find ways to supplement this struggle. The right to vote is the link that can move the coalition forward. It was not until 1963, that the northern industrial cities actually got into the civil rights fight. The main struggle in the North has been centered around school boards and education. Now the struggle in the North must be how to use the vote effectively in determining political future. The main question is what happens in the Negro communities? This means the Party must develop a program to meet the economic needs of the Negro community. A big void exists in the movement. The Party can no longer work like it did in the old days. We must work with existing organizations and develop initiatives that can spur the entire movement. Particularly is there a void in the Negro community. The civil rights organizations just do not penetrate into the ghetto. LIGHTFOOT continued that as far as life in the ghetto is concerned, the problems stem from the economic relationships in the ghettos. Particularly is this true when you think of the problems of Negro youth. It is impossible to continue much longer where Negro youth are systematically excluded from the job market. There must be a program developed to combat this. LIGHTFOOT further indicated that the socialist perspectives of the Party must be enlarged and presented to the Negro community. We must develop a program which helps build a socialist cadre. The role of the left in the struggle is of key importance. We must meet the ideological challenge that tries to exclude us from participation. Negro communists must fight for citizenship in the civil rights movement. Every district where there are Negro cadre, they must relate to the civil rights movement. LIGHTFOOT proposed that we try to initiate conferences in the Negro community dealing with the problems in that community. LIGHTFOOT further proposed that we must strengthen our Party's role in the South and that there be established in each district three-man committees whose sole responsibility will be to develop solidarity actions with the South. That, in essence, is LIGHTFOOT's report although it took some two hours. It mainly emphasized and re-emphasized the significance of the Selma developments and spent a great deal of time stressing the potential of that development.

The next sub-report was by GEORGE MORRIS on the Negro-labor alliance. The following is the essence of that report:

MORRIS indicated that the trade union movement is changing for the better in this period. Where there has been struggle in the trade union, it was only a moral approach to Jim Crow and it has mainly centered on small questions of solidarity to the civil rights movement. There was a time when there was head-on collision between the civil rights movement and the labor movement as reflected in the sharp battle at the San Francisco convention between GEORGE MEANY and A. PHILIP RANDOLPH. Following that struggle, the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) was formed in order to organize the Negro workers. The NALC never quite fulfilled its potential. There were many tensions developed between the labor movement and the civil rights movement in the past. Now there has been some breakthroughs. The trade unionist that was in charge of the civil rights program for the union has now been replaced by someone from United Auto Workers (UAW). This new head has taken a more vigorous position in regards to civil rights, and it was he who called for labor delegations to Selma and help organized some of them. The March on Washington helped change the character and the attitude of the trade union movement on civil rights. MEANY was opposed to the March on

Washington, but the labor movement participated anyway. MORRIS concluded that the civil rights movement acts as a powerful pressure force on the trade union movement. There have been some significant advances as a result of this pressure, and MORRIS mentioned the examples of the brewery workers in New York who signed a new contract which will bring many more Negro workers into the shops and the equal opportunities pledge that the unions made, should be used to force them to end Jim Crow. There are still negative aspects and certain tensions that still exist, but the legal basis for progress has been made in the unions. As far as the trends toward the Negro-labor alliance, MORRIS said the Washington march made a tremendous stride in that direction. In 1964, the UAW convention further consolidated that direction. However, if there is to be solid support, the civil rights movement must move into economic struggles which will link them directly with labor struggles. The right to work laws must be repealed and the civil rights movement must help in that repeal. The Selma struggle, of course, must be supported by labor, and we must find ways to strengthen the struggle for peace. There are over 1½ million Negroes in the trade union movement. Most of them are not in the skilled crafts. However, they do form a pressure group against labor bureaucracy. The organization of Negro caucuses in the trade union movement is a progressive thing. Some of the Negro workers would not agree with the struggle for super-seniority since many Negroes now have been in trade union movements for years. Many of the Negro trade union leaders are not leaders in the civil rights movement. The NALC did not quite make it because there was not an aggressive policy. The next step in substantiating the Negro-labor alliance is the development of the struggle on economic questions and in this we must activate the Negro trade unionists to play a more active role within the union.

HENRY WINSTON took the floor. WINSTON indicated that he was critical of two comrades who neglected their responsibilities at this meeting. One was RASHEED STOREY from Harlem who had the responsibility of being at the Party office to instruct the out-of-town delegates where the meeting was being held. STOREY was two hours late and comrades from out-of-town had to wait outside in the cold until he arrived. TED BASSETT also had the responsibility to the meeting that he did not fulfill. When he indicated that these comrades should make a statement of apology and self-critically explain why they neglected their responsibilities, RASHEED STOREY spoke and indicated he was sorry and recognized that he made a mistake but gave no explanation as to why. TED BASSETT also apologized and indicated he had some article to get to "The Worker" and did not fulfill his other obligation.

After the lunch break, a woman came into the hall (white with a foreign accent) and indicated she wanted to ask GUS HALL a question. She was immediately told it was a private meeting and she was shunted outside the hall. WINSTON later explained that GUS HALL had appeared on a radio program called Hot Line in New York, and the audience was asked to phone in questions. One question, GUS indicated, that he did not have time to answer; therefore, the lady said when she busted into the meeting Saturday, that she wanted an answer to her question. WINSTON said that he wonders where she got the address of the meeting, and he used that as an example to indicate the seriousness of the comrades who fail to handle their responsibilities in planning the meeting.

Upon return from lunch, the sub-report by EARL DURHAM from Chicago was given as follows:

DURHAM indicated that the trends he would speak about in the civil rights movement would be colored by the experiences in Chicago and would not necessarily reflect the situation nationally. However, some information has national implication. DURHAM indicated that he would request that the tape recorder which had been running since the beginning of the meeting be stopped at a certain point because he would rather not have the remarks recorded. DURHAM indicated that there was no one overall national center in the struggle for civil rights, neither organizationally nor ideologically. There are many organizations and many forms of struggle. The South is still the central area and the North is still a supplementary struggle. There is a broad coalition of forces, the main theme of tactics being non-violent direct action. The character of the forces in the leadership still remains middle class Negro in coalition with white middle class forces and students, particularly in the white religious community which is more active now. Secondly, some sections of the Catholic Church have become more active in the movement than the other religious communities. None of the civil rights organizations have a mass base in the Negro community, and particularly among the working class sections of the Negro population. The trade union movement as such is not involved in the struggle although individual trade unionists speak out. Negro and white youth play a substantially large role in the civil rights movement. There are some national trends that should be noted by the Commission. At this point, DURHAM requested the tape recorder be turned off. DURHAM indicated one large area of struggle is the militants versus the conservatives, and DURHAM indicated that after the Democratic national convention in 1964, the Freedom Democratic Party of Mississippi was rejected at that convention and the white liberal organizations became seriously alarmed. Under the leadership of the National Council of Churches, a series of conferences were held with the leaders of civil rights organizations, all except Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). The character of these meetings was an attempt to control the developing civil rights movement under the leadership of the established liberal organizations, and they felt that SNCC was getting things out of hand. They destroyed the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), they redbaited SNCC, and they threatened to withdraw funds from the project after their requests were not met. This policy had almost disasterous effect. It created wide gaps between the young freedom fighters in the South and the national leaderships of all the organizations, until the tempo of the movement and the events prevented public blowups. The redbaiting has increased. There is continuous pressure from the FBI on Reverend KING. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) leadership meets regularly with the FBI whenever they request it, and if too many suspicions arise around any individual, CORE usually dismisses them. BAYARD RUSTIN, at a recent meeting, spoke against wholesale redbaiting and tried to develop a program which could include the left, but at the same time prevent them from having any serious policy making positions. On the ideological front, DURHAM posed the following questions:

1. Should we fight for a single overall center for civil rights? Then the answer, of course, is no. However, DURHAM indicated certain organizations deserve special emphasis. They are SNCC and NALC.
2. Has the Negro middle class exhausted its potential? DURHAM said no, but the Party's responsibility is to concentrate on strengthening the working class base.

3. Is the white liberal the main enemy? DURHAM indicated no, but the fight for Negro leadership in the civil rights movement is key.

4. Can freedom be won on the state monopoly capitalism? DURHAM indicated that this question could very well open up a useful debate in the civil rights movement and help develop socialist perspectives.

DURHAM further indicated the movement cannot continue without coming to grips with the economic problems of the Negro masses. DURHAM then outlined the following tasks:

1. All-out fight for unity of the movement;

2. The broadest unified program on the economic problems of the Negro people;

3. Ideological documents answering the many questions in the civil rights movement;

4. Consider for the North a left center in the ghetto.

Lastly, DURHAM closed by lauding the Party's past role in the struggle for civil rights and indicated that the slogans the Party advanced in the past are now becoming slogans of the masses, and even President JOHNSON now says, "We shall overcome."

This was the end of DURHAM's report.

The first speaker was DEBBIE from Philadelphia. DEBBIE indicated that DURHAM's report as far as she can see is an accurate description of the trends. CORE and SNCC in the South have become very closely aligned. The switch from the Mississippi Democratic Party to Alabama voter registration, however, was not a conscious shift. There had been activities in Alabama since 1962, led by SNCC. There was a followup of the Mississippi Freedom Party after the convention, and there is substantial struggle in that State. In Alabama, SNCC is the organization with the deepest mass base. There is some resentment in SNCC since they did all of the ground work then Reverend KING comes in and takes over the movement. There is tremendous pressure on the civil rights groups to become aligned to the JOHNSON Administration. The reason that SNCC has its prestige is because neither FORMAN nor JOHN LOUIS have ever been involved in White House discussions. Also in SNCC, there is the current of thought that a fundamental change with the social structure is necessary for freedom.

MIKE DAVIDOW indicated that the problems of the ghetto is a peculiar problem in the North and demands concentration by the Party. The concentration should be on the economic problems, and these problems must be tackled seriously by the development of a program. The march that took place in Harlem in support of Selma indicates that the people of Harlem want the support in their struggles in the South, but they also demand that some action take place in Harlem itself.

GEORGE MYERS indicated the basis of social change in the South is in the economic relationships of the South, and he has written an article which will be in the next "Political Affairs" which will go into detail. MYERS further indicated that Negro labor unity is growing around the question of political action. The Freedom Party of Mississippi deserves the widest support. If the Party can move on economic questions, it will help build the Negro labor alliance. There must be a struggle to get the right to work laws repealed. MYERS indicated he agrees with the building of the Party in the South, and we must consider sending people to live in the South plus financial help. MYERS also indicated that the struggle for home rule in Washington, D.C. should demand serious attention.

TED BASSETT indicated that the sending of troops, for the nationalization of the National Guard of Alabama is a tremendous advance for the JOHNSON Administration. All the while JOHNSON was conducting activities to avoid sending of troops. Now the Party's task is to fight for the bill and to push for amendments to that bill.

CHARLENE MITCHELL stated that in Los Angeles, there were tremendous demonstrations in support of Alabama. The first ones were led by CORE around the Federal Building. Later, CORE gave up its leadership because of internal problems. There has been some discussion in CORE and SNCC as to what constitutes leadership. Some seem to feel that leadership means you only carry out what the rank and file suggests. There was formed in California a new organization called the United Civil Rights Committee under a Reverend BROOKINS. It was this organization that called the big march and has developed a sustained activity on Selma. SAM KUSHNER helped in the ideological discussions in this civil rights committee to unify the approach to the march. The Party in California has many problems in understanding and developing a unified approach to the civil rights movement. MITCHELL also indicated it is necessary to link the struggle in the South with the fight against the war in Viet Nam. MITCHELL also indicated that Negro cadre should be helped to play more of a role in the civil rights movement.

DEBBIE spoke again and indicated that the materials put out by the Party have been inadequate. Some of it, she said, has a negative effect. She indicated that "The Worker" sometimes messes up the stories. On the question of labor, she said there is little going on and some of it is late and there needs to be a program to step this up. DEBBIE also indicated she feels the Party must do more to present itself to the civil rights movement.

The meeting on Sunday, March 21, 1965, opened with HOSEA HUDSON. HUDSON indicated that he did not believe the comrades who were criticized Saturday realized the seriousness of the problem. He gave an experience he had while working in the South where meetings were organized during the time the police were changing shifts. He indicated that gave them about five minutes to get together and any comrades who did not show up within that five minutes did not meet. HUDSON indicated LIGHTFOOT's report met with his agreement and indicated that President JOHNSON's speech on the right to vote would not solve all problems. He further indicated this was not the first right to vote struggle in the South and gave certain experiences that the Party had when he was in Alabama. He further indicated that the Party must get out more educational material to help equip the freedom fighters in their struggle for Negro rights. He also agreed that the rank and file of the trade union movement in the South is not being mobilized by the leadership of the trade union movement to participate in the struggle.

MILDRED MC ADORY indicated that the right to vote movement can also be extended in the North and West because Puerto Rican and Mexican Americans are deprived of their right to vote on the basis of certain literacy tests that are on the law books. The right to vote bill must get rid of the poll tax. MC ADORY indicated that the unemployment rate in the Negro communities and the low income makes these problems of utmost importance in the Party's work, particularly among the youth. There must be support to the progressive parts of the problems in some agencies, particularly since these agencies have been redbaited and otherwise attacked. Even after training of Negro youth by some of these agencies, there are still insufficient job opportunities available. We should think of how to organize grass roots movements in the Negro community.

GUS HALL took the floor and indicated he wanted to speak only on one question--that is, the downgrading of the working class that is taking place in certain left circles. He quoted from articles from left wing other than communist publications which indicated the questioning of the role of the working class in the struggle for progress in this country. HALL said that this is a serious challenge for the Party and must be met. HALL indicated that the authors of these articles try to narrow the working class down to fit their own conclusions. They eliminate the Negro workers, the white collar workers, the unemployed, the youth that have never worked, the wives of workers, the youth of working class families, the retired workers and the workers that actually run the automated machinery and they eliminate students of working class families. They almost narrow the trade union movement and working class movement down to the few white officials of the trade unions. The class composition of the Selma struggle indicates that the backbone of the movement are workers. After you pass through the few leaders of the movement who make up the articulate leadership, the rest are workers. HALL is writing an article called the Labor Negro Community which he intends to deal with these fundamental questions. There are two processes in America, HALL indicated--the struggle of the working class for better living conditions and the struggles of the Negro people's movement for freedom. The objectives of the Party must be to merge these into one unified struggle such as took place during the 1964 elections. The fight against poverty can be one of the main examples. We in the Party must guard against the downgrading of the working class.

JAKE GREEN from Baltimore indicated he had had meetings of the Negro Commission of the Baltimore CP prior to this meeting. He indicated in a very negative tone that there was extreme dissatisfaction with the method of carrying out decisions of the Negro Commission held in Chicago. GREEN indicated that the analysis of what is happening in the Negro field is just not enough. The Party must evaluate its work and see how it can contribute. GREEN was critical of the report by GEORGE MORRIS because he felt it did not meet the problem. He was warmer to the report given by EARL DURHAM because it tried to answer some of the problems. GREEN indicated that in Baltimore, the Commission has asked what was the Party's status in all of these struggles? GREEN also indicated that there should be a Party program outlined for all districts. GREEN wanted to know what happened to the proposals that the Commission made at its last meeting, and also the line of the national convention had not been re-evaluated. GREEN indicated they wanted national perspectives for the Party. GREEN concluded by indicating that the Party's position on NALC needed re-evaluation because he feels that this organization could be a weapon in building Negro-white unity in labor.

The next speaker was EDWARD TEIXEIRA from Boston. He indicated that he was disappointed that "The Worker" was not placed on the agenda of the Commission because he feels very strongly that the paper could be a useful weapon in the struggle for civil rights. There has been massive demonstrations in the Boston area, and TEIXEIRA went on to describe those demonstrations. Nowhere was there any indication of any serious leadership being given by the Party in these demonstrations, although TEIXEIRA indicated that Party people had participated.

RASHEED STOREY from Harlem gave an example of how the Party could help stimulate activities in the Negro community. He stated that CORE had started a Jobs For Youth project in Harlem, but had given it up after it ran into difficulty. A small group of Negro youth then took over the program and issued a statement to the community asking for support to a program to win jobs for Negro youth. They now have five full-time people working for only a minimum salary, and they have organized a community center. They solicited funds from the businesses of the community and trade unions, and they asked various business enterprises to list their job opportunities with them and they in turn turned them over to young people who participate in the center program. They also made contact with the legitimate agencies that have been in the field and are developing a cooperative working relationship with them. They have organized a sports program; they have developed relationships with the other civil rights organizations, and they have organized the parents of the young people. STOREY continued indicating that the Party did not have a program for its ghetto activities and, therefore, it is floundering. He further continued that Negro cadre must be released to work in the Negro community, and he criticized the national leadership for not seeing that the struggle in Selma would be a national highlight in the struggle for civil rights. Lastly, he was critical of the Party's youth program in that it did not have the ideological know-how to jump into the civil rights program.

GUS HALL interrupted to ask a question as to where in Harlem could there develop a conference around three questions--the elimination of the literacy tests in New York for voting; reapportionment and proportional representation. STOREY indicated that he thinks it will be possible.

AL SIMON spent a great deal of his discussion on insisting that we unite the struggle for Negro freedom with the struggle for peace. He further developed the point that the Negro youth had not been seriously reached by either the Party or the civil rights movement. He then spent time discussing the Negro intelligentia. He indicated that independent of the Party, groups of Negro intellectuals have been meeting and discussing the future of the freedom movement. LEROY JONES, national Negro playwright, has been leading a group of cultural figures in such discussion. LEROY JONES' line is one of armed aggression and works closely with organizations such as Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), the Unity Council and the "Progressive Labor" people. SIMON indicated that he has been fighting this line without too much success and in one instance, his life was threatened. There must be, SIMON continued, articles in "Political Affairs" combating the position of LEROY JONES, and all other publications we have in our influence should be used to combat this line. SIMON further indicated that we should reform the cultural commission of the Party and develop a discussion for an art program. We should try to amend the war on poverty bill so that it will include Negro artists. And lastly, the Party should reassess JESSE GRAY's program and JESSE GRAY himself and make a decision as to whether we support it or not.

JIM TORMEY indicated that there had been a conference on the upper west side dealing with some questions of proportional representation and reapportionment and it may be possible that other conferences can be organized. TORMEY indicated his agreement with EARL DURHAM's report and particularly on the emphasis dealing with concentration on building the working class component to the civil rights movement. TORMEY indicated that GUS HALL's article on the Negro labor community will be most helpful. The civil rights movement has a tremendous influence on the trade union movement, and the Party should help mobilize workers to the fight. TORMEY continued in his opinion, the NALC should be one of our major concerns. It is the instrument that can be used to move white workers into the struggle for freedom. The NALC is a labor-based organization and in New York, it helped negotiate an historic contract with the brewery workers and now it is moving into the building trades.

ROSCOE PROCTOR indicated that he felt uneasy because of an underestimation of how rough the fight to pass the right to vote bill will be. He further indicated that in GEORGE MORRIS' speech, there was not much activity from organized labor and that disturbs him. He agreed with the emphasis on making a fight to promote the war on poverty and other economic questions facing the Negro community. He gave one experience of how the Party had helped stimulate a jobs opportunity center in San Francisco. PROCTOR also agreed that EARL DURHAM's report was very stimulating and poses some serious questions for his area.

EUGENE GORDON gave a statistical study of the status of the Negro people in the United States dealing with such subjects as income, economic status, housing, educational level, medical and life expectancy, statistics on death and birth rates. GORDON concluded by indicating that documents that come out dealing with the Negro freedom struggle should include these statistics that exposes the evils of the Jim Crow system.

THOMAS DENNIS, after giving a report on the demonstrations held in Detroit, mentioned the necessity for concentration on organizing Negro workers. He further indicated that the role of the Party must be more than just analyzing events, but individual Party members must commit themselves to the day-to-day activity of the civil rights movement.

JACK STACHEL began to speak, but because of his heart condition, cut himself short and asked to be excused.

AGNES WILLIS spoke and indicated that the NALC has not out-lived its usefulness. It does not always have to be conducting street demonstrations to be effective. She feels that because it is made up of trade unionists, it knows how to negotiate with labor on some of the economic questions facing the Negro people. She went further to discuss problems of Negro youth in Harlem and asked that a program be developed to meet this need.

WILLIS was the last speaker and it was decided that HENRY WINSTON would summarize the discussion, which he did as follows:

WINSTON indicated that he felt the meeting was a milestone in the work of the Party. All ideological programs now have to be geared for a Party convention at the end of 1965. The Mc Carran Act may prevent the Party from having a public convention, but at any rate there will be a convention. If they are successful in beating back the Mc Carran Act, then we will have a public convention. We must now establish a resolutions committee to draft documents on policy for pre-convention discussion. This committee will be chaired by JIM JACKSON and will have the following members: JACK STACHEL, EARL DURHAM, TOM DENNIS and ALVA BUXENBAUM. This committee should begin immediately to gather facts for the documents. The following were questions that must be considered in the drafting of such a document. WINSTON said the basic policy of the Party based on the 1964 elections is a sound policy:

1. Is it possible to restrict the Negro question from the general framework of the problems of the country as a whole? For example, WINSTON continued, we must expand the contradiction of capitalism and how these contradictions relate to the Negro struggle--such questions of war and peace, the election policies and the Party.

2. Why is Alabama the focal point of the Negro struggle today and answers by indicating that Alabama is the most industrialized State in the South. It has a strong working class and has an indigenous movement staffed by Negro workers with a long history of class struggles.

3. The document must give the Party position on such questions as are white liberals the main enemy? This question shows a lack of confidence by certain sections of the Negro movement of the ability to win white allies.

4. The document must answer the charge that individual terror or terrorism is a legitimate form of struggle. WINSTON explained that this is a position that supports the worst enemies of the Negro people. It would drown in blood the struggle for Negro rights and would set the movement back hundreds of years. Our Party must have a forthright position against violence and terror.

5. The question of civil rights as an issue for the minority and not the majority. WINSTON explained that the ultraleft has the position that since the Negro people are part of the majority in the world, it is up to the Negro people to fight to take over the country, and with the help of the other dark peoples of the world, this can be done. This, WINSTON indicated, is sheer cowardice because it denies the role of the Negro people in the United States and these ultra-lefts counsel the Negro people to sit back and wait until their African and Asian brothers come over and liberate them.

6. A sixth question is on the Negro-labor alliance and the question there is how to strengthen this alliance and here the role of the Party is essential. We must fight to move the trade unions into organizing the unorganized in the South. This will lay the basis for solid Negro-labor unity. We must fight to end all poll tax. We must fight to end all terror in the struggle to wipe out the Dixiecrats from the political life of our country. The war against poverty should be part of this organizing drive in the South.

7. The document must discuss concretely how to build the Party among the Negro people with particular emphasis on Negro youth.

Last but not least, although we are far behind, someone must add some information on the problems of the farm and the sharecroppers. WINSTON again reiterated he thought this was a good meeting and hoped that the decisions would be carried out.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT then took the floor and indicated that WINSTON had taken care of summarizing the meeting, and since he had a few more minutes and a captive audience, he would give a few remarks on his trip abroad so as to bring this information to the Commission. LIGHTFOOT spoke about his travels; however, his remarks were not heard.

Attached LHM is classified ~~"Confidential"~~ to protect identities of confidential sources 1, 2, 4 through 11. Unauthorized disclosure of information attributed to these sources might impair their future effectiveness and such impairment could have an adverse effect on the national defense interests.

Information copies are designated for JACKSON since general activity outlined herein supports the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) and to WFO in view of the challenge to the seating of the regular Mississippi Congressmen in the Capitol

Enclosed LHM, together with LHM submitted 1/15/65, incorporates available information concerning the New York Committee for support of the MFDP challenge (NYC - MFDPC), and indicates that the activities of this group are directed generally to unseating the regular Mississippi Congressmen. Other incidental objectives of the group appear to be lending support from time to time to community endeavors such as the NYC school boycott and the recent welfare workers strike in NYC.

Of the elected officers of the NYC - MFDP, set forth in LHM dated 1/15/65, [redacted] pertinent characterization available in NYO files concerns SUSAN KINOY. With respect to SUSAN KINOY there is no information available that she is or has been a member of the CP. Of individuals listed as members of various committees formed within the NYC - MFDPC, RUDY JONES and JOSH LAWRENCE were reported as CP members in 1958 and 1961, respectively. Review of files on these individuals reflects that they reportedly have been associated with JESSE GRAY, himself a Security Index subject of the NYO. Contact will be made specifically with [redacted], both of whom are familiar with JESSE GRAY and his associates, to determine if possible the extent of participation by JONES and LAWRENCE in the affairs of the NYC - MFDPC. Contact will also be made with other logical racial informants and security informants to determine the extent of any CP influence in captioned organization. Following this coverage a recommendation will be made to the Bureau concerning further investigation of the organization for possible Communist involvement. b7D

Reference is made to memorandum dated January 15, 1965, entitled as above.

All confidential informants referred to in this communication and in the Appendix attached have furnished reliable information in the past. Characterizations of individuals mentioned in this communication are set forth, where pertinent, at the end thereof.

Confidential source number one made available on December 23, 1964, printed material issued by the New York Committee for Support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge (NYC - MFDPC). This material indicated that the New York Office for this committee is located at 514 West 126th Street, New York City. Coordinators in the New York Office of the committee were listed as William Strickland of the Northern Student Movement at the same address and Tina Lawrence of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Confidential source number two advised on December 31, 1964, that a meeting of the NYC - MFDPC was held on December 29, 1964, at Manhattanville Center, 514 West 126th Street, New York City. Only about eighteen members were present and "freedom petitions" were circulated among those present to get signatures in support of the challenge to the seating of the regular Mississippi Congressmen. Isaiah Robinson was in charge of the meeting.

The same confidential source advised on January 8, 1965, that a general meeting of the captioned committee was held on January 5, 1965, at Manhattanville Center, New York City. It was stated at this meeting that William Strickland, Chairman of the NYC - MFDPC was in Washington, D. C. at the time. Isaiah Robinson, Chairman of the Harlem Parents Committee, was the principal speaker. He urged the members present to boycott every new school to be erected in Harlem, claiming the children would only be attending a "Jim Crow" school and would be getting inferior education.

The same source stated that a general meeting of the NYC - MFDPC was held at Manhattanville Center on January 12, 1965. William Strickland, Chairman of captioned committee, was the principal speaker. Discussed at this meeting was the text of a resolution challenging the seating of the five Mississippi Congressmen.

The same confidential source advised on February 4, 1965, that a meeting of captioned committee was held January 26, 1965, at Manhattanville Center. Only about five people were present at this meeting. Discussed were plans to contact Senators and representatives in a campaign to enlist their support for the challenge of the Mississippi Congressmen. (U)

Confidential source number two advised on February 10, 1965, that an enlarged meeting of the NYC - MFDPC was held on February 9, 1965, at Manhattanville Center. There were approximately 25 people present, including supporters from Queens, Brooklyn, Bronx and Westchester. Informant stated that William Strickland as of February, 1965, was serving as Chairman and Susan Kinoy was serving as Recording Secretary of captioned organization.

The same confidential source advised on January 19, 1965, that a rally was held at the Church of the Masters, 12[illegible]nd Street and Morningside Avenue, New York City, January 14, 1965, at which 300 people were present. Jesse Gray of the Community Council On Housing, New York City, was one of the principal speakers. He came out in support of the strike by welfare workers in New York City. William Strickland of the NYC - MFDPC stated captioned organization would support the welfare workers strike. WILLIAM STRICKLAND was present at this rally.

The same confidential source advised on January 5, 1965, that on December 31, 1964, a reception for Mississippi students was held in the office of Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City. This reception was given by Malcolm X, late leader of the OAAU, New York City, who was assassinated February 21, 1965. Malcolm X spoke at this reception and stated that he is supporting the MFDP.

The OAAU is characterized in the Appendix Section attached hereto.

An article in the "Long Island Press", December 28, 1964, page 2, reported that Harold Sachs of Merrick, New York, Vice Chairman of the Long Island Coordinating Committee for Civil Rights, had announced the formation of a committee on Long Island to support the Mississippi challenge. Two members of the Executive Board of the Long Island Coordinating Committee were named as Co-Chairmen of the Challenge Committee, namely Alvin Dorfman of Freeport, New York, and Harold Trent of Lakeview, New York. The article further stated that the following members of the Challenge Committee would serve as Chairmen in the five congressional districts of Long Island:

"First District: Joyce Insolia of Huntington and Calvin Cobb of North Babylon. Second District: Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schensul of Plainview. Third District: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Blum of Roslyn. Fourth District: Farley Wheelwright, Central Nassau Unitarian Universalist Church, Garden City. Fifth District: Alvin Dorfman of Freeport.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A source advised on March 23, and 24, 1965, that a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the Communist Party (CP), USA, was held at the Woodstock Hotel, New York City, on March 20, 21, 1965, with approximately 26 individuals in attendance from New York, Illinois, Michigan, Maryland, Massachusetts, California and Pennsylvania.

N.Y. According to this source, the opening report was given by Claude Lightfoot, Chairman of the National Negro Commission, CP, USA. Lightfoot mentioned the tremendous significance of developments in Selma, Alabama, which puts the country at the brink of a new reconstruction era. He stated if this movement is successful, it could mean the end of Dixiecrat control of the South. Lightfoot related that the registration features of the bill proposed by President Johnson could make possible changes in the entire world situation. The change in political structure of the South could break the back of the reactionary bloc in Congress. Lightfoot stated the President's action proved the correctness of the CP line in the 1964 elections. He stated the CP must not give up its political criticism of the Johnson Administration. Lightfoot stated the literacy tests must be thrown out completely.

ENCLOSURE

Lightfoot further stated for labor, there must now begin an organizational drive in the South. The right to vote is the link that can move the coalition forward. He stated the CP must develop a program to meet the economic needs of the Negro community. He stated the CP could not work like it did in the old days since they must work with assisting organizations and develop initiatives that can spur the entire movement.

Lightfoot stated there is a void in the Negro community since civil rights organizations do not penetrate into the ghetto. Lightfoot also spoke of Negro youth, stating there must be a program to combat the fact that Negro youth are systematically excluded from the job market. He stated the CP must develop a program which helps build a socialist cadre.

Lightfoot proposed that the CP try to initiate conferences in the Negro community dealing with the problems in those communities. Lightfoot further proposed that the CP's role in the South must be strengthened and there be established in each district three-man committees whose sole responsibility will be to develop solidarity actions with the South.

The second report was given by George Morris, a N.Y. member of the CP, USA Negro Commission, on the Negro-labor alliance. Morris stated many tensions developed between the labor movement and the civil rights movement in the past; however, there have been some breakthroughs. He stated the March on Washington helped change the character and the attitude of the trade union movement on civil rights. Morris stated the civil rights movement acts as a powerful pressure force on the trade union movement. He stated there are still negative aspects and certain tensions still exist, but legal basis for progress has been made in the unions. He stated if there is to be solid support, the civil rights movement must move into the economic struggles which will link them directly with labor struggles.

Morris stated the Selma, Alabama, struggle must be supported by labor, and the CP must find ways to strengthen the struggle for peace.

The third report was given by Earl Durham, a member of the National Negro Commission, CP, USA. Durham related there was not an overall national center in the struggle for civil rights, neither organizationally nor ideologically. He stated there are many organizations and many forms of struggle. The character of the forces in the leadership of the struggle are middle class Negroes in coalition with white middle class forces and students. He related the white religious community is more active now, particularly in the Catholic Church. Durham stated none of the civil rights organizations have a mass base in the Negro community and particularly among the working class sections of the Negro population. The trade union movement as such is not involved in the struggle although individual trade unionists speak out.

Durham related that one large area of struggle is the militants versus the conservatives. Durham spoke of continued red-baiting and gaps that have been created between freedom fighters in the South and the national leadership of civil rights organizations. He stated the CP has the responsibility to concentrate on strengthening the working class base. There must be an all-out fight for unity of the movement; there must be a unified program on the economic problems of the Negro people; there must be ideological documents answering the many questions in the civil rights movement, and concentration given to establishing for the North a left center in the ghetto.

Durham closed by lauding the CP's past role in the struggle for civil rights, and indicated that the slogans the CP advanced in the past are now becoming slogans of the masses and even President Johnson now says, "We shall overcome."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

According to this source, after these reports, various representatives gave their opinions of the reports as well as their feelings regarding the civil rights struggle. This source further advised that on March 21, 1965, the second session of the National Negro Commission meeting was held with further discussions by representatives from the various districts. During this session, Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA, took the floor and stated he wanted to speak on the downgrading of the working class that is taking place in certain left circles. Hall quoted from articles from left-wing publications other than communist publications, which articles questioned the role of the working class in the struggle for progress in this country. Hall stated these writers eliminate the Negro workers, the unemployed, the youth that never worked, the wives of workers, the youth of working class families, and others and thereby narrow the trade union movement and working class movement down to the few white officials of the trade unions. N.Y.

Hall stated the class composition of the Selma struggle indicates that the backbone of the movement is workers. He stated there are two processes in America--first, the struggle of the working class for better living conditions, and second, the struggle of the Negro people for freedom. Hall stated the objectives of the CP must be to merge these into one unified struggle such as took place during the 1964 election. Hall stated the CP must guard against the downgrading of the working class.

According to this source, after further discussions by various individuals, Henry Winston, Vice Chairman of the CP, USA, summarized the meeting. N.Y.

Winston stated he felt the meeting was a milestone in the work of the CP and all ideological programs now have to be geared for a CP convention at the end of 1965. Winston stated the Mc Carran Act might prevent the CP from having a public convention, but at any rate, there will be a convention.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Winston stated we must establish a resolutions committee to draft documents on policy for pre-convention discussion. He stated certain questions must be considered in drafting such a document, and these questions are as follows:

1. Is it possible to restrict the Negro question from the general framework of the problems of the country as a whole?

2. Why is Alabama the focal point of the Negro struggle today?

3. The document must give the CP position on such questions as are white liberals the main enemy? This question shows a lack of confidence by certain sections of the Negro movement of the ability to win white allies.

4. The document must answer the charge that individual terror or terrorism is a legitimate form of struggle. This is a position that supports the worst enemies of the Negro people. The CP must have a forthright position against violence and terror.

5. The question of civil rights as an issue for the minority and not the majority. He explained the ultra-left has the position that since the Negro people are part of the majority of the world, it is up to the Negro people to fight to take over the country and with the help of the other black peoples of the world, this can be done. Winston stated this is sheer cowardice because it denies the role of the Negro people in the United States.

6. Another question is on Negro-labor alliances and how it can be strengthened. He stated the CP must fight to move the trade unions into organizing the unorganized in the South. The war against poverty should be part of the organizing drive in the South.

7. The document must discuss concretely how to build the CP among the Negro people with particular emphasis on Negro youth.

8. Something must be added on the problems of the farm and sharecroppers.

Winston ended his summation by stating he hoped the decisions would be carried out.

CIRM
MARCHES PROTESTING VOTER DISCRIMINATION
SELMA-MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA
MARCH, 1965

ReBuairtel 3-24-65 which instructed your office to submit the identities of individuals with subversive backgrounds who participated in marches in the Selma-Montgomery, Alabama, area during March, 1965. Particular attention was to be given to the identities of individuals on the Security Index (SI) and Reserve Index.

Reairtel 3-31-65 which enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date. It was reported on page 3 of the LHM that, according to a source of your office, a discussion took place at a recent meeting of the Chicago Urban League where it was speculated as to who might be in Alabama participating in the civil rights demonstrations. During this discussion the only name mentioned was that of Ann Frosten. The LHM reported a characterization of Frosten indicating former attendance at Communist Party club meetings and information to the effect that as of 1964 she was described as a Marxist.

Frosten is a SI subject, your office origin. In view of her subversive background, it is most desirable that some positive determination be made as to whether or not she did go to Alabama during March, 1965. It is believed that the speculation that she might go dictates that her whereabouts be resolved. Immediately determine whether or not she did go to Alabama and advise by airtel, including appropriate amended pages. If she did go, that fact should be reported. If she did not go, the information concerning her should be deleted. Designate copies of your return communications to Mobile. Expedite as dissemination LHM being held in abeyance.

Marital Status	Single
Employment	No civilian employment known
Residence	1951 - Rooming house, two story frame type, near Court Street, Southeast Section of Montgomery, Alabama
Relatives or Friends	Not known except Unsub woman below

MATHEWS was in Kilby Prison, Montgomery, Alabama, during 1950-51 when ROUNTREE was also inmate there. MATHEWS worked in the "Tag Plant," where they made Alabama State License Plates. Reason for his imprisonment not known, but length of sentence believed three years. Employment outside of prison not known. He did not give appearance of having a great deal of money. He was "picked up" by Montgomery Police Department for vagrancy in 1951. Presiding judge dismissed case when MATHEWS showed up wearing a new suit which ROUNTREE had given him. MATHEWS did not own a car but stated in 1951 that he was going to Robinson Auto Sales, Montgomery, to see about a car. MATHEWS said this ROBINSON, first name unknown, had formerly been in Kilby Prison prior to when MATHEWS and ROUNTREE were there. MATHEWS not known to have girlfriend or married during this time. He acted and gave appearance of being a "hophead," that is, using some type of narcotics. ROUNTREE has not seen or heard anything about MATHEWS for approximately ten years.

ROUNTREE furnished the following description of the Unsub Woman who offered him $5,000.00 to join the Communist Party:

Name	Not recalled
Race	White
Age	About 55 years present time
Place of Birth	Unknown, but believed native of Montgomery, Alabama

Height	5'5"
Weight	130 - 135 pounds
Build	Medium
Hair	Red
Eyes	Unknown
Marital Status	Married, but then either divorced or living alone and apart from husband
Schooling	Unknown
Characteristics	Sounded a little "scatter-brained," not schooled in the formalities of speech
Scars and Marks	Unknown
Wealth	Did not give appearance of wealth
Residence	Resided in two story frame house which faced east, two houses across from corner drugstore which faced west, street not recalled, but near Park Zoo in Southeast Section of Montgomery
Employment	Not then employed, but formerly connected with beauty parlor in Montgomery
Relatives	Related in some manner to manager of largest department store in Montgomery, possibly named Montgomery Fair Store

ROUNTREE said MATHEWS and this Unsub female were known to each other as Unsub Woman referred to MATHEWS having previously approached ROUNTREE.

FBI Number 1067230 is identical with ROUNTREE. He said he has never used any aliases, but his surname is sometimes spelled ROUNDTREE which is incorrect; the correct spelling is ROUNTREE.

Information furnished by ROUNTREE concerning MATHEWS and the Unsub Woman asking him to join the Communist party was again discussed thoroughly. He reiterated the Unsub female offered him $5,000.00 to join the Communist Party and said she had a lawyer from whom she could obtain the money. He believed she was serious and did not say this in a joking or off-handed manner. She told him that she had hired a private detective to find him as he was the one she wanted in their group. ROUNTREE could not offer any additional information to substantiate his statements. When queried as to whether these two people were asking him to join in establishing the interracial radio station and dance hall, he at first stated that this was possibly so, but he does not have that impression. His definite impression is that they were asking him to join the Communist Party. He said that he was not trained in the knowledge of communist language, and it was merely a "layman's" impression he was giving. He said he would be willing to testify in a court of law concerning the information he had furnished.

ROUNTREE could furnish no other information about MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

As set out in Miami letter 3/16/65, ROUNTREE appeared to again rely on impressions rather than actual facts presented. His recollections were extremely hazy, which he attributed to time elapsed. An ulterior motive in furnishing the information was not shown by ROUNTREE. He reiterated again that he was only interested in the Bureau having this knowledge in view of the racial unrest in the Montgomery-Selma area.

As reBulet stated, a considerable question arises as to the credibility of ROUNTREE in view of his record of arrests and convictions.

The limited investigation requested of Mobile by the Bureau should determine whether there is any substance to ROUNTREE's allegations.

Observations of the Bureau concerning future dissemination of this type of information have been noted and will be strictly followed in order to prevent unnecessary delay in Bureau investigations.

DEMONSTRATION IN PROTEST OF SELMA, ALABAMA
BUFFALO, NEW YORK, MARCH 14, 1965
RACIAL MATTERS

On March 16, 1965, Sergeant GEORGE WITTMAN, Anti-Subversive Squad, Buffalo, New York Police Department, advised that he and Detective FRANK DOUGHERTY observed the following individuals taking part in a protest demonstration on March 14, 1965, in the vicinity of the Buffalo and Erie County Library and the U. S. Court House Building, Niagara Square, Buffalo, New York:

RICHARD ALEXANDER

Buffalo T-1 periodically advised during 1961 that RICHARD ALEXANDER was then a member of the Erie County Communist Party (ECCP) who, during the latter part of that year, participated in factional activity which resulted in a split in the Communist Party (CP) over a disagreement with the New York District and National CP leadership. Informant reported that ALEXANDER left the CP in late 1961 and during 1962 and 1963 was active in the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) in Buffalo, New York.

A characterization of PLM, nationally and locally, is attached as an Appendix to this communication.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS;

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Captain Gordon Gaeng, Planning and Research Bureau, Baltimore City Police Department, advised that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. arrived at Friendship International Airport by plane from New York City at approximately 2:20 p.m. on March 31, 1965. Upon his arrival, he was met by a police detail under Captain L. W. Humphreys, Jr. He came to the Lord Baltimore Hotel and was observed arriving there at 2:50 p.m. Captain Gaeng advised that in view of the controversial nature of the activities of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., he would be afforded police protection while in Baltimore.

"The Sun," a Baltimore daily newspaper, on April 1, 1965, reported that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. was honored at a dinner held at the Lord Baltimore Hotel at 8:00 p.m. on March 31, 1965, which was attended by approximately 950 people. "The Sun" reported that Dr. King had stated that a decision on his plan for an economic boycott of Alabama would come out of the two-day session of the Executive Board of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference that begins April 1, 1965, at Baltimore, Maryland. He said plans would be made for the next six months for this organization. He also said that something forceful must be done to prod the people of Alabama into stopping the racial policies of Governor George C. Wallace.

The newspaper reported that during the long program of tributes at the affair, Dr. King was made an honorary citizen of Baltimore by Mayor THEODORE R. McKELDIN and an honorary citizen of the State of Maryland by an Aide of Governor MILLARD TAWES.

"The Sun" newspaper also reported that the dinner was picketed by two members of a group called "Confederates for Free Segregation," and they carried signs reading, "God, Wallace, U.S.A. - Big Three for Segregation - Down with King," and "There's no Police Brutality in Baltimore - Three Cheers for Bernie Schmidt and our Police Force."

B. APPROX. 1944

Captain Gordon Gaeng, Baltimore Police Department, on April 1, 1965, advised that the two youths who were doing the picketing were Rick Neilson, a white male, [redacted] who resides [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland and Paul Stewart, a white male, [redacted] who resides at [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland. The youths picketed from 8:30 to 8:45 p.m., according to the police report. There were no incidents and no arrests.

MARCH, 1965

ReBuairtel 3/24/65 and your airtel 3/30/65.

Your airtel enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date which was completely negative in respect to any subversives going to Alabama during March, 1965, to participate in captioned marches. The LHM need not have been submitted. It is not being disseminated.

Your airtel advised that information concerning individuals traveling to Alabama "who are not the subject of security investigations" had previously been submitted to the Bureau under the caption "Registrars of Voters, Dallas County, Alabama, Selma, Alabama, Voter Discrimination, CR - EL." It is not clear to the Bureau, on the basis of reairtel, as to whether or not there were individuals with subversive backgroundswho did go to Alabama but which individuals are not the subject of security investigations. In order to correlate in one place information concerning subversives who went to Alabama in March, 1965, it is necessary that a communication with above caption be submitted to provide for the desired reporting. This would include all individuals with subversive backgrounds without regard to whether or not they may be the subject of security investigations.

FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH, 5650 SOUTH
WOODLAWN AVENUE, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS DEMONSTRATION AND VIGIL
FEDERAL BUILDING, 219 SOUTH DEARBORN STREET, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
MARCH 20, 1965

A source advised on March 26, 1965, (C) (U) that on March 20, 1965, the First Unitarian Church, 5650 South Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, sponsored a demonstration and vigil in memory of the deceased Unitarian Minister Reverend James J. Reeb. This demonstration began with an assembly at Buckingham Fountain on the lake front, Chicago, Illinois, and ended at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, where the group circled the Federal Building for one hour concluding with a five minute silent vigil of prayer. The assembly of this group began at Buckingham Fountain at 2:00 PM and ended at 3:40 PM. (U)

The source (C) (U) advised that approximately 225 youths participated in this demonstration and about 30 of this number were Negroes. Also, the source stated that from 10 to 15 adults were observed as active in connection with this demonstration; however, few if any of the adults actually participated in the demonstration at the Federal Building. (U)

Source (C) (U) advised that among the individuals who actually were in the line of march at Buckingham Fountain was Milton Cohen. Source also (C) advised that in the demonstration line up at the Fountain was James West. Source (C) stated that West left the group when the group started to march toward the Federal Building but he was subsequently observed standing along the line of marchers as the demonstration ended at the Federal Building. Source also (C) advised that among the few adults who did participate with the youth group and the demonstration at the Federal Building were Ben and Eva Friedlander. (U)

This source further advised that among those bringing the youths to the assembly area were Charles H. Fischer and his wife Sylvia Fischer (U)

The source stated that among the picket signs carried by the demonstrators were the following: (U)

"We March with Selma for Justice and Equality"
"Pass Voting Laws"
"Youth March for Voting Rights"
"Stop Police Brutality in Selma"
"One Man One Vote"
"Did Reeb Die in Vain?"

Source stated that as the group circled the Federal Building they sang "Jim Crow Must Go" and "Freedom - Now." (U)

Source also advised that among individuals who accompanied the demonstrators from the Buckingham Fountain to the Federal Building was Edward Heisler and that once the group arrived at the Federal Building Heisler participated in the demonstration. (U)

Concerning Milton Cohen, it is to be noted that a second source advised on March 24, 1965 that Cohen is a member of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois State Board. (U)

Concerning James West, it is to be noted that this second source advised on March 24, 1965 that James West is a member of the CP of Illinois State Board and Organizational Secretary of the CP of Illinois. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

This same second source advised on March 24, 1965, that Ben and Eva Friedlander are members of the CP of Illinois. (U)

Concerning Charles H. Fischer, it is to be noted that Isaac Alexander Wright, a self-admitted former member of District 5 of the CP from April, 1943, to December, 1955, advised in January, 1949, that Fischer attended a meeting of District 5 leaders held on January 13, 1949, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The second source advised on May 27, 1964, that in the recent past the CP of Illinois had discussed the feasibility of contacting Sylvia and Charles Fischer but decided it would do no good since the CP has no influence over the Fischers. The Fischers as of May, 1964, were not friendly toward the CP. (U)

Relative to Edward Heisler, mentioned above, it is to be noted that on March 29, 1965, a third source advised that as of that date Edward Heisler was a member of the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP). (U)

A characterization of the Chicago Branch SWP is appended hereto.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Proposed Boycott of New York City Schools by City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools, March, 1965
Racial Matters

On March 10, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that during the recent school boycott conducted by Reverend Milton Galamison of the Siloam [illegible] Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, New York, there was Communist Party (CP) support of the boycott at least at the club level. This source, however, did not know of any CP control of the boycott. As an example, this source related that members of the Borough Hall Club, CP Kings County, New York, were urged to participate in at least one day of school picketing in support of the school boycott. Informant stated that he did not know of any specific CP members who did any picketing during the boycott.

An article in the New York Herald Tribune, dated March 10, 1965, page 18, entitled, "Galamison Halts School Shutdown", announced that the 50-day-old "shutdown" of the city's schools which had been limping along for several weeks, was officially shut down on March 9, 1965, by its organizer, Reverend Milton Galamison Mr. Galamison reportedly stated that he had suspended the boycott because of lack of support from other Civil Rights groups.

The Doylestown "Intelligencer" of Doylestown, Pa., in its March 13, 1965, issue contained an article reflecting that a delegation from Bucks County would proceed to Selma, Ala., for memorial services for Reverend JAMES REEB on Sunday, March 14, 1965. This article indicated that the delegation would include ISAAC ~~BEN EZRA~~. U

On November 8, 1954, confidential source PH T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that according to comments made by the leadership of the Communist Party (CP) in the New York area, ISAAC and HILDA BEN EZRA, [redacted] Philadelphia, Pa., were considered fine, devoted people and inferred that ISAAC was transferred from the Jackson Club, New York State Industrial Concentration, to Industrial, Pennsylvania, and that HILDA was also transferred from the Jackson Club, New York State Concentration, to the Street Club, Philadelphia, and that their dues were paid through 1953. On October 8, 1956, ISAAC BEN EZRA, [redacted] Levittown, Pa., advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he had never been associated with any organization or individuals which held beliefs inimical to the best interest of the United States and that he had never been a member of the Communist Party and did not consider himself a Communist. The March 20, 1965, issue of the "Intelligencer Journal," a Lancaster, Pa., daily newspaper, reports that 18 individuals, including G. WAYNE GLICK, Dean of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., left the area on the morning of March 20, 1965, by automobile for Alabama. They were expected to reach Birmingham, Ala., by dinner time on March 20, 1965, and to attend an orientation at a Birmingham Unitarian Church before proceeding to Selma, Ala. Among those in this group was LEONARD V. CHERRY, a professor at Franklin and Marshall College. U

PA ALA

Confidential source PH T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 22, 1953, that LEONARD VICTOR CHERRY on April 20, 1953, at a meeting of the Communist Party in Durham, N. C., with two other individuals formed a separate club of the Communist Party, at which time he was elected chairman. U

This newspaper article further reflects that when this contingent arrives in Selma, Ala., they would be joined with six others from Lancaster, who left Lancaster by auto on March 18, 1965. After the march to Montgomery begins, both groups would leave by automobile for Pennsylvania and it was indicated they expected to arrive in Lancaster, Pa., on Monday, March 22, 1965. U individuals left Lancaster, Pa., by auto on that date for Washington, D. C., where they would board a special train leaving Washington at 2:00 p.m. for Montgomery, Ala. This train was scheduled to arrive in Montgomery at 7:00 a.m. on March 25, 1965. According to this article, this group was to join the Selma to Montgomery March on the outskirts of Montgomery for the march into that city. These people planned to leave Montgomery at 5:00 p.m. on March 25, 1965, by special train, returning to Washington and arriving at noon, March 26, 1965. The return trip to Lancaster, Pa., from Washington would be made by automobile. Among those individuals identified as being members of the Lancaster Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) who made this trip was Reverend WILLIAM E. NIETO. U

The March 24, 1965, issue of "New Era," a daily Lancaster, Pa., newspaper, carried the story that a group of U

Miss MICKEY COOPER, News Director, Radio Station WAEB, Allentown, Pa., advised on March 24, 1965, that she had been in contact with ARTHUR RAVITZ, a civil rights worker from Easton, Pa., who had been in Alabama since March 20, 1965. RAVITZ went to Alabama with LEE HARRIS, Executive Committee member, NAACP, on March 20, 1965. Approximately 75 percent of the passengers on this same flight were civil rights workers proceeding to Montgomery, Ala. RAVITZ and HARRIS were met in Atlanta, Ga., by JOHN LEWIS of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). They proceeded to Montgomery by automobile, arriving there at 7:30 p.m. on March 20, 1965. U

Montgomery and stated he had been arrested the night of March 23, 1965, for picketing at the Alabama State Capital Building in Montgomery and spent the night of March 23, 1965, at the Kilby State Prison in Montgomery. He had been arrested for failure to obey orders of an officer and obtained $100 bond and was freed on March 24, 1965. RAVITZ stated he intended to picket the State Capital Building in Montgomery with a group of people from SNCC on the night of March 24, 1965, and would sleep in the vicinity of the Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING marching group a short distance outside Montgomery, Ala. According to Miss COOPER, DIANE LAISON of Nazareth, Pa., went to Montgomery, Ala., on March 23, 1965, and was to contact RAVITZ in Montgomery.

On September 11, 1964, confidential source PH T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the name ARTHUR RAVITZ, [redacted] Easton, Pa., appeared on an index card at the headquarters of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), Philadelphia, Pa., which appeared to contain the names and addresses of subscribers to "The Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

On March 25, 1965, confidential source PH T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that DIANE LAISON and her husband GARY are current members of the Professional Club, CPEPD.

The March 29, 1965, edition of the "Bethlehem Globe Times," Bethlehem, Pa., carried an article under the heading "Ala. Marcher Admits She Was 'Frightened.'" According to this article, Mrs. DIANE LAISON, a 26 year old Nazareth woman, summed up her experiences in Alabama in one word - "frightening." The wife of a Lehigh University teacher, she was one of several area residents to visit Alabama for what has come to be called "The March." According to this article, she was scared to death and explained she felt cowardly by comparison with the courage she saw. Mrs. LAISON left the Lehigh Valley on Tuesday, March 23, 1965 for Philadelphia from where she flew to Atlanta, Ga. Transportation to Montgomery was made by a rented automobile. Mrs. LAISON, presently working on her thesis for a Ph.D. in mathematics, was one of the brave ones. She said she would do it again although still more frightened.

Confidential sources who are aware of some of the Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) activities in the Philadelphia area advised that although the CP and the SWP have expressed an interest in the Selma-Montgomery March and the voter registration drive in Alabama, they have no knowledge of any instructions or directions for any of their members to travel to Alabama to participate in this activity.

The SWP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MARCH, 1965

On March 31, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on March 28, 1965, David Laibman, a student at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, indicated that he had just returned from Montgomery, Alabama, where he had participated in demonstrations.

The first source advised on March 31, 1965, that on March 28, 1965, David Laibman attended a meeting of members of the Ohio District, Communist Party, USA, held at Cleveland, Ohio.

On March 31, 1965, Miley O. Williamson, Secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Dayton, Ohio, advised that during March, 1965, Sumpter McIntosh, Dayton, Ohio, travelled to Alabama to participate in the marches protesting voter discrimination in that area.

Arthur Paul Strunk, a self-admitted member of the Communist Party at Dayton, Ohio, from approximately March, 1944, until December, 1952, and who served as Financial Secretary of the Dayton Communist Party Section from February, 1945, to April, 1952, and who voluntarily cooperated with the FBI from April, 1943, until September, 1954, advised during 1949 that Sumpter McIntosh, Jr., was a member of the Communist Party at Dayton, Ohio, from 1946 to 1948. Strunk said Sumpter McIntosh, Jr., was not very active, but did

ROBERT EUGENE GOLDBURG

The March 27, 1965, edition of the "New Haven Register," a New Haven, Connecticut, daily newspaper, contained an article on page one entitled, "After Montgomery March Returning Clergy See a 'New Day' Dawning." This article revealed that Rabbi ROBERT E. GOLDBURG of Temple Mishkan Israel, Hamden, Connecticut, and Dr. WILLARD UPHAUS, director of World Fellowship, Inc., were among thirty-nine New Haven persons who marched the last six miles to Alabama's state capitol on Thursday, March 25, 1965.

The article revealed that according to Rabbi GOLDBURG, he arrived at Montgomery on March 25, 1965, at which time " a jubilant people" went into the city "singing many songs."

According to the article, Dr. WILLARD UPHAUS said that "one felt the spirit of victory as the marchers sang 'We Shall Overcome.'" UPHAUS also commented that no amount of reading will ever take the place of actually being in the presence of "this thing." He commented that people from all over the United States had participated in the demonstration and his impression was that the people of Montgomery, Alabama, who observed the demonstration, "were watching their world go out from under them."

ENCLOSURE

The 1963 Hamden, Connecticut, City Directory reveals that ROBERT EUGENE GOLDBURG is a Rabbi of the Congregation Mishkan Israel, Hamden, Connecticut, and resides at [redacted] Hamden.

b7C

On January 8, 1953, a source, who had furnished reliable information in the past, identified Rabbi ROBERT E. GOLDBURG as a sponsor of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB) in 1952.

The ACPFB has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in 1959, a national officer of the National Committee to Secure Justice for MORTON SOBELL (NCSJMS) prepared letters to the American Civil Liberties Committee requesting they take an active part in efforts to free MORTON SOBELL. These letters were prepared by this individual for the signature of Rabbi ROBERT E. GOLDBURG.

According to a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in 1962, Rabbi ROBERT E. GOLDBURG stated he was in sympathy with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) and in April, 1962 he made a $50.00 contribution to that group.

Characterizations of the NCSJMS and the FPCC are set forth hereinafter in the appendix section.

A characterization of Dr. WILLARD UPHAUS is included with that of the World Fellowship, Inc., in the appendix section.

The March 19, 1965, edition of the "New Britain Herald," a New Britain, Connecticut, daily newspaper, on page one, contained an article captioned, "Area Clergymen Relate Events in Racially Torn Alabama City." This article revealed that ninety residents of Connecticut had returned that morning from a trip to Alabama and that among these individuals was LADISLAUS MICHALOWSKI. The article quoted the Reverend VINCENT WATSON, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, New Britain, as having stated that the group arrived at Montgomery, Alabama, on March 19, 1965; that the group had been transported to Selma, Alabama, by buses and cars; and that the group had been greeted at Selma with "hand-clapping and freedom songs." According to Reverend WATSON, an orientation session was held at Selma and attended by approximately 400 persons from seven states. Included with the orientation was a "workshop on non-violence." Reverend WATSON stated that he had talked with WILSON BAKER, Selma, Alabama, commissioner of public safety, who stated that the authorities were fearful of "teenage whites throwing missiles from moving vehicles."

On May 3, 1957, a fourth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that LADISLAUS MICHALOWSKI was then a member of the Communist Party.

On March 23, 1965, Reverend WADE EATON, Pastor, Christ Church, 345 Elm Street, New Haven, Connecticut, advised that a rally sponsored by an informal group of representatives from the New Haven, Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Congress of Racial Equality, the Yale University Medical School Committee on Human Rights, the New Haven Human Relations Council, and various clergymen, would be held on the New Haven Green in the center of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of March 24, 1965, in support of the march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama.

On the evening of March 24, 1965, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the above-mentioned rally, which was attended by approximately two-hundred persons. During the rally, Dr. EDWIN RICHARD WEINERMAN, associate professor of medicine at Yale University Medical School, New Haven, spoke concerning the activities of the Medical School Committee on Human Rights in regard to medical preparations for the Selma to Montgomery march.

CONN

The March 23, 1965, edition of the "New Haven Register," on page eighteen, contains a letter to the Editor, written over the name of E. RICHARD WEINERMAN, M.D., Chairman, New Haven Medical Committee for Human Rights. In the letter, WEINERMAN indicated that he had participated in the "Selma-Montgomery march" in behalf of the Medical Committee for Human Rights. He stated that "our" function had been: to assist the civil rights workers to obtain needed medical care when they were attacked or became ill; to visit the jailed demonstrators in order to deter abusive treatment; and to assist in the medical preparations for the Selma-Montgomery march. WEINERMAN said that "we" were concerned with adequate provision for sanitary facilities and public health precautions, but only as a contribution to the success of the march - not as a criticism of it.

A fifth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 21, 1963, that during April, 1962 Dr. EDWIN RICHARD WEINERMAN informed HOLLAND ROBERTS that he deeply respected ROBERTS efforts to improve American-Soviet relations and that he was grateful for the experience made possible through ROBERTS' office, the American-Russian Institute of San Francisco, of meeting with the Soviet Delegation "that visited the area several months ago."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

According to a sixth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, HOLLAND ROBERTS is president of the American-Russian Institute of San Francisco, California, and a member of the Palo Alto Club of Santa Clara County, California, Communist Party.

The American-Russian Institute of San Francisco has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On March 19, 1965, Detective ROBERT CRANE, Waterbury, Connecticut, Police Department, advised that on March 18, 1965, a group of approximately ninety persons who reside within the State of Connecticut departed Hartford, Connecticut, by air for Montgomery, Alabama. According to Detective CRANE this group returned by air to Hartford, Connecticut, on March 19, 1965, and one of the individuals who participated in this trip was PETER MICHAEL MARCUSE.

During February, 1954 HAROLD KENT advised that PETER MICHAEL MARCUSE was then a member of the Communist Party.

HAROLD KENT, [redacted] Bridgeport, Connecticut, was a member of the Communist Party in Connecticut in 1949 and from 1952 to January 10, 1956. He has voluntarily furnished information to the FBI since February, 1952.

WORLD FELLOWSHIP, INC. (WFI),
aka: World Fellowship Center

The records of the Office of the Secretary of State of Illinois show that World Fellowship, Inc., submitted Articles of Incorporation on October 13, 1936. The Annual Report of World Fellowship, Inc., dated March 5, 1959, lists WILLARD UPHAUS as Executive Director, Secretary and Acting Treasurer, 66 Edgewood Ave., New Haven, Connecticut. The character of the affairs which the corporation is actually conducting are listed as "occasional publications, summer conferences at World Fellowship Center in New Hampshire, Executive Director travels to speak and organize activities for justice and peace."

On July 24, 1963, a source described the World Fellowship Center, Albany, New Hampshire, as definitely pro-communist in attitudes and objectives, based on their programs and speakers of known Communist and Communist front backgrounds appearing there, which programs and speakers have been critical of the U. S. Government and its policies as opposed to praiseworthy pronouncements of the concepts of governments in the Soviet Union and its allies, notably Cuba.

WILLARD UPHAUS was sentenced to one year imprisonment for contempt of court on December 14, 1959, in Merrimack County Superior Court, New Hampshire, for refusal to produce records identifying individuals who attended the World Fellowship Center, Conway, New Hampshire, during 1954 and 1955. The New Hampshire Attorney General said many of these individuals were affiliated with groups "officially designated asCommunist infiltrated or controlled" and requested their identities in connection with an investigation of subversive activities in the State of New Hampshire. UPHAUS was released from Merrimack County House of Correction, Boscawen, New Hampshire, on December 11, 1960.

WORLD FELLOWSHIP, INC. (WFI),
aka: World Fellowship Center

A second source advised on March 28, 1960, that plans had been announced for a building program for WFI summer camp which would represent a monument to the sacrifice WILLARD UPHAUS has made in connection with his work for WFI and his struggle with the courts resulting in his imprisonment. According to this source, contributions were being solicited to the World Fellowship Building Fund for this purpose with a goal in Connecticut of $85,000.

A third source on May 11, 1964, provided literature of the WFI which revealed its winter headquarters at 66 Edgewood Avenue, New Haven, and summer headquarters at Conway, New Hampshire. This literature also announced that the summer program of the World Fellowship Camp at Conway, New Hampshire, was scheduled to commence on June 22, 1964, and would continue through September 8, 1964.

A fourth source on March 26, 1964, identified "Doctor Willard Uphaus" as one of the national co-chairmen of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Your attention is directed to Buairtel 3/24/65 which contained the instructions upon which your airtel was based. It was instructed that characterizations be succinct and generally limited to the most recent and subversive information available.

The LHM identified a Jesse Max Dean as one of the participants, in the marches. The characterization of Dean is in two parts. One part reports his 1962 association with the National Lawyers Guild. The other part reports that Dean invoked the Fifth Amendment before the HCUA 5/13/54 when asked whether he was then, or ever had been, a member of the Communist Party (CP).

Dean is on the Reserve Index, Section A, your office origin. A review of the Bufile concerning Dean reveals information to the effect that he was a member of the CP in 1951. The Bureau believes that the information reported concerning Dean invoking the Fifth Amendment, standing alone, is near meaningless insofar as reporting hard facts concerning

By return airtel submit an amended page two to the LHM which should report Dean's former Party membership. Advise other offices to which the LHM was sent.

In addition, this communication should be brought to the personal attention of the Agent responsible for the preparation of the characterization concerning Dean. He should be instructed that in the future the Bureau will expect a more rigid adherence to Bureau instructions. It should not have been necessary for the Bureau to review its file concerning Dean thus necessitating the additional communications for the rectification of this matter. This needless effort both at the Seat of Government and in your office is a direct result of the failure to follow the explicit instructions contained in Buairtel 3/24/65.

A source advised on March 23, 1965, that on March 22, 1965, the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois State Board held a meeting in Chicago, Illinois. Source advised that during the course of the discussion at this CP of Illinois Board meeting, it was indicated that the CP of Illinois had no representation at the voter discrimination demonstrations being held in Selma, Alabama, in connection with the Reverend Martin Luther King's voter registration drive.

Source stated that those present discussed the question of the lack of representation and it was decided that Ted Pearson, a CP of Illinois youth leader, who was in attendance at the State Board meeting, would leave for Selma, Alabama, that week to represent the CP of Illinois' interests.

A second source on March 25, 1965, advised that on that date James West, CP of Illinois Organizational Secretary, had indicated that Ted Pearson had not gone to Selma, Alabama, because Pearson could not get plane reservations.

The "Chicago Tribune," a Chicago daily newspaper, issue of March 28, 1965, Section 1, Page 3, Columns 6 and 7, carried an article entitled, "Elude Chase on Alabama Murder Road."

The aforementioned article reflected an interview of Mandel A. Terman, described in the article as Chairman of the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship, who resided at 660 Irving Park Road, Chicago, and was the operator of a nursing home and a theater.

In this interview reflected in the aforementioned article Mandel Terman reported that he had been in Alabama during the civil rights march between Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, and during the time Mrs. Viola Liuzzo, the Detroit, Michigan, housewife was slain. According to the interview, Mandel Terman stated that he had been on the same Highway 80 on the Wednesday when Mrs. Liuzzo was slain and that he had been chased by four men in a car and that he had escaped these unidentified individuals by driving 90 to 100 miles an hour and gaining refuge in a hamburger stand.

According to the article Mandel Terman stated that at the time he was chased he was driving a secretary of Martin Luther King, and prior to the incident had participated in the demonstrations being held in Alabama and was, like Mrs. Liuzzo, one of those individuals who drove demonstrators between Montgomery and Selma, Alabama.

The article further identified Mandel Terman as an individual who had refused to testify before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in connection with allegations that he had been a member of the CP.

A third source on March 29, 1965, advised that on that date it had been learned that Mandel Terman had been in Selma, Alabama, at the time Mrs. Viola Liuzzo was slain and had been in that state for approximately four days at the time of the incident. This source advised that Terman had stated that during the time he was in Alabama he was in great fear of his life inasmuch as he had been in charge of transportation between Selma and Montgomery, Alabama.

It is to be noted concerning Mandel Terman that a fourth source advised on November 5, 1958, that Mandel Terman, in the early 1940s, was a member-at-large of the CP of Illinois.

The same source also stated that Terman in November, 1958, was in Russia, where he had gone to discuss the treatment of Jews in the Soviet Union and also to discuss Jewish culture in the USSR with the leadership of the CP of the Soviet Union.

A fifth source on March 29, 1965, advised that Chicagoans known to her to have been in Selma, Alabama, during the Reverend Martin Luther King's voter registration demonstrations were Doctor Quentin Young and Irene Turner. This source advised that Young and Turner were in Alabama in connection with the civil rights demonstrations and were part of a medical team which had offered its services to the Reverend Martin Luther King's organization.

Concerning Doctor Quentin Young, it is to be noted that the first source on January 31, 1964, advised that as of January, 1964, Doctor Quentin Young was a member of the CP of Illinois. ALA

Concerning Irene Turner, it is to be noted that a sixth source on July 9, 1947, advised that Irene Turner, as of July, 1947, was a member of the CP of Illinois. ALA

Lola Belle Holmes, 6851 South Calumet, Chicago, Illinois, a member of the CP at Chicago from August, 1957, to January, 1963, on March 29, 1965, advised that during a discussion at the Chicago Urban League the previous week, it was speculated as to who might be in Alabama participating in the civil rights demonstrations in that state and during this discussion the only name mentioned was that of Ann Prosten.

By suitable pretext Jesse Prosten, husband of Ann Prosten, was contacted and Prosten advised that his wife Ann had been in Selma, Alabama, in connection with the Reverend Martin Luther King's voter registration drive and had participated in the demonstrations conducted by King's organization. Mr. Prosten further advised that his wife had gone to Selma as a member of a medical group from Chicago, which group had offered its services to the Reverend King. Mr. Prosten advised that his wife was in Selma for approximately two weeks in this capacity. ILL

Concerning Ann Prosten, it is to be noted that a seventh source on December 21, 1962, and May 2, 1963, advised that Ann Prosten was attending CP of Illinois club meetings up to December, 1962; however, in April, 1963, it was learned that she would no longer be coming to CP club meetings.

The first source on April 2, 1964, advised that at a meeting of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission, held in April, 1964, a CP member stated that Ann Prosten was not a current CP member but that she was still a Marxist.

Concerning Jesse Prosten, it is to be noted that a ninth source advised on June 4, 1962, that CP of Illinois leaders as of June 1962, were interested in maintaining continuous contact with Jesse Prosten, a key CP contact in the packing industry. These contacts with Prosten were to obtain financial contributions from Prosten and to keep him current on CP policy.

"The Militant," issue of March 8, 1965, page 3, columns 3,4, and 5, carried an article reflecting the results of an interview of civil rights participants in Selma, Alabama, conducted on February 24, 1965, by Joel Britton.

Concerning "The Militant," it is to be noted that this newspaper is the weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

The SWP is an organization which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Concerning Joel Britton, ALA it is to be further noted that an eighth source on March 29, 1965, advised that as of that date Joel Britton was a member of the Chicago Branch SWP.

Appended hereto are characterizations of the Chicago Branch SWP and the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters
Marches Protesting Voter Discrimination
Selma - Montgomery, Alabama
March, 1965

DE T-1 advised on March 20, 1965, that Herbert Kransdorf stated on this date that the Michigan District Communist Party (MDCP) is doing "nothing" in connection with the Selma, Alabama, Civil Rights demonstrations.

DE T-2 advised on December 3, 1964, that Herbert Kransdorf is Chairman of the MDCP.

On March 29, 1965, DE T-3 advised that the following were included among a group of individuals who chartered a plane for a flight on March 25, 1965, from Flint, Michigan, to Montgomery, Alabama. DE T-3 said he did not know if any of these individuals participated in Civil Rights demonstrations or exerted any influence in the demonstrations:

Robert Abram, [redacted] Flint, Michigan

Max Dean, [redacted] Flint, Michigan

Dave Elsila, [redacted] Pontiac, Michigan

William Genske, [redacted] Flint, Michigan

ROBERT ABRAM

DE T-4 made available information on September 6, 1961, which disclosed that Robert Abram, [redacted] Flint, Michigan, was then a member of the Detroit Branch, National Lawyers Guild (NLG). b6 b7C

Characterizations of the Detroit Chapter NLG and the NLG are contained in the appendix hereto.

JESSE MAX DEAN

DE T-14 advised on January 23, 1951, that JESSE MAX DEAN was then a member of the Communist Party in Flint.

The "New York Guild Lawyer" (Volume 20-3), March - April, 1962, issue, which is self-described as a publication of the NLG, sets forth the officers and members of the National Executive Board (NEB) of the NLG who were elected at the 25th Anniversary Convention of the NLG at Detroit, Michigan, February 22-25, 1962. Jesse Max Dean is listed as a newly elected member of the NEB.

DAVID ELSILA

DE T-5 advised on January 3, 1962, that at a meeting of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) held on December 17, 1961, at 1057 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan, David Elsila was elected Treasurer of the FPCC and was also made the Publicity Chairman.

A characterization of the FPCC is contained in the appendix hereto.

DE T-2 advised on May 7, 1962, that David Elsila was then active on the Detroit Committee, United States Festival Committee.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

A characterization of the United States Festival Committee, Incorporated, (Eighth World Youth Festival) Detroit Festival Committee is contained in the appendix hereto.

DE T-2 advised on February 5, 1965, that David Elsila recently indicated a desire to reactivate the Detroit Festival Committee.

WILLIAM LOUIS GENSKE

Beatrice Churchill, a self-admitted member of the Communist Party from 1946 to 1952, who has testified before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) advised on May 9, 1955, that she had not known William Louis Genske as a member of the Communist Party, but knew him to be very sympathetic with Communism and its aims.

William Louis Genske, [redacted] Flint, Michigan, was interviewed on January 19, 1956, by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Genske stated that he had never been a member of the Communist Party, but admitted having attended Communist Party (CP) meetings in the past and subscribing to "The Worker". Genske declined to answer when asked if he had ever belonged to the Proletarian Party of America (PPA), but admitted that in the past he had subscribed to the "Proletarian News".

b7C

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

The PPA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Proletarian News" is self-described as the official publication of the PPA.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

EDGAR HOLT

Edgar Holt was interviewed on September 6, 1956, at Flint, Michigan, by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Holt stated that he had formerly been a member of the Southern Negro Youth Congress (SNYC) and had learned subsequent to his membership in this organization that it had been designated as subversive.

Holt further stated that he had never been a member of the CP and would never, under any circumstances, join the CP. Holt said his former membership in the SNYC was not initiated or controlled by the CP and that he was not cognizant during the period of his membership in the SNYC that the CP was a controlling force in this organization.

The SNYC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

C. FREDERICK ROBINSON

DE T-4 made available information on September 6, 1961, which disclosed that C. Frederick Robinson, [redacted] Flint, Michigan, was then a member of the Detroit Chapter NLG. b6 b7C

DE T-4 made available information on August 30, 1963, which disclosed that C. Frederick Robinson, with addresses given as [redacted] and [redacted] both Flint, Michigan, was included on a mailing list of the NLG.

MYZELL SOWELL

DE T-6 made available information on April 6, 1964, which disclosed that Myzell Sowell was a member during 1964 of the Executive Board, Detroit Chapter NLG.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

BAXTER

Mich
Ala

On April 1, 1965, DE T-2 corroborated the information that David Elsila, supra, went to Alabama during March, 1965. DE T-2 said that Elsila and Willie Louis Baxter went to Selma, Alabama, during March, 1965, to participate in the Civil Rights demonstrations. This source also advised that he did not know the extent of participation in the Civil Rights demonstrations by Elsila and Baxter or the extent of their influence in these demonstrations.

WILLIE LOUIS BAXTER

DE T-7 advised on November 21, 1958, that Willie Louis Baxter was in 1958 a member of the MDCP.

Mich

DE T-8 advised in December, 1958, that it was stated by Coleman Young in December, 1958, that Willie Baxter was released from CP work to enable him to work in the mass field of activities as a Progressive; that Young said Willie Baxter had been somewhat taken over by the "Right Wingers" and that the CP was finding it difficult to control the activities of Baxter.

Ala

DE T-7 advised on September 29, 1964, that Coleman Young is a member of the Freedom Forum Club, MDCP.

DE T-9 advised on April 1, 1965, that William W. Bunge, Jr., a teacher at Wayne State University (WSU), Detroit, Michigan, who resides at [redacted] Detroit, was in Selma, Alabama, for three days in March, 1965, during the Civil Rights demonstrations.

b7C

Mich

DE T-9 also advised that he did not know if Bunge had participated in any demonstrations or had exerted any influence in the Civil Rights demonstrations.

WILLIAM W. BUNGE, JR.

DE T-10 advised on August 14, 1962, that, according to a statement recently made by Carl Winter, an organization known as the Association for Economic Studies (AES) is publishing "Labor Today".

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

DE T-11 advised on April 5, 1964, that Carl Winter was then a member of the CP, USA National Board.

A characterization of "Labor Today" is contained in the appendix hereto.

It was disclosed on September 10, 1962, through the Office of Records of the Corporation Section, Corporation and Securities Commission, State of Michigan, 300 East Michigan Avenue, Lansing, Michigan, that the AES was incorporated on August 3, 1962, with address at 12065 Wyoming, Detroit, Michigan. The resident agent of this corporation was listed as William Bunge, [redacted] Detroit.

DE T-12 advised on February 15, 1965, that William Bunge, a teacher and the publisher of "Labor Today", was a speaker at the "Labor Today" Conference held on February 6, 1965, at 12065 Wyoming, Detroit, Michigan.

The March 26, 1965, Final Four Star Edition of "The Detroit News", a newspaper of general circulation published daily in Detroit, Michigan, contains an article on Page 6A captioned, "Many Detroiters Have Made Selma Pilgrimage". This article disclosed that John Conyers, a United States representative from Detroit, Michigan, flew to Selma, Alabama, from Washington.

JOHN CONYERS

DE T-13 advised in April, 1964, that William Allan stated that John Conyers met with him on April 3, 1964, at "The Worker" Office in Detroit, Michigan, and had discussed with Allan the campaign of Conyers for public office and a recent trip to the State of Mississippi where Conyers had participated in Civil Rights activities.

DE T-13 also said that William Allan stated he, Allan, asked Conyers for an article which Allan would have published as though it came from MDCP Headquarters. Allan added that Conyers said that this would be "beautiful" and that Allan should go ahead with this idea.

DE T-1 advised on November 17, 1964, that William Allan is a member of the MDCP City Council.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE, DETROIT BRANCH

On November 7, 1960, a source reported that ED SHAW, Detroit Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) member was Detroit Branch SWP representative of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), and was in the process of establishing the Detroit Chapter of the FPCC, the national office of which is in New York City.

On January 29, 1961, the "Detroit News" published an article stating that the Detroit Branch of the FPCC had been organized in Detroit with an office at the residence of ED SHAW, 1057 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, and that an Executive Board had been elected with ED SHAW named the Chairman of the board.

According to the article, the Detroit Branch, FPCC, was affiliated with the national organization and listed among its purposes "general efforts to create a better understanding between the peoples of the United States and Cuba". The article further stated that public meetings and discussions on Cuban-American relations were planned by the group in a "forceful and dynamic program to bring the truth about Cuba to the people of Michigan".

A second source on October 17, 1961, advised that activities of the Detroit Chapter, FPCC, had slowed down considerably and that during the summer and early fall very few activities were sponsored by this group.

This source further reported on June 22, 1962, that the FPCC activities in Detroit, Michigan, were at a standstill and that there were no plans for future activities.

The first source advised on October 4, 1962, that EDWARD SHAW was scheduled to leave Michigan on October 8 or 9, 1962, for Mountain Spring Camp in Washington, New Jersey, where he was to be an instructor for the next session of the Trotsky School.

The second source advised on October 4, 1962, that there had been no activities connected with the FPCC and that as far as the source knew this committee was defunct.

DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF THE WHITE HOUSE ON PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N. W., MARCH 8, 1965, SPONSORED BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE
RACIAL MATTERS

On March 8, 1965, a demonstration began in Washington, D. C., which was sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and other groups promoting integration. Demonstrations were conducted in front of the White House on Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., and Department of Justice Building at Ninth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., the Office of the Attorney General, the reception area of the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the East Wing of the White House and the Capitol Building. The demonstrations terminated on March 10, 1965.

At approximately 3:25 p.m. on March 10, 1965, a group of 22 individuals, who had previously demonstrated in front of the White House, appeared in the reception area of the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the Old Post Office Building, 12th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W. One member of this group was Barry Wells, [redacted] Garrett Park, Maryland.

b7C

At approximately 11:45 a.m. on March 11, 1965, a group of twelve demonstrators entered the East Wing of the White House through the visitor's gate and staged a sit-down on the ground level of the East Wing of the White House. Among this group was Lynn Barbara Wells, [redacted] Garrett Park, Maryland.

DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF THE WHITE HOUSE ON PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N. W., MARCH 7, 1965. SPONSORED BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE

The current Washington D. C., Telephone Directory lists R. H. Wells, Jr., as residing at [redacted] Garrett Park, Maryland. b6 b7C

On August 2 , 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Roy Hudson Wells had been a member of the Communist Party (CP) for the past 14 years.

In October, 1952, Mary Stalcup Markward, an admitted former member of the Communist Party and the Communist Party of America, and who, during the period of 1945 to 1951, had positions of responsibility in the CP, knew Roy Hudson Wells as a member of the CP during this period.

The Communist Party had been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On March 13, 1965, at approximately 4:30 p.m. 34 individuals staged a sit-down demonstration on Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., in front of the White House. One of the demonstrators was Alex Passikoff, 1424 Kings Road, Washington, D. C.

On January 7, 1965, Marion John Heatherly, [redacted] Washington, D. C., advised Alex Passikoff recently arrived from New York City, and participated in the demonstration sponsored by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party in Washington, D. C., on January 4, 1965. Passikoff stated he had participated in attempted road-blocks of main highways during the opening of the World's Fair in New York in 1964.

DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF THE WHITE HOUSE ON PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N. W., MARCH 8, 1955, SPONSORED BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE

Frank Harlow, [redacted] Irvington, New Jersey, picked up a hitchhiker named Alex Passikoff [redacted] New York, New York, on August 24, 1950. During the conversation, Passikoff said he had recently been thrown out of the CP, and then tried to enlist Harlow into the CP, at which point Harlow said he "threw him out of the car."

RACIAL MATTERS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On March 24, 1965, Mr. Sam Nolan of the Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department, advised that his section had learned that a march and demonstration in sympathy with the voters registration demonstrations in Alabama was to be held on March 25, 1965, at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Nolan stated that the participating groups in this demonstration were to be the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), the Mile Square Federation of Ministers and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

Mr. Nolan advised that the DuBois Clubs were to meet at Ashland and Madison Streets on the west side of Chicago and were to march from that location at 3:00 PM to the Federal Building. The Mile Square Federation of Ministers was scheduled to assemble at Jackson and Hoyne Streets and would also march at the same time to the Federal Building. Mr. Nolan stated that SNCC was scheduled to congregate at 22nd and State Streets, Chicago, at 3:30 PM and then march from this location to the Federal Building. Mr. Nolan noted after all these groups had assembled at the Federal Building they would conduct a rally which was to terminate in the Federal Building plaza on the Quincy side of the Federal Building.

On March 25, 1965, Mr. Nolan again advised that the Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department, had learned further that the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) had requested permission to assemble at Congress Plaza, Congress and State Streets, Chicago, and then march from the Congress Plaza to the Federal Building and other Loop locations where they intended to conduct a demonstration in sympathy with the voter registration demonstrations currently being undertaken in the State of Alabama. Mr. Nolan advised that, according to information he had received, the group represented by the social workers would number in the vicinity of approximately 400 persons. Mr. Nolan advised that he did not know whether the NASW group was in any way connected with the demonstration to be conducted by the other groups who were to march on the Federal Building; however, it was indicated that the social workers would also assemble at the Federal Building.

On March 25, 1965, at 4:00 PM, Special Agents of the FBI observed 14 individuals arrive at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, and this group carried a large sign which stated "March for Freedom - W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America." This group upon its arrival at the Federal Building was subsequently joined by two additional individuals making a total of 16.

Shortly after the arrival of the DCA group, this group was joined by approximately 100 persons who carried signs identifying their group as members of the Mile Square Federation, 1832 West Washington Boulevard, Chicago. These two groups began to circle the Federal Building, and their ranks were subsequently joined by approximately 30 additional individuals until the group totalled approximately 130 people.

At approximately 4:30 PM, a large group of individuals carrying signs identifying them as members of the NASW were observed in the vicinity of Quincy and State Streets. This group proceeded north on State Street to Madison Street and then west on Madison to City Hall, Chicago, Illinois, where they proceeded to picket this building.

At 4:30 PM the group represented by the Mile Square Federation and the DCA left the Federal Building and proceeded north on Dearborn Street to the City Hall location where they, too, joined the social workers demonstration.

At approximately 4:43 PM, this entire group, now containing approximately 600 persons, returned to the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn, and proceeded to march around the building in an orderly manner. At the height of this demonstration, the 600 members of the demonstration were about equally divided between white and Negro.

Signs carried during this demonstration were as follows:
"We Shall Overcome"
"Equal Justice 1965"
"Integration not Segregation"
"Ballots not Bombs"
"Support LBJ Voter Bills"

The group indicated above continued to circle the Federal Building until 5:05 PM when the group was assembled in the Federal Building Plaza on the Quincy Street side of the building, at which time a group of ministers led the group in prayer. At 5:15 PM the demonstration was disbanded.

During the aforementioned demonstration and march, the demonstrators were orderly and no incidents occurred. During the demonstration representatives of NASW, numbering approximately ten, were admitted to the Federal Building and requested to be shown to the officesof the United States Attorney and Senator Paul Douglas where they requested that they be permitted to present letters for forwarding to the President of the United States reflecting the social workers' sympathy with the voter registration demonstrations being conducted in the State of Alabama.

Among the participants in this demonstration, Special Agents of the FBI observed the following individuals:

Ted Pearson	Roberta Bruce
Robert Koester	Ilene Wagner
Dorothy Hayes	Charlotte Holenia
Manja Davis	Edward Heisler

A source advised on March 25, 1965, that the DuBois Clubs assembled a group of approximately 14 individuals in the vicinity of Ashland and Madison Streets, Chicago, at approximately 3:00 PM, and this group then marched to the Federal Building where they joined other groups demonstrating in that area in behalf of the voter registration situation in the State of Alabama. This source stated that among the groups represented were the NASW, the DuBois Clubs, the Mile Square Federation and a group of individuals representing SNCC. (X)(S)(U)

This source further advised that the DuBois Clubs had attempted to initiate a demonstration by calling representatives of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), SNCC and the NASW. Source advised that CORE, when contacted, declined to participate; however, the SNCC organization, when contacted, agreed to assemble a group. Source further advised that NASW, when contacted by a representative of the DuBois Clubs, advised this representative that they had already scheduled a demonstration for the Federal Building on March 25, 1965, and that as part of their demonstration in the Loop area they intended to also demonstrate at the City Hall Building, Chicago. This social workers representative stated that the NASW did not desire to coordinate their demonstration with the DuBois Clubs because many of their membership who would participate in the demonstration held city and county jobs as social workers and they did not care to have themselves identified with an organization such as the DuBois Clubs. (X)(S) (U)

This source further advised on March 25, 1965, that during this demonstration the following individuals were in attendance: ~~(S)~~ (U)

Jeff Gold	Dutch (Herman) Wagner
Kathy Pearson	Ilene Wagner
Ted Pearson	Ricky (Richard) Kling
Hector Pedroza	Ted Wulbert
Don Weatherall	Charles Harris
Rod Stephans	Roberta Bruce
Robert Koester

(X)(S) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This same source advised in connection with the above individuals that the following individuals were known to source to be current members of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois:

Ted Pearson
Kathy Pearson
Dutch Wagner
Ilene Wagner
Don Weatherall
Roberta Bruce
Robert Koester

This same source also advised that Ted and Kathy Pearson, Ilene and Dutch Wagner, Ricky Kling, Don Weatherall, Charles Harris, Rod Stephans, Roberta Bruce and Robert Koester are also current members of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago (DCC).

Concerning Hector Pedroza, it is to be noted the same source advised on October 18, 1963, that at a meeting of the Northwest Side Youth Club, CP of Illinois, held October 11, 1963, at 17 East Grand Avenue, Chicago, a discussion was held concerning possible recruits for membership in the CP of Illinois, and that during the course of this discussion the name of Hector Pedroza was mentioned as one such possible recruit. During this discussion it was also stated that Hector Pedroza's father was at one time a member of the CP in Mexico.

Concerning Ted Wulbert, it is to be noted that a second source advised on January 15, 1962, that as of January, 1962, Ted Wulbert was a member of the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Characterizations of the SWP Chicago Branch, DCA and DCC are appended hereto.

A third source on March 25, 1965, advised that he had attended the demonstration held at the Federal Building, Chicago, on March 25, 1965. This source furnished substantially the same information concerning this demonstration as that furnished by the first source, and in addition, this source advised that he recognized the following individuals, known to him to be current members of the CP of Illinois, in attendance: (S) (U)

Roberta Bruce
Kathy Pearson
Don Weatherall
Robert Koester
Ted Pearson
Dutch Wagner
Ilene Wagner

(S) (U)

This same source also advised that the following individuals were recognized by him to be in attendance and that he knows these individuals as members of the DCC: (S) (U)

Rod Stephans
Charles Harris

(S) (U)

As noted above, Special Agents of the FBI on March 25, 1965, observed Dorothy Hayes, Charlotte Holenia and Manja Davis as being in attendance during this demonstration.

A fourth source advised on March 25, 1965, that Hayes, Holenia and Davis are all current members of the Social Workers Club, CP of Illinois (U)

Concerning Edward Heisler observed by Special Agents of the FBI in attendance at this demonstration on March 25, 1965, it is to be noted that the second source advised on March 22, 1965, that Edward Heisler is a current member of the Chicago Branch, SWP. (U)

Concerning Jeff Gold referred to above, it is to be noted that the first source on February 3, 1964, advised that at a meeting of the Northwest Chicago CP Youth Club held in Chicago, on January 30, 1964, a discussion was held concerning the recruitment of new members into the CP and one of the names mentioned as to possible membership was Jeff Gold. (S) (U)

This same source on August 14, 1964, advised that at a meeting of a CP of Illinois Youth Club held in Chicago on August 7, 1964, a discussion was held concerning the recruitment of new members and the name of Jeff Gold was mentioned. During the discussion concerning Jeff Gold, it was stated that it had been learned that Gold did not wish to risk membership in the CP at this time, but that his father, Sam Gold, was trying to influence him in favor of membership. It was also stated concerning Gold that he had decided against involvement with the CP but would be involved with the DuBois Clubs (S)

Concerning Sam Gold referred to above, it is to be noted that a fifth source advised on December 10, 1964, that Sam Gold attended a combined meeting of two CP of Illinois Clubs which was held in Chicago on December 8, 1964. (U)

The information concerning the plans and preparation for this demonstration and the demonstration itself was furnished to the following agencies:

Margaret Cox, Secretary to the United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago.

Mildred Chiarl, Office of the General Services Administration, Compliance Division, Chicago.

Maurice Martineau, United States Secret Service, Chicago.

Sergeant Burton Lovely, Intelligence Division, Chicago Police Department.

MARCH, 1965

Sources familiar with activities in the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, USA (MDD CP), including the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota and a source familiar with activities of the Twin Cities Branch, Socialist Workers Party, who were contacted during March and April, 1965, have advised that no instructions were received or issued locally on a policy level concerning participation in marches protesting voter discrimination in the Selma-Montgomery, Alabama area to their knowledge. These sources could furnish no information concerning participation in these marches by local members of the MDD CP or the Twin Cities Branch, Socialist Workers Party.

The Twin Cities Branch of the Socialist Workers Party is characterized in the appendix attached hereto.

The March 31, 1965 issue of the "Minneapolis Tribune", a daily newspaper published in Minneapolis, Minnesota, contained on page 3 an article written by Dick Cunningham, Minneapolis Tribune Staff Writer, captioned "Two Twin Cities Women Carry Coffin Cases in Montgomery", datelined Montgomery, Alabama.

This article identified Mrs. Kenneth Tilsen, [redacted] Mendota, Minnesota, as one of a group of several women who left Minneapolis, Minnesota on Sunday, March 28, 1965, to participate in a memorial service at the Alabama State Capitol for Mrs. Viola Liuzzo.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised in May, 1958, that Rachel Tilsen, also known as Mrs. Kenneth Tilsen, was identified by Rose Renaud, then a member of the District Board and District Committee of the Communist Party, as a member of the Communist Party Professional Club in the St. Paul, Minnesota area.

A second source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised in March, 1965, that Rachel Tilsen is the daughter of Meridel Le Sueur, a long-time member of the Communist Party who is regarded as one of the leading Communist Party members in the MDD CP, is an author and writer and travels extensively throughout the United States.

The "Minneapolis Star", a daily newspaper published in Minneapolis, Minnesota, issue of March 30, 1965, on page 3B in the column captioned "Suburban Neighbors", prepared by Minneapolis Star Staff Writer Ralph Thornton, revealed six Twin Cities area housewives were identified as having departed by automobile Sunday, March 28, 1965, for Selma, Alabama to attend memorial services for civil rights worker, Mrs. Viola Liuzzo of Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Kenneth Tilsen, [redacted] Mendota Heights, was identified as one of these individuals. b6 b7C

The article states in part, "Why did they go when Alabama officials said women don't belong down there, they responded by saying, 'As long as they keep killing, we'll keep going.'"

The article stated that these women were members of no particular group but got together through word of mouth and telephone calls. All were identified as having worked on civil rights projects such as food and clothing collections for the South.

On March 30, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin was in contact with Rachelle Horowitz (a confidante of Rustin) on that date. Horowitz told Rustin that Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) would arrive at Kennedy International Airport, New York, New York, at 1:24 p.m. that date, and that King wanted Rustin to meet him at the Airport. Rustin told Horowitz to inform Harry Wachtel of his plans. (U)

On March 30, 1965, at 1:40 p.m., Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SAS) (FBI) observed Martin Luther King and Bernard Lee (assistant to King) departing from American Airlines flight 910, which had arrived at Kennedy International Airport from Detroit, Michigan. They were met by Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel.

Following a short period at the Airport, during which King and his associates were in the Press Office, they drove into New York City in Wachtel's

MARCHES PROTESTING VOTER DISCRIMINATION
SELMA - MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA
MARCH, 1965

Reurairtel 4/2/65, copy to Mobile, and enclosed letterhead memorandum (LHM) which reported on individuals with subversive backgrounds who went to Alabama during March, 1965, to participate in the protest against voter discrimination.

On page one of the LHM it is reported that Stanley Levison was to go to Alabama to participate in the civil rights march. The Bureau has no positive information concerning whether or not Levison actually did go to Alabama. Because of the particular importance which Levison is to the Bureau's CIRM investigation, it would be very desirable to determine whether or not Levison did in fact go to Alhbama and if he did what his activities there were. New York should attempt to make an immediate determination relative to this and if not resolved promptly should set out necessary leads for the Mobile Office including the forwarding of a photograph and description. New York should also furnish Mobile sufficient background data concerning Levison to enable Mobile to properly handle its inquiry. The Bureau should be kept promptly advised of all developments relative to this matter involving Levison.

Page seven of the LHM contains a characterization of Pete Seeger who was one of the entertainers reportedly in Alabama. The first paragraph of the characterization reports Seeger's Party membership, 1947 - 1949. The second paragraph reports that Seeger had been indicted in 1957 for refusing to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities about his political beliefs and associates; that he was sentenced in 1961; and that as of 4/15/61 he was free on bail pending appeal of his conviction.

Considering the Bureau's desire that characterizations be succinct, as instructed by Buairtel 3/24/65, information concerning Seeger's Party membership was, the that should have been reported. Further, when reporting all information concerning a prosecutive action the reporting should bring the matter to a conclusion rather than leaving a loose end hanging in the air. In other words, if Seeger's conviction was pertinent, what was the result of his appeal? The observations in instant paragraph are for the future guidance of appropriate personnel.

ReBuairtel 4/2/65 which furnished Bureau observations and directed corrective action relative to a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of 3/26/65 submitted by your office. Reairtel 4/5/65 which submitted an amended LHM.

Both LHMs reported that William and Elizabeth Lytle participated in a racial demonstration. The only characterizing information reported on both LHMs is information from T-1 [redacted] to the effect that informant identified the Lytles as "communist sympathizers." Your attention is directed to item number six in reBuairtel, noting the inadequacy of a characterization limited only to a description as "communist sympathizer." b7D

By return airtel submit an amended page five for the LHM which should contain an adequate characterization of the Lytles.

The Bureau notes that your office resubmitted the seven-page LHM in its entirety. A review of these pages reveals that several were retyped although they required either no changes or very minor changes. In the interest of streamlining and reasonable paperwork management, it is the Bureau's view that the entire LHM should not have been resubmitted. Bring this matter to the attention of appropriate personnel for their future guidance.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS;

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On April 1, 1965, Captain GEORGE H. DEUCHLER, Central District, Baltimore, Maryland Police Department, advised that on the morning of April 1, 1965, Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. left the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland, and went to the Sheraton Belvedere Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland, where he had breakfast. About 10:00 A.M. Dr. KING returned to the Lord Baltimore Hotel where he attended a Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Board Meeting.

Captain DEUCHLER advised that between 1:00 P.M. and 2:15 P.M. on April 1, 1965, approximately 100 to 125 Negroes dressed in burlap over their usual clothing and wearing burlap on their heads picketed the Lord Baltimore Hotel carrying signs which read, "Russian Termites - God Save America". This group was led by Elder LIGHTFOOT SOLOMON MICHAUX of Washington, D. C.

The News-American, a Baltimore, Maryland daily newspaper, on April 1, 1965, contained a story concerning this picketing which reflected that the demonstrators were followers of Elder LIGHTFOOT SOLOMON MICHAUX, President of the Gospel Spreading Association and head of seven Churches of God in Washington, D. C. The News-American reported that Elder MICHAUX said that he was demonstrating against the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. because Dr. KING has failed to show a true spirit of humility. He said that the proposed economic boycott of Alabama is not going to do any good and it will kill the civil rights movement.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS;

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The News-American reported that Elder MICHAUX was asked if the sigrs reading, "Russian Termites" implied that communists had infiltrated the civil rights movement and that Elder MICHAUX had replied, "No, but the movement might provide an avenue toward communism".

On the evening of April 1, 1965, Dr. KING attended a mass meeting held at the Cornerstone Baptist Church in the 1600 block of Bolton Street, Baltimore, Maryland. There were no incidents and no demonstrations in connection with this meeting.

On a news program in the late evening of April 1, 1965, the Reverend KING's wife appeared live and was questioned by news commentators. Some of the questioning dealt with measures that are usually taken for her protection and for the protection of Dr. KING and she advised that the measures taken for the protection of Dr. KING and herself during their visit to Baltimore are greater than have ever been taken anywhere else.

MARCH, 1965

Reverend Lane Barton was arrested by the San Francisco Police Department on April 11, 1964, in connection with the sit-in demonstrations sponsored by the San Francisco Branch of the National Association for Advance of Colored People (NAACP) at the Cadillac Agency, 1000 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco. Barton pleaded nolo contendere and received a jail sentence of 20 days suspended, a fine of $150.00 which was suspended, and probation for six months.

Reverend Robert Cromey also was arrested on April 11, 1964, by the San Francisco Police Department in connection with the sit-in at the Cadillac Agency in San Francisco. He also pleaded nolo contendere to the charge of failure to disperse, and received the same sentence as Reverend Barton.

Reverend Donald Ganoung also was arrested by the San Francisco Police Department on April 11, 1964, in connection with the above sit-in demonstration, he also pleaded nolo contendere, and received the same sentence as Barton and Cromey.

The "Palo Alto Times" on July 12, 1951, reported that Andrew Juvinall, Methodist Minister, was one of eight church leaders urging the United States Supreme Court to reconsider its decision declaring the Smith Act Constitutional.

The "Palo Alto Times," is a daily newspaper published in Palo Alto, California, with general circulation in that area.

Juvinall reportedly contributed financially to the Schneiderman-Darcy Defense Committee.

(SF T-1 December, 1941)

The Schneiderman-Darcy Defense Committee was designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Registrar of Voters, Stockton, California, in 1949, furnished information to the effect that the name of one Andrew Juvinall was included on a list of circulators of petitions for the Independent Progressive Party (IPP) to enable the IPP to participate in the Primary Elections in 1948.

A characterization of the IPP is contained in the Appendix pages attached hereto.

The Department of Justice in November, 1961, advised that various petitions, letters and postcards had been sent to the President of the United States during late 1960, urging clemency for Morton Sobell. One of the signatures was that of Walter S. Press, [redacted] Carmichael, California. b6 b7C

A characterization of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell is contained in the Appendix pages attached hereto.

Records of the San Francisco Retail Credit Association reflect that Walter S. Press was a Minister in Carmichael, California, before coming to San Francisco.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper also reported that Mario Robert Savio had flown out of San Francisco on March 8, 1965, to take part in a demonstration at Selma, Alabama. The paper noted that Savio had received widespread publicity in both the press and on television as the leader and spokesman for the Free Speech Movement (FSM) at the University of California (UC) in Berkeley, California.

Savio was arrested in connection with racial demonstrations at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco on March 7, 1964, on a charge of blocking an entrance to the hotel in violation of Section 415 of the California Penal Code. He was acquitted in Municipal Court, San Francisco.

Savio also was arrested in connection with a sit-in demonstration sponsored by the FSM at the UC in Berkeley on December 3, 1964. Upon his appearance to plead to these charges on March 2, 1965, he was sentenced to two days in jail for contempt of court, which he served on March 4 and 5, 1965. The trial for the arrest on the FSM demonstration is still pending.

The "San Francisco Examiner" on March 11, 1965, Page 7, reported that Reverend Clark Olsen of Berkeley, had received a beating by five white men in Selma, Alabama. Olsen was reported to have stated that he went to Alabama because he had a feeling of revulsion against the brutal police attacks of the preceding Sunday.

The "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper is a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, with general circulation throughout Northern California.

Olsen is the husband of one Lyudmilia Ivanova Olsen, nee Stefutkina, who filed a Petition for Naturalization on July 11, 1963. In a sworn statement before an Examiner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) on October 4, 1963, Mrs. Olsen admitted membership in two trade unions in the Soviet Union, but denied any membership in the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. She declared that membership in the unions was necessary to hold her job. She was born [redacted] in Moscow, USSR. b6 b7C b7E

While Olsen was a student at Oberlin College, he was chosen by college students to take a student-financed trip to the Soviet Union in 1954. He and another American student reportedly spent 17 days touring the USSR during the summer of 1954, at which time he also visited some of the Soviet satellite countries. He was later interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation concerning his trip and he stated that [redacted] in that regard.

Olsen reportedly has been organizing a student tour to the Soviet Union for the summer of 1965, at which time his wife plans to visit relatives in Moscow, USSR.

Mr. & Mrs. Norman Howard and his wife, Jan Howard, reportedly left San Francisco on March 8, 1965, to participate in the racial demonstrations at Selma, Alabama.

(SF T-2 3/11/65)

Jan and Norman Howard reportedly were members of the Mike Quinn Club of the Communist Party in Los Angeles during 1946.

(SF T-3 2/27/52)

As of 1953, Norman Howard had been a member of the Communist Party for at least six years. He transferred in 1953 from the Los Angeles County Communist Party to the Legal Group of the Communist Party in San Francisco.

(SF T-4 2/16/53)

At the time that Howard was transferred from the Los Angeles County Communist Party to the Communist Party in Northern California in 1953, he complained to the Communist Party that the security of his job as an attorney for Shell Oil Company had been jeopardized as a result of contact by a Communist Party member under conditions which did not insure security.

(SF T-5 5/14/53)

Norman Howard attended meetings of the Employment Discussion Club, a Communist Party - conceived and controlled organization designed to influence members of "right wing" labor unions and to promote the Communist Party line through open political activities in one of the two major political parties.

The "Daily Californian" on March 18, 1965, reported that Rabbi Joseph Gumbiner, Director of the Hillel Foundation in Berkeley, had been arrested in Selma, Alabama, on March 17, 1965, while picketing the home of the Mayor of Selma. Gumbiner reportedly was released on $200.00 bond after having been arrested for violating a city ordinance prohibiting picketing in a private residential area.

The "Daily Californian" is published daily, except Saturday and Sunday, during the University school year by the Associated Students of the University of California, Berkeley, California.

Joseph Henry Gumbiner was previously arrested on July 20, 1961, at the Jackson, Mississippi, Municipal Airport and was charged with breach of peace for failing to obey orders of the Police Department according to the records of the Jackson, Mississippi Police Department.

The Department of Justice, in November, 1961, reported that Gumbiner had directed an appeal to the President of the United States urging clemency for Morton Sobell.

The "Davis Enterprise" newspaper on March 23, 1965, Pages 1 and 5, reported that a busload of Davis area residents left on March 21, 1965, to "bear witness" in Montgomery, Alabama. The newspaper included the names of Mrs. Judy Iltis and Ted Strelkoff as members of the group making the trip to Alabama.

The "Davis Enterprise" is a newspaper published in Davis, California.

Julia Patricia Iltis, also known as Judy Iltis, was listed as a Communist Party member in the records of the Communist Party at Oberlin, Ohio, in 1947.

(SF T-~~14~~ 13 11/13/47)

Iltis registered as a Communist Party member for 1950 in Lorain, Ohio.

Berkeley W.E.B. DuBois Club and Berkeley DuBois Club;
East Bay DuBois Club

A source advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, was originated in October, 1962, principally through the efforts of MATHEW HALLINAN.

This same source advised in October, 1963, that MATHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and Communist Party (CP) Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley CP On-Campus Youth Club during September, 1963.

A second source advised that a leaflet distributed by the Berkeley DuBois Club in September, 1964, reflected the name of that organization to be the "W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America - Berkeley Branch."

This same leaflet, under the heading "The DuBois Clubs of America" reads as follows: "The Berkeley DuBois Club is a part of a nation-wide socialist youth organization founded in June of this year. It attempts to bring together those action-oriented youth who consider socialism to be a visible alternative to the ills of this society."

During February, 1965, the Berkeley W.E.B. DuBois Club was registered with the University of California as an "off-campus" membership organization. As such, it could present lectures on campus with prior University permission and was allowed to set up and maintain a literature table on campus.

On March 31, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (organizer of the March on Washington, August 1963 and advisor to Martin Luther King, the President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)) was in contact with Tommy Smith (a personal friend and confidant of Rustin) on that date. Rustin told Smith that he would be in Baltimore, Maryland, on April 1 and 2, 1965, to attend a meeting of the Administrative Board of the SCLC. (4)

Rustin told Smith that he was "trying to bail out King on that stupid boycott thing" (alluding to an appeal by King that Alabama be boycotted because of what King called "a total breakdown of law and orders and a reign of terror".) In that regard, Rustin said, that one of his (King's) aides "who doesn't have much sense put this on the wires and sent telegrams all over the country without notifying King". It was at that time, according to Rustin, that King asked him what he should do. According to Rustin, he told King to say that the boycott matter was being discussed and that it would be decided during the Administrative Board meeting whether to go through with the boycott. (4)

Rcurairtel 4/6/65 which enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date reporting information concerning a meeting of the Communist Party, USA, National Negro Commission, which is to be held 4/23/65.

The airtel explains that the LHM is classified "Secret" because of the manner in which the information was obtained and because of the fact that the source, [redacted] b7D is extremely valuable and a lower classification might reasonably result in his identification. It was also stated that to further protect the informant, the LHM was shown as having emanated from Washington, D.C.

The LHM states that Claude Lightfoot, known to the source as Chairman of the Commission "wrote the following letter dated April 1, 1965, to Jacob Green, Chairman of the Communist Party of Maryland." There is then set out a verbatim recording of the letter.

Cognizant as your office appears to be for the necessity to protect the informant, it appears to the Bureau that no logical steps in that direction are being taken. It is believed that the information should be recorded without mention of the name of the individual receiving the letter; without setting out a verbatim record of the letter, but instead paraphrasing its contents; and further, paraphrasing the information to avoid specific reference to the existence of a letter.

Based on the foregoing, you are instructed to resubmit, by return airtel, an LHM which should reflect in its preparation thought and imagination rather than the mere copying of information. Reconsider the matter of classification and fully justify such classification as given to the resubmitted LHM. Also advise offices which received the LHM.

This matter should be brought to the personal attention of the personnel responsible for the preparation and approval of referenced communications so that they may be guided in the future by these observations.

SELMA - MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

Reurairtel 4/1/65 enclosing a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date which was in response to Buairtel 3/24/65.

The Buairtel set out the purpose of soliciting from a number of offices, including yours, the identities of subversives who participated in the activities captioned above. The purpose, as stated, is "So that the Bureau may know the extent of subversive influence and/or participation.... Instructions were to identify all subversives who traveled to Alabama during March, 1965, to participate in marches, demonstrations and similar activities protesting voter discrimination. It was further instructed that characterizations of individuals be succinct and generally limited to the most recent and subversive information available.

The following is a summary of delinquencies in referenced LHM requiring corrective action and explanations.

1) Page one lists five clergymen who went to Alabama. The characterizations of the first three, Barton, Cromey and Ganoung, failed to contain subversive information. The only information set forth concerning these three individuals is that they had been arrested in 1964 in connection with a sit-in demonstration sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Unless your office has subversive information concerning these individuals, all reference to them should be deleted from the LHM.

60 APR 19 1965

2) One of the five clergymen referred to above, Press, is characterized on page three. The characterization states that the Department of Justice in November, 1961, advised that various petitions, letters and post cards had been sent to the President of the United States urging clemency for Morton Sobell. One of the signatures was that of Press. There then follows the statement that a characterization of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell is contained in the Appendix. There is no showing that Press' name as one of the signatories is related to the indicated Committee. If there is a tie-in, such must be shown. If there is not, there should be no reference to the Committee but instead there should be a brief statement concerning who Morton Sobell is. Revision of page three is therefore necessary.

3) Page three identifies Mario Savio as having gone to Alabama. The characterization of Savio contains only information concerning his recent arrests in connection with racial demonstrations. This is not subversive information. On the other hand, it is noted that your office does have available subversive information concerning Savio. For example, he is a close associate of Bettina Aptheker, a Communist Party (CP) member, and in recent months numerous comments have been made by Party officials favorable to Savio. Revision is necessary in order to include subversive information on Savio and delete the nonsubversive data.

4) Pages four and five report information concerning a Reverend Clark Olsen who went to Alabama. The characterizing information is that Olsen is the husband of a woman who had previously admitted membership in two trade unions in the Soviet Union but denied any membership in the CP of the Soviet Union. She declared that membership in the unions was necessary to hold her job. This information was developed during a naturalization proceeding as she had been born in Russia. Other information is to the effect that Olsen had visited Russia in 1954 when he was a student in college [redacted] b7D [redacted] It is also reported that Olsen is organizing a student tour to Russia for the Summer of 1965.

None of the information set out concerning Olsen is believed to be subversive. Unless you have subversive information to report concerning this individual, all reference to him must be deleted.

5) Pages five and six report that Jan Howard and her husband Norman went to Alabama. The characterization concerning Norman Howard is much too lengthy. The first two paragraphs report that the Howards were Party members during 1946 and as of 1953 Norman had been a member of the Party for at least six years. The last two paragraphs of page five and top three paragraphs of page six are considered unnecessary and should be deleted.

6) Pages six and seven contain information concerning a Reverend J. Raymond Cope who went to Alabama. The characterization of Cope is considered too lengthy and, more important, fails to include the most damaging subversive information available. Salt Lake City report of SA [redacted] 4/23/43, a copy of which your office possesses, contains hard information relative to Cope's Party membership in the 1940's. This information should be reported and the information presently in the LHM, which is relatively far less important, should be deleted. b6 b7C

7) Page seven reports that a Reverend Harry B. Scholefield went to Alabama. The characterization of him is in two parts, the first being a reference to the fact that he had signed an appeal to the President on behalf of Sobell (see item number two above). The same Bureau observations as in item number two above hold relative to giving full meaning to Scholefield's activities on behalf of Sobell. The second part of the characterization is a statement to the effect that Scholefield was a sponsor of a petition seeking a five-year statute of limitations in denaturalization and deportation cases in 1960. This information, standing alone, is not subversive and must be deleted.

8) Pages seven and eight report that a Dorothea Hegarty reportedly intended to depart for Mississippi 3/17/65 to assist Negroes in that area. This woman's travel to Mississippi is certainly not germane to captioned matter and all references to her must be deleted from the LHM.

9) Page eight reports that Rabbi Joseph Gumbiner was in Alabama. The characterization of this individual is in two parts, the first being that he had been arrested in 1961 at Jackson, Mississippi, for failing to obey orders of the police department. This is not subversive information and must be deleted. The second part of the characterization concerns Gumbiner's appeal on behalf of Sobell. The same Bureau observations hold here as for item number two above.

10) Pages eight and nine report that a Julia Iltis went to Alabama. Three paragraphs are devoted to outlining her former Party membership, one in 1947, another in 1950 and the third for the period 1954 - 1956. All that is necessary is a brief statement relative to her most recent Party membership. Correct.

11) Pages eight and nine also report that Ted Strelkoff went to Alabama. The only characterizing information concerning this individual is that in 1961 he was a member of the faculty at the "UC" in Davis, California, and that his parents reportedly returned to Russia during 1960 or 1961. The Bureau cannot conceive of how this information has been construed as subversive. References to Strelkoff must be deleted unless your office has subversive information concerning him.

12) Page nine identifies three students who had been arrested in Alabama, 3/19/65, one being Charles Love. The only information characterizing Love is that he had been arrested in San Francisco in 1964 in connection with a racial demonstration. This is not subversive information and must be deleted.

Promptly revise the LHM and resubmit in accordance with instructions and observations above. Expedite as Buded was originally set as 4/2/65. Furnish a copy of the revised LHM to Mobile which had received the original LHM.

By separate communication promptly furnish the Bureau explanations from personnel who prepared and approved referenced communications for the delinquencies set out in items numbered one, three, four, seven, eight, eleven and twelve. Include your recommendations relative to administrative action.

Selma-Montgomery, Alabama
March, 1965

In April, 1964, a third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the Civil Rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherences to Communism. ~~b7D~~ (U)

~~b7D~~ A fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in March, 1965, that Bayard Rustin was going to Montgomery, Alabama, to participate in the civil rights march to that city. Bayard Rustin has been acting in an advisory capacity to Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference).

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the CPUSA held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A fifth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (4)(U)

The fourth confidential source, (4)(U) advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A sixth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

"The New York Times" of March 25, 1965, on page 27, contains an article captioned, "Stars Give Show For Rights March" by Donald Janson. According to this article, a show would be given by a score of entertainers from the stage and screen, to entertain civil rights demonstrators who were on the five-day Freedom March from Selma, Alabama to Montgomery, Alabama. The place where the show would be given is the final campsite (on March 24, 1965) of the march, a ball park on the grounds of the City of St. Jude, Roman Catholic parochial school and hospital near the city limits of Montgomery.

According to the article, most of the entertainers had been obtained for this show by Harry Belafonte, the prominent singer. Among those to attend were Pete Seeger, Ossie Davis, John Killens.

In "The New York Times" of March 24, 1965, on page 33, there appears an article captioned, "Top Entertainers in Alabama Tonight." It was indicated in this article that Ruby Dee would be among those entertaining the civil rights marchers on their way to Montgomery, Alabama, from Selma.

Memorandum

TO: The Director

DATE: 4-2-65

FROM: N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages 6488-6491. Congressman Buchanan, (R) Alabama, spoke concerning civil rights activities in Alabama pointing out that the majority of the citizens in that State are law-abiding and fairminded. He advised that in Birmingham, as in many major cities, there is a certain criminal element. Mr. Buchanan also comments on the Communist influence in the civil rights movement. He stated "This has been a primary target of the Communist movement for a long time. J. Edgar Hoover so said, and there is much evidence that because of its unique value as propaganda the civil rights movement, with many absolutely honest people and people who are absolutely devoted to Negro rights, nevertheless, has been a prime target of Communist activity."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Writing to you is not an easy thing for me to do, as you have always been one to be admired from afar because of your seemingly unsurpassable greatness and intelligence. Thanks to you we have just finished reading a masterpiece of literature called "Masters of Deceit." It is one of the easiest read books and best outlined of any on this particular subject that we have ever read. In my opinion, it should be on the preferred reading list of every school or educational institution in the United States. The only way we can fight this terrible thing happening to us is to learn their tactics. Is the opposition from the Reds so great that this cannot be done? I think not.

Only last year my husband and I began to learn what was really going on, literally in our own back yard, and it has concerned us no end because we feel a tremendous responsibility toward the future of our five children.

You are to be commended for standing up in the behalf of freedom conscience Americans. If I remember correctly, you were one of the first persons to say publicly that the Communists were behind the civil rights movement. We, also, are convinced this is true simply because the discrimination is not nearly as great as the news media and "carpet baggers" would have the nation think. What other reason for th demonstrations and agitation than for deliberate racial strife to keep us off guard?

Again, thank you for being one of the few leaders left that we can look to for true dedication to the causes we all stand for and pray for.

You have our warmest regards and best wishes and I firmly believe that "We shal Overcome"; the far more dangerous plots of the Reds, that is.

Most respectfully,
Mrs. Thomas H. Youngblood

ON MARCH NINETEEN, SIXTY FIVE NY FOUR TWO ONE TWO-S ASTERISK ADVISED THAT MARTIN LUTHER KING, BAYARD RUSTIN, HARRY WACHTEL, AND NORMAN HILL /UFL-CIO/ CONFERRED THIS DATE RE CIVIL RIGHTS DEMONSTRATIONS. RUSTIN SAID THAT ROY WILKINS /NAACP/ (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) AND A. PHILIP RANDOLPH /NALC/ (Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee) WERE INCENSED BECAUSE JAMES FORMAN /SNCC/ CALLED FOR CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE IN WASHINGTON, DC. RUSTIN SAID IN LIGHT OF THIS WILKINS DESIRED THAT KING SIGN A STATEMENT DENOUNCING CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE IN WASHINGTON. KING SAID THAT HE SAW NO WAY OF WORKING WITH SNCC, THEREFORE, HE HAD TO BREAK WITH THEM. HE SAID, HOWEVER, HE WAS NOT PREPARED TO DO SO AT THIS TIME BECAUSE HE DID NOT WANT TO DENOUNCE A FELLOW ORGANIZATION. KING SAID THE SNCC PEOPLE HAD BEEN TELLING PEOPLE THAT HE SOLD OUT WHEN HE CANCELLED THE MONTGOMERY MARCH. KING STATED "IF SOMETHING IS-NT DONE /TO CONTROL SNCC/ THEY ARE GOING TO HAVE A RACE RIOT IN MONTGOMERY". KING RELATED THAT AT A RECENT CHURCH MEETING FORMAN /SNCC/ CALLED FOR A "VIOLENT OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT".

KING, IN ELABORATING ON DIFFERENCES THAT SNCC, SAID THAT "THEY" CONFUSE THE PRESS AND SAY NASTY THINGS ABOUT HIM. KING SAID THAT FORMAN TOLD A REPRESENTATIVE FROM "LIFE" MAGAZINE THAT "WE" DID NOT HAVE A PROGRAM, PROMPTING KING TO SAY THAT THEY CAN NOT BE REASONED WITH, AND ARE FIGHTING AMONG THEMSELVES. ACCORDING TO KING THEY /SNCC/ ARE IN MONTGOMERY. KING SAID "JUST AS SURE AS I AM LYING HERE THEY ARE GOING TO HAVE A RACE RIOT BREAK OUT, BECAUSE THEY DO NOT BELIEVE IN NON-VIOLENCE".

THEY WORSHIPPED MALCOLM X MORE THAN ANY OTHER NEGRO LEADER IN THE COUNTRY, KING ADDED.

WACHTEL URGED THAT KING PICK A MORE APPROPRIATE TIME THAN THE PRESENT TO BREAK OFF RELATIONSHIP WITH SNCC. WACHTEL SAID HIS SON INFORMED HIM THAT MANY COLLEGE STUDENTS DO NOT KNOW WHICH WAY TO TURN, THEREFORE, TO THEM, SNCC, HAS A GREAT DEAL OF RESPECT. WACHTEL SAID

IN LIGHT OF THIS "WE" SHOULD NOT UNDERESTIMATE THIS INFLUENCE.

ACCORDING TO SOURCE, RUSTIN URGED KING TO SIGN A STATEMENT WHICH WOULD BEAR THE SIGNATURES OF WILKINS, RANDOLPH AND KING, WHICH WOULD DENOUNCED CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE IN VIEW OF THE PENDING VOTING BILL. KING SAID THIS STATEMENT WAS AN EXCELLENT ONE, BUT DECLINED TO SIGN FOR TWO REASONS.

ONE. THAT AFTER SIGNING THE STATEMENT HE WOULD HAVE TO GO RIGHT BACK TO WORK WITH THE SNCC PEOPLE, BECAUSE THEY ARE IN HANDS.

TWO. BECAUSE HE FEELS HE CAN COMMUNICATE WITH SNCC SUFFICIENTLY TO NEUTURALIZE THEIR ANXIETIES.

RUSTIN SAID HE WOULD PERSUADE RANDOLPH AND WILKINS NOT TO ISSUE THE STATEMENT AT THIS TIME, BUT ADDED THAT DEMONSTRATIONS WOULD BE NECESSARY TO ENACT THE VOTING BILL.

KING SAID THAT THE SNCC PEOPLE WERE IN MONTGOMERY TRYING TO PROVOKE VIOLENCE, AND HAD A THREE HOUR SESSION YESTERDAY DISCUSSING HOW THEY CAN GET A MARTYR IN ALABAMA. THE ESSENCE OF THEIR MEETING, KING SAID, WAS TO DEVISE A METHOD WHEREBY SOMEONE FROM SNCC WOULD BE KILLED. KING SAID THAT THIS WAS INSANE, BUT WAS CONVINCED THAT FORMAN WOULD LISTEN TO HIM. HE SAID HE THOUGHT HE COULD GET FORMAN TO PLACE ALL OF HIS RESOURCES AND PEOPLE IN THE MARCH TO MONTGOMERY, AND GET ALL THE PEOPLE

ACCORDING TO RUSTIN, ATTORNEY GENERAL, KATZENBACH CALLED HIM TO EXPRESS HIS CONCERN ABOUT THE SAFETY AND WELFARE OF THE PEOPLE LEAVING SELMA AND THE LARGE GROUP WHO WILL ENTER MONTGOMERY. KING SAID HOSEA WILLIAMS WAS HIS ORGANIZER, AND WAS TAKING CARE OF THESE PROBLEMS.

WACHTEL SAID THERE WAS A LEADERSHIP COUNCIL SCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY IN WASHINGTON, DC., TO DISCUSS THE VOTING BILL. HE SAID IT HAD BEEN SUGGESTED THAT HE, RUSTIN, AND WALTER /FAUNTRY/ ATTEND THE MEETING. KING GAVE HIS CONSENT FOR THEM TO ATTEND AS HIS REPRESENTATIVES, AND TO BE PREPARED TO SPEAK FOR HIM. KING SAID HE WOULD APPEAR BEFORE ONE OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES TO TESTIFY IN BEHALF OF THE BILL.

BOYCOTT OF ALABAMA BY THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE PROTESTING VOTER DISCRIMINATION
RACIAL MATTERS

On April 2, 1965, the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. held a press conference at noon at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

The Sun, a Baltimore daily newspaper, on April 3, 1965, reported that the Reverend KING had declared an immediate economic boycott of Alabama with a timetable of intensifying stages designed to bring the state to terms on the issue of civil rights.

Major industries now planning to locate or expand in Alabama were asked to suspend these plans immediately and the Federal Government was urged to enforce vigorously the section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act which prohibits racial discrimination in programs supported by Federal finances.

The second stage calls for action from community leaders as well as the Federal Government. He said that men of good will in churches, labor unions and private institutions would be asked to withdraw investments or pension funds from placements which might be used to support racism and brutality in Alabama and the United States Treasury would be asked to withdraw tax debts from deposits in Alabama banks.

The third stage would be to call on the nation to boycott specific consumer products which would be "carefully selected". Dr. KING listed five responses he expected in Alabama as evidence of a change in racial attitude. They were:

COPIES DESTROYED

100-442529-913
ENCLOSURE

1. An end of the poll tax in state elections.

2. Voter registration at times convenient to working people.

3. The appointment of Negroes to policy making positions on state boards and in state agencies.

4. An end to police brutality and equal police protection to all citizens.

5. Denunciation by officials and civic leaders of violence and the use of racist ideas in political statements.

Dr. KING also stated at his press conference that besides the boycott now underway, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) agreed to several other courses of action. They are:

1. A massive and intensive voter registration drive in 120 black belt counties in seven southern states to be undertaken by 2,000 college student volunteers this summer.

2. An expansion of SCLC work into several northern cities this summer. Targets will be discrimination in employment, housing, de facto school segregation and problems of poverty.

3. A tour of many northern cities by Dr. KING before summer "to inject non violence into the veins of them" in an effort to forestall violent racial disturbances.

4. Recommendations for changes in the proposed voting bill to expand its area of jurisdiction into all states, to eliminate poll taxes in state elections and to provide protection to voters from harassment and intimidation.

RE: BOYCOTT OF ALABAMA BY THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE PROTESTING VOTER DISCRIMINATION RACIAL MATTERS

Dr. KING spoke at Coppin State College, Baltimore, Maryland, on April 2, 1965, and from there went directly to Friendship International Airport.

[redacted] Friendship Airport Police Department, advised on April 2, 1965, that Dr. KING boarded Eastern Airlines Flight 64 at 4:00 P.M., April 2, 1965, and that that plane was flying non stop to Kennedy International Airport, New York City, where it was scheduled to arrive at 5:06 P.M. b6 b7C

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION, EDUCATIONAL FUND FOR THE CHILDREN OF MALCOLM (X) SHABAZZ,
COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On April 4, 1965, a source advised that an affair was held on that date at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, 4130 South Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, which affair was sponsored by an organization calling itself the Educational Fund for the Children of Malcolm (X) Shabazz. Source stated that approximately 1200 to 1500 persons attended this affair, and that approximately ten percent in attendance were of the white race, the remaining being of the Negro race. Source advised that the speakers at this meeting included the following:

Ossie Davis, well known Broadway actor
Lawrence Landry, Chairman of ACT
Dr. T.R.M. Howard
John O. Killens, a Negro author
Val Gray, a Negro female
Sterling Stuckey, who acted as chairman of the affair

Source further advised that the rally or function appeared to be more correctly described as a civil rights rally although it was listed as an affair to raise funds to furnish financial aid for the children of the assassinated Malcolm X. Source advised that the speakers, although depicting Malcolm X as a martyr and a hero and a lonely hunter who was seeking truth, did not center their remarks on Malcolm X, his beliefs or the causes of his death.

ENCLOSURE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Source further advised the affair was peaceful in nature and that during the program none of the speakers outlined specific plans for a future program although the speakers did indicate the organization would continue to exist in order to provide for Malcolm's widow and children. A collection was taken up at this meeting for this purpose, however, no announcement was made as to the amount received, but it was indicated that any further contributions to the fund for Malcolm's children should be mailed to the fund care of the Independence Bank, 7936 South Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Source noted that among those recognized in attendance at this affair was Brenetta Howell.

A second source advised on April 5, 1965, that he had also attended the affair held April 4, 1965, to raise funds for Malcolm X's children and widow, and this source estimated that approximately 700 individuals attended this affair, and that the affair was conducted without any violence.

Source furnished essentially the same information concerning this affair as furnished by the first source indicated above. However, source noted that attending this function were busloads of college students from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, and that approximately ten percent of those in attendance were of the white race. Source noted that also attending this function was Lula Saffold.

The second source indicated above on April 1, 1965, made available a letter dated March 20, 1965, on the letterhead of the Educational Fund for the Children of Malcolm (X) Shabazz and this letterhead indicated that the funds address was 413 East Oakwood Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, telephone number area code 319 924-1390. This source advised that this address and telephone number lists to the Chicago civil rights organization ACT of which Lawrence Landry is chairman.

The aforementioned letter appealed to the recipient of the letter for funds for the support of the assassinated Malcolm X Shabazz's family consisting of Malcolm's wife, four children and an unborn fifth child.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A paragraph of this letter states as follows as to the purpose of this fund: "It is vitally important that you and your colleagues join us in our efforts to perpetuate, in the children of Malcolm, a living monument to a brave, Black man. This can only be done if you urge your friends, family, and associates to contribute generously to the 'Educational Fund for the Children of Malcolm X Shabazz.'"

The letter closed with the indication that contributions could be mailed to the fund for Malcolm's children care of Independence Bank, 7936 South Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60619.

The aforementioned letter was signed Dr. T.R.M. Howard for the committee. This "committee" consisting of 44 individual names had among these names the following individuals:

Frank Anglin, Jr.
Leon Beverly
Mrs. Margaret Burroughs
Sally Callahan
Mrs. Brenetta Howell
Al Janney
Bennett Johnson
Clifton Laws
Alice Turner
Robert Peter Wimbush

Concerning Malcolm K. Little, also known as Malcolm X Shabazz, it is to be noted that this individual, according to voluminous public information sources, was assassinated February 21, 1965, at the Audubon Ballroom, New York, New York. Malcolm K. Little is further described in the appendix pages of this communication in characterizations of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated and the Organization of Afro-American Unity.

Confidential sources familiar with various phases of the Nation of Islam (NOI) activity in the Chicago, Illinois, area advised on March 31, 1965, that they possessed no information indicating that the NOI was aware of or had any plans whatsoever which might interfere with the function held on April 4, 1965.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On April 5, 1965, a third source advised that the NOI participated in no way regarding the meeting held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church on April 4, 1965, in Chicago. Appended hereto is a characterization of the NOI.

Concerning the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois' interest in the fund raising function held on April 4, 1965, it is to be noted that a fourth source who is in a position to have knowledge of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission activities and policy advised on April 2, 1965, that the CP of Illinois' position concerning this function was that the CP was not against children but that the CP considered such an effort as not being the main struggle at this time.

Source advised that the CP of Illinois took the position that if such an educational fund could be set up and promoted by individuals outside the CP of Illinois forces that would be fine; however, the CP of Illinois was not participating in the organization and development of the educational fund for Malcolm X's children and that any CP of Illinois members who assisted in the development of this fund or who lent their names to it would do so on their own and without the approval of the CP of Illinois.

This fourth source further advised that the organization for this educational fund had created considerable dissension among the CP of Illinois forces and that some CP members felt that Bennett Johnson may have been the organizing force behind it. Source stated that Alice Turner, one of the individuals whose name appears as a member of the committee, had claimed that she did not consent to her name being used and had filed a protest with the fund.

Concerning those individuals listed as members of the committee and mentioned herein, the following is noted.

Frank Anglin, Jr.

As of September, 1964, Frank Anglin, Jr., was the treasurer of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR), according to information furnished by a fifth source on September 9, 1964.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Appended hereto is a characterization of the CCDBR.

Leon Beverly

Leon Beverly, according to information furnished by a sixth source, on July 25, 1958, voluntarily withdrew from the CP when he assumed office with the United Packinghouse Workers of America so that he could file a non-communist affidavit.

Mrs. Margaret Burroughs

A seventh source advised on December 2, 1961, that Margaret Burroughs was a teacher in Chicago who belonged to the Professional Section of the CP of Illinois. She was never known to hold any positions in the CP of Illinois although she was known as a CP member from approximately 1939 until 1956.

An eighth source advised on December 17, 1962, that on November 30, 1962, Margaret Burroughs attended a meeting of the Women's Peace and Unity Club (WPUC) which was held at Margaret Burroughs' home, and Burroughs attended as an active member.

Appended hereto is a characterization of the WPUC.

Sally Callahan

A ninth source advised on August 13, 1964, that on August 1, 1964, Sally Callahan attended a meeting of the CP of Illinois subcommittee on Negro-American Labor Council (NALC) work. The same source stated that in the recent past Callahan had been friendly toward certain members of the CP of Illinois.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mrs. Brenetta Howell

The fourth source, referred to above, on August 30, 1963, advised that Mrs. Brenetta Howell as of August 30, 1963, was a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People CP of Illinois Club.

Al Janney

The fourth source on December 19, 1962, advised that as of December, 1962, Al Janney was not a current member of the CP of Illinois and did not pay CP dues. Source advised that Janney is, however, a CP sympathizer and will meet with CP of Illinois leaders at any time or any place. This source advised that Janney did not attend CP meetings and that Janney had left the CP of Illinois as a member in the fall of 1960 and had not been back to the CP since.

Bennett Johnson

On April 3, 1964, the fourth source advised that Bennett Johnson as of April, 1964, was among a group of individuals who, although members of the CP of Illinois, were not members of a CP club. This source advised that in the strictest classification Johnson was not a member of the CP of Illinois but was a person who had dropped out of CP work but remained ideologically in sympathy with the CP and who had no antagonism toward the CP. Because of this classification, Bennett Johnson as of April, 1964, was considered a member of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission and met with bona-fide members of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Clifton Laws

A tenth source advised on December 12, 1950, that Clifton Laws left the CP in 1942 but still believed in communist theories; however, Laws felt that society was not ready for communism.

An eleventh source on May 22, 1963, advised that on May 19, 1963, Clifton Laws attended a meeting of the Washington Park Forum(WPF).

Appended hereto is a characterization of the WPF.

Alice Turner

The ninth source advised on November 23, 1962, that Alice Turner on November 8, 1962, by self admission placed herself in the CP from 1948 to the present.

This same source advised on August 13, 1964, that on August 1, 1964, Alice Turner attended a meeting of the CP of Illinois subcommittee on NALC work.

Robert Peter Wimbush

A twelfth source advised on September 4, 1958, that in 1958 Wimbush was secretary of the African-American Heritage Association (AAHA).

Appended hereto is a characterization of the AAHA.

Lula Saffold

A thirteenth source between June 3 and October 25, 1963, advised that Lula Saffold was present at three meetings of a CP of Illinois South Side Club held during the period May 29 through October 22, 1963.

IN RACIAL MATTERS

On March 5, 1965, William Price, Supervisor of Writs, Prosecutor's Office of Passaic County, Passaic County Court House, Paterson, New Jersey, advised that the court records concerning the appeal of Richard Sarjeant show that his appeal from a disorderly person conviction in magistrate's court, Paterson, New Jersey, was received October 7, 1964. The appeal was heard before Judge Edward Johnson on January 22, 1965, at which time Judge Johnson found Sarjeant guilty on both of the counts on which he was originally charged.

Sarjeant was found guilty on appeal of being a disorderly person in that he used offensive language and molested or interferred with other persons. He was also found guilty on appeal of being a disorderly person in that he loitered or created a disturbance while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

On March 5, 1965, Sarjeant was sentenced by Judge Johnson to pay a fine of $100 plus $20 cost of court.

NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 16, 1963, that a New Jersey Communist Party Seminar was held at 126 Eastern Parkway, Irvington, New Jersey, on December 14, 1963. NK T-1 stated that among those present was a Negro, male from Paterson, New Jersey, age 27 - 30, 5'7" tall, 150 pounds, called "Sarjeant" (phonetic).

On February 7, 1964, NK T-1 was recontacted and a photograph of Richard Sarjeant was observed by him and identified as being identical to the Negro, male called "Sarjeant" (phonetic) who attended the New Jersey Communist Party Seminar at 126 Eastern Parkway, Irvington, New Jersey, on December 14, 1963.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

On March 14, 1965, the following was observed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in San Antonio, Texas:

At approximately 1:35 p.m. the San Antonio Branch of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) led a group composed of Negroes and whites in a parade from the City Hall in San Antonio to the Alamo. The group carried a floral piece which had a banner across the front which read, "Heroes of Freedom." They also carried placards which read as follows: "One Nation - One People"; "Stop the War in Alabama"; "Negroes are Americans - Let Them Vote."

The San Antonio Branch of CORE was led by DON WATKINS who is the temporary chairman of CORE in San Antonio, and he was accompanied in the front line by G. J. SUTTON; Father SHERRILL SMITH, and Father LAWRENCE MURTAUGH, Catholic Priests stationed in San Antonio who participated in the recent Selma, Alabama, attempted protest marches on March 8 and 9, 1965; Father J.M. WAGNER, Executive Secretary of San Antonio's Bishop's Committee for the Spanish Speaking; MAURY MAVERICK, JR., local attorney affiliated with the American Civil Liberties Union. Also in the parade were JOHN W. STANFORD, JR., and LILLIAN SUITON TAYLOR.

SA T-2 (6/22/42)

Source advised on June 22, 1942, that G. J. SUTTON was present at a Communist Party, District 20, meeting, during which meeting SUTTON was elected Communist Party

ENCLOSURE

Organizer for the Negroes in San Antonio, and SUTTON reported having recruited three new members. At this meeting SUTTON was also elected a member of the City (San Antonio) Committee of the Communist Party.

SA T-3 (2/43)

Source advised that in February, 1943, SUTTON was a member of the City (San Antonio) Committee of the Communist Party and had done considerable work among the Negro people of San Antonio in recruiting new members for the Party.

SA T-4 (2/46)

Source advised that SUTTON attended a meeting of the Communist Party in San Antonio held at the Sutton Funeral Home on February 12, 1946.

SA T-5 (4/14/59)

Source advised that in the recent past, exact date not recalled, JOHN STANFORD was questioned about G. J. SUTTON and why SUTTON was not made to attend Communist Party meetings. STANFORD replied, in effect, that SUTTON was not actually a formal Communist Party member, that he was not registered in the Party; however, that his feelings were still with the Party. STANFORD said that SUTTON could do more good for the Communist Party in such a capacity.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

Source advised on that date that SUTTON is not a Communist Party member, to Source's knowledge.

SA T-1 (1/4/65)

Source advised that JOHN STANFORD continues as the main Communist Party leader in San Antonio. He has been a Communist Party member and leader in San Antonio from at least July, 1957, to the present time. He continues his efforts to strengthen the Communist Party in this area. STANFORD has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the Communist Party of Texas from at least July, 1957. He has been Executive Secretary of the Communist Party of Texas from at least February, 1958. In January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished; however, it was agreed the committee and its officers would continue to function and STANFORD has continued to do so to the present time.

SA T-6 (1/7/60)

Source advised that on that date JAMES E. JACKSON, Secretary of Negro and Southern Affairs, Communist Party - USA, identified JOHN STANFORD as a member of the National Committee, CP - USA, and District Organizer in Texas.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

Upon the group's arrival at the Alamo they were greeted by approximately 75 members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) headed by its President, RICHARD L. DOCKERY. During the course of the demonstration, DOCKERY acted as master of ceremonies. Speakers were Father SMITH and Father MURTAUGH who praised the work of the civil rights leaders in Selma, Alabama, and both Priests demanded Federal intervention in Selma and legislation to protect the Negroes' civil rights in connection with their voting privileges.

The closing memorial tribute was given by the Reverend WILLIAM DE WOLFE, Pastor of the First Unitarian Church of San Antonio. DE WOLFE referred to the Reverend JAMES J. REEB as "a martyr who died so that others may have the essential dignity of human beings."

On March 14, 1965, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation took photographs of various persons at the above-mentioned demonstration.

On March 22, 1965, several of these photographs were shown to SA T-1 who identified the following individuals as appearing therein:

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN W. STANFORD
G. J. SUTTON
WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTLE.

SA T-1 tentatively identified one of the individuals appearing in one of the photographs as JAMES SAGER.

SA T-2 (8/15/42)

On July 27, 1942, at a Communist Party City Committee meeting held in San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, nee SUTTON, commented that she and her husband had been members of the Communist Party for years. She said she attended a Communist Party State Conference in Houston in July, 1942, and wanted to report on same. She said she was a member of the Communist Party State Board. She said she attended these State Communist Party conferences each month and paid her own expenses.

SA T-7 (12/44)

Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, also known as LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, has not made her appearance at any of the Communist Party meetings held since early August, 1944, through the meetings held the middle of December, 1944, in San Antonio.

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, also known as Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, sister of G. J. SUTTON, is not a Communist Party member to Source's knowledge.

SA T-9 (6/11/59)

From statements made and literature read (National Guardian and The Worker) by WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTLE, Informant believes they are both communist sympathizers; however, Informant has no knowledge of them being members of the CP.

The Worker is an east coast communist newspaper.

NATIONAL GUARDIAN

"Established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a 'progressive' weekly. ...Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia." (Committee on Un-American Activities Report, "Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the ROSENBERGS and MORTON SOBELL," August 25, 1956, p. 12.)

SA T-1 (4/25/63)

Source advised that JAMES SAGER, husband of MANUELA SAGER, was known to Informant

in San Antonio from 1954 to the present time, during which at various times he has held local leadership positions in the Party.

On March 16, 1965, SA T-1 advised that on March 13, 1965, it was learned that on that date JOHN STANFORD telephoned the residence of a Communist Party member in San Antonio and said that he wanted to see that person at the demonstration to be held on Sunday in downtown San Antonio. This was the demonstration by the San Antonio Branch of CORE and others in memory of the death of a white minister in Selma, Alabama, recently.

According to SA T-1, Father SHERRILL SMITH, Father MURTAUGH, and G. J. SUTTON were among those observed at the demonstration on March 14, 1965. They appeared to be among those leading the demonstration. There appeared to be more than 200 people there.

On March 17, 1965, SA T-8 advised that on March 16, 1965, JOHN STANFORD said he had tried to contact a Communist Party member on the evening of March 13, 1965, to remind that person about the demonstration that was taking place on March 14, 1965, for the Unitarian minister who was killed in Selma, Alabama. This demonstration was to take place at the Alamo in downtown San Antonio. STANFORD apologized for waiting so late to call that Communist Party member to remind him of this, stating that he should have called earlier.

STANFORD was very enthusiastic regarding the demonstration which was held at the Alamo on March 14, 1965, and stated that everyone who saw him and talked to him were very nice to him. STANFORD stated that with all the publicity he received as having been at the demonstration, he received only one bad report and that was from the woman who telephoned him and told him that he was doing more harm to the civil rights movement by being at a demonstration than he was doing good.

In speaking about the demonstration, STANFORD was extremely happy that so many students from St. Mary's University took part in the demonstration. He was also glad to see so many Catholic nuns now involved in the struggle for civil rights.

STANFORD mentioned that more and more people are getting involved in the civil rights movement. He stated that even his 87-year old mother-in-law who is living in Alabama took part in a demonstration recently.

On March 26, 1965, SA T-1 advised that although JOHN STANFORD urged attendance at the CORE demonstration on March 14, 1965, in San Antonio, it is not believed the Communist Party had any influence in, or control of, the demonstration.

The information which NY 694-S* furnished was obtained by him from Lement Harris, a Communist Party, USA, functionary. Harris in turn had been given this information by Stanley Levison, another Party personage. The reported information, as rerep stated, "has been described as a confirmed Marxist" leaves a measure of doubt or question as to who described King in such manner. It might be implied that the Bureau informant did, which of course is not so. In order to protect the source, we, of course, cannot bring Harris's name into the matter. It is, therefore, suggested that in the future a statement be made to the effect that a Party functionary had so described King, without indicating the name of such functionary. ~~(S)~~ (U)

The foregoing observations concerning the characterization of King are also for the future guidance of the New York Office.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

The "New York Herald Tribune" of April 5, 1965, contains an article captioned " 'Answer to Selma' Benefit Raises Record $150,000" by John Molleson. According to the article, "Broadway Answers Selma", was a benefit staged on the evening of April 4, 1965, at the Majestic Theater which brought together the stars of virtually every Broadway show and some of the great stars of past shows to give a ringing lesson in integration and to raise about $150,000 for the cause of freedom. It was pointed out that tickets for the benefit which was staged by Hillard Elkins, sold for $1,000 to $5 and according to the article the proceeds were said to be the highest for a single benefit performance in the history of the theater.

Among the beneficiaries of the performance were the family of the Reverend James J. Reeb (the minister who was recently killed in Alabama while there in the cause of civil rights), the Voter Education Program of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is President), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the L. and M. Rabinovitz Fund of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

It was stated in the article that in a box at the right of the theater sat Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., who was loudly applauded when he entered from the balcony level.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 26, 1957, identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 and early 1954, to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL). (X) U

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherences to Communism. S (U)

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Martin Luther King departing from the Majestic Theater in the company of Harry Belafonte. U

On October 28,1958, the third confidential source advised that according to Jean Smith, Secretary at CP Headquarters, New York City, S (U)

Harry Belafonte had been a member of the Young Communist League (YCL) before coming into prominence as an entertainer. (U)

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on May 27, 1964, that Harold Bernardi who is also known as Herschel Bernardi, as of December, 1947, was a member of the Los Angeles County CP and had been transferred to the CP in New York. (U)

A fifth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on May 18, 1946, that in May, 1946, Billy Daniels was recruited into the CP by Group One of the Jefferson Section of the CP in New York City. (U)

The third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during the latter part of 1963, that a CP functionary stated that Ruby Dee was then a CP member.

The "Daily Worker", October 29, 1942, page six, in a column "What's On", lists one Leonid Hambro as an entertainer at the School for Democracy.

A characterization of the "School for Democracy" is set forth in the appendix pages.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

The "Daily Worker", September 6, 1949, page two, column four, reported that Leonid Hambro, pianist, appeared at the Paul Robeson Concert at Peekskill, New York.

The late city edition, "The New York Times", December 23,1963, reported that Paul Robeson left the United States on July 10, 1958, after an eight year legal fight on a Supreme Court ruling to obtain a passport.

According to the article, Robeson once said he loved "the Soviet people more than any other nation because of their suffering and sacrifice for us, the Negro people, the progressive people, the people of the future in this world". It added that most of the questions directed at Robeson on his arrival in New York City, on December 22, 1963, were answered by his wife, who told reporters that her husband still thinks Communism is "terrific".

The "Daily Worker", page seven, column one, March 29, 1957, lists Leonide Hambro as the piano soloist at the 35th Anniversary Concert of the "Morning Freiheit" to be held at Carnegie Hall on April 13, 1957.

A characterization of the "Morning Freiheit" is set forth in the appendix pages.

A sixth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 14, 1957, that on March 18, 1957, Eli Wallach, while at an informal hearing held at the United States Passport Office, Washington, D.C., stated he had not been a member of the CP since the fall of 1952, but refused to answer questions concerning the CP and/or related activities prior to 1952. (A) 4

Source furnished information showing that there was a CP membership on Wallach's part for a brief period prior to World War II, but none during Wallach's military service during the war. Source stated he learned that in about 1947, there was a resumption of Wallach's membership in the CP. His membership was spasmodic and there was no activity other than perhaps attending a few meetings. According to the source, Wallach had a difficult time leaving the CP and it was difficult to say definitely when he did so.

"SCHOOL FOR DEMOCRACY"

1. "As a result of the investigations into alleged subversive activities of teachers of the New York City public schools by the Rapp-Coudert Committee of the New York State Legislature in or about 1940, a number of teachers resigned, or were suspended or dismissed by the Board of Election from their teaching posts in New York schools and colleges.

"At the annual spring conference of the Teachers Union of New York City in 1940, at which approximately 51 teachers who had been dismissed or who had resigned as a result of the investigation were present, the idea of a so-called School for Democracy was put forth and found general acceptance.

" Of the organizers and original faculty of the School for Democracy, about one third have been identified in the record as members of the Communist Party, and several of those so identified have been established as functionaries of the Party's educational apparatus."

"It is found that the School for Democracy in New York City was a Communist Party-controlled institution utilized by the Party to propagate Marxism-Leninism on a broad basis among the masses of people."

"The evidence shows that the Communist Party formed the Jefferson School of Social Science by merging the School for Democracy and the New York Workers School."
(Subversive Activities Control Board, Docket No. 107-53, Report and Order with respect to the Jefferson School of Social Science, June 30, 1955, pp. 3-5.)

2. "In 1941, the Communists established a school in New York City which was known as the School for Democracy (now merged with the Workers School into

ReBulet to NY, 4/9/65.

Enclosed herewith for Mobile is one photograph of STANLEY LEVISON.

On 4/12/65, a pretext telephone call was made to the office of STANLEY LEVISON, 1841 Broadway, NYC, 58-2-6020, and an unknown female advised that her employer, STANLEY LEVISON had recently gone to Montgomery, Alabama, for the purpose of participating in the civil rights march which terminated in that city.

The pretext telephone call was made by SA JOHN C. SEATON under the guise of a member of a small civil rights group attempting to obtain a speaker for a meeting. The unfemale indicated that she felt LEVISON would not be in a position to help and referred the caller to some of the major civil rights groups.

An attempt was made by the NYO to confirm LEVISON's departure through major airlines in NYC, but no pertinent information was developed.

Mobile should display the photograph of LEVISON to sources and Agents who are familiar with those participating in the Selma-Montgomery March.

On April 5, 1965, a letter appeared in the "Cincinnati Enquirer," a newspaper of general circulation in Cincinnati, Ohio, addressed "To the Editor." The letter was captioned with a headline reading "SNCC Doubts Johnson's Good Will." The letter shows the writer to be Robert S. Henes, [redacted] The letter shows that the writer described himself as having recently returned from the Selma-to-Montgomery march. The letter continues with a protest against an editorial which previously appeared in the "Cincinnati Enquirer" concerning the SNCC. The writer of the letter is critical of the editorial in the "Enquirer" concerning the SNCC because it "viciously attacked the militant leadership" of this group. The letter shows other statements by the writer in support of the SNCC.

A copy of the letter is attached to this communication.

'SNCC Doubts Johnson's Good Will'

TO THE EDITOR: Since returning last week from the first hectic day of the Selma-to-Montgomery march (the only day of that monumental effort which I was privileged to witness), I have pondered in shock and amazement your editorial of March 21, in which you so viciously attacked the militant leadership of the Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC).

This is not the first time, of course, that I have read blatant misrepresentations in the press generally and your paper in particular. But I wonder, has not the time passed when we could discredit those who displease us simply by shouting "Red?"

Doubtless, the leadership of SNCC is indeed more "militant," less "moderate," than Dr. King. They are less patient, less moderate than the good doctor in confronting America's centuries of treachery against her black citizens (subjects?). Above all, they are less moderate in their doubts about the "good will" of a Texas President and his "liberal" party, whose blue-coated minions faithfully butchered black Americans on the streets of "enlightened" New York City last summer.

Leaving aside the patent absurdity of the charge that pacifist "sit-down" tactics (futile as they are against the clubs of Wagner's, Johnson's or Wallace's cops) are a "Commie" device, is it really subversive to call upon Americans of any color to organize and act intheir own interest, rather than await salvation from above or afar—with or without a Nobel Prize? This has been the democratic way; if it is dead, then perhaps we must ask ourselves just who has done the subverting.

ReATairtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 3/1/65, copies to New York, which reported on a contact 2/25/65 between Martin Luther King, Jr., and one of his staff, Andrew Young. They discussed the preparation of a fund-raising appeal letter to be sent out by King's organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). King instructed Young to contact Hunter Pitts O'Dell and have him work on the letter. O'Dell, of course, is the long-time communist who has been close to King for many years.

Bureau airtel 3/3/65 to Atlanta and New York noted that because of the vital importance of the King-O'Dell relationship to captioned matter, all possible efforts should be made to develop factual information revealing the current status of this relationship. The current letter-writing chore which O'Dell reportedly was to perform seemed to be vital to this matter.

Atlanta airtel and LHM 3/17/65, copies to New York, makes reference to a letter appealing for funds for the SCLC which was to be sent to Joseph Curran of the National Maritime Union. It is, of course, not known whether this particular letter is an isolated one or whether it is of the same type as O'Dell was to assist in writing.

Atlanta airtel 4/7/65, copies to New York, furnished copies of a letter dated March, 1965, addressed to "Dear Friend." It is on the letterhead of King and is signed with the purported signature of King. This letter makes a plea for funds as a result of actions that were taking place in Alabama. The letter was furnished to the Atlanta Office by a source of that office, and Atlanta expressed the belief that this letter is the one which King instructed Andrew Young to have O'Dell work on "because it is the first and only letter known to have come from SCLC or King which is an appeal for funds based on their Selma activities."

While the Bureau may be inclined to subscribe to Atlanta's belief, it is still necessary to obtain, if at all possible, factual data which will prove that O'Dell is still doing a service for King. With this objective in mind, it is desired that aggressive and imaginative investigative steps be taken in an effort to obtain the desired intelligence. The following are some suggested avenues to explore. They are not intended to be all-inclusive.

A review of the known writings of O'Dell may furnish some clues as to whether or not he, in fact, prepared the March, 1965, letter over King's purported signature. In this regard it should be noted that O'Dell has been a regular contributor to "Freedomways" for some time, and this should be a good source for some of his writings. A check with established sources available concerning O'Dell, King, and the SCLC might prove fruitful.

In addition, it is desired to determine whether the March, 1965, letter actually was mailed and, if possible, in what quantity. As it presently stands we know only that a single source received this letter.

The Bureau should be kept promptly advised of all developments in this matter and any positive information obtained should be submitted in a form suitable for dissemination.

SELMA-MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, MARCH 1965

Eighth South, Salt Lake City, Utah. Fourth source identified Reverend COPE as a member of the CP.

The "Davis Enterprise," a Davis, California, local newspaper published in Davis, California, related on March 23, 1965, pages 1 and 5, that a busload of Davis area residents left on March 21, 1965, to "bear witness" in Montgomery, Alabama. The newspaper included the name of Mrs. JUDY ILTIS as one in the group making the trip to Alabama.

A fifth source reported in 1956 that during the period from 1954 to 1956, Mrs. ILTIS was a member of the CP in Newark, New Jersey.

A sixth source reported on March 26, 1965, that CLYDE CUMMING and KIPP DAWSON, members of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), reportedly were scheduled to leave San Francisco on the evening of March 26, 1965, via Greyhound bus for Selma, Alabama. They reportedly intended to remain in Alabama for approximately two weeks, working with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

A characterization for the SWP is attached hereto.

The "Golden Gater," a San Francisco State College campus daily publication, on March 22, 1965, page 1, reported that nearly twenty-five San Francisco State College students were among the 300 individuals arrested on March 19, 1965, as they joined in a march to test the City Parade Ordinance prohibiting marches in a residential district in Selma, Alabama. The article listed JEFF FREED, past Chairman of San Francisco State College Friends of SNCC, and SUSAN CLOKE, a junior English major, among those arrested.

A seventh source reported on October 13, 1964, that in October 1964, SUSAN CLOKE was active in the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
MARCHES PROTESTING VOTER DISCRIMINATION
SELMA-MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, MARCH 1965

A characterization for the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter is attached hereto.

An eighth source reported on December 4, 1963, that on October 18 and November 22, 1963, SUSAN CLOKE attended CP contact classes for the study of Marxism in Berkeley.

A ninth source reported on April 27, 1964, that JEFF FREED, Chairman of the Publicity Committee of the Committee to End U.S. Intervention in Viet Nam (Ad Hoc), was in attendance at a meeting of the Executive Committee of that organization in San Francisco, on April 23, 1964.

A characterization for the Committee to End U.S. Intervention in Viet Nam (Ad Hoc) is attached hereto.

HARRIETT BUHAI

BUHAI resides at 3175 Cauby Street, San Diego, at Apartment 38, and is an attorney employed by Gostin and Katz, Attorneys, Suite 725, 326 Broadway, San Diego, California.

Confidential sources, who have furnished reliable information in the past, have advised that BUHAI was a member of the Communist Party (CP) from 1941 through 1954 and attended a CP meeting in 1961. Since 1951 BUHAI has been active in or has attended functions of the following organizations:

Los Angeles Committee For Protection of Foreign Born (See Appendix)
Independent Progressive Party (See Appendix)
Hollywood Arts, Sciences and Professions Council (See Appendix)
Constitutional Liberties Information Center (See Appendix)
May Day Committee (See Appendix)
Citizen's Committee To Preserve American Freedoms (See Appendix)
Fair Play For Cuba Committee (See Appendix).

In 1963 BUHAI was treasurer of the Medical Aid to Cuba Committee (See Appendix) and she was a member of the Board of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG)(See Appendix). In 1962 and 1963 BUHAI traveled to Cuba. She is currently a member of the NLG and a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on November 22, 1964, BUHAI attended a dinner sponsored jointly by the Los Angeles Committee For The Protection of Foreign Born and the Los Angeles Branch of the NLG. This source further advised that on March 1, 1965, BUHAI attended a luncheon in Los Angeles sponsored by the Los Angeles chapter of the NLG.

Sources conversant with CP and related front group activities in the San Diego, California area, advised in August 1964 that they were unable to furnish any information concerning HARRIETT BUHAI.

MEDICAL AID TO CUBA COMMITTEE
LOS ANGELES DIVISION

ANGELO ROMAN, [redacted] b6 b7C advised on February 27, 1962, that he was then Chairman of the Medicine Committee of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (LA-FPCC) and was in correspondence with the Medical Aid to Cuba Committee in New York City, the purpose of both organizations being to send medical aid to Cuba.

IRVIN WALDER, Department of Social Service, City of Los Angeles, California, advised on May 29, 1962, that a Medical Aid to Cuba - Los Angeles Committee (MACC-LA), which its officers claimed was organized locally on April 9, 1962 as a non-political humanitarian organization, had that day filed notice of its intention to hold its first public meeting on June 6, 1962.

A source advised on June 8, 1962, that MURIEL FRUMKIN, admitted Literature Secretary of the LA-FPCC, said that the MACC-LA had been "joined" to the LA-FPCC (as its Medicine Committee) but had been separated from it as an independent organization because doctors in Los Angeles generally were reluctant to donate to anything so "political" as the LA-FPCC.

[redacted] b6 b7C Immigration and Naturalization Service, Los Angeles, advised on October 23, 1962 that according to a source believed to be reliable, CLINTON ERIK GUILLERMO of the LA-FPCC had recently remarked that the MACC-LA had abandoned the pretense of being separate and independent from the LA-FPCC and was "back in" it, that "it's not separate anymore".

A second source advised on June 19, 1963, that the MACC-LA had ceased to exist as a functioning organization, that although it was once the subject of much attention at affairs of the LA-FPCC, it was no longer even mentioned.

"A source advised on 6/20/63 that the Fair Play for C Committee (FPCC) was formed in New York City in Sprin 1960, under the sponsorship of certain well-known pro-C unists and 'liberals' for the announced purpose of defen g the 'truth' about Cuba from distortion by Cuba's enemie A Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the FPCC was formed in Los Angeles, California, in December, 1960, under the st ulus of the Los Angeles Local of the Socialist Worker Party (LAL-SWP). The LAL-SWP was able to dominate and control the activities of the Los Angeles chapter without difficulty until by 1962 the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) had succeeded in gaining a foothold in its executive committee. At the present time both the LAL-SWP and the SCDCP share control of the Los Angeles chapter with the latter being the more dominant of the two.

A second source advised on 6/19/63 that since early 1962 the LAL-SWP has shown diminishing interest in the Los Angeles chapter of the FPCC, recognizing that it has lost what popular appeal it formerly had, but has nevertheless managed to retain control of certain key positions in it, not wanting to have created an organization only to turn it over to the 'Stalinists' and in view of the possibility a new invasion of Cuba could revive its value to the LAL-SWP.

Both the CP and the SWP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450."

Pursuant to the Director's instructions, I saw Governor Leroy Collins at 2:30 p.m. today in his office, Room 5079 of the Commerce Building. A very pleasant conversation ensued. We had a common meeting ground inasmuch as my former college roommate once served as his campaign manager. A distant cousin, Bennett DeLoach, an Editor in Tampa, Florida, is one of the Governor's closest friends.

I told Governor Collins there were two things which the Director wanted me to discuss with him. I first briefed him generally concerning Martin Luther King and then presented him with the ~~Top Secret~~ monograph entitled "Communism and the Negro Movement--A Current Analysis." He was also given the supplemental information containing the fact that Coretta King, King's wife, had stated that Collins was blinded by prejudice.

Governor Collins was quite shocked to receive the information concerning King. He stated he had heard rumors but had discounted them as bias and prejudice. He asked a number of questions concerning King which were answered on the spot.

To sum up, Governor Collins stated he would be very careful in the future concerning his dealings with King. He indicated that he would deeply appreciate it if the Director would send further information concerning King, and any other civil rights leaders involved in communism, to him from time to time. He stated this would be most helpful to him in his work. I specifically pointed out to Governor Collins the ~~Top Secret~~ classification of the document given him and the fact that he might want to keep this document in a safe place. He indicated this would be done.

I told Governor Collins there was a second matter that needed to be discussed. I mentioned that at the Cabinet meeting on March 25, 1965, he had reportedly told the Cabinet, and newspaper reporters, that the Federal Government was not living up to its promise of nondiscrimination in employment in Alabama. When asked which agencies were at fault, Governor Collins named several, including the FBI and the Department of Justice.

Governor Collins interrupted me at this point and stated he would first like to explain how this came about. He stated that the President had invited him to attend the closed Cabinet meeting. While reporting on activities in Selma, Alabama, he included the fact that there did not appear to be sufficient integration in the Federal Building in Selma, Alabama, among Federal agencies. He told the Cabinet that to a certain extent the Negro mistrusted the Federal Government in Selma and Montgomery, Alabama. He stated he told the Cabinet he walked through the Federal Building and that the only Negro he saw there was the janitor in the building.

Governor Collins added that following the Cabinet meeting George Reedy, at the President's instructions, had asked him to talk to reporters concerning his full report to the President and the Cabinet. Upon giving this report, Governor Collins once again added the statement about the lack of integration in Selma, Alabama. He specifically stated Selma, Alabama, however, and did not include the entire State of Alabama.

Governor Collins stated that reporters pressured him into naming several Departments or Bureaus in which he did not see Negro employees while visiting the Federal Building in Selma. He stated he could not recall naming the FBI, however, could possibly have done so. He added he had not meant to imply criticism in the least inasmuch as he knew that there would be definite and serious problems in the event the FBI, or any other Federal agency, attempted to use Negroes in Selma, Alabama.

I told Governor Collins that he should, of course, realize that Selma, Alabama, is an FBI Resident Agency and not a field office. I told him that we did not, as a rule, maintain clerical employees in Resident Agencies. I stressed to him also the difficulties involved insofar as Negro investigative employees in Selma, Alabama, are concerned. I told the Governor that obviously he had not sized up the situation clearly with respect to the FBI. He admitted this and again stated that he had not meant to imply criticism.

I brought out the point to Governor Collins that we are constantly in search of Negro applicants; however, the FBI must insist upon qualified Negro applicants. I told him it would be impossible to water down our qualifications on entry requirements and then expect such employees to fulfill the serious and heavy responsibilities of the FBI. The Governor thoroughly agreed and stated that it would amount to segregation in reverse if we unfortunately did adopt such policies. I mentioned that should the Governor come across any qualified Negro applicants, Agent or clerical, it would be appreciated if he would refer them to us. He stated he knew none but would keep this in mind.

I then gave him the example of the Negro Agent that was transferred from Newark, New Jersey, to Miami, Florida, who first expressed concern to the Director that he would not be treated properly inasmuch as Miami is a southern city. I told Governor Collins that this same Agent reported back to the Director, after 4 months' work in Miami, that it was not the white race that mistreated him but, frankly, his own people, the Negroes, had shunned him and had referred to him as a "fink." Governor Collins admitted that Negro law enforcement officers are somewhat looked upon as "stool pigeons" by their own race.

The conversation with Governor Collins ended after approximately 45 minutes. I feel that the fact that the Director had me challenge him on his unfortunate remarks accomplished the fact of putting him on record regarding our employment situation. He was frankly told that we have hundreds of Negroes employed in the FBI and that there has been no discrimination policy in the FBI since 1924. It is believed that he will hesitate before making additional critical or unfortunate remarks concerning the FBI.

ACTION:

Consideration should be given to contact with Governor Collins from time to time with further information concerning communist infiltration of the civil rights movement.

SUBJECT: "COMMUNISM AND THE NEGRO MOVEMENT--A CURRENT ANALYSIS"

100-442529

You will recall that in December, 1964, with the Director's approval and after first checking with the White House, we disseminated to the Heads of the intelligence community a paper captioned as above which depicted the communist influence in the Negro movement. Emphasis was given in the paper to the communist influences on Martin Luther King, Jr., as well as facts relating to his immoral nature.

As you are aware, LeRoy Collins, former Governor of Florida, is Director, Community Relations Service (CRS), Department of Commerce, and in this position serves as something of a "mediator" in problems relating to the racial field. He has been a key individual relative to the situation in Selma, Alabama. Information of interest to the CRS is regularly being disseminated to that agency. We just received reliable information concerning a conversation between Martin Luther King, Jr., and his wife, Coretta, during which Coretta made reference to the Selma situation and said that Collins was blinded by prejudice. We have disseminated the information concerning the King conversation to CRS.

It is believed that, in view of Collins' important position relative to the racial movement, he should have benefit of the paper which we have already given to the White House and the Heads of the intelligence community. Our relations with Collins have been friendly; he is a long-time admirer of the Director and the Bureau.

RECOMMENDATION:

Attached for approval is a letter to Collins enclosing a copy of the paper captioned as above.

Re Buairtel 4-9-65 which was in reference to your airtel and enclosed letterhead memorandum (LHM) of 4-1-65. The Bureau noted a number of delinquencies in the LHM and set out instructions relative to corrective action necessary. The LHM was to be resubmitted.

Reurairtel and enclosed LHM 4-13-65 which was intended to be in response to the Bureau's request for a resubmitted LHM.

The resubmitted LHM is still not in conformance with Bureau instructions. The following is a summary of the additional delinquencies noted thus requiring further corrective action and for you to again resubmit the LHM.

(1) The original LHM reported on the presence in Alabama of Reverend Andrew Juvinall. Characterizing subversive information concerning Juvinall was included. The resubmitted LHM fails to contain any reference to Juvinall. Information concerning him should be included.

(2) The original LHM reported on the presence in Alabama of Reverend Walter S. Press. The Bureau set out specific instructions in item number two of its airtel of 4-9-65 concerning the manner in which Press was to be characterized. The subversive information concerning him involved an effort on his part urging clemency for Morton Sobell. It was instructed that there should be a brief statement identifying Sobell. The resubmitted LHM contains no reference whatsoever to Press. He must, of course, be included and characterized in accordance with the Bureau's instructions.

(3) The original LHM reported the presence in Alabama of Mario Savio. The Bureau noted under item number three of its airtel that the characterizing information concerning Savio was not subversive information. It was indicated that there was available to your office subversive information and as an example, it was stated that he was a close associate of Bettina Aptheker, a Communist Party (CP) member. The resubmitted LHM contains no reference to Savio and your airtel 4-13-65 "justifies" the deletion of Savio by stating "during the Free Speech Movement and student demonstrations at the University of California, Berkeley, he was seen in frequent contact with several members of the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Clubs and/or CP; however, this information has not been received in sufficient detail to enable it to be used in any documentation for Savio."

The Bureau does not agree with the "justification." It is believed that there is subversive information available concerning Savio, particularly as to his association with Bettina Aptheker, to enable your office to prepare a characterization. Your airtel and LHM of 1-19-65 "University of California, Berkeley, California, Information Concerning, Student Demonstrations" contains information concerning Aptheker accompanying Savio at appearances at various universities to address student meetings and rallies. Boston airtel and LHM, copies to your office, 12-15-64, concerning the student demonstrations contains information concerning Savio and Aptheker together in New York City 12-10-64. These are but two examples. You are expected to thoroughly review your files concerning the Savio-Aptheker relationship and from information available prepare an appropriate characterization of Savio and include him in the LHM. In this respect, it is noted that the summary report emanating from your office concerning Savio 3-12-65 recommended his inclusion in Section B of the Reserve Index.

(4) The original LHM reported the presence in Alabama of Reverend Harry B. Scholefield. Item number seven of Buairtel of 4-9-65 directed certain corrective action relative to the characterizing information concerning this individual. The specific reference was to his activity on behalf of Sobell. The resubmitted LHM completely deleted information as to Scholefield. He should, of course, be included in accordance with corrective action indicated. In addition, it is noted that this individual had been a sponsor of NCAHCUA, which organization was appropriately characterized in an Appendix page. This connection of Scholefield should be included.

(5) The original LHM reported the presence in Alabama of Rabbi Joseph Gumbiner. Item number nine of the Bureau airtel directed certain corrective action relative to the characterization of Gumbiner. This involved, as in the similar instance cited above, an act of Gumbiner in behalf of Sobell. Gumbiner should, of course, be included in the LHM with a characterization in accordance with Bureau's instructions.

Promptly again resubmit the LHM in its entirety in accordance with the instructions above as well as in Bureau airtel 4-9-65. Expedite as Buded was originally set as 4-2-65. Furnish a copy to Mobile which has received copies of the two LHM's submitted to date.

It will also be necessary for your office to submit by separate communication explanations from personnel responsible for the preparation and approval of the airtel and LHM dated 4-13-65. Your own recommendations relative to administrative action must be included. It is noted that your office is presently preparing explanations and recommendations based upon the delinquencies in the original LHM. If not submitted, include all in a single cover communication. If already submitted, now furnish the explanations and recommendations relating only to the resubmitted LHM of 4-13-65.

The Sun, a Baltimore, Maryland, daily newspaper, on March 22, 1965, contained a story date-lined Selma, Alabama, March 21, 1965, by Bynum Shaw, Sun staff correspondent, which reflected that Dr. LAWRENCE REDDICK, of Coppin State College, Baltimore, was in the Selma to Montgomery March on March 21, 1965.

LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK is a Professor at Coppin State College, Baltimore, Maryland, and currently resides in Baltimore, Maryland.

On September 17, 1943, a confidential source advised that she had learned that Dr. REDDICK, who was then Director of the Schomburg Library, 103 W. 135th St., New York City, N.Y., was one of the most important unpublicized members of the Communist Party (CP). A second confidential source, on July 5, 1950, advised that LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK was known to him as a CP member.

On January 20, 1964, a third confidential source advised that LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK attended an affair sponsored by the Maryland Committee for Democratic Rights (MCDR), held at Baltimore, Maryland, January 17, 1964, at which the main speaker was BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, identified by the source as National Secretary of the CP, USA.

On January 21, 1964, the third source advised that on January 18, 1964, Dr. LAWRENCE REDDICK visited with BENJAMIN J. DAVIS at the home of JACOB GREEN, State Chairman of the CP in Maryland.

During the conversation between REDDICK and DAVIS, it was mentioned that they had attended school together in Georgia. REDDICK commented that if he had stayed with DAVIS, he would have also joined the CP.

LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK was interviewed by Special

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on March 28, 1965 concerning a conference held that day among the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference)(SCLC), Walter Fauntroy (Washington Representative of the SCLC), Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel.

The conference was mainly concerned with King's appearance on the nationally televised program " Meet the Press ", scheduled for that evening.

King stated that he expected to be questioned concerning his relationship with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), specifically as to whether a split is developing between SNCC and the SCLC and the extent to which Communism and irresponsible elements dominate the SNCC movement. King stated he is not aware of any left-wing or Communist infiltration in the SNCC.

King advised that discussions had been held concerning the need for additional action in Alabama, and after a discussion it was agreed that he would announce plans for an embargo on Alabama products when he appeared on television that evening.

Fauntroy advised that the Teamsters Union desires to undertake some action and would perhaps stop trucks hauling into Alabama. He cautioned however that for various reasons, it is not desireable that it be a joint SCLC and Teamsters project but that talks are presently being held with Teamster officials.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild.

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto.

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP.

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

A circular of the Medical Committee for Human Rights (MCHR), 211 West 56th Street, New York City, dated March 22, 1965, narrated that the MCHR came into being in the summer of 1964, to support the civil rights movement in Mississippi with Health and Medical Personnel.

This source also furnished a brochure on the Constitutional Convention and First National Conference of the MCHR scheduled for April 23 to 25, 1965, at Howard University, Washington, DC. The brochure contained the following agenda:

"Friday, April 23, 1965

"CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

"11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. There will be plenary sessions all day, with a break for lunch. At the end of the sessions there will be elections of Nomination and Resolution Committees.

A second confidential source advised in September, 1955, that Luke W. Wilson was a member of the Communist Party as of that time. This source further stated that Wilson was a permanent financial sustainer of the New York State Communist Party Committee. (U)

A third confidential source advised in 1962, that Luke Wilson in 1962, was a financial contributor to the Communist Party. (U)

This third source also advised in October, 1954, that Ruth Wilson (Mrs. Luke W. Wilson) was a contributor of money to the Communist Party in the amount of $15,000.00 to $20,000.00 a year, and was a secret member of the Communist Party. The above information about Ruth Wilson applies to the period sometime in 1945 to 1948. The source previously stated in January, 1954, that the source heard that Ruth Wilson was not then a member or contributor of the Communist Party. The LHM was not classified. The information this informant furnished appears to be the type which was probably known to only few individuals. b7D

In view of the foregoing, the LHM was classified "~~Confidential~~" by the Bureau before dissemination.

It is noted that reairtel was submitted by your office 4/9/65, seven days after Buded 4/2/65 and your office did not even furnish the Bureau a delay letter advising that the deadline would not be met.

Form errors should be scored against the responsible personnel for both the failure to classify the LHM and the failure to meet the Buded coupled with failure to advise the Bureau in advance.

The responsible personnel should be impressed with the necessity for exercising greater care in the discharge of their responsibilities in this most vital area of the Bureau's work.

RACIAL MATTERS

The sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

Appearing in the Hungarian language newspaper "A Teny" of February 1, 1965, Volume XVIII, Number Two, Page Three, Columns one and two (see appendix), was an article which reported in part that volunteers had built a cultural center in the "Negro-inhabited city of Mileston" (Mississippi). The article continued "the Los Angeles Hungarian Workers Society (see appendix) which also stands ready with assistance in the service of every noble cause, decided to begin a campaign to gather books for the Mileston Negro Cultural Center library.

"The Workers Home and the Workers Women's Circle's leadership and members also decided at their last meeting that they will handle jointly the transportation and expenses of the collected books. ...".

On March 31, 1965, the March 1, 1965, Volume XVIII, Number Three issue of "A Teny", Page Three, Column Three, read in part as follows:

"BOOKS TO MISSISSIPPI!

"We ask those who have thus far not taken part in this noble action, to send unwanted books to the Workers Home, from which the members of the Home and the Womens Circle will begin promptly the packaging and shipping of the books. The members also pay the shipping charges".

APPENDIX

"A TENY"

An informant advised on May 14, 1964, that "A Teny" ("The Fact") is a Hungarian-language newspaper which closely follows the Communist Party line and has done so since at least the late 1940's. This newspaper is published monthly in Los Angeles, California.

APPENDIX

LOS ANGELES HUNGARIAN WORKMEN'S HOME SOCIETY, aka.,
Hungarian Worker's Home

A source advised on May 15, 1964, that the Los Angeles Hungarian Workmen's Home was formed about 1921 in Los Angeles, California, as a charitable and social organization for persons of Hungarian descent. The membership is made up primarily of middle-aged persons. Since at least the mid-1940's, the Hungarian Worker's Home has been controlled and dominated by Hungarians who have closely aligned themselves with the Communist movement in Los Angeles. The general membership, however, has not aligned itself with the Communist Party. The organization maintains its headquarters at 1251 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, California.

Source advised that the Hungarian Worker's Home facilities at the above address are periodically utilized for meetings by the Communist Party.

On 4/20/65, a pretext telephone call was made by SA JOHN C. BEATON to the office of Sane Nuclear Policy, 14 East 45th Street, New York City, OX 7-2265. An unmale, who identified himself as the Chairman of the New York Council of SANE, stated that this organization is planning a rally which will be held at Madison Square Garden, New York City, probably in the first week of June. He stated this rally is only in the planning stage at this time and the speakers have not yet been determined. He added, however, that it is anticipated there will be speakers from Congress as well as Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK, NORMAN THOMAS, and others.

The pretext used was that of an individual interested in the work of SANE calling for information about the rally.

Reurairtel and enclosed LHM 4/21/65 dual captioned "CIRM," "Cominfil of SCLC, IS-C."

It was reported at the bottom of page 1 of the LHM that Martin Luther King, Jr., told his secretary on 4/20/65 that he was meeting with Harry Belafonte in the SCLC office the afternoon of 4/20/65. This office is located in Atlanta, Georgia. King's secretary advised him that the Associated Press (AP) wanted some photographs of this meeting, but King stated that she should tell the AP that the meeting time and place had been changed. King said "he did not want them to get pictures of the personnel from Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), but he did not explain his reasons for this."

The foregoing is not clear in two respects. If the meeting with Belafonte was to be held in the SCLC office, what relation would SNCC personnel have to this meeting? The expression "pictures of the personnel from SNCC" is not clear. Does it mean pictures of SCLC personnel to be obtained from SNCC? Or does it mean pictures of SNCC personnel?

Promptly recheck with original source for possible clarifying information and advise Bureau. Expedite as dissemination is being held in abeyance. If appropriate, submit amended pages to Bureau and offices receiving referenced communications.

Confidential source Number 1 furnished the following information on April 5, 1965::

A circular on the stationery of the Medical Committee for Human Rights (MCHR), 211 West 56th Street, New York, New York, dated March 22, 1965, contained the following information concerning the MCHR:

"It has become apparent that the Civil Rights movement has urgent need for support by Health and Medical personnel. The MEDICAL COMMITTEE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS came into being last summer to fill this need in Mississippi. Since it was formed, our organization has continued to work and grow, as physicians, nurses, dentists, psychologists, medical students and other professionals throughout the Nation have welcomed the opportunity to use their specific health skills for the cause of Civil Rights. We now have MCHR groups in 8 major cities and hundreds of individual members."

Freedomways Associates, Incorporated is characterized in the Appendix.

Dr. John L. S. Holloman, Jr.

Former New York State Attorney General Nathaniel L. Goldstein by letter dated June 20, 1952, indicated that Dr. John L. S. Holloman Jr. [redacted] New York City, was a subscriber to the Civil Rights Congress Bail Fund in the amount of $30.00 as of October 28, 1949.

b7C

The Civil Rights Congress has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Confidential source number 8 advised February 13, 1962, that Dr. John L. S. Holloman Jr. was one of the numerous signers of a petition directed early in 1962 to the President of the United States requesting executive clemency for Carl Braden and Frank Wilkinson.

The "New York Times" May 3, 1961, page 14, set forth an article concerning Carl Braden and Frank Wilkinson which indicated that they were serving a prison term in May, 1961 for refusal to answer questions of the House Committee On Un-American Activities.

Mrs. Alberta Ahearn, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the CP in Louisville testified in Jefferson, Kentucky, Circuit Court on December 11-13, 1954, that she had known Carl Braden as a leading member of the CP in Louisville in 1954.

Confidential source number 9 advised on September 17, 1952 that Frank Wilkinson as of that time was a member of the Los Angeles County CP.

Dr. Tom Levin

Confidential source number 10 advised on November 6, 1962, that Dr. Tom Levin, [redacted] New York City, attended a reception for persons who were to appear before the Parole Board on October 30, 1962 in behalf of Morton Sobell. This reception was held on October 29, 1962 at International House, 1895 R Street, Washington, D.C.

b7C

On December 11, 1962, confidential source number 11 advised that the name Dr. Tom Levin, [redacted] New York City, was known at Headquarters of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, 940 Broadway, New York City; that he had attended on October 30, 1962 a hearing and had written a letter to the Parole Board in behalf of Morton Sobell.

A characterization of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell is set forth in the Appendix. This characterization includes one for Morton Sobell.

Estelle Osborne

Confidential source number 12 made available information on December 5, 1949, indicating that Estelle Osborne was a member of the National Executive Board of the Congress of American Women as of that date.

The Congress of American Women has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker," March 29, 1948, page 7, reflected that Estelle Osborne was chosen Treasurer of the Council on African Affairs on March 26, 1948.

The Council on African Affairs has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker" is a defunct Communist newspaper which ceased publication January 13, 1958.

Estelle Osborne was contacted by a Special Agent(SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation(FBI) on February 4, 1955. She declined to furnish any substantial information pertaining to involvement in the Communist movement either on her part or on the part of others known to her.

Dr. Robert Sager

Confidential source number 13 on February 13, 1958, made available a copy of letterhead stationery of The Physicians Forum, Incorporated which contained a mimeographed letter dated January 30, 1958. The reverse side of the letterhead contained a list of individuals under the heading "Board of Directors." The name Robert Sager M.D., New York, New York, appeared on this list.

In 1948 Dr. Kauffman Wallach, 41 West 96th Street, New York City, advised that he had maintained office space with Dr. Sager approximately 10 years previous to that time. He considered Dr. Sager to be definitely pro-Russian and pro-Communist. He had formed this opinion during the time he shared office space with Dr. Sager. Dr. Sager had often expressed his sentiments in favor of Communism and Russia.

RACIAL DEMONSTRATION,
LAKEWOOD, NEW JERSEY,
APRIL 4, 1965
RACIAL MATTERS

Brent Braisted, Lakewood, New Jersey, Police Department, advised on April 6, 1965, that the Ocean County Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), held a memorial service in Lakewood on April 4, 1965. This service was to honor the memory of Mrs. Viola Luizzo, slain civil rights worker.

Braisted said that Mrs. Grace Houston, Lakewood, New Jersey, President of the Ocean County Chapter of NAACP, acted as chairman of the meeting.

Mrs. Houston led a prayer for the Selma, Alabama, marchers, for Mrs. Luizzo, and all those who have given their lives for the civil rights movement.

Among those in attendance were Lakewood, New Jersey, township officials and clergymen of all faiths. There were approximately 200 persons at the affair.

The main speaker, Nicholas Kourambis, was introduced, Braisted said, by Mrs. Houston as the executive chairman of Migrant Workers for the NAACP.

Braisted said that Kourambis did not stick to the memorial service idea of the gathering. He said that all must unite to fight for the right of Negroes. He then said that all must help put an end to Mississippi style bigotry in South Jersey.

100-442525-

ENCLOSURE

~~ENCLOSURE~~

He said that he personally has fought poverty in South Jersey in the Port Norris and Bridgeton areas. He concluded by saying that in some parts of New Jersey the Negro does not vote and "Poverty exists in New Jersey, sufficient to strangle all of us".

Braisted said no problems arose as a result of the meeting, and the affair broke up quietly at 3:30 p.m.

NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 6, 1965, that Nicholas Kourambis was at that time a member of the New Jersey Communist Party.

Congressman William L. Dickinson of Alabama recently made remarks on the floor of the House concerning captioned Marches. He claimed that one of the speakers on the platform in front of the State Capitol in Montgomery was Abner Berry. The Congressman claimed that Berry was photographed although he had not seen the photograph.

Berry is a Security Index subject, your office origin, your file [redacted] He has a long-time record of communist activities. b6 b7C

Noting that the original Bureau instructions of 3/24/65 emphasized that recipient offices be particularly alert to identify Security Index subjects who went to Alabama and that Berry is not mentioned in the Newark communication of 3/29/65, you are now instructed to immediately determine whether or not Berry did in fact participate in captioned Marches. Should it be established that he did appear at the State Capitol at the completion of the March, this should, of course, be construed as participation in the March. Any confirming information should be included in a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination. Give this matter prompt attention and advise the Bureau by airtel.

ENCLOSURE

tained a notation, "For information call or visit, 6 East 117th Street, New York City, or 139 West 125th Street, New York City". It is noted that 6 East 117th Street is the address of CCH, of which Jesse Gray is Director; and 139 West 125th Street, is the address of Harlem Unemployment Center (HUC), of which James Haughton is Director. James Haughton was named on the Interim Committee of FIPA at its inception in December, 1964.

Confidential source Number 1 further advised on January 19, 1965, that approximately 300 people attended the above rally on January 14, 1965. Jesse Gray of CCH was one of the principal speakers and talked about slum conditions in Harlem.

Confidential source number 2 advised on November 20,1958 that Jesse Gray had been organizer for Harlem Region, CP, up until November, 1958.

Confidential source Number 3 advised on November 20, 1958, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District Communist Party (CP), Jesse Gray is no longer a CP member but is friendly to the CP.

An article in the "Journal American", January 23, 1965, page 4, by Victor Riesel, "Inside Labor", set forth the following concerning FIPA:

"From inside their newly organized coalition, known as the Federation for Independent Political Action, comes word that they want to run Mr. Galamison for Mayor and Mr. Gray for a seat on the City Council this fall, on a straight Negro ticket." Reverend Milton Galamison is widely known as director of several school boycotts in New York City. Jesse Gray is described above.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Federation for Independent Political Action

Confidential source Number 1 made available a circular prepared by FIPA, 139 West 125th Street, New York City, telephone number 666-0787, which urged all stores to close beginning Friday, February 26, 1965, at 3:00 p.m., and all day Saturday, February 27, 1965, "in honor of Malcolm X's funeral".

On August 16, 1964, confidential source Number 4 advised that Malcolm X was Founder and President of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated, Malcolm X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, in New York City.

The Muslim Mosque, Incorporated is characterized in the appendix.

It should be noted that telephone 666-0787 is listed to the Harlem Unemployment Center, 139 West 125th Street, New York City.

On February 25, 1965, confidential source Number 5 advised that a street rally sponsored by FIPA was held from 7:00 p.m. until 8:15 p.m., at 125th Street and 7th Avenue, New York City. This rally was a tribute to Malcolm X. Jesse Gray was one of the principal speakers at this rally and told the crowd of approximately 200 people that blame for the death of Malcolm X should be placed on outside forces and not on the Negroes who shot him down. He blamed Malcolm X's death on "white power structure".

The "Journal American", February 27, 1965, page one, in an article entitled, "Harlem Merchants Snub Demand to Close for Funeral", set forth the following with reference to the boycott of Harlem stores which remained open on February 26 and 27, 1965.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Federation for Independent Political Action

"Many responsible Harlem leaders denounced the boycott effort. 'I have no reason to believe that the people who called for this boycott have the interest of the community at heart,' said Hulan Jack, former Manhattan Borough President and Co-Chairman of the Steering Committee of the United Council of Harlem Organizations."

The United Council of Harlem Organizations allegedly issued the following statement:

"To call for a closing of all stores in this area at such time without having given consideration to the needs of the people in terms of food, medical supplies and sundries would paralyze the entire community".

In the above article, FIPA is described as "a creation mainly of Harlem strike leader Jesse Gray".

1. APPENDIX

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI head-quarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

MALCOLM X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, while addressing an OAAU rally at the Audubon Ballroom, New York City.

National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People (NAACP), Salt Lake City, Utah

The NAACP, Salt Lake City, Utah, held an installation of officers meeting in Salt Lake City on January 17, 1965. ETHEL HALE and JOSEPH CURTIS were present.

JOSEPH DI SANTI recently invested $500 in the NAACP Credit Union, Salt Lake City.

C.P. Member — Utah

ROBERT ARCHULETA recently made inquiries about the new President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP. He seemed quite concerned with respect to whether JOHNIE DRIVER would work out all right or not.

(SU T-1, 1/27/65)

ETHEL HALE was a member of the Communist Party (CP) in the early part of July, 1963.

JOSEPH CURTIS, JOSEPH DI SANTI and ROBERT ARCHULETA were members of the Utah State Board of the CP early in July, 1963, and ARCHULETA was the Secretary-Treasurer of the CP of Utah at that time.

(SU T-2)

JOSEPH DI SANTI and JOSEPH CURTIS participated in the demonstration in Salt Lake City under the sponsorship of the NAACP to promote the passage of civil rights bills by the Utah State Legislature on March 7, 1965.

(SU T-3, 3/11/65)

ETHEL HALE, JOSEPH DI SANTI and ROBERT ARCHULETA participated in the above demonstration on March 7, 1965.

(SU T-1, 3/7/65
SU T-4, 3/7/65)

ETHEL HALE participated in similar demonstrations under the same sponsorship in Salt Lake City on March 8 and 9, 1965.

(SU T-1, 3/8,9/65
SU T-4, 3/8,9/65)

JOSEPH CURTIS participated in a similar demonstration under the same sponsorship in Salt Lake City on March 10, 1965.

(SU T-1, 3/10/65)

ROBERT ARCHULETA on March 27, 1965, stated that DOROTHY MARSHALL of the National Committee To Abolish The House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) would be in Salt Lake City on Friday, April 2, 1965. She will speak under the auspices of the Utah Council For Constitutional Liberties (UCCL). ARCHULETA desired to determine which members of the Salt Lake City NAACP might be safely invited to the speech by DOROTHY MARSHALL.

(SU T-1, 3/29/65)

A characterization of the NCAHUAC is included in the appendix hereto.

DOROTHY MARSHALL in March, 1965, was a Vice President and National Co-ordinator of the NCAHUAC.

(SU T-5)

A characterization of the UCCL is included in the appendix hereto.

JOSEPH DI SANTI on April 2, 1965, stated he plans to do some remodeling on his house in the very near future and would apply to the NAACP Credit Union, Salt Lake City, for a loan to accomplish this.

(SU T-1, 4/6/65)

JOSEPH CURTIS has indicated an intention to transfer some money from his Postal Savings to the NAACP Credit Union, Salt Lake City.

(SU T-1, 4/9/65)

There are approximately 325 paid-up members of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP. This branch of the NAACP has periodically sponsored demonstrations and other activities designed to further the civil rights of Negroes. JOHNIE M. DRIVER, an engineer at Sperry Utah Corporation, Salt Lake City, Utah, was elected President of the Salt Lake City Branch, NAACP, on December 7, 1964. Demonstrations in Salt Lake City, Utah, were sponsored March 7 through 10, 1965, by the NAACP, Salt Lake City, for the purpose of influencing the Utah State Legislature to pass civil rights bills being considered by the Legislature.

DRIVER, other officers and members of the branch are aware of the fact that CP members and sympathizers could use demonstrations and other activities for communist purposes. The National Headquarters of the NAACP has warned all branches pertaining to such activities on the part of the CP. DRIVER hopes to be able to discourage such activities on the part of communists and sympathizers but has been in the Salt Lake City area less than two years and has little knowledge with respect to the tactics of the CP or its members in the Salt Lake City area. He has obtained some general ideas with respect to persons who may have communist sympathies as a result of discussions he has had with members of the Board of the Salt Lake City NAACP, but he has no knowledge based on his own experiences with these people and does not know the basis of the information he has received.

DRIVER will continue to seek the guidance of ALBERT B. FRITZ, immediate Past President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP, in any specific instance in which communist influence is suspected. FRITZ continues to be a member of the Board of the NAACP in Salt Lake City, Utah.

President DRIVER on April 19, 1965, spoke in Provo, Utah, before the Public Affairs Forum Of Utah County (PAFUC). This was at the request of UDA HANSON of Spanish Fork, Utah, who stated she was now President of this organization. DRIVER spoke on the work of the NAACP in connection with civil rights. Subsequent to giving the talk, he has been told by members of his organization that the PAFUC of Utah County is a communist group. Nothing took place at the meeting of the PAFUC when DRIVER spoke which caused him to be suspicious of the group.

President of Salt Lake City Branch - National Association For the Advancement of Colored People

b6
b7C

UDA HANSON was a member of the CP of Utah in the early part of July, 1963.

(SU T-1)

A characterization of the PAFUC is included in the appendix hereto.

On April 23, 1965, Mr. DRIVER made available membership lists of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP for examination. Included among the current members were the following:

C.P. Members

BERNICE CURTIS, [redacted] South Salt Lake, Utah.
JOSEPH CURTIS, [redacted] South Salt Lake, Utah.
JOSEPH DI SANTI, [redacted] Granger, Utah.
ETHEL HALE, [redacted] Salt Lake City, Utah.

BERNICE CURTIS was a member of the Utah State Board of the CP in the early part of July, 1963.

(SU T-2)

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP has from time to time sponsored demonstrations and other activities designed to further the rights of Negroes. Officers and members of this branch are aware of the fact that CP members and sympathizers could use such demonstrations and other activities for their own purposes. Every effort has been made to discourage the participation of CP members and sympathizers in all activities of the NAACP in Salt Lake City. This has been relatively successful in the past because of the knowledge that ALBERT B. FRITZ, Past President of the organization, had pertaining to communism and its members. The new President, JOHNIE M. DRIVER, does not have such knowledge but is expected to receive guidance from FRITZ. The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP during the period March 7 through 10, 1965, sponsored demonstrations in Salt Lake City for the purpose of influencing the passage of civil rights legislation by the Utah State Legislature.

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP has approximately 320 paid-up members. Its President is JOHNIE M. DRIVER.

Among the members of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP at the present time are BERNICE CURTIS, JOSEPH CURTIS, JOSEPH DI SANTI and ETHEL HALE. None of these attend meetings except infrequently.

None of the above have any influence in the policies of the organization, and none are officers, nor have they ever been officers.

The NAACP on a national basis is opposed to communism and known communists are not supposed to be accepted as members. It is difficult, however, to challenge a person on this basis, since CP membership is almost impossible to prove. For this reason, membership is seldom challenged on the basis of communism, but care is taken wherever possible to keep persons suspected of being communists from getting in policy-making positions. The NAACP, Salt Lake City, considers that it has been successful in this respect.

The organization has also been able to avoid the distribution or use of what it considers to be communist propaganda.

The PAFUC and the UCCL are considered by NAACP officers in Salt Lake City to be communist front organizations. Mr. FRITZ, the immediate Past President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP, has in the past periodically received invitations to speak before these groups. He has made it a policy not to accept speaking invitations from the UCCL since it is located in Salt Lake County, but about once a year accepts an invitation to speak before the PAFUC, since he considers that presenting the NAACP program to that organization might be of some value to the persons who attend. JOHNIE M. DRIVER is the new President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP. He recently spoke before the PAFUC in Provo, Utah, but his reaction to the group is not known.

DEMONSTRATION BY NAACP AT SITE OF NEW FEDERAL BUILDING, CLEVELAND, OHIO, 1965

In accordance with plans previously announced in public news media, the Cleveland Branch of the National Association For the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) conducted a demonstration at the construction site of the new Cleveland Federal Building on April 26, 1965, to protest alleged discrimination in hiring practices of building trade unions involved in the project. The demonstration began at approximately 10:00 AM, and, according to Sergeant JOHN J. UNGVARY, Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland, Ohio Police Department, some forty-seven persons participated in the picket line. Sergeant UNGVARY stated that on three separate occasions groups of demonstrators sat down at the work entrance to the construction site or on Lakeside Avenue, adjacent to the site. Those persons engaged in civil disobedience were promptly arrested by the Cleveland Police and charged with disorderly conduct. Local news sources reported a total of twenty-four persons were arrested, including Mr. HAROLD WILLIAMS, Executive Secretary of the Cleveland NAACP, and Reverend DONALD G. JACOBS, President of the NAACP in Cleveland. According to Sergeant UNGVARY, those persons arrested were booked and released on their own bond.

The demonstration recessed at 11:50 AM, and was resumed at 2:00 PM with approximately thirty-two persons participating in a picket line on Lakeside Avenue, adjacent to the construction site. Sergeant UNGVARY advised on April 26, 1965, that there was no civil disobedience during the afternoon demonstration and no arrests were made. He stated that the demonstration was terminated at 3:30 PM.

RE: DEMONSTRATION BY NAACP AT SITE
OF NEW FEDERAL BUILDING,
CLEVELAND, OHIO, 1965

Sergeant UNGVARY advised that during the morning phase of the demonstration, MORRIS JAFFA and BETH ROBINSON were observed participating in the picket line.

MORRIS JAFFA

ISADORE BAKST, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP) of Ohio, advised on December 12, 1949, that JAFFA was a member of the CP prior to 1945.

CV T-1 reported during the period 1957-1958, that JAFFA attended five functions of the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born (ACPFB) during this time.

The ACPFB has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CV T-1 also reported on May 21, 1959, that JAFFA was present at a testimonial banquet for GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CPUSA, which banquet was held on May 10, 1959, in Cleveland, Ohio.

CV T-2 advised on March 9, 1964, that JAFFA was at that time a subscriber to "The Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

BETH MICHELE ROBINSON, nee Wolland

CV T-3 advised on April 2, 1962, that BETH MICHELE WOLLAND gave a speech at a forum of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) held March 26, 1962, in New York City. Her talk concerned her 1961 visit to Cuba and she spoke favorably of the Cuban government of FIDEL CASTRO, and noted that she was employed by the Ministry of Education compiling statistics, while in Cuba. Source stated he had learned also that she had traveled to Cuba, via Mexico, apparently without permission of the United States State Department.

CV T-4 advised on October 13, 1964, that a forum, sponsored by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 11, 1964, at which the SWP candidate for

RE: DEMONSTRATION BY NAACP AT SITE
OF NEW FEDERAL BUILDING,

Vice President of the United States was the speaker. CV T-4 stated that of the 30 persons present at this forum, 17 were known to him to be members of the SWP. BETH ROBINSON, although not a member of the SWP, was among those present.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the FPCC is attached.

Mr. HAROLD WILLIAMS announced to public news sources during the demonstration that plans for its continuance on April 27, 1965, were not finalized. He stated that a meeting of the NAACP would be held on the evening of April 26, 1965, at which time plans would be made relative to the possible continuation of the demonstration on Tuesday, April 27, 1965.

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY:

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
NEW JERSEY DISTRICT (NJCP):

IRVING POTASH, Chairman of the State Board of the NJCP, has met with RICHARD SARJEANT, a member of the NJCP club in Paterson, New Jersey. SARJEANT had also been the leader of a group known as the CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY group at Paterson, New Jersey. SARJEANT was recently convicted on charges growing out of a riot at Paterson, New Jersey. SARJEANT has now been abandoned by his fellow NJCP members at Paterson, and he is suffering from a recurrent tuberculosis condition.

POTASH intended to supply SARJEANT with a physician. POTASH also intended to supply SARJEANT with an attorney to handle an appeal of his conviction.

(NK T-1, 2/8/65.)

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS:

1. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)
NEWARK BRANCH:

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

At a membership meeting of the SWP, Newark Branch, on January 17, 1965, members were urged to become more active in civil rights activities in cities in this area.

(NK T-2, 1/20/65.)

CLIFTON DE BERRY, of New York City, known to be a member of the National Committee of the SWP, addressed a public forum sponsored by the Newark Branch of the SWP on February 14, 1965.

DE BERRY spoke of the Negro struggle in the United States. He stated that both white and Negro radical groups are undergoing changes and that the average Negro in the United States can see that the militant approach will bring results. DE BERRY said that only self defense will protect Negro lives and property, and that many rifle clubs are being formed, both in the North and in the South. DE BERRY expressed the opinion that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has lost its grip on the Negro people in the United States, and more militant groups are being formed in the South.

(NK T-3, 2/17/65.)

2. NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS (NJCRMW):

A characterization of the NJCRMW appears in the appendix hereto.

A meeting of the NJCRMW was held at Newark, New Jersey, on February 6, 1965. Recommendations were received from various committees.

It was recommended that pressure be brought upon the state legislative body to make provisions of the Migrant Workers Law compulsory. Living conditions in the area of Port Norris, New Jersey, for migrant workers were described. It was recommended that someone be hired to live in the Port Norris area to obtain firsthand experience in living conditions there.

It was also recommended that the Migrant Labor Board be forced to hire more inspectors to enforce the laws and that migrant workers have representation on the Migrant Labor Board. A telegram was to be sent to the Governor of New Jersey, asking support for a $2 an hour minimum wage.

(NK T-4, 2/9/65.)

Approximately eighty-five persons attended a meeting of the NJCRMW on March 6, 1965, at Port Norris, New Jersey. A statement of grievances was distributed listing certain "human rights" which were being denied to "over twenty thousand migrant workers in New Jersey." The statement declared that the NJCRMW is acting as a grievance committee in behalf of the migrant worker. The statement of grievances claimed that commercial, agricultural, and packing enterprises employing migrant workers could afford to pay increased wages. The wage rate of $2 per hour was dismissed as not extravagant.

At the meeting it was recommended that migrant workers make their demands felt this summer when their services are needed most.

(NK T-4, 3/11/65.)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS:

A. DEMONSTRATION, MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, MARCH, 1965.

HERMAN NASH was among members of the Bergen County, New Jersey, Chapter of the CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY who were expected to leave Bergen County on March 23, 1965, to join the demonstration march from Selma, Alabama, to Montgomery, Alabama. b6 b7C b7D

([redacted], Englewood, New Jersey Police Department, 3/23/65.)

As of August, 1960, HERMAN NASH was a member of the Brakemen's Club, Railroad Section, COMMUNIST PARTY of New York.

(NK T-5, 8/4/60.)

B. MEMORIAL SERVICE IN MEMORY OF MRS. VIOLA LIUZZO, LAKEWOOD, NEW JERSEY, APRIL 4, 1965:

The Ocean County Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, held a memorial service in Lakewood, New Jersey, on April 4, 1965, to honor the memory of Mrs. VIOLA LIUZZO, slain civil rights worker. Approximately two hundred persons attended the service. The main speaker, NICHOLAS KOURAMBIS, was introduced as the Executive Chairman of Migrant Workers for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. In his talk, KOURAMBIS stated that all must unite to fight for the rights of Negroes and that all must help to end Mississippi-style bigotry in Southern New Jersey. KOURAMBIS stated he has fought proverty in Southern New Jersey, and concluded by saying that in some parts of New Jersey, the Negro does not vote and "poverty exists in New Jersey sufficient to strangle all of us." b6 b7C b7D

([redacted], Lakewood, New Jersey Police Department, 4/6/65.)

NICHOLAS KOURAMBIS was a member of the NJCP as of April, 1965.

(NK T-1, 4/6/65.)

C. TAKING OF DEPOSITIONS IN MISSISSIPPI IN EFFORT TO UNSEAT REPRESENTATIVES OF MISSISSIPPI IN CONGRESS:

According to an article in the "Clarion-Ledger", January 25, 1965, MORTON STAVIS stated that he and attorney WALT WITTMAN of New Jersey, would work in Mississippi taking depositions.

("Clarion-Ledger", 1/25/65, published daily at Jackson, Mississippi.)

MORTON STAVIS was known to be a loyal CP member. MORTON STAVIS indicated that he had been associated with the CP for a long period of time.

(NK T-7, self-admitted former CP member, 1943-44, 10/28/55.)

All members of the NJCP received instructions that should they be interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, they should report the interview to MORTON STAVIS.

([redacted], self-admitted former CP member, 1949-55, 1/27/53.) b6 b7C b7D

MORTON STAVIS invoked the Fifth Amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee on February 28, 1956, when asked questions concerning present or past CP membership.

[redacted] was listed as a member-at-large of the National Executive Board of the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD. OTHER Per Court Order

(The "New York Guild Lawyer", Volume 20, #3, March-April, 1962 issue, self described as a publication of the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD.)

A characterization of the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD is contained in the appendix hereto.

N.I. WALTER WITTMAN was a member of a professional group of the CP from 1947 until late 1950 or early 1951.

(NK T-8, 12/19/53.)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS:

A. CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION OF BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY:

The Civil Rights Commission of Bloomfield, New Jersey, is an official body of the town of Bloomfield. The five members are appointed by the Mayor of Bloomfield. DAVE RUBINSTEIN is a member of the commission.

MR. + MRS. DAVE RUBINSTEIN is also a member of the Housing Committee of the Human Relations Council of Bloomfield. This is a private group which aims at assuring equal human rights and civil rights to all persons in the town of Bloomfield. N.J.

CAROLINE RUBINSTEIN, wife of DAVE RUBINSTEIN, is part-time secretary of the Human Relations Council of Bloomfield. This is a compensated position, The Human Relations Council maintains no office space, and CAROLINE RUBINSTEIN works from her home. N.J.

DAVE RUBINSTEIN was designated to represent the Civil Rights Commission of Bloomfield at Montgomery, Alabama, on March 23, 1965.

([redacted], Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church, Bloomfield, New Jersey, 3/22/65.)

DAVE RUBINSTEIN attended a special meeting of the State Board of the NJCP on May 31, 1961. b6 b7C b7D

([redacted], self-admitted member of the NJCP from approximately 1950 to September, 1962, 6/1/61.)

NJCP leaders had recently decided to reactivate an old committee on electoral questions. CAROLINE RUBINSTEIN was a member of this committee.

(NK T-6, 1/3/62.)

NK 100-48052

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD (NLG)

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published December 1, 1961, to supersede Guide published on January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., reflects the following on page 121 regarding the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD (NLG):

1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)

2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the COMMUNIST PARTY, its front organizations, and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the COMMUNIST PARTY and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents."
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)

3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the COMMUNIST PARTY itself. Among these organizations are the  NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD. When the COMMUNIST PARTY itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)

NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 15, 1964, that TONY CASCONE announced at a meeting of the State Board of the COMMUNIST PARTY of New Jersey (NJCP) on December 5, 1964, that a new forum had been organized to take up the cause of migrant workers and their families. CASCONE stated that one meeting had been held, and the next meeting would be held at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. CASCONE stated that he and NICK KOURAMBIS had co-sponsored the new forum. CASCONE noted that KOURAMBIS is the Chairman of the Labor and Industry Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP).

The same source had previously advised on March 24, 1964, that CASCONE was then a member of the State Board of the NJCP. The same source had further advised on August 4, 1964, that NICK KOURAMBIS had attended a meeting of the NJCP State Board on August 2, 1964.

The "Newark Evening News", published daily at Newark, New Jersey, in the issue dated December 31, 1964, printed a letter to the editor from NICK KOURAMBIS, Labor and Industry Chairman, New Jersey State Conference of Branches of the NAACP, in which KOURAMBIS stated that on January 8, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, a statewide campaign would be initiated to raise the social, political, and economic level of migrant workers in New Jersey.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 11, 1965, that a meeting was held at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, on January 8, 1965, to initiate a statewide campaign to raise the levels of the migrant workers in New Jersey, and also that this meeting formed an organization called the NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS (NJCMW). The meeting was under the leadership of NICK KOURAMBIS. TONY CASCONE was also present at this meeting.

The second source further advised on February 9, 1965, that the NJCMW held another meeting on February 6, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. NICK KOURAMBIS was elected permanent chairman. It was announced at this meeting that the mailing address of the NJCMW would be 129 Clinton Avenue,

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A.) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRICT,
SAN DIEGO DIVISION

Art Stevens

Calif

On December 20, 1964, ARTHUR STEVENS, identified by the informant as Chairman of the San Diego County Communist Party (SDCP), said that Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) members are fighting among themselves, and he is not going to attend any more CORE meetings.

(SD T-6, January 4, 1965)

At a regular meeting of the CPSD on January 17, 1965, ARTHUR STEVENS discussed his role in CORE and how he had been called undesirable by HAROLD BROWN, the Chairman of the San Diego CORE Chapter.

(SD T-4, January 21, 1965)

At a regular SDCP meeting on February 3, 1965, at the home of THERESA VIDAL, whom the informant identified as a regular member of the SDCP, ART STEVENS reported on CORE. He said that on February 1, 1965, he was called to appear before the Executive Board of CORE to answer the charges brought against him. He was asked by the board if he was a member of the CP. STEVENS said he told HAROLD BROWN that he would have to think a long time before he answered that question, and that BROWN should think a long time to decide whether he wanted the question answered. The board asked STEVENS to send in his resignation. STEVENS asked those present at the CP meeting what he should do, and it was decided that he should not send in his resignation, but should not have anything to do with CORE.

(B.) SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY
SAN DIEGO BRANCH

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450

A characterization of the San Diego Branch of the Socialist Workers Party appears in the appendices hereto.

The San Diego Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SDB-SWP) held a social on January 10, 1965, at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego. BILL KITT, who was identified by the informant as a regular member of the SWP, said that he had heard that HAROLD BROWN Chairman of CORE, had pushed through a motion in the last CORE meeting to make it unconstitutional for a communist to belong to CORE. KITT wanted to give this information to the local press, but BILL BEARD and WALLY HOSKINS, whom the informant identified as regular members of the SDB-SWP, wanted to withhold the information since the CORE vote was not final and there was going to be a fight on this issue. LUD GARTNER, whom the informant also identified as a regular member of the SDB-SWP, said that BEARD's and HOSKINS' position on the CORE situation was directly opposite the National SWP's position. GARTNER said this case called for a showdown.

(SD T-7, January 13, 1965)

A regular meeting of the SDB-SWP was held at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego, on January 12, 1965. The meeting was called to formulate branch policy toward directing BILL BEARD on how to act in CORE. BEARD was asked to make a report on the CORE attempts to get rid of BEARD and ART STEVENS.

(SD T-7, January 17, 1965)

On January 23, 1965, a meeting and social, under the auspices of the Militant Labor Forum, was held at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego. DELLA ROSSA of Los Angeles spoke on "The FBI and Civil Rights."

(SD T-1, February 1, 1965)
(SD T-2, February 1, 1965)
(SD T-7, January 29, 1965)

DELLA ROSSA is an SWP functionary from Los Angeles, California.

(SD T-7, January 29, 1965)

A characterization of the Militant Labor Forum appears in the appendices hereto.

At a regular meeting of the SDB-SWP held on January 26, 1965, at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego, LUD GARTNER gave a report on the last CORE meeting. BILL KITT gave a ten-minute lecture on the branch's position toward CORE.

(SD T-7, January 29, 1965)

A regular meeting of the SDB-SWP was held on February 2, 1965, at 1853 Irving Avenue. There was a discussion of CORE and it was decided that at the next CORE meeting LUD GARTNER should demand that the members vote on whether or not socialists and communists should be expelled. It was decided that they should not wait until HAROLD BROWN felt he had sufficient forces to carry the vote for expulsion.

(SD T-5, February 8, 1965)

SD 100-13295

A regular meeting of the SDE-SWP was held on February 9, 1965, at 1853 Irving Avenue. LUD GARTNER reported that the CORE Executive Board voted to expell BILL BEARD, ARI STEVENS, and himself.

(SD T-1, February 23, 1965)
(SD T-2, February 23, 1965)

On February 20, 1965, IRVING KIRSCH, Los Angeles Chairman of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) spoke at the SDE-SWP headquarters at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego. He appealed for funds to aid students at the University of Indiana in a legal fight concerning their having attended a meeting on March 25, 1963, at the University of Indiana, at which a Negro and the national officer of the YSA spoke about the civil rights struggle.

(SD T-8, February 23, 1965)

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance appears in the appendices hereto.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A.) STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE DEMONSTRATION SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA February 12, 1965

On February 12, 1965, the San Diego Chapter of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) staged a protest march from the downtown sector of San Diego to the Main Post Office in San Diego, where they picketed, sang songs, and made speeches protesting the lack of Federal assistance for Negro voter registration in Selma, Alabama. Special Agents of the FBI observed ARTHUR STEVENS, THERESA VIDAL and WILLIAM BEARD take part in the demonstration. There were no incidents or arrests, and the above persons assumed no leadership status during the demonstration.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

An "Ad Hoc" committee of the San Diego Branch of CORE met at [illegible] Dorothy, San Diego, on March 3, 1965. Among those present were ART STEVENS and BILL BEARD. The purpose of this meeting was to review charges against CORE Chairman HAL BROWN. The group proclaimed that they were against the expulsion of BEARD and STEVENS. If the National CORE did not back them in their requests, they would leave CORE and form a separate civil rights organization.

(SD T-[illegible], March 17, 1965)

A meeting of CORE was held at the Memorial Recreation Center on March 4, 1965. There were approximately 50 persons present, and among them was BILL BEARD. It was stated at this meeting that National CORE did not desire anyone belonging to the SWP or the CP as members.

THE SAN DIEGO LABOR FORUM
aka, MILITANT LABOR FORUM

Sources advised on April 1, 1965, that the San Diego Labor Forum is not, in fact, an organization. It has no officers, collects no dues and has no membership. It is simply a name to be used for sponsorship of meetings arranged by the San Diego Branch of the Socialist Workers Party by which means the San Diego Branch of the Socialist Workers Party hopes to attract persons of the laboring class as well as liberals and others to meetings for recruitment purposes. The San Diego Labor Forum is currently referred to as the Militant Labor Forum.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP)

1. Local CP Plans and Activity

CV T-1 advised on January 24, 1965, that a meeting of leading CP, USA, functionaries was held in New York City that date. At this meeting it was reported that although there has been a tremendous rise in the Negro liberation movement, Party influence in the Negro community in the Cleveland area is nonexistent. (U)

CV T-2 advised on March 9, 1965, that on March 8, 1965, FRIEDA HARRIS advised that she had received a telephone call from ANNE BRADEN regarding the "Selma situation." BRADEN wanted the people in Cleveland to send telegrams to President JOHNSON and to the Attorney General of the United States requesting that federal troops be sent to Alabama. (U)

FRIEDA HARRIS: VIRGINIA HARDIN, who has furnished information to the United States Government, is a self-admitted former member of the CP whose cooperation with the Government was publicly disclosed on June 5, 1962. Mrs. HARDIN reported on February 17, 1961, that she knew HARRIS to be a member of the Heights Club of the CP of Cleveland, Ohio, as of April 1960.

ANNE BRADEN: Mrs. ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, is a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party in Louisville, Kentucky. In testifying on December 11 and 13, 1954, in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Criminal Court in a state sedition prosecution against ANNE BRADEN, Mrs. AHEARN identified BRADEN as being a known CP member in Louisville, Kentucky, from January 1951 to shortly prior to the time of her testimony.

CV T-3 advised on April 1, 1965, that he had been in contact with the principal leaders of the Ohio CP on a number of occasions during the month of March 1965, at which times the Selma to Montgomery, Alabama, March was discussed. These CP leaders evidenced sympathy for the aims of the marchers, but they took no steps to participate themselves in this march, nor did they urge others to participate therein. (U)

B. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)

1. Local SWP

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CV T-4 advised on March 17, 1965, that a business meeting of the SWP was held in Cleveland on March 4, 1965, at which it was announced that there is to be a meeting at the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) headquarters in Cleveland, the meeting to pertain to DON FREEMAN, a teacher who is being investigated by the Cleveland Board of Education. CORE is planning on putting out a leaflet in FREEMAN's behalf. At this meeting of the SWP a motion was passed that DON SMITH should attend this CORE meeting.

CV T-7 advised that DON FREEMAN is connected with the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) in Cleveland.

RAM: A characterization of the RAM is contained in the Appendix hereto, and that characterization identifies DON FREEMAN.

DON SMITH: CV T-13 stated on May 5, 1964, (U)

that SMITH was then a member of the SWP and Secretary of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). (C) (U)

YSA: A characterization of the YSA is contained in the Appendix hereto.

CV T-5 advised on March 12, 1965, that at an SWP meeting, held in Cleveland on March 7, 1965, DON SMITH reported that he had attended a meeting of the Cleveland Chapter of CORE, which meeting was held on March 5, 1965, and which pertained to the defense of DON FREEMAN. SMITH stated that he had helped prepare literature to be mailed by CORE in connection with FREEMAN's defense.

CV T-6 advised on March 25, 1965, that at an SWP meeting, held in Cleveland on March 18, 1965, ERIC REINTHALER reported that over 80 issues of "The Militant" had been sold at a recent Freedom Fighters, Inc., rally and conference. (C) (U)

ERIC REINTHALER: REINTHALER was convicted in United States District Court, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 29, 1958, on the charge of conspiring to violate the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947 through the filing of false noncommunist union officer affidavits. On February 19, 1958, he was sentenced to eighteen months in prison and fined $2,500.

Ohio

Socialist Workers Party

CV T-13 advised on January 13, 1965, that REINTHALER is a member of the SWP and was present at an SWP meeting on January 7, 1965. (C) (U)

"The Militant": A characterization of "The Militant" is contained in the Appendix hereto.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. DEMONSTRATION FEBRUARY 6, 1965, IN CLEVELAND SPONSORED BY FREEDOM FIGHTERS, INC., PROTESTING VOTER REGISTRATION IN ALABAMA

CV T-7 advised on February 6, 1965, that a meeting of Freedom Fighters, Inc., which is a small local civil rights group, was held on February 5, 1965, at which it was decided to sponsor a demonstration in downtown Cleveland during the afternoon of February 6, 1965, to protest the arrest of Negroes in connection with the voter registration drive in Selma, Alabama. Source advised that this demonstration did take place between 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. on February 6, 1965, with approximately 25 persons marching in front of the Federal Building in downtown Cleveland. They carried signs protesting the jailing of Negroes in Alabama, urging that Negroes throughout the South be permitted to vote. Source advised that the demonstration was orderly and that there were no incidents.

[redacted], Cleveland Police Department, confirmed that the demonstration was orderly, that there were no arrests, and that among the 25 participating in the march were LEWIS G. ROBINSON, BETH ROBINSON, DUNCAN FERGUSON, ROD HOLT, and MARILYN HOLT. b6 b7C

LEWIS G. ROBINSON: LEWIS G. ROBINSON, in his application for a position with the United States Government, dated July 1, 1957, in answer to the question, "Are you now, or have you ever been, a member of the Communist Party, USA, or any Communist or Fascist organization?" stated, "I have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League in Boston in 1950."

The Labor Youth League (LYL) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In April 1964, LEWIS G. ROBINSON publicly announced through local news media that he intended to form a rifle club for the purpose of protecting civil rights demonstrators when the local police failed to do so.

BETH ROBINSON: CV T-4 advised on October 13, 1964, that a forum, sponsored by the SWP, was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 11, 1964, at which the SWP candidate for Vice-President of the United States was the speaker. CV T-4 stated that of the 30 persons present at this forum, 17 were known to him to be members of the SWP. BETH ROBINSON, although not a member of the SWP, was among those present.

DUNCAN FERGUSON: CV T-6 advised on January 29, 1965, that DUNCAN FERGUSON was at that time a member of the SWP in Cleveland, Ohio, and was present at an SWP meeting held in Cleveland on January 21, 1965. (C) (U)

ROD HOLT: CV T-6 advised on January 29, 1965, that FREDERICK RODNEY HOLT, known as ROD HOLT, is currently a member of the SWP in Cleveland, Ohio, and was present at an SWP meeting held in Cleveland on January 21, 1965. (C) (U)

MARILYN HOLT: CV T-6 advised on January 29, 1965, that MARILYN HOLT was at that time a member of the SWP in Cleveland, Ohio, and was present at an SWP meeting held January 21, 1965. (C) (U)

B. DEMONSTRATION MARCH 13, 1965, IN CLEVELAND, SPONSORED BY UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FELLOWSHIP FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE, PROTESTING VOTER REGISTRATION IN ALABAMA

[redacted] advised on March 13, 1965, that approximately 189 adults and 52 juveniles participated in a march at the Federal Building, downtown Cleveland, the march lasting from noon to 1 p.m. on March 13, 1965. The demonstration was sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice, in Cleveland, and the public was invited to attend. Leaflets distributed at the demonstration demanded immediate dispatch of federal troops and marshals to Alabama to protect Negroes who are attempting to register to vote. The demonstration was peaceful and no arrests were made. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that among those participating in this demonstration were the following:

AUDREY CLINE
WILLIAM GARFINKLE
GERALD GORDON
RUTH LENCL
BERNARD MANDEL
DON ROTHENBERG
MAX SCHOENFELD
JOHN MC CANN
ERIC REINTHALER
JUDY REINTHALER
AUDA ROMINE

CV T-8 advised on March 22, 1965, of the demonstration in front of the Federal Building on March 13, 1965, and identified EDNA KAUFMAN and SOPHIE BARTELL as also being present.

AUDREY CLINE: CV T-3 advised on September 11, 1961, that AUDREY CLINE was at that time a member of the Ward 27 Club of the CP in Cleveland, Ohio.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CV T-3 advised on June 21, 1964, that a meeting was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on June 19, 1964, for the purpose of hearing a leading functionary of the CP, USA, discuss the Chinese-Russian ideological dispute. AUDREY CLINE was present. (U)

WILLIAM GARFINKLE: CV T-17, on February 28, 1944, reported that as of February 2, 1944, WILLIAM GAREINKLE was a member of the American Youth for Democracy (AYD).

The AYD has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[redacted], Cleveland Police Department, advised on August 11, 1949, that GARFINKLE had circulated and signed a petition for a CP member who was a candidate for the Cleveland Board of Education in 1949.

b7C

GERALD GORDON: MELVIN HARDIN, a former member of the CP, who has furnished information to the United States Government, advised on May 2, 1958, that at a meeting of the Organizational Secretaries of the Cedar-Glenville Section of the Ohio CP, held on April 29, 1958, in Cleveland, GERALD GORDON resigned from the CP. (U)

CV T-4 advised on April 19, 1963, and on January 15, 1964, that GERALD GORDON is considered by some members of the SWP in Cleveland as being a sympathizer of the SWP, since he attends some functions sponsored by the SWP. However, GORDON has been approached to become a member of the SWP and has declined.

RUTH LENCL: CV T-18 advised on October (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

17, 1963, that a meeting of the Ohio CP State Committee was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 13, 1963, with GUS HALL being present. (U)

CV T-3 stated on November 12, 1963, that on November 10, 1963, RUTH LENCL commented that GUS HALL had been in Cleveland in October 1963 for a State CP meeting and that she had been asked to attend this meeting but was unable to be present. Source stated that GUS HALL was at this time General Secretary of the CP, USA. (U)

BERNARD MANDEL: JOHN VICTOR BLANC, a former member of the CP who testified on behalf of the United States Government in 1949, advised on June 30, 1946, that BERNARD MANDEL's name appeared at that time among the records of the Cuyahoga County CP Membership Director as being a member of the CP Euclid Club, with CP Book #88987.

CV T-9 advised on October 31, 1963, that on October 27, 1963, the first of a series of six Sunday night lectures, conducted by BERNARD MANDEL, and sponsored by the SWP, Cleveland, Ohio, was held at the SWP meeting hall in Cleveland. (U)

DON ROTHENBERG: On February 3, 1948, Mrs. MARY STALCUP MARKWARD, Washington, DC, a self-admitted former member of the CP, stated that DON ROTHENBERG was at that time a member of a CP group in Washington, DC.

CV T-6 advised on May 20, 1955, that DON ROTHENBERG was then the Ohio State Director of the Progressive Party (PP). (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

A characterization of the PP is contained in the Appendix hereto.

MAX SCHOENFELD: On September 15, 1959, CV T-9 advised that SCHOENFELD was the organizer of the Cleveland Branch of the Independent Socialist League (ISL) since prior to 1952. After the dissolution of the Cleveland Branch of the ISL (in 1958), SCHOENFELD met with the former ISL members regularly until they all joined the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation (SP-SDF) in mid-December 1958. On September 13 and 27, 1963, this source advised that SCHOENFELD became a member of the SP-SDF when the ISL members joined that group and had been identified in attendance at meetings of the SP-SDF within the past year. (U)

Characterizations of the Cleveland Branch of the ISL and of the ISL are contained in the Appendix hereto.

JOHN MC CANN: CV T-13 advised on December 31, 1964, that JOHN MC CANN was formerly a member of the YSA at Kent State University and that he has applied for admission into the SWP at Cleveland. An SWP meeting was held December 27, 1964, at which MC CANN was present, and following this meeting, it was agreed that those members who were present would recommend MC CANN for membership in the SWP. (U)

JUDY REINTHALER: CV T-13 advised in January 1965, that JUDY REINTHALER is the wife of ERIC REINTHALER, who is a current member of the SWP. He advised that JUDY REINTHALER, although not an SWP member, does frequently attend SWP affairs with her husband. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

AUDA ROMINE: CV T-13 advised in January 1965 that AUDA ROMINE was at that time an active member of the SWP in Cleveland. (U)

EDNA KAUFMAN: CV T-12 advised on March 29, 1965, that a State conference of the Ohio CP was held in Cleveland on March 28, 1965, and EDNA KAUFMAN was present. (U)

SOPHIE BARTELL: JOHN VICTOR BLANC advised during the years 1945-48 that SOPHIE BARTELL was active in the Ohio CP and attended many CP meetings. He advised in February 1948 that on January 30, 1948, she was present at an enlarged meeting of the County Central Committee of the CP in Cleveland.

CV T-8 advised on July 25, 1963, that SOPHIE BARTELL was one of a group of women affiliated with a peace organization in the United States who went to Russia in June 1963 at the invitation of the Congress of Women, which was sponsored by the Women's International Democratic Federation. Those attending from the United States each signed a statement agreeing on their return to appear before various groups in the United States to tell the true story of the Russian way of life and make friends in the United States for Russia.

A characterization of the Women's International Democratic Federation is contained in the Appendix hereto.

C. DEMONSTRATION MARCH 16, 1965, IN CLEVELAND, SPONSORED BY FREEDOM FIGHTERS, INC., PERTAINING TO THE ARREST OF DON FREEMAN

[redacted] advised on March 16, 1965, that a demonstration was held in downtown Cleveland on March 16, 1965, sponsored by Freedom Fighters, Inc., and attended by approximately 75 persons. The demonstration was led by LEWIS G. ROBINSON. Of the 75 participants, all but about 8 to 10 were grade school or junior high school students. They marched around the Cleveland Board of Education Building carrying placards showing that the demonstration was in protest against contemplated action by the School Board to remove DON FREEMAN as a teacher. b6 b7C

"The Plain Dealer," local Cleveland newspaper of general circulation, issue of March 17, 1965, carried an article stating that FREEMAN was fired by the Cleveland Board of Education on March 16, 1965, "because of his Negro nationalist writings and activities."

[redacted] advised that there were no incidents and no arrests were made.

LEWIS G. ROBINSON, previously identified, was the only person observed participating in this demonstration who is of interest to this report.

D. PARTICIPATION IN ALABAMA VOTER REGISTRATION DEMONSTRATIONS DURING MARCH 1965

As previously reported, CV T-3 advised on April 1, 1965, that CP leaders in Cleveland took no steps to participate themselves in the Selma to Montgomery March, nor did they urge others to participate therein. (U)

CV T-6, CV T-9, CV T-10, and CV T-11 all advised in April 1965 that they had no knowledge of any persons connected with the CP in the Cleveland area having participated in the Selma to Montgomery March.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

CV T-8 advised that he had learned that DAVE LAIBMAN, who is a student at Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio, participated in this march. Source advised that DAVE LAIBMAN's home is in one of the suburbs of Cleveland. (U)

DAVE LAIBMAN: CV T-12 advised on March 29, 1965, that DAVE LAIBMAN attended a CP State conference held at Cleveland, Ohio, on March 28, 1965. (U)

CV T-13, CV T-5, and CV T-4 advised on March 30, 1965, that no one from the Cleveland area connected with the SWP or the YSA went to Alabama in March 1965 for the purpose of participating in the voter demonstration marches taking place there. These sources also advised that neither the SWP nor the YSA discussed the demonstrations in Alabama, nor did they show any interest therein.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. UNITED FREEDOM MOVEMENT (UFM)

CV T-14 advised on October 7, 1964, that the United Freedom Movement is not a membership organization but is made up of representatives from about 30 Cleveland organizations, each of which is entitled to send 2 delegates to the UFM. The identities of these delegates can change from meeting to meeting.

"The Cleveland Press," local newspaper of general circulation, in its issue of February 19, 1965, identified the new officers of the UFM, there being 9 such officers, and one of those being ARTHUR EVANS, a vice-chairman.

ARTHUR EVANS: CV T-6 advised on December 14, 1964, that a Militant Forum meeting was held in Cleveland on December 6, 1964, at (U)

B. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

1. Cleveland Chapter of CORE

CV T-2 advised on February 17, 1965, that a meeting of Citizens for Constitutional Rights (CCR) was held in Cleveland on January 25, 1965, at which EDNA KAUFMAN stated that CORE had received 1,000 copies of the ANNE BRADEN pamphlet entitled "HUAC - Bulwark of Segregation." (U)

CCR: VIRGINIA HARDIN advised on September 5, 1961, that on September 1, 1961, a CCR meeting was held in Cleveland, at which the name Citizens for Constitutional Rights was approved to replace the name Cleveland Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which had been the former name used by the group. EDNA KAUFMAN, as only officer and chairman of the CCR, controls the operation of this group which has no formal membership requirements. The stated purposes of the CCR are to abolish the House Committee on

Un-American Activities and to fight against the Smith Act and the Mc Carran Act. CONFIDENTIAL

CV T-15 advised on April 1, 1965, that he had not observed any of the ANNE BRADEN pamphlets entitled "HCUA - Bulwark of Segregation" at CORE headquarters and further that none of these pamphlets were ever mailed by the Cleveland CORE Chapter.

2. Kent Chapter of CORE (Congress of Racial Equality)

CV T-16 advised on February 12, 1965, of a change in the identities of the officers of the CORE Chapter located at Kent State University in Kent, Ohio. He stated that this CORE Chapter, which is campus-approved, is practically defunct, holds meetings very infrequently, and that only 5 or 6 persons attend these meetings in addition to the officers.

CV T-16 identified the officers, one of them being TONY WALSH, the president.

TONY WALSH: CV T-16 advised on June 2, 1964, that he had learned from a confidential source of his, whose identity he did not wish to reveal, that a group of five students at Kent State University (KSU) were at that time in the process of forming a unit of the YSA at KSU. One of these students was TONY WALSH.

CV T-19 advised on April 23, 1965, that he is familiar with YSA activities and YSA members at KSU since the fall of 1964; that TONY WALSH has not been known to him to be a YSA member or active in the YSA at KSU during that time.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., states as follows regarding the Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party:

"PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNIST PARTY (POC)

"1. Found to be 'a new Communist splinter group.' The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party 'also known as the POC * * * was formed in August, 1958, by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within it, had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus.'

"'The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee Group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of "disruptive, factional, anti-party activities."

"'The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. II. Communist Tactics

JEANETTE DWORKIN has been designated Chairman of the "Boycott Mississippi Products Committee" of the Schenectady, New York chapter of the National Association for the Adancement of Colored People (NAACP). She is responsible for the territory extending from Dutchess County to the northern New York State line and Oneida County through the eastern state line.

(Confidential Informant AL T-1, March 12, 1965)

JEANETTE DWORKIN is a former official of the Albany Communist Party (CP), who left the Party ranks in the late 1950's but has maintained an interest in integration movements. Her husband, MICHAEL DWORKIN, is currently Educational and Literature Director of the Capital District CP.

(Confidential Informant AL T-2, April 2, 1965)

The organization Albany Friends of SNICK in early March 1965 engaged in a campaign to collect funds to purchase hard hats to be shipped to the civil rights marchers in Selma, Alabama. $90.00 worth of these hats were purchased locally in Albany and JEANETTE DWORKIN, who had actively participated in this effort, called at the R. B. Wing Building Supply Company, in the company of other campaign workers, and took delivery of the hats and thereafter put them on a plane to be shipped to Selma, Alabama.

(Confidential Informant AL T-3, March 15, 1965)

In March 1965 JEANETTE DWORKIN spoke of having made numerous phone calls to collect $4.00 each for hard hats to be sent to civil rights workers in Alabama in connection with the demonstrations in Selma.

(Confidential Informant AL T-4, March 26, 1965)

The Albany, New York daily newspapers "Knickerbocker News" and "Times Union" of April 2, 1965 reported that LAFAYETTE SURNEY had spoken at the State University of New York at Albanyon April 2, 1965 on the role of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) in the South. He was identified as a member of the Executive Group of the SNCC, project director of the Mississippi Summer Project and [redacted] active in the SNCC since 1961.

JEANETTE DWORKIN had been in charge of the arrangements for SURNEY's appearance in Albany and set up his schedule of speeches and handled his press relations. She also met him on his arrival at the airport and provided transportation. He was a dinner guest of JEANETTE and MICHAEL DWORKIN.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 21, 1965, that a meeting of National Committee members of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) and invited guests would be held on April 23-25, 1965, at the Hotel Astor, New York City.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 23-25, 1965, that the meeting began during the evening of April 23, 1965, for the stated purpose of discussing ways and means of preserving peace in the world and ending the war in Viet Nam.

Gus Hall delivered the main report which he characterized as a general report. Hall stated the Viet Nam war is a "war of United States imperialist aggression" and will lead to isolation and disaster. People throughout the world are protesting United States aggression and calling the United States an "outlaw." Hall compared the present action of the United States Government to fascism in Nazi Germany. Capitalism is blind to human suffering. United States officials should be forced to tour the areas of Viet Nam and see the destruction.

Hall declared United States imperialism is the main obstacle to peace in the world and the United States is the only world power which has not given up war as an instrument of diplomacy. The United States has not accepted the judgment of history that colonialism has come to an end.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Hall stated the United States imperialists through the assistance of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) are attempting to set up public governments which will be favorable to United States imperialistic aims. Hall cited Iran as an example, however, the CIA is not big enough to stop the anti-imperialist revolution sweeping the world.

The United States has been able to escalate the war in Viet Nam since the Socialist countries are not able to present a united front. The division among the Socialist countries has given the imperialists room to maneuver. A victory over the present policies of the United States would be a victory for coexistence.

Hall continued, saying that the role of the Communist Party (CP) is to expose the roots of imperialism which is monopoly capitalism. Monopoly imperialism and capitalism are inter-twined. Special departments of imperialism in the Federal Government are set up to serve the monopoly capitalist companies. The Johnson Administration has in effect set up an illegal, invisible government in Washington by appointing heads of large corporations to head government departments and who are in turn able to dictate United States policy.

The escalation of the war will affect the domestic policy of the government. It will drag the entire political spectrum in its wake. The present imperialistic action has given hope to the ultra-right. Hall denounced recent red-baiting attacks against the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and other civil rights forces.

World opinion is unanimously against United States world policy. Hall referred to the Selma to Montgomery, Alabama civil rights march and to the April 17, 1965 march on Washington regarding Viet Nam. He said the CP and individual Communists have played roles in these protests.

Hall stated the forces of peaceful coexistence must join together in the struggle against imperialism and voiced confidence that imperialism would soon be forced to retreat.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

The CP should mobilize against the ultra-right. The Socialist Party leads to "leftist isolationism."

Hall discussed the 1964 political action policy and stated the CP should have concentrated more on the lower elections. Each CP District should make a survey of the 'peoples' political action groups" and plan ahead for youth candidates. The Party should not be afraid of being drawn into united front activities and should work with any force that is willing. The CP should promote united left action but should be critical of the 'radical leftism which seeks to attack the Party.

Hall noted that there is a growing rejection of red-baiting in the mass movements and that recently two officials of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee attacked red-baiting. There is a growing acceptance of Communists and their contributions. The legal restrictions on the Party creates problems of communication with mass movements and of building the Party. Some Party members feel the Party can't fight out of its present difficulties. This is defeatism. The Party has not taken advantage of the open doors the mass movements afforded by the rejection of red-baiting. Hall concluded by saying the Party has recaptured much of its ability to get mass actions on the roads and it has been the initiating spark for mass actions of this period. Party members and the leadership have taken part in the leadership and planning and initiating of mass action.

On April 24, 1965, George Meyers delivered an informational report concerning a recent meeting of the CPUSA Negro Commission. Meyers commented concerning his article Negro-Labor Unity Against the Dixiecrats which was published in the April, 1965 edition of "Political Affairs," self-described as the "Theoretical Journal of the Communist Party, USA . Meyers noted that sixty per cent of the South's population is now urbanized and industry has

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

grown tremendously. The Dixiecrat grip, which draws its strength from the rural areas, is weakening. A growing working class, Negro and white, is forming an alliance with the Negro movement. The guaranteeing of the right to vote and the elimination of Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley law will produce new democratic developments.

Meyers submitted the following proposals which had been developed by the Negro Commission:

1. Each district should set up small committees to work with the leadership in organizing the work in the South. 2. Recruit Party members and try to make permanent assignments in areas of concentration. 3. Districts should be responsible for getting written materials to these areas. 4. The Party role in relation to the labor movement should be one of stimulating the idea of organizing the South. 5. Prepare the cadre and educate members on reconstruction of the South. 6. The Party leadership should prepare an informational catalogue on the South for the use of other groups. 7. Each district should work out plans to recruit Negro youths. 8. Keep the struggle for civil rights in motion. 9. Work to organize the unorganized in the South. 10. Raise a substantial amount of money in September-December, for work in the South. This money will be controlled by the Negro Commission.

Hyman Lumer gave a short report on the United States economic situation. Lumer noted that the boom of the auto industry has been a major factor in the upswing of the economy during which time big corporations have profited tremendously. Unemployment has not gone down and this year more youths will enter the labor market. Housing construction has declined and will continue to decline. The effects of the tax cut will no longer be felt. The position of United States capitalism has been strengthened and this has had an effect on the United States foreign policy. There should be a step up in the poverty and unemployment campaign to offset the action in Viet Nam.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

The second source advised the remainder of the day and most of the following day was devoted to comments on Gus Hall's report by the participating members and guests.

On April 25, 1965, discussion on Gus Hall's main report continued until James Jackson commented on his trip to the Soviet Union where he acted as a representative of the CPUSA at a March 1, 1965 conference in Moscow. Jackson reported eighteen other Parties were represented and gave their views on how to heal the split of Socialist countries. Only the Italian and British Parties expressed doubt concerning the usefulness of a new meeting to arrive at unity. Jackson said "we" are in full accord with the actions of the conference, with the communique issued by the conference and favor a meeting of the Eighty One Parties as soon as conditions permit.

Daniel Rubin presented a resolution calling for a National Convention of the CPUSA during the first quarter of 1966. Preparations will begin with the writing of drafts and documents and a pre-convention discussion in October, 1965. Draft resolutions will be made on peace, trade union work, civil rights, youth, electoral activity and the Party and the fight for the Party. These drafts will be prepared by various commissions and their work will be reviewed in June, 1965. All resolutions concerning the future National Convention were approved.

Gus Hall summarized the meeting stating it produced a very fertile discussion, the best in years. Hall noted that differences of opinions exist among the comrades, but these differences are not of the harmful type. Hall said the Party missed a tremendous two year period when it did not understand the youth upsurge and noted that sluggishness is the main weakness of the Party. The Party should react to opportunities more quickly especially at the present time, when there are historic possibilities for achievement and for making progress.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -

Internal Security - C

The meeting concluded with the passage of the following proposals: 1. Adoption of the main line of Gus Hall's report. 2. Refer to the National Board a proposal for a two day electoral conference in June. 3. That a two day meeting be held not later than the end of June on Party organization and tasks. 4. Each District should give maximum support to the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party challenge to the seating of representatives from Mississippi and the adoption of proposals presented earlier in the name of the National Negro Commission.

District CP Negro Commission reportedly has not been functioning.

SWP:

SWP San Francisco Branch on March 3, 1965, was encouraged to help create a socialist-oriented group to help solve problems of the Negro ghetto.

PLM:

PLM throwaway issued in March, 1965, called for arrest and jailing of Alabama Governor WALLACE and Sheriff CLARK.

COMMUNIST TACTICS:

1963, 1964 Racial Demonstration arrests:

SF Municipal Court on 2/18/65 cleared calendar of all pending civil rights sit-in cases by entry of nolo contendere pleas by all defendants not previously convicted in jury trials, and imposed $25 fine plus $4 court costs, or 5 days and a suspended sentence of 15 days. Mass arrests of 1963, 1964 in SF resulted in trials and pleas of guilty for 239, not guilty for 45, 277 dismissals (many because of previous convictions on similar charges), 158 nolo contendere pleas, and 8 juvenile dispositions.

"Oakland Tribune" Demonstrations:

Individuals arrested December 12, 1964, for demonstrating against the paper for alleged discrimination on March 19, 1965, were found guilty of refusal to disperse, disturbing the peace, and of being a public nuisance. In addition, nine were found guilty of resisting arrest. Sentencing scheduled for April 19, 1965. Participation of communists in demonstrations noted.

MISSISSIPPI DEPOSITION PROJECT:

Northern California attorneys traveled to Mississippi to assist in taking depositions to support challenge against that State's Congressmen.

JACK LONDON SQUARE (OAKLAND) DEMONSTRATIONS:

Demonstrations in Oakland protesting alleged discrimination in hiring policies during February, 1965, attracted some individuals with subversive backgrounds.

POLICE BRUTALITY PROTEST, OAKLAND, 2/19/65:

Demonstration of 65 against alleged police brutality in Oakland led by MARK COMFORT alleged lack of Negroes on police force caused police department to be lacking in understanding problems of Negro community. COMFORT was arrested.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP USA)

1. National Level

The CP USA, its subdivisions, subsidiaries, and affiliates have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

No pertinent information was developed during the period of this report.

2. District and Lower Levels

At a CP Club meeting in San Jose, California, on October 30, 1964, DON CLARK, member of the CP in San Jose, stated that each CP club was to collect an extra month's dues from each CP member for the Southern Solidarity Fund. He explained that because of the persecution of the CP in the South and the lack of money among CP members in that area, it is necessary for money to be raised elsewhere and sent to them to permit them to continue to function.

[SF T-1
January 19, 1965]

At a meeting of a CP club in San Francisco on January 7, 1965, it was announced that each CP member was being asked by the CP to pay one extra month's dues in support of the CP's solidarity plan in the South.

CONFIDENTIAL

At a meeting of the Executive Board of a CP club in San Francisco on January 12, 1965, there was a discussion of the fund drive starting on March 1, 1965. It was announced that all CP members must pay a month's dues for use of the Party organizations in the southern part of the United States.

[SF T-3
January 14, 1965]

The Santa Clara County Trade Union Commission of the CP met in San Jose, California, on January 12, 1965. At this meeting, FRAN FINK, Chairman, proposed that the CP form a committee of people associated with the labor movement for the purpose of taking an official stand opposing the seating of the Mississippi delegation in Congress. He suggested that the committee issue an educational leaflet for distribution at industrial plants.

[SF T-1
January 19, 1965]

On January 18, 1965, the San Francisco County Committee of the CP met in San Francisco. A mimeographed document entitled "Call to Conference" was distributed to serve as a basis for pre-conference discussion among CP members. This document declared, in part, as follows:

> "The CC issues this call for a conference to take place in the early spring. The CC believes that events have progressed to the point where it is necessary to take a new look, give an account of its stewardship and make those changes called for by the situation which will best guarantee further and accelerated progress...
> "As we noted in the last year's conference the struggle for Negro rights took place around the housing, jobs and representation questions. We can be proud of our role in helping to elect the first Negro Assemblyman. We can count ourselves as some of the original sponsors and fighters for a minority person on the Board of Supervisors.

CONFIDENTIAL

"The sharpness of the struggle has resulted in a division in the Negro Community, culminating in the recently concluded elections in the NAACP, where a militant slate was elected. We have not yet assessed the full meaning of the struggle as we have not really analyzed and paid attention to a number of developments among the Negro people nationally and locally. This includes the Mississippi developments as well as tackling such questions as: when a Negro representative finally gets on a public body does he ipso-facto become a part of the, or a tool of the 'establishment.' What can we say about the age-old Marxist concept of being a 'tribune for the people?' Does it apply under these circumstances.

"It should be noted that we and our friends have finally begun some steps in the Mexican-American Community. There have been only the barest beginnings, but a number of avenues for work are open in this area.

"Quoting from last year's report on the tasks in the field of Negro rights, 'helping to unify the movement; particularly to bring in the full participation of the Negro unionists; helping to bring clarity on the matter of the character and future of the Negro Peoples' Struggles and its relation to the Socialist movement; clarification in the labor movement and winning a larger section to active support, particularly on the jobs question.'...

"Last year's conference noted: 'The coalition in San Francisco has now reached the level where qualitative changes have to be made for further basic progress. In the main this means some tangible results to the rank and file of the coalition - such as the adoption of an anti-scab ordinance; rejection of the Redevelopment Agency's phony program of 'people removal', more than token solution of de facto school segregation; city cooperation with the State and National government in meeting the automation threat, and a less equivical attitude towards the Freedom Movement's attempts to wipe out job discrimination. It also means full support for Negro and other minority representation. ...

"Life does not usually permit to go 'as planned' and that happened in connection with the 1964 elections. There has been considerable discussion and conclusions drawn from that election. However, we would list the following points for consideration. First, nationally and locally our position to defeat the ultra-right proved to be by far the only correct program. Those who 'plagued' both houses are still trying to figure out what happened. That does not mean that our independent position was developed sufficiently and presented clearly. Secondly, a mixed situation in San Francisco, where Johnson, Willie brown and the Burtons were overwhelmingly elected, existed, for at the same time Propositions 14 and 17 passed by large margins. The local propositions passed except for the parks and recreation..."

CC refers to the San Francisco County Committee.

[SF T-4
January 20, 1965]

A CP club met in San Francisco on January 20, 1965. At this meeting, JUANITA WHEELER, a member of the club, pointed out that many of the CP members in the Fillmore Club of the CP were not working for various reasons. She stated that the CP must devise a means of getting these people working and active in the Negro community. She pointed out that the main concentration of the Fillmore Club was in housing, civil rights, and issues involving poverty-stricken people. She revealed that the CP County Committee had criticized her severely for her inability to influence the Fillmore Club in connection with community activities.

[SF T-5
January 21, 1965]

At another meeting of a CP club in San Francisco on February 17, 1965, JUANITA WHEELER proposed that the forthcoming CP conference discuss the involvement of more people on the Negro Commission. She noted that the Northern California District Negro Commission of the CP had not been functioning.

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

1. Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. See appendix pages regarding SWP in San Francisco. (Page 58)

At a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the SWP in San Francisco on March 3, 1965, it was reported that a "Negro racist group" had held a meeting the preceding week for the purpose of establishing a work committee comprised of various Negro groups for the purpose of solving some of the problems of the Negro ghetto. SWP members were told that it was necessary to turn this "national type" group upside down and create a socialist-oriented group.

[SF T-6
March 4, 1965]

The SWP sponsored a meeting in San Francisco on March 5, 1965, at which a tape supplied by the SWP of New York City was played. This tape contained an address by MALCOLM X, which was delivered to the Militant Labor Forum in New York

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

City on January 8, 1965. This address declared, in part, as follows:

1. The distress of American Negroes has not been alleviated by President JOHNSON and "other Southern racists."

2. It is important for Black Muslims and "other uncompromising Negro organizations" to force other civil rights groups to adopt a more militant stand than they otherwise would pursue.

3. MARTIN LUTHER KING and JAMES FARMER constitute tactics of the "White Government" to contain, rather than further, the civil rights efforts.

4. African freedom was won only by meeting force with force.

5. The United States needs a Mau Mau movement to bring about Negro-white equality. Appeasement and humility will only prolong white mistreatment of Negroes.

6. Negroes must provide their own protections.

[SF T-7
March 8, 1965]

MALCOLM X was the leader of the Nation of Islam (Black Muslims), who was assassinated in New York City in the spring of 1965.

The Nation of Islam is characterized in the Appendix of this report. (Page 72)

MARTIN LUTHER KING is the leader of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which has been active in connection with civil rights activities in the South.

JAMES FARMER is the national leader of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

2. Progressive Labor Movement (PLM)

The PLM is characterized in the Appendix pages of this report. (See Page 65)

A throwaway entitled "Let's Blackjack Johnson" was issued by the PLM, Post Office Box 73, Berkeley, California, during March of 1965. This throwaway declared, in part, as follows:

"Apparently it is all right for the Negro people to be clubbed, tear-gassed and blackjacked by the 'Ku Klux Kops' not only in Selma but in every black ghetto from Harlem to the San Francisco Bay area.

"Events in Selma have proved that the civil rights tactic of meeting violence with prayer is only an invitation to more violence. The only time the Federal Government sends its troops is to prevent the Negro people from fighting back.

"Governor Wallace of Alabama and Sheriff Clark should be arrested and jailed.

"The only path for winning freedom from opression is by organizing for revolutionary struggle. It will not win Freedom Now, but it will win freedom. The phony Civil Rights Bill didn't do it, nor will any phony Right to Vote Bill.

"Let us prepare and organize now to win political power! Yes, Mr. Johnson, you will be blackjacked--and we will be free!"

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. 1963-1964 RACIAL DEMONSTRATION ARRESTS

WALTER GIUBBINI, Chief Deputy District Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco, California, advised on February 19, 1965, that all pending civil rights sit-in cases which resulted from the 1963-1964 demonstrations were cleared from the calendar of the San Francisco Municipal Court on February 18, 1965. The basis for the settlement was a nolo contendere plea by all defendants who had not been convicted previously in jury trials held in the San Francisco Municipal Courts. Judge ALBERT AXELROD imposed a $25.00 fine plus $4.00 court costs, or five days and a suspended sentence of 15 days. Judge AXELROD gave each defendant a 15 day delay in execution of the fines and/or jail terms.

Included in the settlement were the cases of 91 individuals arrested at Mel's Drive-In in San Francisco on November 3, 1963. Sixty-three of these defendants pleaded nolo contendere and 28 were dismissed because they had previous convictions in sit-in trials which occurred subsequent to this arrest. It is noted that 117 arrests involving 91 individuals were made at Mel's Drive-In.

The 91 defendants who were awaiting retrial for demonstrations at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, the Cadillac Agency, and Auto Row during the spring of 1964 were dismissed because most of the defendants had been convicted in similar cases.

Mr. GIUBBINI furnished the following recapitulation of the sit-in demonstrations in San Francisco:

Date	Location	Total	Status
9/14/63	Select Rentals	15	Dismissed--complaint withdrawn
11/3/63	Mel's Drive-In	117	63 nolo pleas; 28 dismissed

CONFIDENTIAL

3/14/64	Cadillac	110	Tried-San Francisco Municipal Court
4/11/64	Auto Row	228	Tried-San Francisco Municipal Court
6/12/64	Bank of America	1
	Total Arrests	766

Results of Trials and Pleas:

Nolo Contendere	158
Juveniles	8
Total Individuals Involved	727

Note: Thirty-nine difference in totals accounted for by multiple arrests of the same individual.

WALTER GIUBBINI stated that the latest action resulted in the following:

1) The court calendars were completely cleared.

2) Every person against whom a charge was pending in Municipal Court and who had no previous conviction for the same type of violation was convicted.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

3) Repeat charges against those who were previously convicted were dismissed as a matter of public policy because as a matter of practicality additional charges on the same type of offense in the opinion of the District Attorney would have little practical effect on the individuals involved and no additional sentences would have been served.

4) Drawn out jury trials were eliminated.

5) The above settlement resulted in a high percentage of convictions.

6) The fifteen-day suspended County Jail sentence for those that recently pleaded nolo contendere will have a sobering effect and tend to moderate actions in any current demonstrations.

B. "OAKLAND TRIBUNE" DEMONSTRATIONS

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper on January 27, 1965, contained an article, "Five Tribune Pickets Get Jail Terms." This article reported that five pickets convicted of trespass at the "Oakland Tribune" on November 21, 1964, during a demonstration protesting alleged job discrimination against Negroes, were sentenced to jail terms on January 26, 1965. The article reported that FRANK GASPERIC, age [redacted], and ANTHONY WILDE, age [redacted], were sentenced by Oakland Municipal Court Judge MARTIN N. PULICH to start serving 7-day jail terms at the Alameda County Jail on January 27, 1965. PHILIP DAVIS, age [redacted], NORMAN CHASTAIN, age [redacted], and MARK COMFORT, age [redacted] reportedly were ordered to begin 30-day sentences at Alameda County Jail January 27, 1965. b6 b7C

NORMAN CHASTAIN, in an interview by the Office of Special Investigations of the U. S. Air Force, stated on March 27, 1957, that he had been reading communist and socialist literature since the age of 15. He stated that he believed firmly that socialism was the best form of government, although "he concurred with the communist line that force should be used if other approaches are unsuccessful."

According to the records of the Intelligence Unit, Oakland Police Department, Oakland, California, the following individuals on March 19, 1965 were found guilty in Municipal Court, Oakland, of refusal to disperse, disturbing the peace, and being a public nuisance in connection with their activities and arrest on December 12, 1964:

ROY BALLARD, aka. ROY ALFRED ROBINSON
WILLIE JAMES BALLARD
RALPH EMERY BAPTISTE
NORMAN BRIAN CHASTAIN
WILLARD CHASTAIN
STEVEN CHERKOSS
FRANK MARTIN JAY
MICHAEL VICTOR KLEIN
ARTHUR LEE TURNER
ANTHONY ADAM WILDE
BETH ELLEN YOUNG
LOWELL S. YOUNG

Nine also were found guilty of resisting arrest.

With the exception of OLMSTEAD AND WILDE, the individuals were scheduled to be sentenced on April 19, 1965.

MARK EVERETT COMFORT, MIKE MYERSON, and HECTOR REYNA, aka HECTOR REYNO, were among the eighteen arrested, and they asked for separate trials and their cases were pending as of March 31, 1965.

WILLARD CHASTAIN was one of 84 individuals who participated in the trip to Cuba during July, 1964, in defiance of the U. S. State Department ban on travel to Cuba.

The "News-Call Bulletin" newspaper on March 16, 1963, reported that MIKE MYERSON had acknowledged that he was the W. E. B. DuBois Club, Berkeley Chapter, representative in Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination. The article also reported that MYERSON had led a 450-member U.S. contingent to the communist-sponsored World Youth Festival in Helsinki, Finland, in August 1962. AHCED is characterized in the Appendix. (P.57)

The "News-Call Bulletin" is a daily newspaper published in San Francisco.

AHCED sponsored a demonstration at the "Oakland-Tribune" in Oakland on January 16, 1965, from 1:15 to 3:05 p.m. Approximately 48 individuals demonstrated, carrying signs, singing songs and chanting slogans while picketing.

About thirteen anti-AHCED pickets also demonstrated in support of the "Oakland-Tribune," as well as ROBERT MARTELL, a representative of the American Nazi Party.

Participants in the picketing included the following:

MARK COMFORT

The Free Speech Movement (FSM) at the University of California, Berkeley, California, was organized during the early part of the Fall Semester, 1964, by students opposing administration regulations prohibiting the collection of funds and the use of university facilities for the planning and implementing of off-campus political and social action. The FSM sponsored a series of student demonstrations and rallies. One such rally on December 2, 1964, resulted in approximately 1,000 students staging a massive sit-in at Sproul Hall (the Administration Building) on campus. Early on the morning of December 3, 1964, after administration efforts to prevail upon the students to leave had failed, 780 demonstrators who remained were arrested. These cases currently are pending in Municipal Court, Berkeley. The FSM grew to such proportion that it attracted national and world-wide publicity.

F. Alabama Sympathy Demonstrations

The Santa Clara Valley Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and CORE planned a 24-hour vigil for February 24, 1965, in front of the Post Office Building in San Jose, California. All members of the CP in San Jose were urged to participate in the vigil by JOE GRAHAM, Chairman of the CP in Santa Clara County.

FRED HIRSCH was a member of the CP from 1958 to 1963, at which time he resigned from the CP in order to permit him to advance in his union and to participate in politics in Santa Clara County.

[(SF T-60, 2/22/65)]

The February 23, 1965 edition of "San Jose Mercury", a daily newspaper, carried a news item concerning the proposed vigil. ANDREW MONTGOMERY, President of the San Jose Chapter of CORE, was noted as having stated "This is a case of the so-called law in Selma perpetrating outrages on the citizens there. Sheriff JIM CLARK, his posse, and city police there are the greatest legal lawbreakers since the Ku Klux Klan rode roughshod over most of the South. Federal officials have witnessed almost every arrest and beating in Selma. There is a Federal law which can put a stop to the brutality, terrorism and denial of legal rights. The Federal people are watching and are doing nothing."

The news article stated that SNCC in San Jose had voted unanimously to demand the following five-point program on the part of Federal officials:

(1) Immediate arrest of Sheriff CLARK
(2) Issuance of a permanent restraining order ending interference with voter registration activity.
(3) Arrest of local law enforcement officials by the FBI if constitutional rights of Negroes are violated.
(4) Release of citizens arrested and jailed by Sheriff CLARK and his posse.
(5) That the Justice Department press voter registration suits pending in Selma, Alabama.

FRED HIRSCH appeared at the San Jose Office of the FBI on February 26, 1965, along with a delegation of individuals, and advised a Special Agent of the FBI they wished to present a petition to the FBI. The following petition was read by HIRSCH at the doorway of the FBI office in a manner so that it would be audible to all individuals present, including representatives of television, radio, and the newapapers. The petition was as follows:

"WE DEMAND THAT THE F.B.I. AND THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE PREPARE AND ISSUE A COMPLAINT IN THEIR OWN NAMES, OR THAT A COMPLAINT BE PREPARED FOR THE SIGNATURES OF THE UNDERSIGNED, THE SAID COMPLAINT TO CHARGE SHERIFF JAMES CLARK OF SELMA, ALABAMA WITH VIOLATIONS OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 241, 242 and 594 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE. WE DEMAND THAT THIS COMPLAINT ISSUE UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF TITLE 10, SECTION 333 OF THE U. S. CODE, TITLE 18, SECTIONS 3052 AND 3053, TITLE 42, SECTIONS 1971 and 1987, AND THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT TO THE UNITED STATES CONSITUTITION.

"We citizens of San Jose who have been demonstrating in front of the Main Post Office, housing the FBI and the Justice Department, demand to see justice done in Selma, Alabama and other parts of the Deep South. Ninety-one per cent (91%) of the eligible Negro voters have been denied the right to register and vote. Now, when those citizens demonstrate for that most sacred of all American political rights, they are beaten, arrested and intimidated by Sheriff Clark and his posse.

"In a recent speech, President Johnson called for all Americans to be concerned about this denial of the right to vote. Our concern has led us to find that there are many laws which would enable the Federal Government to right unconstitutional wrongs of the Deep South.

"The law enforcement agencies of Selma and of the State of Alabama have overthrown the Constitution and laws of the United States by force and violence. They have instituted a police system that is a mockery of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, a system that completely denies the validity of the First Amendment free speech provisions. A situation which allows the Federal Government to overlook the laws of the land, allowing official terror to stand as the arbiter of justice, can no longer be tolerated. Surely the bloody billysticks of Sheriff Jim Clark cannot sway the President of the United States from his avowal to uphold the Constitution. The FBI and the Justice Department must take action to enforce the law, ensuring the full rights of citizenship to all our people equally. Continued laxity in law enforcement toward the racist violators of the Constitution not only undermines American democracy, but destroys all security in the guarantees of our founding documents.

"WE FURTHER DEMAND:

I. THE ARREST OF SHERIFF JAMES CLARK OF SELMA, ALABAMA BY THE FBI OR THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT.

II. THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE SEEK A PERMANENT RESTRAINING ORDER ENDING ALL INTERFERENCE WITH VOTER REGISTRATION AND VOTER REGISTRATION ACTIVITY.

III. THAT THE FBI OR JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ARREST ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND PRIVATE CITIZENS WHO ARE VIOLATING THE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS OF AMERICAN CITIZENS.

IV. THAT FEDERAL OFFICIALS OBTAIN THE RELEASE OF ALL CITIZENS WHO HAVE BEEN JAILED FOR VOTER REGISTRATION ACTIVITY.

U. S. Attorney CECIL F. POOLE, San Francisco, advised on March 9, 1965, that he had been notified telephonically by LOUIS BORIS GOLDBLATT, Secretary-Treasurer of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU), that the ILWU planned to stage a demonstration at the Federal Building, 450 Golden Gate Avenue San Francisco, on March 10, 1965, at 2 PM for the purpose of protesting the racial situation in Selma, Alabama.

WILLIAM MICHAEL FOARD, a former CP member who testified as a government witness in the 1952 Smith Act trial in Los Angeles, California, has described GOLDBLATT as a "true Marxist" who originated CP policy in the ILWU. FOARD identified GOLDBLATT as a CP member as late as 1947.

The Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO) expelled the ILWU on August 29, 1950, on charges that its policies and activities consistently were directed toward the achievements, programs, and purposes of the CP, rather than the objectives and policies set forth in the constitution of the CIO.

The demonstration protesting the racial situation in Selma, Alabama, sponsored by the ILWU took place on March 10, 1965, as scheduled, with approximately 500 persons in attendance.

Speakers at this demonstration included WILLIAM HICKS CHESTER, Northern California Regional Director for ILWU, Reverend FREDERICK DOUGLAS HAYNES, Third Baptist Church, San Francisco, DANIEL F. DEL CARLO, Secretary-Treasurer of the San Francisco Building and Construction Trades Council; HARRY BRIDGES, president of ILWU; CHARLES DUARTE, president of Local 6 of ILWU; ROBERT ROHATCH, president of Local 10 of ILWU; Reverend DONALD GANOUNG, Good Samaritan Church of San Francisco; JAMES RICHARD HERMAN, president of Local 34 of ILWU; LOUIS GOLDBLATT, and U. S. Attorney CECIL F. POOLE.

GOLDBLATT presented a petition to U. S. Attorney POOLE urging Federal intervention in Selma, Alabama. During the demonstration, the ILWU passed a resolution calling for a boycott of all products originating in the state of Alabama.

The demonstration was peaceful and there were no incidents or arrests.

(SF T-22, 3/10/65) 4

WILLIAM HICKS CHESTER reportedly attended 21 meetings of the Longshore Branch of the San Francisco County CP between July 17, 1949, and June 6, 1950.

Reverend FREDERICK HAYNES on July 3, 1962, reportedly expressed regret that he was unable to attend the World Congress for General Disarmament and Peace, which was scheduled to be held in Moscow, Russia, from July 9 through 14, 1962, and which was sponsored by the World Peace Council.

(SF T-23, 2/21/63)

A characterization of the World Peace Council is contained in the appendix pages of this report. (See Page 77A)

Records of the U. S. District Court, San Francisco, reflect that on May 25, 1949, HARRY BRIDGES was indicted for criminal acts of perjury and conspiracy committed to conceal CP membership, thereby obtaining U. S. citizenship fraudulently. BRIDGES was convicted of these charges on April 4, 1950. His conviction was upheld by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, but the U. S. Supreme Court reversed this conviction on June 15, 1953, on the basis of the Statute of Limitations.

CHARLES DUARTE was a member of the CP in San Francisco County in 1949.

JOHN GILBERT WILLIAMS, a self-admitted CP member from 1949 to 1952, stated on January 31, 1955, that JAMES RICHARD HERMAN was a member of the CP in San Francisco from 1949 through 1952.

On March 9, 1965, an estimated 600 persons walked from the University of California campus in Berkeley to the City Hall in Oakland, headed by two individuals who carried a large CORE banner. The march lasted from approximately 2 to 4 PM. Upon arrival at City Hall, a rally was held until approximately 5 PM. Several speakers, representing the clergy and civil rights groups, protested the situation in Selma, Alabama, and demanded federal intervention to protect Negroes in Alabama.

CONFIDENTIAL

Literature distributed along the march route and at City Hall revealed that the demonstration was sponsored jointly by CORE, SNCC, and Youth For Jobs.

There were approximately 700 persons present during the rally at City Hall. The demonstration was orderly, and there were no incidents or arrests.

G. Student Action Against American Economic Support of South African Apartheid

On March 19, 1965, a protest demonstration originated at One Bush Street, San Francisco. A leaflet captioned "Protest U.S. Support of Apartheid" was distributed during the course of the demonstration, which lasted from approximately 2 PM until 3 PM. The leaflet alleged that U.S. business had aided racism in South Africa and in the South. The leaflet contended that after Sharpeville, South Africa, had severed ties with the British Commonwealth foreign capital began to flee the country, and the economy of South Africa began to falter. The leaflet contended that the American Government went to the rescue, along with U. S. corporations and banks.

At approximately 3 PM, the demonstrators marched to the offices of the South African Consulate, 360 Pine Street, San Francisco, a distance of approximately two blocks. They demonstrated at the Consulate until approximately 3:50 PM, with the number of pickets reaching a maximum of 25.

There were no arrests or incidents during the demonstrations. Those participating in the demonstration wore buttons or carried signs identifying themselves with SNCC or CORE.

Following the demonstrations, a short rally was held on the steps of the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange, 301 Pine Street, San Francisco. MIKE MYERSON, one of the demonstrators, commented that the San Francisco demonstration was part of a nation-wide campaign, commemorating the Fifth Anniversary of the Sharpeville Massacre wherein South African police had killed 67 natives who were protesting the government's passport laws.

H. Marches: Protesting Voter Discrimination, Selma - Montgomery, Alabama, March, 1965

The "San Francisco Chronicle," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, during March of 1965, reported that Reverend ANDREW JUVINALL and Reverend WALTER S. PRESS were among a group of clergymen leaving San Francisco on the night of March 8, 1965, for the purpose of joining in the civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama. The article identified JUVINALL as Pastor of the Hamilton Methodist Church, San Francisco, and PRESS as being associated with the National Christian Council of the United Church of Christ.

JUVINALL reportedly contributed financially to the Schneiderman-Darcy Defense Committee.

(SF T-31, [in December, 1941])

The Schneiderman-Darcy Defense Committee was designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Registrar of Voters, Stockton, California, in 1949, furnished information to the effect that the name of one ANDREW JUVINALL was included on a list of circulators of petitions for the Independent Progressive Party (IPP) to enable the IPP to participate in the primary elections in 1948.

A characterization of the IPP is contained in the Appendix Pages attached hereto. (Page 71) CONFIDENTIAL

The Department of Justice in November, 1961, advised that various petitions, letters and postcards had been sent to the President of the United States during late 1960 urging clemency for MORTON SOBELL. One of the signatures was that of WALTER S. PRESS, 4911 El Camino Avenue, Carmichael, California.

MORTON SOBELL was convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, along with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG, for conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. SOBELL was sentenced to thirty years in prison on April 5, 1951. The ROSENBERGs were sentenced to death on the same date and were executed legally on June 19, 1953.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper also reported that MARIO ROBERT SAVIO had flown out of San Francisco on March 8, 1965, to take part in a demonstration at Selma, Alabama. The paper noted that SAVIO had received widespread publicity in both the press and on television as the leader and spokesman for the Free Speech Movement (FSM) at the University of California (UC) in Berkeley, California.

MARIO SAVIO was observed by Special Agents of the FBI on numerous occasions during October, November and December, 1964, to be closely associated with BETTINA APTHEKER while both were extremely active as leaders and spokesmen for the FSM at UC, Berkeley. SAVIO was observed consulting with BETTINA APTHEKER on numerous occasions at UC during the public rallies and demonstrations.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette," a daily newspaper published in Berkeley, on December 10, 1964, reported that SAVIO, APTHEKER and two other FSM leaders would engage in a whirlwind tour, speaking at colleges and universities throughout the United States. The article also reported that SAVIO would appear on several television shows during the period of the tour. The purpose of the tour was stated to raise funds for the students arrested in connection with the FSM demonstrations and to arouse sympathy for the FSM cause.

BETTINA APTHEKER is a member of the Communist Party (CP) who attended the CP, USA National Committee meeting in New York City, which was held during the period July 18-20, 1964. She is the daughter of Dr. HERBERT APTHEKER, a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA.

(SF T-56, 8/4/64)

NORMAN HOWARD and his wife, JAN HOWARD, reportedly left San Francisco on March 8, 1965, to participate in the racial demonstrations at Selma, Alabama.

(SF T-26, 3/11/65)

JAN and NORMAN HOWARD reportedly were members of the Mike Quinn Club of the CP in Los Angeles during 1946.

(SF T-29, 2/27/52)

As of 1953, NORMAN HOWARD had been a member of the CP for at least six years. In 1953, he transferred from the Los Angeles CP to the Legal Group of the CP in San Francisco.

(SF T-30, 2/16/53)

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" on March 16, 1965, page 1, reported that Reverend J. RAYMOND COPE, minister of the First Unitarian Church in Berkeley, was in Selma, Alabama. COPE was reported as having stated that he had learned that "not over 10 per cent of the people are against integration, the remainder are afraid to say anything."

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

COPE was identified as a CP member who attended a gathering of CP members in a Salt Lake City home on December 19, 1942.

[(SF T-33 in December, 1942)]

The "San Francisco News-Call Bulletin," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, on March 17, 1965, page 4, identified Reverend HARRY B. SCHOLEFIELD of the First Unitarian Church as being one of a group of Bay Area Unitarian ministers who had travelled to Selma, Alabama. SCHOLEFIELD was quoted as having stated that the state troopers in Selma "did everything wrong in their efforts to control civil rights demonstrations."

Reverend HARRY SCHOLEFIELD was listed as a sponsor of the National Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities (NCAHCUA) in 1963.

(SF T-32, [9/17/63])

SCHOLEFIELD signed an appeal to the President of the United States on behalf of MORTON SOBELL in 1962 according to information received from the Department of Justice.

The "Daily Californian" on March 18, 1965, reported that Rabbi JOSEPH GUMBINER, Director of the Hillel Foundation in Berkeley, had been arrested in Selma, Alabama, on March 17, 1965, while picketing the home of the Mayor of Selma. GUMBINER reportedly was arrested for violating a city ordinance prohibiting picketing in private residential areas and was released on $200 bond.

The Department of Justice in November, 1961, reported that GUMBINER had directed an appeal to the President of the United States urging clemency for MORTON SOBELL.

The "Davis Enterprise," a newspaper published in Davis, California, reported on March 23, 1965, pages 1 and 5, that a busload of Davis, California, residents had departed on March 21, 1965, to "bear witness" in Montgomery, Alabama. The newspaper identified Mrs. JUDY ILTIS as a member of the group making the trip to Alabama.

During the period 1954 to 1956, ILTIS was a member of the CP in Newark, New Jersey.

(SF T-34 in 1956)

CLYDE CUMMING and KIPP DAWSON, members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in San Francisco, reportedly were scheduled to leave San Francisco on the evening of March 26, 1965, via Greyhound bus for Selma, Alabama. They reportedly intended to remain in Alabama for approximately two weeks, working with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

(SF T-35 on 3/26/65)

The SWP is characterized in the appendix pages attached hereto. (Page 58)

The "Golden Gater," a San Francisco State College daily publication, on March 22, 1965, page 1, reported that nearly 25 San Francisco State College students were among the 300 arrested on March 19, 1965, as they joined in a march to test the City Parade Ordinance, prohibiting marches in a residential district in Selma, Alabama. The article listed JEFF FREED, past chairman of San Francisco State College Friends of SNCC, and SUSAN CLOKE, a junior English major, as being among the individuals arrested.

SUSAN CLOKE was active in the member of W.E.B. Du Bois Youth Club, Berkeley, Chapter, in October of 1964.

(SF T-41 on 10/13/64)

On October 18 and November 22, 1963, CLOKE attended CP contact classes for the study of Marxism in Berkeley.

AD HOC COMMITTEE TO END DISCRIMINATION

CONFIDENTIAL

According to an article in the March 8, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," a San Francisco daily morning newspaper, TRACY SIMS stated among other things that following a sit-in demonstration in San Francisco during October 1963 by various civil rights groups, the groups realized that a central, coordinating committee was needed. The formation of AD HOC COMMITTEE TO END DISCRIMINATION (AHCED) was the result and SIMS became its chairman.

A source reported on December 9, 1963, that in December 1963 TRACY SIMS attended a joint meeting of the San Francisco Communist Party Youth Club and the Communist Party Berkeley Off-Campus Youth Club.

A second source, on May 12, 1964, described AHCED as a central body of representatives from militant youth organizations whose purpose was to work for equal civil rights and to put pressure on establishments and employers to hire more people from the minority races, especially Negroes.

A third source reported on March 13, 1964, that at a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party on March 11, 1964, KIPP DAWSON, a representative of AHCED, related among other things that AHCED was directed and controlled by the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of the Bay Area.

A fourth source reported on January 30, 1964, that on January 29, 1964, KIPP DAWSON attended a San Francisco Branch membership meeting of the Socialist Workers Party.

Second source related on May 12, 1964, that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of the Bay Area consisted of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of San Francisco, Berkeley, and San Francisco State College. According to source, any member of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco who attends San Francisco State College is automatically a member of the club at San Francisco State College.

A fifth source reported on February 3, 1965, that on February 3, 1965, a press conference was held at 1366 Turk Street, San Francisco, California. At this press conference, an official of AHCED announced and passed out press releases that as of February 3, 1965, AHCED was no longer in existence.

A source advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, was originated in October, 1962, principally through the efforts of MATHEW HALLINAN.

This same source advised in October, 1963, that MATHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and Communist Party (CP) Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley CP On-Campus Youth Club during September, 1963.

A second source advised that a leaflet distributed by the Berkeley DuBois Club in September, 1964, reflected the name of that organization to be the "W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America - Berkeley Branch."

This same leaflet, under the heading "The DuBois Clubs of America" reads as follows: "The Berkeley DuBois Club is a part of a nation-wide socialist youth organization founded in June of this year. It attempts to bring together those action-oriented youth who consider socialism to be a visible alternative to the ills of this society."

During February, 1965, the Berkeley W.E.B. DuBois Club was registered with the University of California as an "off-campus" membership organization. As such, it could present lectures on campus with prior University permission and was allowed to set up and maintain a literature table on campus.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, Also Known as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party

CONFIDENTIAL

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, a distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses;" second "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party;" third "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda;" and fourth "the attainment of power through the voters of the newly-won masses."

On February 17, 1964, Karl Rodgers Allen, Jr., former Deputy National Commander of the ANP, advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes that he has completed the first two phases of his struggle for power and is now well into the third phase. Allen said, however, in his opinion, Rockwell has only completed phase one.

The masthead in the February 8, 1965, issue of "Spark" reflects it is published by the Progressive Labor Movement of the Bay Area, P. O. Box 73, Station A, Berkeley.... page 4 of this issue of "Spark" carries an article describing MORT SCHEER as the "West Coast organizer" of the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM).

A source advised on January 7, 1965, that MORTIMER SCHEER, following a press conference in San Francisco, California, on January 7, 1965, related that he was the West Coast Organizer for the PLM and National Vice Chairman. PLM was started about three years ago as a national organization located mainly in the New York and Buffalo areas, and he has been here since last July striving to organize PLM. He stated PLM has several publications, including "Progressive Labor," a monthly, and the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly."

A second source advised on February 25, 1965, that the Bay Area Progressive Labor Movement (BAPLM) has no headquarters. MORTIMER SCHEER, the Organizer for BAPLM, operates out of his residence, 2629 Acton Street, Berkeley, California.

INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE PARTY

CONFIDENTIAL

The 1955 Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, Page 46, stated, "The Independent Progressive Party in California was quickly captured by the communists, and by the time the Wallace for President campaign had swung into high gear was being operated lock, stock, and barrel by the Communist Party of California. Time after time the committee in questioning witnesses throughout the State discovered that the leaders of the Communist Parties in various localities were identical with the leaders of the Independent Progressive Party in the same area. It is true, of course, that in the Independent Progressive Party there were many sincere liberals who, because of dissatisfaction with the two major political organizations registered as Independent Progressives and continued their affiliation until the true control of the I.P.P. became obvious. These people invariably resigned, many of them having given the benefit of their experience to various official agencies interested in the exposure of subversive activities."

The "Daily People's World", now known as the "People's World", a west coast communist newspaper, of November 2, 1950, page 10, columns 1 and 2, contained an article entitled, "Northern California Committee for Foreign Born Planned." This article stated that plans for the organization of a Northern California Committee for Protection of Foreign Born would be made at a meeting on November 6, 1950, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California.

A source advised on April 22, 1964, that the Northern California Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, although an independent organization, carries out a program of activity in Northern California which coincides with the aims of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB).

The source further advised that the Northern California Committee for Protection of Foreign Born continues to be active in defending the foreign born in deportation proceedings and in securing support for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

The ACPFB has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Synopsis: THIS REPORT COVERS THE PERIOD 1/1/65 THROUGH 3/31/65. Confidential informants reported the Communist Party was interested in "State of the Race" meeting of civil rights leaders in New York City in January 1965. At meeting of National Negro Commission, Communist Party, USA, DEBBIE AMIS, member of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), stated the material on civil rights published by the Party has been inadequate, and "The Worker" sometimes messes up the stories. AMIS felt the Party must do more to present itself to the civil rights movement. At meeting of Communist Party Club, CPEPD, in January 1965, it was stated the people today feel no need for the Party as the issues which the Party had previously fought for are now being taken up by the various civil rights organizations. Philadelphia Fighters for Liberty and Justice filed petitions with Philadelphia Police Department on charges of police brutality. At meeting of Proletarian Communist Committee in March 1965, it was stated there were too many "Uncle Toms" in the leadership of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Black Muslim groups. They must be led by one who understands Socialism, Marxism, and Leninism. Voters Registration Drive in Mississippi supported by individuals with subversive backgrounds. Communist Party members participated in marches and demonstrations protesting voter discrimination in Alabama. Du Bois Club planned to participate in picket of Attorney General in Philadelphia and sponsor clothing drive for people in Selma, Ala., to support boycott.

DETAILS: I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1. Plans, Strategy, Party Line, and the like, Made at National Meetings

"The Evening Star," a Washington, D. C., newspaper, dated November 9, 1964, on page C-20, contained an article captioned "Negro Spokesmen Planning Talks on '65 Rights Activities." According to this article, leading Negro spokesmen were planning a "State of the Race" meeting in New York City in January 1965. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss what future activities will engage the civil rights organizations and what new directions the movement will take. (U)

On February 2, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that on Saturday, January 30, 1965, FRANCES GABOW, Political Action Secretary, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), advised that a "State of the Race" conference was to be held on January 30 and 31, 1965, at the Methodist Council of Churches in New York City, and the Communist Party was most desirous of learning details of this affair. (C) (U)

GABOW also stated that should any information be obtained concerning this meeting, it should be given to PHIL BART, who was scheduled to be in Philadelphia, Pa., on February 5, 1965. (C) (U)

On April 5, 1964, Confidential Informant PH T-2 advised that PHIL BART was a member of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). (C) (U)

On March 23 and 24, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-3 advised a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CPUSA was held on March 20 and 21, 1965, at the Woodstock Hotel in Manhattan, N. Y. At this meeting, DEBBIE AMIS, of Philadelphia, stated that the materials published by the Communist Party on civil rights have been inadequate. Some of it, she stated, had a negative effect. She indicated "The Worker" sometimes messes up the stories. DEBBIE AMIS expressed her opinion that the Party must do more to present itself to the civil rights movement. (C) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On March 25, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that DEBBIE AMIS was a current member of the CPEPD. (U)

"The Worker" is an East Coast, Communist publication. (U)

On March 29, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-4 advised a memorial for THOMAS NABRIED, former Chairman of the CPEPD, was held on Sunday, March 28, 1965, at the Fellowship House, 1521 West Girard Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. FRANCES GABOW, Political Action Secretary, CPEPD, acted as chairlady of this meeting; and stated this memorial was held to honor THOMAS NABRIED, former Chairman of the CPEPD, who passed away on January 20, 1965. She praised NABRIED for his work in civil rights and respected him for his work in the peace movement. (U)

The main speaker on this occasion was HENRY WINSTON, who stated that NABRIED was a Marxist and a Leninist. He felt NABRIED had a deep understanding of the problems of all races and creeds. He was most active in the civil rights struggle which is taking place today. (U)

According to WINSTON, this civil rights struggle taking place today has grown out of the desires of the Negro people to overcome the injustices they incurred for years. The successes achieved today are a culmination of efforts of such men as NABRIED. Years ago, the Communist Party had led the struggle for civil rights; and, today, the young Negro leaders have been able to draw on these experiences and develop tactics and strategy in their current struggle. WINSTON regretted that NABRIED was not alive to see the victory won in Alabama because he felt certain that NABRIED would be happy to learn of this success. (U)

On April 5, 1964, Confidential Informant PH T-2 advised that, as of that date, HENRY WINSTON was Vice-Chairman, a member of the National Secretariat, and a member of the National Board, CPUSA. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

2. Plans, Strategy, Party Line, and the like, at District and Lower Level Meetings

On January 15, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-5 advised that at a meeting of the Unity Club, CPEPD, held on January 13, 1965, at 1345 West Susquehanna Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., a discussion was held concerning the line and activities of the Communist Party. (W)

Unity Club Pa

DALLAS ~~WILLIAMS~~, Chairman of this Club, stated that the people today do not feel the need for the Communist Party as they have in the past. WILLIAMS noted that several issues which the Communist Party had fought for had been taken up and handled by civil rights organizations, such as the Committee on Racial Equality (CORE), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the movement of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING. According to WILLIAMS, people prefer to work through these organizations instead of the Communist Party because these organizations have obtained better results as far as civil rights and improving the racial situation are concerned. (W)

On March 22, 1965, Confidential Informants PH T-1 and PH T-5 advised that the Independent Citizens Committee held its annual conference on March 20, 1965, at the Heritage House, 1346 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa. (U)

A characterization of the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC) is contained in the Appendix section of this report. (W)

According to these sources, there were fifty people in attendance at this conference. The main speaker was ANDREW FREEMAN, Executive Secretary of the Urban League of Philadelphia, Pa. (W)

According to FREEMAN, the Urban League has been attempting to obtain jobs for Negroes. He has traveled throughout the State of Pennsylvania seeking jobs for Negroes; and it was quite noticeable that several banks have employed Negroes as bank tellers, but this is only "window dressing" as there are no negroes in executive positions. He referred to the Negroes in Selma, Ala., as an example for the Northern Negroes to get out and fight for their rights and not be complacent. (W)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

At the Panel on Civil Rights, Mrs. GERTRUDE BARNES, Vice-President, Philadelphia Chapter, NAACP, stated that the Negro children in the Philadelphia School System do not receive the same treatment as the white children. She stated that if a teacher employed by the School System fights for civil rights for Negroes, he becomes unpopular and often a victim of influence from the Board of Education. (U) PA

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

Philadelphia Fighters For Liberty and Justice

A characterization of the Philadelphia Fighters For Liberty and Justice (PFLJ) appears in the Appendix section of this report. (U)

On January 15, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-6 advised that at the meeting of the PFLJ, held on January 14, 1965, at 1712 North Warnock Street, Philadelphia, Pa., HAROLD ALLEN, Chairman of the PFLJ, stated that a Mrs. THOMPSON and a Mrs. SAUNDERS, whose sons were shot by the Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department during the holidays of 1964, had attended this meeting to lead a protest against the Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department. (U) PA

According to ALLEN, a protest meeting would be held on January 15, 1965, at the Police Precinct Stations at 55th and Pine Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., and at 17th and Montgomery Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. The PFLJ planned to submit a letter of protest and present their grievances, including police brutality, to the police officials at these precincts. (U)

On January 15, 1965, Sergeant HERN, Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department Radio Room, advised that seventeen persons, representing the PFLJ, presented petitions to the above precincts protesting police brutality. (U)

On January 18, 1965, Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Commissioner's Office, Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department, advised that on January 15, 1965, the PFLJ presented petitions protesting the killing on November 3, 1964, of WARRINGTON SAUNDERS, JR., age twenty-two, and HAROLD THOMPSON, age eighteen. (U)

On February 4, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-6 advised that at a meeting of the PFLJ, held on January 28, 1965, a discussion was held concerning the trial of WARRINGTON SAUNDERS. Several members of the PFLJ appeared at this hearing, but were not permitted in the room. Mrs. SAUNDERS, mother of WARRINGTON SAUNDERS, JR., gave a report of the hearing, and was most critical of the police in their handling of this case. It was then decided the PFLJ would wait and see what action the police department would take next. At that time, they would then consider taking action on this matter. (U)

On March 24, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-7 advised that members of the PFLJ met on March 10, 1965, to distribute leaflets in the vicinity of North Philadelphia, between 15th Street and 25th Street and Susquehanna Avenue to Columbia Avenue. These leaflets reflected that since August 28, 1964, countless Negroes had been shot down by the Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department. The last paragraph of these leaflets vigorously protested the unwarranted police shootings and murders of Negro people in Philadelphia, Pa. (U)

Proletarian Communist Committee

A characterization of the Proletarian Communist Committee (PCC) appears in the Appendix section of this report. (U) PA

On March 9, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-8 advised that at a meeting of the PCC, held on February 7, 1965, PAUL AULT, Chairman, led a discussion concerning civil rights, in which he stated there were too many "Uncle Toms" in the leadership of the NAACP and Black Muslim groups. Because of this, their work was not effective. According to AULT, the Negroes needed correct leadership, which could only be given to them by someone who understands Socialism, Marxism, and Leninism. (U)

A characterization of the Nation of Islam (NOI), formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, and a characterization of the Muslim Mosque, Inc. (MMI) appear in the Appendix section of this report. (U)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(COMMUNIST DIRECTION, INFLUENCE, AND PARTICIPATION IN RACIAL DEMONSTRATIONS, DISTURBANCES, DRIVES, AND SIMILAR ACTIVITIES WITH RACIAL OVERTONES)

A. VOTERS REGISTRATION DRIVE IN MISSISSIPPI

The National Lawyers Guild (NLG) book, captioned "Project Mississippi," as furnished by Confidential Informant PH T-9, contained a list of lawyers participating in the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South, a project of the NLG, for the summer of 1964. (U)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) appears in the Appendix section of this report. (U)

Among the sixty-six lawyers listed in this operation were the names of two attorneys from Philadelphia, Pa., HARRY LORE, assigned to Greenwood, Miss., the week of August 17, 1964, and IRVING MILLER, who was assigned to the same location at the same time. (U) ERWIN MILLER Pa

On February 11, 1955, Confidential Informant PH T-10 advised that he was acquainted with a small group of students at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa., during the 1953-1954 academic year, who considered themselves to be "theoretical Marxists." Among those of this group, he considered HARRY LORE to be the most intense about Marxism. (C) U

According to the opinion of Confidential Informant PH T-10, HARRY LORE was well versed in Marxism, and was not similarly well versed on other subjects. LORE always praised the Russian form of government, and criticized the United States Government. (U)

A booklet, captioned "The National Lawyers Guild Silver Anniversary Convention, 1962," lists members and officers of that organization. On page four of the above booklet appears a list of the members of the Executive Board, among whom was HARRY LORE. (U)

On February 27, 1962, Confidential Informant PH T-11 made available a booklet, captioned "The National Lawyers Guild Silver Anniversary Convention, 1962," which contains a "1962 Lawyers Referral Directory." Included under the heading of Pennsylvania is the name of ERWIN MILLER. (U)

B. MARCH PROTESTING VOTER DISCRIMINATION, ALABAMA, MARCH 1965

1. Possible March on City Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., Protesting Police Brutality in Selma, Ala., March 13, 1965

On March 18, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-12 advised that a seminar on "Racism and Its Development In Our Society" was held at the W. E. B. Du Bois Club, 3260 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., on March 12, 1965. (U) members of the Youth Club, CPUSA

This seminar was led by JARVIS TYNER, who opened the discussion with a brief history of racial conditions as they first existed in the South. He then discussed the current racial problems in the United States, including those in Selma, Ala., over voting rights for the Negro and the protest demonstrations which resulted in the death of a white minister. After a short discussion on this matter, it was decided that at the next business meeting, they would include a discussion as to what action the Du Bois Club should take in reference to the situation in Selma, Ala. (U)

At this meeting, NURELDEEN STOREY stated he was attempting to activate a group of high school students from West Philadelphia to march from 52nd and Market Streets to City Hall in Philadelphia, Pa., on Saturday, March 13, 1965, to protest police brutality in Selma, Ala. After a short discussion, it was realized that STOREY had not made any prior preparation; and, as a result, the other members opposed this march. (U)

On March 25, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that NURELDEEN STOREY and JARVIS TYNER were members of the Youth Club, CPEPD. (U)

A characterization of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) appears in the Appendix section of this report. (U)

2. Mourners March by NAACP,
Philadelphia, Pa.,
March 15, 1965

On March 15, 1965, from 8:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m., upwards of 5,000 to 7,000 people marched around City Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., in a demonstration to memorialize the Reverend JAMES REEB, civil rights worker killed in Selma, Ala., who died on March 11, 1965, and to dramatize the current voter registration activity of the civil rights groups in Selma, Ala. (U)

Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Commissioner's Office, Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department, advised on March 15, 1965, that shortly before noon, upwards of 2,000 demonstrators joined the marchers around City Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., after having formed at the Uptown Theater, Broad Street and Susquehanna Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., and after having marched approximately two miles to City Hall. This group swelled the total taking part to an estimated 7,000. (U)

According to Lieutenant FENCL, because of the huge crowds, there was traffic congestion, but the demonstration was orderly with no arrests or incidents. (U)

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed JAMES DOLSEN, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AYCOX, JOAN AYCOX, RITA "ROOKIE" GABOW, JARVIS TYNER, and ARLENE TYNER participating in the march around City Hall. (U)

On March 12, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that the above-mentioned individuals are current members of the CPEPD. (U)

3. Planned Picket of Attorney General, March 18, 1965

On March 15, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-13 advised that leaders of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America in Philadelphia, Pa., were planning a picket demonstration on March 18, 1965, at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Broad and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., when Attorney General NICHOLAS KATZENBACH appeared to speak before the Philadelphia Crime Commission. This demonstration would be held to emphasize the voting rights for Negroes in Selma, Ala., the protection of Negroes in Selma, Ala., and the prosecution of the people responsible for the persecution of the Negroes in Selma, Ala. (U)

On March 17, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-13 advised that CORE and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) had initiated the above demonstration, and the DCA may not be able to join as a co-sponsor. The picket was scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m., March 18, 1965. (U)

On March 18, 1965, Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Commissioner's Office, Philadelphia, Pa., Police Department, advised he learned the above demonstration might include sit-ins at the hotel. (U)

On March 18, 1965, at 5:30 p.m., Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed about forty individuals gather in front of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Broad and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. According to Lieutenant FENCL, these individuals represented CORE and SNCC. Among the demonstrators, the Special Agents observed the following individuals:

NURELDEEN STOREY JARVIS TYNER

(U) PA

On December 16, 1964, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that the above-named individuals were current members of the CPEPD. (C)

(U)

Also, on March 18, 1965, Lieutenant FENCL advised the demonstrators learned that the Attorney General had canceled his appearance in Philadelphia, Pa.; and they decided that the demonstration would then be futile against anyone of less stature than the Attorney General. As a result, no demonstration was held. (U)

4. Participation in Selma - Montgomery March

The Doylestown "Intelligencer" of Doylestown, Pa., in its March 13, 1965, issue contained an article reflecting that a delegation from Bucks County would proceed to Selma, Ala., for memorial services for Reverend JAMES REEB on Sunday, March 14, 1965. This article indicated that the delegation would include ISAAC BEN EZRA. (U)

MRS. ISAAC BEN EZRA

On November 8, 1954, Confidential Informant PH T-14 advised that according to comments made by the leadership of the Communist Party in the New York area, ISAAC and HILDA BEN EZRA, [redacted] were considered fine, devoted people, and inferred that ISAAC was transferred from the Jackson Club, New York State Industrial Concentration, to Industrial, Pennsylvania, and that HILDA was also transferred from the Jackson Club, New York State Concentration, to the Street Club, Philadelphia, and that their dues were paid through 1953. (U)

It is noted that no specific times were reported with regard to the time to which the information set out above pertains nor was the specific reference to transfer or dues clarified. (U)

On October 8, 1956, ISAAC BEN EZRA, [redacted], advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he had never been associated with any organization or individuals which held beliefs inimical to the best interest of the United States, and that he had never been a member of the Communist Party and did not consider himself a Communist. (U) b6 b7C

The March 20, 1965, issue of the "Intelligencer Journal," a Lancaster, Pa., daily newspaper, reported that eighteen individuals, including G. WAYNE GLICK, Dean of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., left the area on the morning of March 20, 1965, by automobile for Alabama. They were expected to reach Birmingham, Ala., by dinner time on March 20, 1965, and to attend an orientation at a Birmingham Unitarian Church before proceeding to Selma, Ala. Among those in this group was LEONARD V. CHERRY, a professor at Franklin and Marshall College. LANCASTER, PA. (U) ALA

Confidential Informant PH T-15, advised on April 27, 1953, that LEONARD VICTOR CHERRY, on April 20, 1953, at a meeting of the Communist Party in Durham, N. C., with two other individuals, formed a separate club of the Communist Party, at which time he was elected Chairman. (U)

This newspaper article further reflected that when this contingent arrived in Selma, Ala., they would be joined with six others from Lancaster, who left Lancaster by automobile on March 18, 1965. After the march to Montgomery begins, both groups would leave by automobile for Pennsylvania; and it was indicated they expected to arrive in Lancaster, Pa., on Monday, March 22, 1965.(U)

The March 24, 1965, issue of "New Era," a daily Lancaster, Pa., newspaper, carried the story that a group of individuals left Lancaster, Pa., by automobile on that date for Washington, D. C., where they would board a special train leaving Washington at 2:00 p.m. for Montgomery, Ala. This train was scheduled to arrive in Montgomery at 7:00 a.m., on March 25, 1965.(U)

According to this article, this group was to join the Selma to Montgomery March on the outskirts of Montgomery for the march into that city. These people planned to leave Montgomery at 5:00 p.m., on March 25, 1965, by special train, returning to Washington and arriving at noon, March 26, 1965. The return trip to Lancaster, Pa., from Washington would be made by automobile.(U)

Among those individuals identified as being members of the Lancaster Chapter of the NAACP who made this trip was Reverend WILLIAM E. NIETO.(U)

The Reverend WILLIAM E. NIETO, when interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1950, admitted membership in the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico.(U) went to Alabama with LEE HARRIS, Executive Committee member, NAACP, on March 20, 1965. Approximately seventy-five per cent of the passengers on this same flight were civil rights workers proceeding to Montgomery, Ala. RAVITZ and HARRIS were met in Atlanta, Ga., by JOHN LEWIS, of SNCC. They proceeded to Montgomery by automobile, arriving there at 7:30 p.m., on March 20, 1965. (U)

ALA

RAVITZ and HARRIS intended to proceed to Selma, Ala., from Montgomery on March 20, 1965, but RAVITZ remained in Montgomery, and stated he had been arrested the night of March 23, 1965, for picketing at the Alabama State Capitol Building in Montgomery, and spent the night of March 23, 1965, at the Kilby State Prison in Montgomery. He had been arrested for failure to obey orders of an officer and obtained $100 bond and was freed on March 24, 1965. (U)

RAVITZ stated he intended to picket the State Capitol Building in Montgomery with a group of people from SNCC on the night of March 24, 1965, and would sleep in the vicinity of the Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING marching group a short distance outside of Montgomery, Ala. (U)

According to Miss COOPER, DIANE LAISON, of Nazareth, Pa., went to Montgomery, Ala., on March 23, 1965, and was to contact RAVITZ in Montgomery (U)

The March 29, 1965, edition of the "Bethlehem Globe Times," Bethlehem, Pa., carried an article under the heading "Ala. Marcher Admits She Was 'Frightened.'" According to this article, Mrs. DIANE LAISON, a 26-year-old Nazareth woman, summed up her experiences in Alabama in one word - "frightening." The wife of a Lehigh University teacher, she was one of several area residents to visit Alabama for what has come to be called "The March." (U)

According to this article, DIANE LAISON was scared to death, and explained she felt cowardly by comparison with the courage she saw. Mrs. LAISON left the Lehigh Valley area on Tuesday, March 23, 1965, for Philadelphia, from where she flew to Atlanta, Ga. Transportation to Montgomery was made by a rented automobile. Mrs. LAISON, presently working on her thesis for a Ph.D. in Mathematics, was one of the brave ones. She said she would do it again although still more frightened. (U)

5. Clothing Drive of DCA for Selma Residents

On March 24, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-13 advised that ARLENE TYNER, as a representative of the DCA in Philadelphia, Pa., was sponsoring a clothing drive to collect clothing for the residents of Selma, Ala. ~~(C)~~ (U)

According to Confidential Informant PH T-13, the DCA plans to collect clothing in the neighborhood of the DCA clubhouse, located at 3260 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., on Saturday, March 17, 1965. The purpose of this drive was to support the boycott of white merchants in Alabama. ~~(C)~~ (U)

On April 13, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-12 advised that the DCA in Philadelphia, Pa., had sponsored a "Freedom Party for Selma" at the DCA clubhouse, 3260 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., on April 10, 1965, for the purpose of obtaining funds to ship used clothing to Selma, Ala. The used clothing had been previously gathered by the DCA in the neighborhood of the clubhouse. Although twenty-five persons visited the clubhouse during this affair, only a total of $5.00 was raised by donation to pay the cost of shipping the clothing to Selma, Ala. ~~(C)~~ (U)

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA

On March 16, 1965, PG T-1 advised that on March 11, 1965, ARTHUR EDELMAN stated that members of a CPWP group would be attending meetings in the Pittsburgh area held for the purpose of setting up demonstrations sympathizing with civil rights activities and for the purpose of promoting the activities of the United Negro Protest Committee (UNPC) at Pittsburgh, Pa.

It is noted that the UNPC during the past two years picketed business establishments in Pittsburgh, claiming that these establishments practiced racial discrimination in their employment policies.

PG T-1 further advised that ARTHUR EDELMAN failed to mention the names of any of the CPWP members or the organizations holding such meetings as mentioned above.

On March 22, 1965, PG T-1 advised that as of that date ARTHUR EDELMAN was a member of the District Committee, CPWP.

On March 23, 1965, PG T-1 advised that on March 18, 1965, in the course of a CPWP meeting in the Pittsburgh area, the civil rights issue was discussed. During this discussion GABOR KISH stated that the CP should urge that the forthcoming contract between the United Steelworkers of America (USWA), AFL-CIO, and the steel manufacturers include "power" for those serving as chairmen of the Civil Rights Committee of their respective USWA locals so that aforementioned committee could effectively promote civil rights in the steel mills. KISH said that civil rights in the steel mills should be promoted for all the workers, both Negro and white. KISH stated that the white workers in the mills must be shown the importance of civil rights as a national problem and how it was necessary to solve this problem for the economic and social welfare of the United States.

On March 22, 1965, PG T-1 advised that as of that date GABOR KISH was a member of the District Committee, CPWP.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

Student March on Washington, April 17, 1965

The April 17, 1965, issue of the "Pittsburgh Press," a daily newspaper at Pittsburgh, Pa., contained an article entitled "Viet Policies Ripped by 20,000 Students," which set forth that on that date more than 20,000 demonstrators picketed the White House and staged a protest march to end the war in Vietnam. The article noted that the demonstrators were organized by "Students for a Democratic Society" which described itself as a radical but non-Communist national union of students.

On April 14, 1965, PG T-2 advised that on April 13, 1965, LOUIS BORTZ stated that he and Born [redacted] and BETH and ARTHUR EDELMAN, [redacted], planned to depart from the Pittsburgh area on the morning of April 17, 1965, to travel to Washington, D. C., to participate in the March on Washington, April 17, 1965.

On March 22, 1965, PG T-1 advised that as of that date LOUIS BORTZ was a member of the District Committee, CPWP.

On February 18, 1965, PG T-3 advised that he understood that, as of February 14, 1965, EDWARD BORTZ was Chairman of the Pittsburgh DuBois Club, the Pittsburgh branch of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America.

The W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On January 21, 1965, PG T-4 advised that on January 19, 1965, THOMAS NABRIED stated that BETH EDELMAN had been transferred by the National Office, CP, to Pittsburgh, Pa., to assume the position as Organizer of the CP in Western Pennsylvania.

On July 13, 1964, PG T-5 advised that as of that date THOMAS NABRIED was a member of the National Negro Commission and the National Committee, CP. In addition, NABRIED was elected Chairman of the CP of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware on July 12, 1964.

It is noted that THOMAS NABRIED died January 20, 1965.

On April 15, 1965, PG T-6 advised that as of that date LOUIS BORTZ, [redacted], and JAMES QUINN, [redacted] planned to travel to Washington, D. C., on the evening of April 16, 1965, to participate in the March on the following day. PG T-6 stated that the foregoing individuals were planning to travel to Washington, D. C., in an automobile belonging to LOUIS BORTZ and that they expected to return to Pittsburgh immediately following the March.

On March 20, 1959, PG T-1 advised that JAMES QUINN attended a CP meeting in Pittsburgh, Pa., on February 27, 1959, at which time the status of the CPWP was discussed.

On April 22, 1965, PG T-2 advised that on April 20, 1965, LOUIS BORTZ stated that the student March on Washington was a success and that approximately 75 people, most of whom were students from Pittsburgh schools, had participated in the March on Washington, April 17, 1965.

PG T-2 advised that BORTZ further stated that those accompanying him to Washington, D. C., on April 17, 1965, to participate in the March included [redacted] BETH and ARTHUR EDELMAN; RALPH HALLOW, and ERNEST DALGLISH.

On March 6, 1962, PG T-7 identified a photograph of RALPH HALLOW as being identical with an individual who attended a CP conference in Chicago, Illinois, in the latter part of December, 1960.

On July 27, 1962, PG T-8 advised that a letter of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) dated June, 1962, listed ERNEST DALGLISH - Pa., on the Executive Committee of the ECLC in New York, N. Y.

The ECLC is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On March 1, 1963, PG T-9 advised that ERNEST DALGLISH had been in consulation with HERBERT KRANSDORF concerning a lecture to be sponsored by the Pittsburgh Committee for Public Information.

The Pittsburgh Committee for Public Information is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On March 31, 1964, PG T-1 advised that as of that date HERBERT KRANSDORF was employed on a full time basis as the Organizer of the CPWP.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No information developed.

APPENDIX

PITTSBURGH COMMITTEE FOR PUBLIC INFORMATION

On February 1 and 7, 1963, a source advised that ERNEST DALGLISH, 1353 Shady Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., was responsible for the printing of a poster advertising a lecture to be held March 2, 1963, in Pittsburgh, sponsored by the Pittsburgh Committee for Public Information, same address, which organization was self-characterized on the poster as a non-partisan, non-profit group, interested in the public dissemination of the vital issues facing man today.

The current "Polks' Pittsburgh City Directory" lists 1353 Shady Avenue, Pittsburgh, as the address of the Religious Society of Friends.

Synopsis: CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, and EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, attended a CPUSA National Negro Commission meeting where they delivered reports on Negro civil rights struggle from national and CP of Illinois standpoint. LIGHTFOOT called for new methods of work by the CP in voters registration, Negro economic needs, and solidarity actions in the South. DURHAM criticized lack of an over-all national center in Negro civil rights struggle and characterized struggle as carried on by middle class Negroes, white middle class forces and students. DURHAM stated existing civil rights organizations without a definite base in Negro communities particularly among working class faction of Negro population. CP of Illinois forces in various civil rights organizations reviewed. CP of Illinois concentration directed toward Negro American Labor Council (NALC), National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). CP of Illinois attempts to influence ACT and Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) unsuccessful. CP of Illinois relationships other civil rights organizations and leaders noted. EUGENE TOURNOUR, Midwest Director of CORE and CP member within Chicago area CORE leadership, fired from CORE position by National Staff of CORE. At Young Socialist Alliance National Convention Negro resolution adopted whereby YSA to continue to support Negro civil rights organizations and YSA will seek Negro members because Negroes at present are the militant people (U)

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP), USA

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1. Plans, Strategy, Party Line and the Like, Made at National Meeting; Including Expressions by National and Other Functionaries

(U)

On March 20 - 21, 1965, a meeting of the CPUSA National Negro Commission was held at the Woodstock Hotel, New York, New York, with approximately twenty-six individuals in attendance from New York, Illinois, Michigan, Maryland, Mississippi, California, and Pennsylvania. (U)

The delegates from CP of Illinois to this meeting were CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, and EARL DURHAM, Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission. (U)

The opening report at this meeting was delivered by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT who also serves as Chairman of the CPUSA National Negro Commission. LIGHTFOOT during this time mentioned the tremendous significance of recent developments in Selma, Alabama, which in his opinion placed the country at the brink of a new reconstruction era. LIGHTFOOT said that if this new movement is successful, it could mean the end of Dixiecrat control of the South. (U)

LIGHTFOOT related that the voters registration features of the bill proposed by President JOHNSON could make possible changes in the entire world situation. LIGHTFOOT said that the change in the political structure of the South could break the back of the reactionary bloc in Congress. LIGHTFOOT stated that President JOHNSON's action proved the correctness of the CP line in the 1964 elections. LIGHTFOOT stated that the CP must not give up its political criticisms of the JOHNSON administration. (U)

LIGHTFOOT in his report called for literacy tests for voter registration purposes to be thrown out completely. LIGHTFOOT further stated that labor should begin an immediate organizational drive in the South and that the right to vote is the link that (U)

could move the coalition forward. LIGHTFOOT also stated that the CP must develop a program to meet the economic needs of the Negro community. LIGHTFOOT stated that the CP could not work the way it did in the old days since the CP must work with existing organizations and develop initiatives that can spur the entire Civil Rights Movement. (C) (U)

LIGHTFOOT noted that there is a void in the Negro community since Civil Rights organizations do not penetrate into the Negro ghetto. LIGHTFOOT also said that in relation to Negro youth the CP must create a program to combat the fact that Negro youths are systematically excluded from the job market. LIGHTFOOT called for the CP to develop a program which would help build a socialist cadre. (C) (U)

LIGHTFOOT concluded by noting that the CP should try to initiate conferences in the Negro community dealing with the problems in those communities. He further proposed that the CP's role in the South must be strengthened and that in each district three man committees be established whose sole responsibility will be to develop solidarity actions with the South. (C)

Also during the course of the CPUSA National Negro Commission meeting EARL DURHAM, who is a member of the CPUSA National Negro Commission, delivered a report on the Civil Rights struggle to date. (C) (U)

DURHAM in his report related that there was not an overall national center in the struggle for Civil Rights either organizationally or ideologically. DURHAM said that there are many organizations for many forms of the struggle. The character of the forces in the leadership of the struggle are middle class Negroes in coalition with white middle class forces and students. DURHAM said that the white religious community is more active now particularly the Catholic Church. DURHAM noted that none of the Civil Rights organizations in existence has a definite mass base in the Negro community particularly among the working (C) (U) class factions of the Negro population. He also said that the trade union as such is not involved in the Civil Rights struggle although some individual trade unionists spoke out. (U)

DURHAM in his report related that one large area of struggle is the militants vs. the conservatives. DURHAM spoke of the gaps that have been created among freedom leaders in the South and national leadership of the various Civil Rights organizations. DURHAM said that the CP has the responsibility to concentrate on strengthening the working class base. DURHAM said that there must be an all out fight for unity of the movement and that there must be a unified program on the economic problems of the Negro people. DURHAM also indicated that the CP must create ideological documents answering the many questions in the Civil Rights Movement and further concentration be given to establishing further North a left center in the ghetto. (U)

DURHAM closed his remarks by lauding the CP's role in the struggle for Civil Rights and indicated that the slogans the CP advanced in the past are now becoming slogans of the masses and even President JOHNSON now says, "We shall overcome". (U)

(CG T-1, 3/23-24/65)

2. Plans, Etc. Made at CP of Illinois Lower Level Meetings Including Expressions by Local Leaders and Rank and File Members

a. General

In the Negro Civil Rights field, CP of Illinois concentration has been directed toward the Negro American Labor Council (NALC), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

There have been attempts by the CP of Illinois to develop some influence in the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) but they have been unsuccessful.

CONFIDENTIAL

In the NAACP the CP of Illinois members who are active in the NAACP are LESTER DAVIS and BRENETTA HOWELL. DAVIS and HOWELL are members of the NAACP Executive Board but as yet, they do not in any substantial way influence policy in the Chicago Branch of the NAACP. (U)

In CORE there has been a working relationship between EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and EUGENE TOURNOUR, a CP member. TOURNOUR is the leader of the CORE, Chicago Task Force. As of January, 1965, TOURNOUR was relieved of his leadership of the CORE Chicago Task Force by the national office of CORE. Left in CORE is ROZ DEAN, a CP of Illinois member on the west side of Chicago who has some status within CORE. Other than this there is no significant CP of Illinois influence in CORE. (U)

In the NALC, the CP of Illinois still maintains three individuals. These three CP of Illinois members are RALPH TURNER, HERB WRIGHT and NATE SHARPE. TURNER, WRIGHT and SHARPE are in leading positions in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, and although the organization itself in Chicago has little or no membership these individuals still maintain their positions within the Chicago Chapter, NALC. (U)

In the Freedom Democratic Club Movement there are several ex-CP members but as yet the CP of Illinois had been unsuccessful in establishing a collective which would include these individuals. There are no active CP of Illinois members in any leading positions within the Freedom Democratic Club Movement. There have been attempts to establish a form of relationship with AL RABY, a leader in the Freedom Democratic Club Movement, however, so far this relationship has been a social relationship only.

In regard to the Chicago Civil Rights organization known as the Protest at the Polls, a recent evaluation reveals that CP of Illinois influence in this organization is negative. The general estimate is that BENNETT JOHNSON, the head of Protest at the Polls, cannot be worked with on any consistent basis.

Relative to ACT it is to be noted that ACT is still absolutely unrelated to the CP of Illinois in that there are no active CP of Illinois forces in ACT.

(CG T-1, 2/10/65) (U)

BENNETT JOHNSON

Concerning BENNETT JOHNSON referred to above, it is to be noted that the CP of Illinois in early 1964 desiring to broaden its forces in Civil Rights organizations accepted BENNETT JOHNSON on the Negro Commission of the CP of Illinois and permitted JOHNSON to attend Commission meetings although he was not and is not a member of a CP of Illinois Club and in the strictest classification was not and is not a member of the CP. However, the CP of Illinois currently considers BENNETT JOHNSON as a maverick who cannot be depended upon nor controled. In fact, the leadership of the CP of Illinois has decided it is useless to try to work with JOHNSON or try to influence him.

(CG T-1, 4/9/65) (U)

AL RABY

In late October, 1964, AL RABY, a prominent Chicago Civil Rights leader, met with the leadership of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission with knowledge of the activity of this leadership in the Civil Rights Movement for a number of years mainly from the "left position". During this contact the leaders of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission desired to discuss the base of the entire Civil Rights Movement in Chicago with RABY which was considered by the CP leadership to be weak. Also, this meeting was held in order to discuss the Civil Rights Movement in Chicago with RABY and to exchange opinions and discuss how both RABY's position in the Negro community and the Civil Rights Movement in Chicago could be strengthened. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

It is understood that after the discussion there was an exchange of opinions during which RABY stated that he was in favor of some of the suggestions of the CP particularly that Negro community leaders meet frequently and have a philosophical discussion for a long-range approach. Also during this discussion RABY stated he felt he was the "cleanest" Civil Rights leader in the business, that is, he had no background of relations with any of the left nor does he have any antagonistic blocs acting against him either in the established Negro organizations or in any of the predominantly white liberal organizations. RABY stated that he insisted on keeping his reputation this way. (U)

(CG T-1, 10/21/64) (U)

On March 8, 1965, the CP of Illinois staff held a meeting at 30 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During the aforementioned meeting, EARL DURHAM, Chairman of Illinois Negro Commission, indicated he was attempting to organize a report for the next CP of Illinois State Board meeting as well as a report for a CP National Negro Commission meeting to be held in New York City, March 20 - 21, 1965. (U)

It was learned that DURHAM's discussion at this meeting indicated that there are approximately ten to eleven independent Civil Rights organizations functioning in Chicago to one degree or another. However, none of these organizations can boast of having a stable base in the Negro community. It was stated that there was still too much maneuvering at top level meetings and top level programatic action without sufficient mobilization of the Negro community. (U)

During the discussion DURHAM stated that perhaps the one organization moving toward a base in the ghetto is CORE. CORE has about three centers going all in the Negro community, and through a CORE youth program have made some inroads; however, there is nothing to brag about. (U)

It was stated that the NAACP organization needs no analysis since most of the members of the CP are familiar with the status of the NAACP. (U)

Concerning the Freedom Democratic Club it was stated that this organization still exists only on paper for all practical purposes and has no effect in influencing the direction of the Civil Rights Movement in Chicago. (U)

It was also stated during this discussion that another organization in the Negro ghetto is called the Student Woodlawn Assist Program (SWAP) which started as a tutoring program for young Negroes in the ghetto based around the University of Chicago. It was stated that SWAP now has approximately 500 young persons being tutored with as many tutors and with them is the organization of the parents of the young people as a political force. It was stated that this organization presented a petition to the Chicago School Board asking for the ouster of Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN WILLIS. (U)

Also during this discussion it was stated that the Negro-American Labor Council (NALC) has begun to show indications of picking up its activities after two years of inaction. The NALC was described as attempting to concentrate their work on problems of apprenticeship and building trade unions. (U)

It was also mentioned that there exists in Chicago a Freedom of Residence Group, a West Side Parish which operates on the west side of Chicago in the Lawndale area, the Protest at the Polls organization which still exists only on paper, ACT, and the Chicago Urban League. (U)

In reference to all of the aforementioned organizations it was stated during this meeting that while a great deal of individual activity exists in the main, little or no organization of activity is directed toward the unorganized in the Negro community. It was also stated that the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO) was attempting to function (U) again and was developing activities in the main centering on the struggle around education and the ouster of Chicago Superintendent of Schools, BENJAMIN WILLIS. It was also noted that the CCCO had recently gathered ministers together to demonstrate outside of City Hall for the ouster of WILLIS. (U)

During this discussion EARL DURHAM recommended the CP of Illinois create an estimate of the struggle around the integration of schools question and that the character of the Civil Rights Movement in Chicago is the fact that this issue has been made the dominant one in which integration has become the main "pitch". (U)

EARL DURHAM reported during this discussion that since the Civil Rights Movement in Chicago is predominantly middle class--middle class Negroes and middle class white liberals, this group is not attuned to some of the real problems of the ghetto; therefore, they have placed their emphasis only on the schools issue. (U)

DURHAM noted that a great deal of activity in this regard had developed but it must be separated. DURHAM stated it was the responsibility of the CP of Illinois to try and develop more basic struggles particularly on the economic front of the Negro community. (U)

b. CP of Illinois State Board

On March 16, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois.

The main item on the agenda for this meeting was a discussion on the civil rights movement. After other introductory matters and announcements, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and a member of the CP of Illinois State Board, delivered a report dealing with the problem of the civil rights movement. DURHAM opened his remarks by indicating that a consideration of the events in connection with the racial situation in Selma, Alabama, had to be considered up to and including President JOHNSON's speech on voter registration. DURHAM stated that the stand presented by President JOHNSON on the right to vote was an outstanding victory for the people. DURHAM stated that JOHNSON's statement indicates the possibility of a mass struggle changing the course of a nation. He said it also indicated that it was possible to wrest concessions from the ruling class even in the face of dangers from Fascist activity. DURHAM said that the victory gained was the result of a sustained mass struggle which dated back to the 1930's. According to DURHAM, the CP should not take a back seat in regard to its position on the question of voters rights. DURHAM pointed out that the CP always has included in its activities and program the struggle for the right to vote. JOHNSON's speech and the tempo of the current civil rights struggle, according to DURHAM, laid the base for a fundamental change in the nation's political makeup. He noted that if it were successful it would mark the end of the Dixiecrat stronghold in the national and local legislative bodies.

(U)

DURHAM stated that if the Dixiecrat stronghold is broken it would open the door to the widest possible progressive legislation and activity both in regard to domestic policy as well as foreign policy. DURHAM stated that the coalition which brought this condition into being has reached out into every facet of American life except the ultra-right. DURHAM noted that if this coalition can be maintained the passage of a strong voters' rights bill will be assured and the victory can be consolidated but only if the coalition is maintained.

(U) (U)

DURHAM then discussed the civil rights movement in Chicago and indicated that the CP of Illinois State Board is confronted with a very serious question relative to the CP of

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Illinois work and program on the civil rights issue in Chicago. According to DURHAM, every major northern city, every village and hamlet with a population of 50,000 or more, has had some sort of mass demonstrative action; however, except for scattered "guerrilla warfare" activities organized by various small organizations, there has been no mass demonstrations in Chicago. (U)

DURHAM continued that nonetheless, Chicago contributed probably one of the largest groups of people who went to Selma, Alabama, in connection with the civil rights demonstration and, additionally, the Chicago City Council passed unanimously a resolution in support of the struggle in Selma. (U)

However, DURHAM stated, the lack of mass action demonstrates the character of the civil rights movement in Chicago. DURHAM indicated that the civil rights movement in Chicago had no mass base in the Negro community, although it had the support and sympathy of the Negro masses. Secondly, DURHAM stated that Mayor DALEY's political machine and the Negro adherents within this machine are still, in the main, the basic controlling influence in Chicago's Negro life and this influence has splintered, stifled, and in some instances stopped any mass collective activity in the community. (U)

DURHAM noted that there were in existence in Chicago some 10 to 15 civil rights organizations, each with limited numbers of members and each with a limited program. DURHAM identified these organizations as follows: (U)

Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)
Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)
West Side Parish
Chicago Urban League

All of the aforementioned organizations, DURHAM indicated, are in one degree or another active in one phase or another in the civil rights movement. DURHAM stressed, however, that the NALC should receive the Party's main consideration because of the potential it represents relative to involving a labor movement in the civil rights struggle. (C) (U)

Also during his remarks, DURHAM characterized the bulk of the leadership of the civil rights movement in Chicago as middle class Negro and white students, and white middle class liberals. He indicated that the labor movement Negro workers are not yet an integral part of the civil rights movement. (C) (U)

DURHAM concluded his report by noting that the CP of Illinois should discuss its weaknesses relative to the civil rights struggle and that it was particularly weak because the Party itself lacked collectivity on this issue. DURHAM proposed that the CP of Illinois try and initiate an economic conference on the problems of Negro youth and that the CP undertake itself to organize a left coalition in the civil rights movement to try and build an apparatus to fight for unity of the movement. c. CP of Illinois Clubs

On January 5. 1965, Attended a meeting of the Ray Hansborough Brigade, CP of Illinois, was held at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois. During this meeting those in attendance held a discussion on what must be done to bring the CP clubs on the South Side of Chicago out of "isolation". During this discussion, it was suggested by VERSTA MILLER, who was present, that a study be made of the feasibility of members working in local civil rights organizations. He noted during his remarks that such a suggestion has been proposed many times previously but has never been followed up. MILLER also suggested Party members associate themselves with the two major political parties, particularly whatever organizations exist in the 1st and 2nd Congressional Districts. (C) (U)

On January 13, 1965, a meeting of the Hyde Park CP of Illinois Club was held at 4749 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During this meeting a discussion was held concerning the Negro struggle in the United States and BEN FRIEDLANDER, who was in attendance, and chaired the meeting, stated that the real purpose of the Negro movement in the United States is not for integration, but rather was for recognition and job opportunities for Negroes. FRIEDLANDER stated that this included not only the poor among the Negroes, but also included the working class Negro as well as the unemployed Negro. FRIEDLANDER characterized the Illinois Negro political leaders as "Uncle TOM's" and that the big problem facing this movement is to prepare the Negro to hold a job, which is currently being denied, as well as his privilege to work. (U)

During this meeting, FOSTER STOCKWELL, who was in attendance, said that unless each CP member becomes active in organizations in Chicago such as the CCCO, SNCC, and the NALC, the CP cannot be considered effective in the civil rights field. STOCKWELL indicated that he tries to attend all of the CCCO meetings and urged the participation of each member of this CP club as well as other CP members in Chicago in the activities of the CCCO. (U)

STOCKWELL concluded his remarks by noting that he was disappointed in the Chicago NAACP because the leaders of this organization were simply trying to use their positions within the NAACP to advance themselves as politicians. (U)

On January 23, 1965, a meeting of the Executive Committee of the CP of Illinois Youth Club was held at 1808 North Cleveland, Chicago, Illinois, and during the course of this meeting MIKE ZAGARELL, a national CP youth leader, reported on a recent national meeting of the CP youth and in his report referred to a summary of the resolutions created by this meeting. (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

One of the resolutions referred to by ZAGARELL indicated that this national CP youth meeting had discussed was how to attract youth to the CP, particularly Negro youth, and the relationship of the CP youth to a new national socialist youth organization. (U)

Other resolutions presented by ZAGARELL indicated that CP youth was to concern itself with the varying classes of young people such as high school youth, college youth, and working youth. The resolutions indicated that in concerning itself with these classes CP youth should demand the end of overt and de facto segregation in all high schools in the country; and, demand the inclusion of Negro history and accomplishments in high school textbooks; demand the establishment of programs which would demand the ouster of books and materials which implicitly and explicitly condone segregation. (U)

The resolutions also indicated relative to working youth that the CP youth engage itself in activity which would demand the end of overt and de facto segregation in hiring practices of all employers; demand an end to segregation in apprenticeship programs. (U)

ZAGARELL's report of the national CP meeting went on to indicate that the CP was launching a recruitment program beginning February or April 1, through July, 1965, and that the drive would give emphasis to the recruitment of Negro youth. (U)

d. CP Caucus Active in the African-American Heritage Association (AAHA) (U)

On January 12, 1965, a meeting of the Executive Board of the Ray Hansborough Brigade, CP of Illinois, was held at 4420 South Drexel Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois. Those in attendance at this meeting discussed at length the problems the club had in connection with the AAHA. It was stated that ISHMAEL FLORY, the Director of the AAHA, had reached bottom financially and was desperately engaged in trying to involve the Ray Hansborough Brigade in AAHA affairs. It was mentioned that recently ISHMAEL FLORY had called a CP of Illinois caucus which had been unauthorized (U)

by the CP of Illinois leadership and FLORY had hoped that through this means the members of the Ray Hansborough Brigade would be impelled to contributed to his cause. It was stated that this caucus was a dismal failure; that now the Ray Hansborough Brigade should give consideration to calling ISHMAEL FLORY to a meeting for a discussion on just what he was trying to do with AAHA, that is, whether he is trying to build some sort of nationalistic organization on the South Side to be dominated by him. (S) (U)

It was stated during this meeting that the Ray Hansborough Brigade leadership feels that AAHA has done good work in the past; however, the club membership should continue to work within AAHA as individuals, but steps would be undertaken to define more properly the line of demarcation between the Ray Hansborough Brigade and AAHA and what exactly is the responsibility of each organization to the other. It was learned that the purpose of BARON's contact with DURHAM was to talk with DURHAM about the fact that the Chicago Urban League office had received an application for employment from LOLA BELLE HOLMES. BARON reportedly advised DURHAM that he desired DURHAM to advise him what HOLMES' qualifications for a job with the Chicago Urban League would be and whether she would cause problems. (U)

It is understood that DURHAM advised BARON that HOLMES was without any qualifications for work in such a major research organization as the league. It was not just a question of formal education which she lacked, but also because of her inability to get along with people and that this was even aside from the fact that she had been a "stoolpigeon" for the FBI. Further, DURHAM indicated that HOLMES had a good line but not a productive one and if she were hired as a labor consultant for the Urban League it was doubtful if she could establish any serious relationship with the labor movement. f. CP of Illinois Collective in Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

In early January, 1965, EUGENE TOURNOUR met with EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission. During this meeting, TOURNOUR reported to DURHAM on the internal problems of CORE. TOURNOUR, a CP member and a CP of Illinois liaison with CORE in the Chicago area, indicated that he had recently attended a National Steering Committee meeting of CORE and that a few members of this committee have raised several (U) criticisms on the functioning of the national office of CORE. These criticisms were that there had been no national leadership meeting since October, 1964; that CORE was in debt to the sum of $200,000; that CORE had not participated fully in the Mass Freedom project; and that JAMES FARMER, the head of CORE, had gone off on a six week tour of Africa without leaving any organization to carry on any leadership responsibility. (U)

During this meeting, TOURNOUR also indicated that part of the problem was that a certain group within this National Steering Committee wanted to junk the Chicago project which of course would also mean that TOURNOUR would be removed from his job. TOURNOUR indicated that were he to fight for his position his main protagonists were within CORE. (U)

It is understood that during this meeting DURHAM instructed TOURNOUR that before he undertook to fight for his position on an open breach within CORE, he should be sure that he could survive any onslaught. TOURNOUR is supposed to have indicated that he could manage to survive. It was also indicated during this discussion that TOURNOUR and DURHAM probably would sit down and work on a plan to consolidate the position of the Chicago CORE group as far as the Chicago program was concerned and that they would also attempt to work out a program to consolidate the Midwest regional setup of CORE so that when JAMES FARMER returned from Africa a solid front based on support of the proposed Chicago program could be presented to the full National Action Committee so that the struggle could be placed on a different level. In late January, 1965, EUGENE TOURNOUR reported to the CP of Illinois Negro Commission that he had attended a national meeting of CORE where he had attempted to instigate a serious discussion in regard to CORE's national program and particularly as that program related to Chicago and the Midwest Region. TOURNOUR advised that he had been unsuccessful in developing this serious discussion relative to program because the people in attendance had a very shallow understanding of the problem. It was TOURNOUR's estimate that CORE was in a very bad situation, both politically and organizationally. TOURNOUR stated that the majority of the agenda at this meeting was given over to the question of finance and how to raise money. (U)

It was also learned that TOURNOUR reported to the CP of Illinois Negro Commission that subsequent to the meeting with the national body of CORE he had met with the national staff of CORE and that this group had asked TOURNOUR for his resignation as the Midwest Director of CORE. TOURNOUR is supposed to have told the staff that he would not resign, However, TOURNOUR reported to the CP of Illinois Negro Commission that the national CORE staff have the power to fire him and they probably will do so. (U)

In his estimate of CORE, TOURNOUR also reported that he was of the opinion that the national setup of CORE would continue to disintegrate and that because of this situation the local Chicago CORE is considering a new orientation for the continuation of their community program. (U)

(CG T-1, 1/22/65) (U)

On January 30, 1965, EUGENE TOURNOUR along with others met with representatives of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission and during this meeting TOURNOUR reported that he had been in attendance at a Midwest Regional meeting of CORE chapters where there had been in attendance some 60 participants. TOURNOUR indicated that during this meeting he brought up the question of his problems and his relationship with the National Office of CORE. TOURNOUR indicated that he had mentioned the fact that he had been fired as the Chicago (U)

Regional staff person for CORE and TOURNOUR indicated that during the meeting he had received overwhelming support from the delegates to the Midwest meeting and that they had worked out the following program: (U)

1. The Chicago Regional area would not split off from National CORE. (U)

2. They should try to establish a stable regional setup. (U)

3. The chapters in the Midwest Region will take responsibility for financing TOURNOUR as the regional coordinator. (U)

4. The Midwest Region will attempt to ward off any approach of CORE's National Office to block their organizational plans. (U)

5. Although Midwest CORE is committed to give 10 per cent of their finances to the National Office, they will not honor this commitment if it interferes with the establishment of the Midwest Region. (U)

TOURNOUR reported that in his opinion the program that had been worked out avoided any open split at this time and created a regional collective that could be helpful in carrying out a constructive program. (U)

CG T-1, [2/1/65] (U)

In late March, 1965, EUGENE TOURNOUR reported to the CP of Illinois Negro Commission for briefing on a recent CP, USA National Negro Commission meeting which had been held in New York City. (U)

During this meeting EARL DURHAM briefed TOURNOUR concerning this meeting and indicated that although there were no members of CORE at this meeting nor were members of CORE met with individually at New York City, DURHAM had met with an unidentified young man and young woman, both from Harlem who had worked with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), both of whom participated in some of the discussion that had been held. (U)

DURHAM reported that this young man and woman reported serious problems internally in both the New York CORE and SNCC organizations. DURHAM indicated that most of these internal problems are centered around the disunity being brought on by red-baiting. (U)

During this briefing TOURNOUR was told that a general approach had been adopted at the CP, USA Negro Commission whereby a struggle would be developed to prevent further splits in the civil rights movement. (U)

During this meeting TOURNOUR reported on his activities as coordinator for CORE in the Chicago area and indicated he was coordinating programs around CORE centers in Chicago. TOURNOUR reported that the South Side center and the North Side center were doing very well but the West Side center of CORE lacked leadership and had developed ideological problems of nationalism. (U)

TOURNOUR also reported that of recent date he had met with Dr. QUENTIN YOUNG and that he and YOUNG had discussed the financial problems of CORE in the Midwest Region. TOURNOUR reported that YOUNG had organized an informal meeting for him with some individuals who could afford to subsidize the activities of Midwest CORE. TOURNOUR indicated that no money had been turned over as yet but he was expecting these individuals to live up to their commitments. It was indicated that among the individuals promising to subsidize CORE were Dr. HERBERT LERNER and Mrs. HERBERT LERNER. (U)

g. CP of Illinois Influence in Protest at the Polls (PAP)

PAP for all intents and purposes is no longer a functioning organization. BENNETT JOHNSON, who is and has been the head of the organization, continues to work on it mainly himself and he may now and then get a volunteer or two to help. JOHNSON during the time the organization was operating accumulated a number of names of individuals who at one time or another were sympathetic to the cause of PAP and from time to time will issue statements in the name of PAP utilizing these names as part of the organization. (U)

JOHNSON desires to keep the name of the organization alive and may call a meeting when he has a public figure available to speak and such a meeting may draw 25 to 30 people because of the speaker. It should be noted, however, that PAP is, in fact, a one man operation and does not have any functioning membership. (U)

The CP of Illinois in early 1964 desiring to broaden its forces in civil rights organizations, accepted BENNETT JOHNSON onto the Negro Commission of the CP of Illinois and permitted him to attend Commission meetings. (U)

although he was not and is not a member of a CP of Illinois club and in the strictest classification was not and is not a member of the CP. However, the CP of Illinois currently considers BENNETT JOHNSON as a Maverick who cannot be depended upon nor controlled. In fact, the leadership of the CP of Illinois has decided it is useless to try and work with JOHNSON or to try to influence him. (U)

h. CP of Illinois Caucus Active in Negro-American Labor Council (NALC)

On January 20, 1965, a meeting of the Sub-Committee of the CP of Illinois in dealing with problems in the NALC was held at a private residence in Chicago. (U)

The main item discussed during this meeting was the proposed State of the Race Conference, sponsored by the National NALC which was to be held in late January, 1965, in New York City. It was announced during this meeting that the conference was restricted to only the heads of a few civil rights organizations and, therefore, the problem of mass participation in NALC affairs was not being helped by the National Office of the NALC. EARL DURHAM indicated there seems to be a national trend involving all civil rights organizations and movements to try and exclude militant progressive forces in both leadership and participation. DURHAM further stated that he had information that the Social Democrats have evidently taken the position that they must grab the leadership of the civil rights movement and prevent any mass action that would tend to undermine this action. (U)

Concerning the Chicago Chapter NALC, EARL DURHAM indicated that unless the leadership problems of the Chicago Chapter could be resolved, he saw no future for the organization. DURHAM then said that he wanted to make a final proposal and that was that NATE SHARPE and HERB WRIGHT, two of the CP of Illinois members active in the NALC, set up a committee of from five to six NALC members (U) and that this committee begin limited activities on a program to break discrimination at the Washburne Trade School in Chicago. DURHAM directed that this committee should begin functioning by preparing a list of the building trades that have apprenticeships at the Washburne Trade School and that these building trades be systematically visited for a statement of policy in regard to Negro youth. Following these visits the committee should evaluate, make an estimate and issue a statement to the press declaring their satisfaction or dissatisfaction with the progress made by these unions. If any union participating in the program resists integration, appropriate steps of political activity should then be developed. DURHAM indicated that this is the only way that a struggle can develop within the NALC at this time. DURHAM stated that the CP would not be in a position to resolve the leadership problem until there was some action taken. (C) (U).

(U)

(CG T-1, 1/21/65)
(CG T-8, 2/1/65) (C)

On February 17, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois Sub-Committee active in NALC work was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. (C) (U).

During this meeting NATE SHARPE who was in attendance reported on the progress within the NALC of the proposed action by NALC on the Washburne Trade School and the Motorola Corporation. SHARPE reported that the matter of the proposed action on the Washburne Trade School had been taken up at an Executive Board meeting of the NALC and had been received by those present in an excellent way. SHARPE also reported that at this meeting of the Executive Board a sub-committee had been created to work on the Motorola situation. NATE SHARPE reported that at a meeting of this sub-committee a division of opinion developed as to whether direct action type activity should be pursued against Motorola or whether the matter against Motorola should be left at the legal level where court action is already underway. It was stated that the NALC had consulted an attorney on this question and the attorney had advised against any direct action such as picketing, etc., because such action at this time would jeopardize the future of the legal case. (C) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

During this meeting EARL DURHAM, who was in attendance, criticized the report received concerning the Washburne Trade School and Motorola in that he believed the decisions of the CP of Illinois Sub-Committee made at the last meeting had not been carried out and as a result the CP finds itself in a box. DURHAM indicated that the struggle on the Washburne Trade School was purposely proposed because it would allow an area for mass action even if the NALC is in an organizational weak position. DURHAM stated that, therefore, since only a sub-committee for the Motorola issue was established at the last NALC meeting, most of the people in NALC who would support mass participation now have no room to participate because the Motorola situation at present is strictly a legal fight. DURHAM further indicated that it was stupid to hire a lawyer to file a brief in support of his particular court action which prevented mass participation on issues because to take mass action would counteract the particular activities of the lawyer. (U)

DURHAM concluded that at this time the lawyer's opinion would have to be respected; however, it would also be necessary to follow up the Washburne situation immediately. (U)

1. Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM)

Over the weekend of February 6-7, 1965, a RAM conference was held in Detroit, Michigan. Members of RAM from Chicago attended this conference and during the course of the discussions held at this conference the Chicago representatives reported on the factional situation which had existed in the Chicago RAM movement for some period of time. This factional situation developed between members of the Chicago RAM over the issue of whether RAM, as an organization was becoming too open in its activities and needed to return to its former more clandestine type of activity. (C)(U)

Also during this Detroit, Michigan meeting, the role played by GLORIA WOLFE, a RAM member from Cleveland, Ohio, in this factional situation in Chicago was also reported on. During the explanation of WOLFE's role in the factional situation in Chicago, it was explained that WOLFE had come to Chicago from Cleveland to assist the Chicago RAM movement in the organization of a female RAM auxiliary and instead of functioning for this purpose WOLFE had failed to perform her duties and had become a divisive factor between the South Side and West Side members of the Chicago RAM. (C)(U)

Also during this Detroit RAM group meeting, apparently triggered by the Chicago RAM unit's discussion of its factional situation, the Detroit RAM group attacked the positions and activities of ROLLAND SNELLINGS, a traveling field representative for RAM, who was active in Detroit to lend guidance and support to the Detroit RAM operation. Primary criticism of SNELLINGS was his failure to function in his capacity as a leader and his refusal to seek and secure employment so that he could in some way assist in paying off the financial obligations which he incurred in Detroit. As a result of the attack on SNELLINGS a formal resolution concerning the charges against him was approved overwhelmingly by those in attendance. (C)(U)

Also during this Detroit conference, the leadership of DON FREEMAN, Chairman of RAM, was criticized and there were proposals that the Detroit RAM group be removed from under the authority of FREEMAN. FREEMAN was criticized specifically on the grounds of being too involved with an ideological (C)(U) approach to RAM and its purposes and with the creation of what amounts to an "Afro-American mystique" rather than the formulation and adoption of a specific and concrete RAM program. (S)(4)

Also discussed during this conference was the public disclosures relative to the RAM organization and its members in various sections of the country and the need to obtain more stringent security measures in connection with RAM activity in order to protect the organization from such disclosures. (S)(W)

(CG T-6, 2/8/65)(S)(W)

During February, 1965, the civil rights organization Act is scheduled to hold several fund raising rallies in Chicago, Illinois. The object of these rallies will be to help raise funds and to stir up interest in the area for the Act. RAM members in Chicago were urged to support these rallies.

CG T-6, 1/29/65(W)

The South Side membership of RAM in the Chicago area during February, 1965, was concerned with the arrests in New York of the individuals who supposedly were planning to blow up the Statue of Liberty and other national monuments. This concern arose out of the fact that one of the individuals arrested was known to have been involved in RAM the previous fall. These South Side RAM members were concerned for their personal welfare because it was believed that the New York disclosure would bring heat to RAM people everywhere. Because of this incident the South Side RAM members of Chicago adopted additional security measures such as not utilizing telephonic communication or personal contact until it could be determined what, if anything, was going to happen as a result of the New York affair.

It was believed possible that some individuals within the RAM leadership might be next on the list and RAM Chairman in Cleveland, Ohio, DON FREEMAN, was being guarded by RAM members in that situation. On January 10, 1965, a meeting of the CBSWP was held at 302 South Canal Street, Chicago, Illinois. During the educational part of this meeting reports were given on a recent convention of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). JOEL BRITTON, who attended this meeting, gave a summary of the Negro resolution report at the convention. BRITTON said that in reporting on this resolution highlights were given of the work being done by the YSA in CORE, SNCC and the NAACP. (4)

BRITTON further reported that SNCC is trying to get people to register to vote in the South and that the YSA has been able to recruit some people from CORE, SNCC and NAACP into the YSA. (4)

[(CG T-10, 1/11/65)] (4)

Concerning the aforementioned YSA Convention, it is to be noted that the YSA 4th National Convention was held in Chicago, Illinois, on January 1, 2 and 3, 1965. As part of the Saturday, January 2, 1965, session, an agenda was presented for this session, wherein a report on the majority Negro resolution as well as a report on the minority Negro resolution was given. The report on the majority Negro resolution was presented by JOEL BRITTON who said that the YSA would adopt the same attitude toward the Negro struggle as in the past year. That is, Negro civil rights groups would continue to be supported and Negroes would still be sought for membership in the YSA because Negroes are at the present the militant people and they will be foremost in the working class movement which will eventually aid in hastening the resolution. (4)

BRITTON noted in his report, however, that there was one difference for this year as opposed to previously, and that is that the YSA would stress the support of Black Nationalist groups because these groups are the most militant portion of the Negro people.

On March 8, 1965, SNCC held a demonstration at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. This demonstration was in sympathy with the voter's registration drive in Selma, Alabama and was held between 2:30 p.m., and 4:00 p.m.

The SNCC group conducting this demonstration consisted of approximately seven persons, including MONROE SHARPE, NATE JACKSON, EARLESS ROSS, CAROL REDMOND, DENNIS SCHREIBER and TED PEARSON. Also observed in front of the Federal Building but not participating in the demonstration as such was PIETER CLARK.

The aforementioned group carried placards reading as follows:

"Peace in America"
"Marines to Selma, Alabama"
"Let's Stop and Bring Peace to Selma"
"Why Viet Nam and Not Selma"

The demonstration was orderly and there were no incidents. Half of the demonstrators were white and the remainder were Negro.

Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

On March 9, 1965, a group of individuals led by the Reverend CARL FUQUA, an official of the NAACP, staged a picket-demonstration in front of the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, beginning at 12 noon. By 12:10 p.m., a total of 175 persons carrying signs identifying themselves with the NAACP and the Catholic Interracial Council, circulated the Federal Building and marched in this manner until approximately 3:30 p.m. While this particular group marched, the demonstration was orderly and without incident. Among the persons observed participating in the activity were the following:

RUSSELL ~~LASLEY~~ ILL.
CHARLES FISCHER
ELSIE ~~SCHOMER~~ ILL.
ARLENE WARD BRIGHAM
ROSALYN DEAN
DENNIS SCHREIBER
Rev. ARCHIBALD ~~CAREY~~ ILL.

The CORE and SNCC individuals conducted an orderly demonstration at the Federal Building until approximately 4:30 p.m., when approximately 53 individuals of the original group departed the Federal Building and walked east on Adams Street to State Street. It appeared that the demonstration was over; however, at 4:35 p.m., it was learned that members of SNCC and CORE after arriving at Adams and State Street decided to continue their demonstration at Madison and State Street, Chicago.

ILL. Under the direction of CHARLES SMITH, CARL FARRIS and NATE JACKSON, a sit-down demonstration took place in the middle of State and Madison Streets and this sit-down included approximately fifteen persons, including CAROL REDMOND, TERI APECILLI, JAY LITVIN and RALPH RAPPAPORT. This group was the first group to sit down in the middle of the street and the intersection of State and Madison and blocked traffic in all directions momentarily. This group was eventually moved to the Southwest side of the intersection still on the street and blocked Westbound traffic.

A police call for additional police assistance was then issued and additional police responded and when the first number of those seated in the street were removed a second group took up position sitting on the Northwest side of the intersection blocking Northbound traffic. In this second group were RONALD WOODARD, MONROE SHARPE, KARL MEYER, TOM BOHANAN, GENE JONES and approximately eight others.

At this point of the sit-down demonstration NATE JACKSON was observed to enter a Walgreens Drugstore on the Northwest corner of State and Madison and make several phone calls. One of these calls was overheard with JACKSON requesting help immediately at this location. JACKSON was heard to tell the recipient of the call that "Hell broke loose out here and we need more people to put this over."

While the demonstration was at its height, EDWARD HEISLER, a self-styled reporter for the "Militant", the official organ for the Socialist Workers Party, walked back and forth from group to group advising them how to act. His manner was surly and arrogant and he deliberately baited the police officers. At one point HEISLER was asked by a uniformed police officer to stay out of the street and when he refused to obey this request and deliberately set out to agitate and irritate the officer, he was again requested to remove himself from the street. HEISLER then blocked pedestrians who were trying to cross the street and at this point HEISLER brushed against the outstretched arms of one of the police officers and HEISLER quickly shouted "Keep your hands off me or I'll ..." The officer then moved toward HEISLER and HEISLER raised his hands in an offensive manner with fists doubled and pushed the officer. The officer was then struck at by HEISLER and several blows were exchanged between HEISLER and the police officers. The police then moved in and subdued HEISLER and placed him in a police wagon. HEISLER while being taken to the wagon continued to punch and kick the officers who were assisting in his arrest.

The location at Madison and State was finally cleared of demonstrators at 5:00 p.m. All of those arrested were transferred to the Chicago Police First District where they were booked and charged with violation of City Ordinances 193-1-4, 11-33 (Damage to City Property) and 193-1-5 (Resisting Arrest).

D. PICKET - DEMONSTRATION BY STUDENT NON-VIOLENT CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC), LOOP AREA, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS MARCH 12, 1965

On March 12, 1965 Sergeant SAMUEL NOLAN, Human Relations Unit, Chicago Police Department, advised that at 7:00 AM on March 12, 1965 a protest demonstration in sympathy with the Voters Registration Drive being held in Selma, Alabama was organized by SNCC on State Street and in the loop area of Chicago, Illinois. This demonstration was also a sympathy demonstration over the death of Reverend JAMES REEB at Selma, Alabama and continued throughout the morning of March 12, 1965 at various locations on State Street and the Chicago loop area, as well as the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois.

Sergeant NOLAN also advised that at 12:00 Noon, the original SNCC group which originally consisted of approximately 40 demonstrators were joined by some 200 students from Chicago Teachers College North. Sergeant NOLAN stated the demonstration continued to approximately 1:00 PM at the Federal Building when two representatives of the demonstrators presented a petition protesting the Selma situation to United States Attorney EDWARD V. HANRAHAN.

Subsequent to the presentation of the petition to the United States Attorney HANRAHAN, the demonstrators began to dwindle in number, until approximately 4:00 PM, when only 20 picketers remained in front of the Federal Building.

At 4:30 PM, this remaining group was joined by representatives of the University of Illinois, Downtown Campus, as well as students from Northwestern University, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and additional SNCC representatives.

At approximately 5:30 PM, 12 demonstrators consisting of 7 male and 5 female demonstrators, all white, attempted a sit-in in the lobby of the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn.

With the beginning of this attempted sit-in, the building doors of the Federal Building were immediately locked and at approximately 6:15 PM, the sit-in group agreed to leave the Federal Building, after being informed by a United States Marshal that if they would not depart the building they would be arrested and jailed until March 22, 1965.

Also, United States Attorney HANRAHAN spoke to representatives of this group in the building lobby and expressed his concern over the situation at Selma and advised the group he would communicate their opinions to the Attorney General of the United States. This group then agreed to leave the building. The demonstration before the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn, subsequently terminated at approximately 7:00 PM with no additional disorders, incidents, or arrests.

During the course of the aforementioned demonstration before the Federal Building on March 12, 1965 Special Agents of the FBI observed the following individuals participating in the demonstration during the late afternoon:

On March 13, 1965 Officer J. CAMPBELL, Chicago Police Department, advised that at approximately 3:40 PM, March 13, 1965, 40 individuals participated in a demonstration at Mc Cormick Place, Chicago. Officer CAMPBELL stated that these individuals were arrested while conducting this demonstration for failure to obey police orders to refrain from further picketing. Officer CAMPBELL noted that the picketers had entered the Mc Cormick Place Exhibition Hall and engaged in singing and chanting in the vicinity of the State of Alabama Courtesy Booth. Officer CAMPBELL noted that although no attempts of violence had occurred, the Alabama booth had been temporarily closed and order restored.

Officer CAMPBELL noted that following the arrests, a small group of picketers remained at Mc Cormick Place until approximately 4:00 PM, when all left the vicinity. Officer CAMPBELL stated that the persons arrested included 12 men and 14 women and 14 juveniles, and that of the total number arrested, approximately half were of the white race. Officer CAMPBELL stated that the adults arrested would be charged with disorderly conduct and criminal trespass and the juveniles arrested were to be refered to juvenile authorities.

On March 14, 1965 the CP of Illinois held a city-wide CP Press meeting at 333 West North Avenue, Chicago. In discussing this demonstration, DANIEL QUEEN indicated that apparently those contacted had misunderstood as to the location where they were to assemble for this demonstration because his wife's efforts in this regard were completely unsuccessful in that very few people showed up. During the discussion, QUEEN also indicated that the demonstration which was conducted had several organizations represented, but that these organizations acted independently of each other, and there was a complete lack of co-ordination. QUEEN advised that due to this lack of co-ordination, the proposed all-night vigil which was to be held the same evening at the Federal Building had not occurred.

According to Officer ROSIAK, the State of Alabama Courtesy Booth was the target of this CORE demonstration.

Officer ROSIAK further advised that 11 men and 8 women and 4 juveniles were arrested by the Chicago Police Department and charged with disorderly conduct and criminal trespass during the CORE demonstration. Officer ROSIAK stated the arrests occurred when a number of the demonstrators jammed themselves together in the vicinity of the State of Alabama Courtesy Booth and refused to move on orders of the Chicago Police Department Officers present during the demonstration. Officer ROSIAK further stated that during the demonstration approximately 40 individuals participated and that it was terminated at 7:00 PM on March 14, 1965.

On March 14, 1965 Officer CHARLES JONES, 21st District, Chicago Police Department, Chicago, Illinois advised in connection with the demonstration held at Mc Cormick Place on March 14, 1965 the following individuals were arrested:

G. FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH DEMONSTRATION, BUCKINGHAM FOUNTAIN AND FEDERAL BUILDING, 219 SOUTH DEARBORN STREET, MARCH 20, 1965, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

On March 20, 1965, a youth group of the First Unitarian Church, 5650 South Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Illinois held a demonstration and vigil starting at Buckingham Fountain and ending at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn, Chicago. This demonstration was held in the memory of the deceased Unitarian minister, the Reverend JAMES REEB, who had been murdered in Selma, Alabama. This demonstration began at approximately 2:00 PM. at March 20, 1965 and ended at 3:40 PM.

This demonstration consisting of approximately 225 youth assembled at the Buckingham Fountain and then marched to the Federal Building, where the group circled the building for one hour, and held a five minute silent vigil of prayer. Of the number involved , approximately 30 were Negro.

About 10 to 15 adults were observed, active, in connection with this demonstration. One of the adults who was actually in the line of march at Buckingham Fountain was MILT COHEN. Also in the demonstration line up at Buckingham Fountain was JAMES WEST. WEST left the group when they started to march toward the Federal Building, but was observed standing near the marchers as they ended the demonstration at the Federal Building. Among the adults participating in the demonstration at the Federal Building were BEN FFRIEDLANDER and EVA FFRIEDLANDER.

Also observed dropping youths off at Buckingham Fountain from automobiles was CHARLES H. FISCHER and his wife, SYLVIA FISCHER.

Among the picket signs carried by the demonstrators were: "We March To Selma For Justice and Equality","Pass VotingLaws",

March 25, 1965

Chicago Chapter of National Association of Social Workers

Mile Square Federation of Ministers

Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee

W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, Chicago

On March 25, 1965, starting from three different locales, the following organizations participated in a demonstration at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn and in the Loop area of Chicago. This demonstration was in sympathy with the Voters' Registration Drive then being held in Selma, Alabama. The organizations who participated in this demonstration are as follows:

Chicago Chapter of National Association of Social Workers

Mile Square Federation of Ministers

Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, Chicago (DCC)

The sites for the assembly of this demonstration were as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

1. Ashland and Madison Streets, where the DCC delegation assembled.

2. Hoyne and Jackson Streets, where the representatives of the Mile Square Federation of Ministers assembled.

3. 26th and State Streets, where representatives of SNCC assembled.

4. Congress and Michigan Avenue, where the Chicago Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers assembled.

After assembling at their respective locations, the aforementioned groups then marched to the Loop area of Chicago. The Mile Square Federation of Ministers, the SNCC and the DCC delegations marched directly to the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn, where they began to conduct their demonstration. The Chicago Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers having formed at Congress and Michigan Avenue, then marched north on State Street to Madison Street, west on Madison Street to Dearborn Street and south on Dearborn Street to the Federal Building.

At the time the various groups reached the Federal Building, they had the following participants:

Mile Square Federation	Approximately 75 persons
DCC	Fourteen persons
SNCC	Approximately twelve persons
Chicago Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers	Approximately 675 persons

CONFIDENTIAL

Upon arrival at the Federal Building, all the groups circulated the building singing and chanting the popular "freedom songs" and the activity terminated at approximately 5:15 p.m., when the larger number of the participants from each group assembled in the Federal Building plaza where they were addressed by the Rev. EDWARD G. REDDICK, and the demonstration terminated with this activity with a silent prayer.

ILL.

During the course of this demonstration, representatives of the Chicago Area Chapter, National Association of Social Workers requested that a delegation from this group be permitted to meet with EDWARD V. HANRAHAN, United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois, in order to explain to HANRAHAN the group's interests in the voters' rights and other measures taken to protect the people of Alabama.

Upon being admitted to the building, this delegation met with Mr. JOSEPH N. TIERNEY, United States Marshal, to whom they explained their desire for an appointment with Mr. HANRAHAN. During their discussion with Mr. TIERNEY, this group also indicated that some of their delegation had also been assigned to visit the offices of Senator DIRKSEN and Senator DOUGLAS with the same type of resolution concerning voters' rights, etc., for the people of Alabama, which they desired to present to Mr. HANRAHAN. Mr. TIERNEY acceded to the request of these individuals, however, having once admitted the delegations, Mr. TIERNEY instructed that the doors of the Federal Building be closed to the public and that no more individuals be admitted.

As indicated, the overall activity relative to the demonstration terminated at 5:15 p.m. without incident.

During the course of this demonstration, the following individuals were observed participating in the demonstration:

DOROTHY M. HAYES

I. Marches Protesting Voter Discrimination, Selma-Montgomery, Alabama March, 1965

On March 22, 1965, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting in Chicago, Illinois. During the discussion at this State Board meeting it was indicated the CP of Illinois had no representation at the voter discrimination demonstrations being held in Selma, Alabama, in connection with the Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING's Voter Registration Drive. (C) (U)

Those in attendance at this CP of Illinois State Board meeting discussed this question of the lack of CP representation in Selma and it was decided that TED PEARSON, a CP of Illinois youth leader who was also in attendance at this meeting, would leave for Selma, Alabama, that week to represent the CP of Illinois' interests. (C) (U)

[(CG T-1, [3/23/65)] (C) (U)

On March 25, 1965, JAMES WEST, CP of Illinois Organizational Secretary, indicated that TED PEARSON had not gone to Selma, Alabama, because PEARSON could not get plane reservations. (C) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to the interview of TERMAN, TERMAN reported that he had been in Alabama during the civil rights march between Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, and was there at the time Mrs. VIOLA LIUZZO, the Detroit, Michigan housewife, was slain. According to TERMAN, he had been on the same Highway 80 on the Wednesday when Mrs. LIUZZO was slain and he reported that he had been chased by four men in a car; that he had escaped these unidentified individuals by driving 90 to 100 miles per hour and gaining refuge in a hamburger stand.

According to the article, TERMAN stated that at the time he was chased he was driving a secretary of MARTIN LUTHER KING, and prior to the incident had participated in the demonstrations being held in Alabama and was, like Mrs. LIUZZO, one of several individuals who drove demonstrators between Montgomery and Selma, Alabama.

The article in question further identified MANDEL TERMAN as an individual who had refused to testify before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee relative to allegations that he had been a member of the CP.

On March 29, 1965, it was learned that MANDEL TERMAN had been in Selma, Alabama at the time Mrs. VIOLA LIUZZO was slain and had been in that State for approximately four days at the time of the incident. TERMAN stated in connection with his trip to Selma, Alabama, that he was in great fear of his life while in the State inasmuch as he had been in charge of transportation between Selma and Montgomery, Alabama. Concerning "The Militant," it is to be noted that this newspaper is the weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party.

Also appended hereto are characterizations of the Chicago Branch Socialist Workers Party and the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

On April 7, 1965, the Chicago Chapter of the Medical Committee for Human Rights sponsored an "Alabama Report Meeting" at the Center for Continuing Education, 1307 East 60th Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Approximately 35 persons attended this meeting of whom about nine were of the Negro race. This meeting was held to hear a firsthand report from four Chicago doctors of the sponsoring committee who had participated in a committee delegation during the Selma, Alabama Voter Registration Drive. The speakers for this program were Doctor MARK LEPPER, BETTE JOHNSON, HELEN KETTERER, Doctor RUTH LERNER, IRENE TURNER and Doctor YOUNG.

Each speaker was allotted a five to seven minute period to relate their experiences as a participant in the Selma to Montgomery, Alabama march led by Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING. It was stated that the Chicago Chapter Medical Committee for Human Rights was originated during the march where many members of the medical profession volunteered their services in assisting the local doctors in the so-called line casualty cases. Also during the presentation a list of the classifications of medical personnel that had offered their services was read by BETTE JOHNSON.

She also stated that the enthusiasm and dedication expressed by these people of the medical profession was indescribable.

Also during the speaking portion of the program each speaker brought out the fact that they were enveloped in fear and terror during their stay in Selma, Alabama. They said that the hatred and wrath that was displayed by the local white citizenry for the marchers was beyond description -- the worst of this show of hatred came from the women. It was also stated that in addition to public hatred, the roped off area leading out of Selma was surrounded by federal troops, state troopers and other local law enforcement agencies and could be likened to a concentration camp.

This program was moderated by Doctor ARTHUR G. FALLS.

Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

On April 13, 1965, beginning at 9:45 p.m., a demonstration was held at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, under the auspices of CORE. This demonstration was held to alert passerbys to the happenings in Selma, Alabama, and in the South in general and to ask intervention of federal police to prevent a reoccurrence of the events that had taken place in Selma, Alabama, and in Louisiana in recent months.

Approximately 40 persons carrying placards and lighted candles participated in this demonstration. This group walked back and forth in front of the Federal Building chanting and shouting, "We will overcome." Subsequently, the original 40 individuals were joined by 25 individuals and subsequently by an additional 30 individuals.

During the actual demonstration a maximum of 55 persons took part in the picket line which walked in front of the entrance of the Federal Building and the remainder of the group stood around in groups of from five to fifteen persons discussing this and other activity.

At approximately 11:15 p.m. the group was called together and CHARLES SMITH of CORE thanked the group for attending the demonstration and he also commented on the conditions existing in Selma, Alabama, and compared these conditions with prevailing conditions in Chicago, Illinois. There were no incidents resulting from this demonstration, however, several individuals who represented themselves as being from the Young Socialist Alliance

CHARLES A. DAVIS

CHARLES A. DAVIS, Secretary, Chicago Branch, NAACP, has one of the most powerful positions in the Chicago Branch, NAACP, and as such would be in a position to influence the NAACP and its members, should he so desire. DAVIS was at one time a member of the CP, but is now definitely a staunch anti-communist.

(ROBERT HYMER, 10/2/64)

ETHEL CORKEY DOSTAL

On October 8, 1959, ETHEL DOSTAL, [redacted] advised SAs JOSEPH R. SHEA and CARYL E. SHUPE that she was a member of the Young Communist League (YCL) in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota area for some ten months in the years 1936-37. She stated she was subsequently expelled from the YCL because she asked too many questions and encouraged others to ask questions.

b7C

ETHEL DOSTAL is a member of the Executive Committee, Chicago Branch, NAACP, and as such has one vote at Executive Committee meetings. She is definitely anti-communist and exerts no influence on the NAACP or its members.

(ROBERT E. HYMER, 10/20/64)

ROBERT HYMER

ROBERT HYMER testified in behalf of the U. S. Government in the case of the U.S. vs. DANIEL QUEEN before the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) in 1964, that he had been a CP member for a number of years.

HYMER advised in October, 1964, that he was directed by the CP to infiltrate the NAACP, Chicago Branch, during the period of his CP membership and he worked mainly with NAACP youth. HYMER stated that during this period he was frequently criticized by the CP for not working to further the aims of

FRUIT OF ISLAM

On May 8, 1964, a source advised that the Fruit of Islam (FOI) is a group within the Nation of Islam (NOI) composed of male members of the NOI. The purpose of the FOI is to protect officials and property of the NOI, assure compliance of members with NOI teachings, and to prepare for the "War of Armageddon." Members of the FOI are required to participate in military drill and are afforded the opportunity to engage in judo training. The FOI is governed by a military system wherein the members are controlled by general orders similar to those issued by regular military organizations.

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (PYOC), Known in Chicago as Chicago Call for Youth (CALL), formerly the Progressive Youth Clubs of Illinois

On August 13, 1963, a source advised that on August 11, 1963, a group of students and working class youth met at a Chicago hotel to form a city-wide Marxist youth organization which voted to affiliate with the national Progressive Youth Organizing Committee. This new organization adopted the name Chicago Call for Youth.

This source advised on March 2, 1964, that at a meeting of CALL on February 28, 1964, two members of the northwest CP Youth Club, CP of Illinois, were elected to the positions of President and Secretary of the organization. This source advised that prior to January 4, 1964, CALL had maintained a club house at 333 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

On July 28, 1964, a second source advised that CALL had not met since April of 1964 and that while never formally dissolved, was for all intent and purpose now defunct. Furthermore, its former officers and members were concentrating all their efforts in the building of a new similar socialist oriented youth organization.

WOMEN'S PEACE AND UNITY CLUB, Formerly known as the Chicago Women for Peace

The aims and purposes of the Chicago Women for Peace (CWP), as set forth in its self-identified publication "Chicago Acts for Peace" (CAP) May, 1951, issue, describes this organization as a "service center for women working for peace." This publication described the CWP as being affiliated with the American Women for Peace (AWP) and as cooperating with the American Peace Crusade (APC).

The January, 1954, issue of "CAP" announced the dissolution of the AWP and the affiliation of the CWP with the APC Council in Chicago.

A source advised in November, 1956, that the CWP remained affiliated with the APC, Chicago, until the organization dissolved in September, 1955. The CWP continued with no national affiliation until September, 1956, when a "reorganization and name change took place," and it became known as the "Women's Peace and Unity Club" (WPUC). The reason given for this "reorganization and name change" was that the CWP had been formed to end the Korean War, and since that war was over and there was a "measure of peace in the world," women's interests were more centered on such issues as civil rights, desegregated and better schools, juvenile delinquency, equal opportunities, housing and cost of living. Source advised that the only actual "reorganization" of the CWP was the change of its name to WPUC.

A second source advised in October, 1956, that the Communist Party (CP), Illinois-Indiana District, had ordered the dissolution of the CWP because it no longer served the purpose of the Party since it was a "left-wing" peace group. Though the CWP refused to dissolve and chose to continue in the form of the WPUC, it continues to be a "communist front organization" whose policies and activities are directed by CP members.

A third source advised on May 15, 1964, that the WPUC, as of that date, continued to operate in the Chicago area as a peace organization under the direction and control of CP members and its objectives continued to be the same.

The AWP and APC have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DETAILS:

AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

[SA T-5 (3/12/65)]

At a Communist Party (CP) club meeting held on March 11, 1965, one of the members reported that he and his wife were active in PTA and in the forthcoming school board election near their home. JOHN STANFORD suggested to that member that he have his wife get petitions signed by the PTA to help the the civil rights movement in Selma, Alabama. STANFORD also made a passing remark about the fact that two Catholic priests from San Antonio were in the forefront of the fight for civil rights at Selma.

JOHN W. STANFORD

[SA T-1 (3/30/65)]

Mrs JOHN W. STANFORD

Source advised that JOHN STANFORD continues as the main Communist Party leader in San Antonio. He has been a CP member and leader in San Antonio from at least July, 1957, to the present time. He continues his efforts to strengthen the CP in this area. STANFORD has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the CP of Texas from at least July, 1957. He has been Executive Secretary of the CP of Texas from at least February, 1958. In January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished; however, it was agreed that the committee and its officers would continue to function, and STANFORD has continued to do so to the present time.

A/A

[SA T-3 (1/7/60)]

Source advised that on that date JAMES E. JACKSON, Secretary of Negro and Southern Affairs, CP, USA, identified JOHN STANFORD as a member of the

SA T-5 (3/25/65) LILLIAN S. TAYLOR

At a CP club meeting held on March 25, 1965, one of the members present stated that he had called on a son of LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR to make arrangements to discuss the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) with him. The member stated that while talking to LILLIAN's son, LILLIAN came on the telephone and started telling the member how DCA should be formed. According to the member, LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR stated that the member should get active again in the Congress of Racial Equality.

The member indicated to JOHN STANFORD, who was present at this meeting, that he, the member, thought DCA was more important than CORE at this time. STANFORD agreed, but stated that "we" have to work with "these people" since it is very important that "we" do all we can to see that Reverend CLAUDE BLACK is elected to the post of City Councilman which he is running for at the present time in San Antonio, Texas.

SA T-2 (8/15/42)

On July 27, 1942, at a Communist Party City Committee meeting held in San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, nee SUTTON, commented that she and her husband had been members of the CP for years. She said she attended a CP State Conference in Houston in July, 1942, and wanted to report on same. She said she was a member of the CP State Board. She said she attended these State CP conferences each month and paid her own expenses.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. DEMONSTRATION, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, MARCH 14, 1965

On March 14, 1965, the following was observed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in San Antonio, Texas:

At approximately 1:35 p.m. the San Antonio Branch of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) led a group composed of Negroes and whites in a parade from the City Hall in San Antonio to the Alamo. The group carried a floral piece which had a banner across the front which read, "Heroes of Freedom." They also carried placards which read as follows: "One Nation - One People"; "Stop the War in Alabama"; "Negroes are Americans - Let Them Vote."

The San Antonio Branch of CORE was led by DONALD WATKINS who is the temporary chairman of CORE in San Antonio, and he was accompanied in the front line by G. J. SUTTON; Father SHERRILL SMITH, and Father LAWRENCE MURTAUGH, Catholic Priests stationed in San Antonio who participated in the recent Selma, Alabama, attempted protest marches on March 8 and 9, 1965; Father JOHN WAGNER, Executive Secretary of San Antonio's Bishop's Committee for the Spanish Speaking; MAURY MAVERICK, JR., local attorney affiliated with the American Civil Liberties Union. Also in the parade were JOHN W. STANFORD, JR., and LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR.

SA T-2 (6/22/42)

Source advised on June 22, 1942, that G. J. SUTTON was present at a Communist Party, District 20, meeting during which meeting SUTTON was elected CP Organizer for the Negroes in San Antonio, and SUTTON reported having recruited three new members. At this meeting SUTTON was also elected a member of the City (San Antonio) Committee of the Communist Party.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

SA T-1 (10/27/64)

Source advised on that date that SUTTON is not a Communist Party member, to Source's knowledge.

Upon the group's arrival at the Alamo they were greeted by approximately 75 members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) headed by its President, RICHARD L. DOCKERY. During the course of the demonstration, DOCKERY acted as master of ceremonies. Speakers were Father SMITH and Father MURTAUGH who praised the work of the civil rights leaders in Selma, Alabama, and both Priests demanded Federal intervention in Selma and legislation to protect the Negroes' civil rights in connection with their voting privileges.

The closing memorial tribute was given by the Reverend WILLIAM DE WOLFE, Pastor of the First Unitarian Church of San Antonio. DE WOLFE referred to the Reverend JAMES J. REEB as "a martyr who died so that others may have the essential dignity of human beings."

On March 14, 1965, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation took photographs of various persons at the above-mentioned demonstration.

On March 22, 1965, several of these photographs were shown to SA T-1 who identified the following individuals as appearing therein:

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN W. STANFORD
G. J. SUTTON
WILLIAM and ELIZABETH KYTLE.

SA T-1 tentatively identified one of the individuals appearing in one of the photographs as JAMES SAGER.

From statements made and literature read (National Guardian and The Worker) by WILLIAM and ELIZABETH LYTLE, informant believes they are both communist sympathizers; however, Informant has no knowledge of them being members of the CP.

The Worker is an east coast communist newspaper.

"Established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a 'progressive' weekly. ....Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia."
(Committee on Un-American Activities Report, "Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the ROSENBERGS and MORTON SOBELL," August 25, 1956, p. 12.)

SA T-1 (4/25/63)

TEXAS

MRS JAMES SAGER

Source advised that JAMES SAGER, husband of MANUELA SAGER, was known to Informant to be a member of the CP in San Antonio from 1954 to the present time, during which at various times he has held local leadership positions in the Party.

On March 16, 1965, SA T-1 advised that on March 13, 1965, it was learned that on that date JOHN STANFORD telephoned the residence of a Communist Party member in San Antonio and said that he wanted to see that person at the demonstration to be held on Sunday in downtown San Antonio. This was the demonstration by the San Antonio Branch of CORE and others in memory of the death of a white minister in Selma, Alabama, recently.

According to SA T-1, Father SHERRILL SMITH, Father MURTAUGH, and G. J. SUTTON were among those observed at the demonstration on March 14, 1965. They appeared to be among those leading the demonstration. There appeared to be more than 200 people there.

On March 17, 1965, SA T-5 advised that on March 16, 1965, JOHN STANFORD said he had tried to contact a Communist Party member on the evening of March 13, 1965, to remind that person about the demonstration that was taking place on March 14, 1965, for the Unitarian minister who was killed in Selma, Alabama. This demonstration was to take place at the Alamo in downtown San Antonio. STANFORD apologized for waiting so late to call that Communist Party member to remind him of this, stating that he should have called earlier.

STANFORD was very enthusiastic regarding the demonstration which was held at the Alamo on March 14, 1965, and stated that everyone who saw him and talked to him was very nice to him. STANFORD stated that with all the publicity he received as having been at the demonstration, he received only one bad report and that was from the woman who telephoned him and told him that he was doing more harm to the civil rights movement by being at a demonstration than he was doing good.

In speaking about the demonstration, STANFORD was extremely happy that so many students from St. Mary's University took part in the demonstration. He was also glad to see so many Catholic nuns now involved in the struggle for civil rights.

STANFORD mentioned that more and more people are getting involved in the civil rights movement. He stated that even his 87-year old mother-in-law who is living in Alabama took part in a demonstration recently.

On March 26, 1965, SA T-1 advised that although JOHN STANFORD urged attendance at the CORE demonstration of March 14, 1965, in San Antonio, it is not believed the Communist Party had any influence in, or control of, the demonstration.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

San Antonio Branch of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

SA T-5 (3/18/65)

On March 18, 1965, a CP member telephoned a son of LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR and discussed DCA.

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR got on the telephone and suggested that the CP member come to their Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) meeting where they probably could get other candidates for DCA. She also stated that everybody must get together and get behind Reverend CLAUDE BLACK who is running for a position on the San Antonio City Council.

The February 12, 1965, edition of the San Antonio Light, a daily newspaper in San Antonio, contained an article reflecting that Reverend C. WILLIAM BLACK, Negro Minister of the Mount Zion First Baptist Church, filed for a place on the San Antonio City Council.

ALFRED DWIGHT AMOS FEATHERSTON is "ready to prove that the justice of the U. S. is nothing but a mockery." FEATHERSTON stated that he plans to prove this when he receives a "jury trial" on January 22, 1965, as a result of his "illegal arrest" by the San Antonio Police Department. FEATHERSTON stated that he will be represented by a Negro attorney, HATTIE BRISCO, and he has been assured backing by the San Antonio Branch of CORE and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in San Antonio. FEATHERSTON stated that members of both groups will be present in the courtroom to demonstrate if a fair decision is not reached by the court. FEATHERSTON also alleged that RICHARD A. McDONALD, Minister of the Nation of Islam (NOI) in San Antonio, has also offered support.

A characterization of the Nation of Islam is contained in the appendix hereto.

SA T-7 (1/19/65)

On January 19, 1965, FEATHERSTON stated that "a few days ago" he received some advice regarding his constitutional rights from an outstanding defender of the Federal Constitution, JOHN STANFORD.

FEATHERSTON stated that it appears that the Supreme Court is really on the right track to afford the U. S. a chance at a real democracy since they recently declared the search of STANFORD's home as illegal.

On April 24, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised SA T-7 that he received a communication from MOISE TSHOMBE, dethroned Republic of the Congo leader, who sent FEATHERSTON "a nice piece of change." FEATHERSTON stated that he was considering joining TSHOMBE in Madrid, Spain.

On April 28, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised HENRY S. CARR, employee of San Antonio Express and News Publishing Company, that he had worked out of the Yucatan Peninsula for a time, getting supplies to FIDEL CASTRO while CASTRO was leading a guerrilla war against the Cuban Government and continued to assist CASTRO until CASTRO took over Cuba. FEATHERSTON told CARR he is a great admirer of CASTRO.

On May 11, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised SA T-7 that he was anxious to get explosives which come in wax and plastic form. He explained his knowledge of the use of this type of explosive.

G. J. SUTTON was one of the three invited guest speakers who addressed a group of St. Mary's University graduate students on the night of April 14, 1965, at a graduate seminar meeting at the home of Dr. BILL CRANE, Chairman of the Department of Government, St. Mary's University. SUTTON and the other two guests had been requested by Dr. CRANE to attend the graduate seminar meeting in state politics.

On being accused by one of the other guest speakers of not actively supporting Reverend CLAUDE BLACK over Good Government League candidate, Reverend S. H. JAMES, in the recent City election, SUTTON stated that he "personally declined to go on television for BLACK because in a Negro vs. Negro campaign" he "felt the Negro community in San Antonio could be divided in its minority voting potential." SUTTON indicated that by his stand on this matter the solidarity of the Negro community in San Antonio was preserved and that even by not appearing before the public on television, he was successful in rallying approximately 82 per cent of the East San Antonio Negro vote for the Reverend BLACK. SUTTON further commented that he fully realized that "the victor, Reverend JAMES, was merely a political pawn of incumbent Mayor WALTER McALLISTER."

When asked to comment on the racial issue and its possible implications in San Antonio, SUTTON replied that he "would like to see another Selma in San Antonio." He stated that "in San Antonio the Negro community is given 'just enough' of its duly constituted political, social, and moral rights to placate it." SUTTON opined that "the Negro in San Antonio is seriously suppressed in his job and wage opportunities and shares a similar status with his latino counterpart." SUTTON further advised that "the best interests of the Negro community in San Antonio could not be served by token enforcement of the Public Accommodations Act or voluntary desegregation. It would take a situation similar to Selma to arouse the Negro community to seek their equality of opportunity under the United States Constitution."

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

In his closing remarks SUTTON stated that "civil rights legislation as we know it today owes its origin to the Populist Movement of the 1930's. Equality of opportunity for the Negro can only be achieved in this country through an active civil rights movement similar to that sparked in Selma, Alabama. Violence only serves to rededicate the Negro to his struggle for equal rights."

on April 4, 1965, for the purpose of contacting MOSES RIDDICK of the Peanut Workers Union in Suffolk, Va.

NF T-1 did not know if MEYERS did contact RIDDICK or for what purpose MEYERS desired to contact RIDDICK.

MOSES RIDDICK

The "Suffolk News Herald," a newspaper of general circulation published in Suffolk, Virginia, dated April 12, 1965, identified MOSES A. RIDDICK as the newly elected Executive Secretary of the Independent Voters League of Suffolk, Virginia. RIDDICK was also identified as a member of the Nansemond (Virginia) County Board of Supervisors.

GEORGE A. MEYERS

On December 13, 1959, NF T-2 advised that GEORGE MEYERS was elected to the National Committee of the CP, USA, at the 17th National Convention held December 10 - 13, 1959.

On June 15, 1964, NF T-3 identified GEORGE MEYERS as a member of the CP, USA National Committee and Chairman of the CP District which includes Maryland, Washington, D.C., Virginia, and North Carolina.

I. - COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP)

1) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries

A meeting to hear HERBERT APTHEKER speak on "Negro History - What It Means Today" was held on February 20, 1965, at the Central Methodist Church located on Woodward Avenue at Grand Circus Park, Detroit. This meeting was held under the auspices of the William Mc Kie Memorial Library and Educational Center (WMMLEC).

HERBERT KRANSDORF opened the meeting, and introduced GEORGE CROCKETT, who in turn introduced HERBERT APTHEKER.

APTHEKER stated that the Negro Movement today is a true revolution and not a reform as some writers claim. He said the Negro Movement is a completion of the Revolutionary War and the Civil War; that the Revolutionary War started the Negro Movement, but did not go far enough with its freedom and left the Negroes in slavery; that the Civil War then tried to complete the Revolutionary War by freeing the slaves, but did not give the slaves civil rights; that the present Negro Revolution is the next step and will be followed by the Complete Social Revolution which will establish Socialism; and that then the Negro Revolution will truly be finished.

DE T-1
March 1, 1965

A characterization of the WMMLEC is contained in the appendix hereto.

A meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA, was held on March 20 and 21, 1965, in the Woodstock Hotel, in Manhattan, New York. THOMAS DENNIS from Detroit, Michigan, was present at this meeting.

The main report was given by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, who stated that the tremendous significance in developments in Selma, Alabama, puts the United States at the brink of a new reconstruction era; which, if successful, could mark the end of Dixiecrat control in the South, and would mean more than any previous political struggle in terms of political progress.

CONFIDENTIAL

LIGHTFOOT also stated that the Party can no longer work like it did in the old days, but must work with existing organizations and develop initiatives that can spur the entire civil rights movement. He noted that there is particularly a void in the Negro community, and added that civil rights organizations just do not penetrate into the "ghetto".

LIGHTFOOT proposed that "we" must strengthen our Party's role in the South, and that there be established in each District three-man committees whose sole responsibility will be to develop solidarity actions with the South.

THOMAS DENNIS gave a report on civil rights demonstrations held in Detroit, and then mentioned the necessity for concentration on organizing Negro workers. DENNIS indicated that the role of the Party must be more than just analyzing events, and that individual Party members must commit themselves to the day-to-day activity of the civil rights movement.

[DE T-2
March 23 and 24, 1965]

2) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank-and-file members

A meeting under the auspices of the WMMLEC was held on January 29, 1965, at the Armenian Hall on 12th Street and Davison, Detroit. The purpose of this meeting was to hear talks on civil rights matters and the experiences of individuals who had participated in civil rights activities in the State of Mississippi. HERBERT KRANSDORF was the Chairman of this affair.

At a meeting of the Polish-Bulgarian CP Club, Michigan District Communist Party (MDCP), held on February 4, 1965, at

A characterization of "Glos Ludowy" is contained in the appendix hereto.

Attended
A meeting of "The Volunteers" was held on February 4, 1965, at the residence of WILLIAM ALLAN, 13960 Tuller Street, Detroit. ALLAN stated that the recent arrest of thousands of Negro youngsters in Selma, Alabama, caused President JOHNSON* to call a press conference to try and clarify the government's position on the Negro voting question and promise that the Congress would pass legislation to remedy the situation in the South where Negroes are not permitted to register and to vote. [Member of M.D.C.P. Club leadership Council]

WILLIAM ALLAN said protests must be made and added that President JOHNSON* would only act in this field if forced to do so by pressure from the people.

[DE T-4

A characterization of "The Volunteers" is contained in the appendix hereto.

A meeting to raise funds for the Congress of Racial Equality* (CORE) was held on February 6, 1965, at the residence of MARGE and AL FISHMAN, [redacted] Detroit.

[DE T-1
February 9, 1965]

A meeting of the Trade Union Discussion Group (TUDG) of the MDCP was held on February 19, 1965, at 21476 Audrey Street, Warren, Michigan. LARRY DAVIS reviewed a plan of action handed down from the State Committee of the MDCP to the various Clubs in the Michigan District. This plan included the election of a Negro, attorney GEORGE CROCKETT, to the Common Council of the City of Detroit, and implementation of the Party's activity among the Negro people.

[DE T-4
February 26, 1965]

CONFIDENTIAL

At a meeting of the Polish-Bulgarian CP Club, MDCP, held on March 18, 1965, at 5854 Chene Street, Detroit, CONRAD KOMOROWSKI stated that presently there is a lot of discussion within the Party about the Party's stand toward the civil rights fight. He said everyone participates in the civil rights movement as it is very fashionable to do so.

KOMOROWSKI also stated that the CP is doing a magnificent job down South, and that the CP has people high up in the command of the movement around Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING*. KOMOROWSKI added that here in the North, the role of the CP is very marginal, and that here the CP is participating instead of leading.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

1) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at National meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries

At a Plenum of the National SWP held on January 29 - 31, 1965, at 116 University Place, New York City, New York, ROBERT HIMMEL of the Detroit Branch SWP (DBSWP), stated that "we" overestimated the potential of the Freedom Now Party (FNP). He said the FNP has not been able to provide an effective party; that Reverend ALBERT CLEAGE, a leader in the FNP, has withdrawn from the FNP; and that there are about 15 people in the FNP in Detroit, Michigan.

A meeting sponsored by the Friday Night Socialist Forum (FNSF) was held on March 5, 1965, at 3737 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. GEORGE BREITMAN gave a speech on MALCOLM X, stating that the Negro struggle was dealt a severe blow when MALCOLM X was assassinated.

GEORGE BREITMAN also stated that there are only three ways in which the Negro will gain his freedom, and they are:

1. By waiting and letting time take its own course
2. By the capitalist president such as JOHNSON* giving a little now and less later
3. By toppling the power structure and bring about complete freedom to a socialist form of government

Committee to Protest Conditions in Selma, Alabama*, was formed as a result of this meeting. Also, a march was planned during the early p.m. of March 9, 1965, to the Federal Building, located in downtown Detroit, to protest the racial conditions in Selma, Alabama. It was further decided at this meeting that the group, during the march, would have representatives contact the United States Attorney's office in the Federal Building at Detroit, Michigan, to convey their feelings on the Selma situation to the President of the United States.

In addition, the Ad Hoc Committee decided to send a wire to President JOHNSON* protesting the conditions in Selma, Alabama, and planned to send delegates to Selma, Alabama, to show the people of Alabama that Detroit citizens are in sympathy and complete accord with the Negroes in Alabama.

The committee also indicated that a delegate would be sent to Washington, D. C., to join other delegates from various cities throughout the United States to participate in a 24 hour picketing line vigilance around the White House to call attention to President JOHNSON* of the conditions in Selma, Alabama.

On March 9, 1965, shortly before 1:00 PM, participants in this demonstration gathered in the downtown Detroit area in the immediate vicinity of the Central Methodist Church , Grand Circus Park, Detroit, Michigan. The crowd, estimated from 2,000 to 2,500, was addressed at this location by Detroit Mayor JEROME CAVANAGH, Michigan Governor GEORGE ROMNEY* and Parade Marshal Reverend ROBERT HOPPE*, a staff member of the Detroit Council of Churches. The aforementioned speakers voiced their protest concerning the racial situation in Selma, Alabama.

SHAPIRO did the talking with CHANDLER's concurrence and he began by stating that he could not actually speak for the group which was a "spontaneous thing" not sponsored by SNCC or any organization but was a group of WSU students who had developed the idea with the purpose of stressing the situation in Selma, Alabama. He said this idea was developed on this date over cups of coffee at the WSU campus and while the group was proceeding from Mac Kenzie to the Administration Building a number of the individuals in the group decided to proceed to the Detroit Police Department, 13th Precinct, and thereafter to proceed to the Federal Building and to the area of the Detroit Office of the FBI. Mr. SHAPIRO stated he desired to make the following demands:

1. Arrest Dallas County, Alabama Sheriff JIM CLARK* under the United States Code believed by SHAPIRO to be Title 18, Section 252

2. Protect people while demonstrating and exercizing their right to peaceful assembly under Federal law

3. Strict enforcement of Federal laws, particularly the laws concerning Civil Rights and voting

4. A large "Federal Presence" should be shown, such as Federal Marshals or troops, in Central, Alabama, to protect the people

5. The passing of a number of pending Federal suits in Central, Alabama, should be accomplished

Mr. SHAPIRO also stated that while some groups such as instant group may be "outside the law" such as in "cluttering up the halls of the Federal Building" he believes this to be insignificant compared to a lack of action being taken by the Federal Government in taking action as outlined in the above demands. In making this statement he specifically mentioned the President of the United States, the United States Attorney General and the FBI.

(C) DEMONSTRATION, WSU CAMPUS, DETROIT AND FEDERAL BUILDING, DETROIT, MARCH 16, 1965

On March 15, 1965, leaflets were distributed at WSU, Detroit, Michigan, indicating that a meeting would be held at 4849 Brooklyn, Detroit, on that date to discuss plans for a sympathy demonstration on behalf of people from all over the United States who have gone to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama. This meeting was sponsored by the University of Michigan* (U of M), Ann Arbor, Michigan, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee* (SNCC), Voice Political Party* and Student Action League*. The demonstration was to begin at 1:30 PM on March 16, 1965.

Student demonstrators from the U of M and WSU began to gather on the WSU campus, Cass Avenue and Putman Street, Detroit, at about 1:15 PM. Students from the U of M had traveled from Ann Arbor by a chartered bus.

At about 2:00 PM approximately 125 students began marching from the WSU campus toward the downtown Detroit area. At 2:30 PM the group stopped enroute at Cass Park, Second and Temple Streets, Detroit. At Cass Park the leaders of the march advised the participants that the demonstrators were going to sit in at the Federal Building and that they would not leave the building even if requested and would have to be dragged from the building.

The demonstrators then proceeded from Cass Park to the Federal Building, Fort Street and Washington Boulevard, Detroit, Mich. where leaders of the group met with Assistant United States Attorney WILLIAM H. MERRILL* in the first floor lobby of the Federal Building. Mr. MERRILL invited the leaders of the demonstration to the eighth floor office of United States Attorney LAWRENCE GUBOW* to discuss their protests. The remainder of the demonstrators then began marching around the Federal Building carrying signs which protested conditions in Alabama. Detroit, Mich

The only persons who would give their names to representatives of the news media were JOSEPH DECKER HARRISON of Ann Arbor and MARK NICHOLAS SHAPIRO of Detroit. All other demonstrators, who were interviewed, refused to give their names and referred the newsmen to the two leaders for information.

No arrests were made in connection with this demonstration.

Lieutenant Norman

Investigations Bureau,
Detroit Police Department
March 16, 1965

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the marchers around the Federal Building and they were singing and chanting "Arrest Jim Clark" and "Freedom". Also observed were some of the signs carried by the pickets, which signs carried slogans such as:

"Enforce the 14th Amendment"

"Which Side Are the Feds On?"

"Out of Vietnam and Into Alabama"

"Johnson Talks--When Will He Act?"

"One Man, One Vote"

"Action Not Condolences"

"Federal Protection for Public Assembly Now"

Nineteen white males, three Negro males, four white females and one Negro female were ejected from the Federal Building by Assistant U. S. Marshals and building guards assisted by Assistant U. S. Attorneys.

Two white male and two white female demonstrators left the building voluntarily.

A leaflet distributed by demonstrators at the Federal Building captioned "We Are Picketing Because?", states as follows:

> "The situation in the South has been made brutally clear by the recent indefensible use of police power ordered by Governor George Wallace* of Alabama against Negroes who were marching peacefully to secure their constitutionally guaranteed right to vote. This action is repulsive to decent Americans and is manifested by numerous protest demonstrations throughout the nation.
> "As reprehensible as the Selma outrage is, its real significance is that it typifies the injustice and brutality which have been used for generations to deny basic human right to Negroes across the South.

"There have been demonstrations in Selma and Montgomery. In spite of Wallace's moratorium they will continue. Over 1,000 Northern students have participated in demonstrations knowing full well that they were risking their lives.

"SNCC has made a general call for Northern Students to converge in Montgomery, Alabama for a demonstration. Those of us remaining in Detroit and Ann Arbor are being asked for a display of support and sympathy for the demonstrators in the South.

"We support President Johnson's proposals governing voter registration which include a simple, uniform standard for registration, and Federal registrars in case of blatant discrimination. In addition, federal protection must be guaranteed in the event of interference with demonstrations or voter registration processes by local residents.

"WE DEMAND IMMEDIATE ACTION

"The Constitution assures the right of peaceful assembly. This right is being denied to both Negroes attempting to register and to the students who staged yesterday's sit-in in Montgomery. President Johnson has the duty to secure for all citizens their constitutional rights. We need action before more blood is shed--not mere words."

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
DETROIT BRANCH

CONFIDENTIAL

On November 7, 1960, a source reported that ED SHAW, Detroit Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) member was Detroit Branch SWP representative of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), and was in the process of establishing the Detroit Chapter of the FPCC, the national office of which is in New York City.

On January 29, 1961, the "Detroit News" published an article stating that the Detroit Branch of the FPCC had been organized in Detroit with an office at the residence of ED SHAW, 1057 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, and that an Executive Board had been elected with ED SHAW named the Chairman of the Board.

According to the article, the Detroit Branch, FPCC, was affiliated with the national organization and listed among its purposes "general efforts to create a better understanding between the peoples of the United States and Cuba". The article further stated that public meetings and discussions on Cuban-American relations were planned by the group in a "forceful and dynamic program to bring the truth about Cuba to the people of Michigan".

A second source on October 17, 1961, advised that activities of the Detroit Chapter, FPCC, had slowed down considerably and that during the summer and early fall very few activities were sponsored by this group.

This source further reported on June 22, 1962, that the FPCC activitdes in Detroit, Michigan, were at a standstill and that there were no plans for future activities.

The first source advised on October 4, 1962, that EDWARD SHAW was scheduled to leave Michigan on October 8 or 9, 1962, for Mountain Spring Camp in Washington, New Jersey, where he was to be an instructor for the next session of the Trotsky School.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator Dodd was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin Lee H. Oswald.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V.T. Lee had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

A. Communist Party, USA (CPUSA)

No information developed.

B. Progressive Labor Movement (PLM)

The Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On January 27, 1965, MM T-1 advised that the Miami Chapter of the PLM does not have a headquarters; however, plans were being made to use the home of MELVIN YOUNG as temporary headquarters. It was believed that because YOUNG is a Negro and his residence is located in a Negro area, it would make it easier to recruit other Negroes into the PLM.

On February 4, 1965, MM T-2 advised that JOHN FREEMAN, Chairman of the PLM in Miami, has hopes that Negroes will join the Southern Defense Union of the PLM. He wants the Negroes to form a hard-core group of PLM members. If such a group is formed, he will name it the "Black Vigilantes". He believes the PLM has potential in Miami, because so many Negroes reside here.

In addition, FREEMAN has said that Negroes could be used by the PLM for underground work, because they very seldom "rat" on each other. They have learned to be loyal to each other through their experiences in life.

On February 8, 1965, MM T-1 advised that JOHN FREEMAN has been attempting to obtain recruits for the PLM from both the Negro and the Mexican itinerant farm workers in the Homestead, Florida area.

On February 27, 1965, MELVIN YOUNG voluntarily appeared at the Miami Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and furnished information about his PLM activities. He said that JOHN FREEMAN informed him that he was a Captain in charge of all the Negroes. YOUNG said that to the best of his knowledge, there were no other Negro members in the Miami PLM.

On March 29, 1965, MM T-1 advised that MELVIN YOUNG left Miami, to reside permanently in New Jersey. According to MM T-1, there are now no Negro members in the Miami PLM.

On March 4, 1965, MM T-2 advised that PLM members in Miami and Tampa, Florida, distributed literature of the Committee to Defend Resistance to Ghetto Life (CERGE) in Negro areas of Tampa, Florida.

MM T-3, on December 17, 1964, advised that FRED JEROME, Editor of "Challenge" was heard to state that CERGE was a newly-established committee sponsored by the PLM.

"Challenge" is self-identified as a PLM weekly newspaper.

On March 18, 1965, MM T-2 advised that a PLM meeting was held on March 11, 1965, at the residence of JOHN FREEMAN. During this meeting, the group discussed the feasibility of forming a chapter of CERGE. FREEMAN believed that such an organization would be successful in Miami, because it is not yet known to be a militant organization, and later some of the more militant members of CERGE could be taken into the PLM.

On April 8, 1965, MM T-1 advised it was very difficult to recruit PLM members among the Negro colony in Miami. According to MM T-1, the Negroes in Miami appear to be well satisfied with their living conditions in Miami.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Communist Party, USA (CPUSA)

No information developed.

B. Progressive Labor Movement (PLM)

Demonstration March 14, 1965, Miami, Florida:

On March 18, 1965, MM T-2 advised that two PLM members passed out PLM and CERGE literature during a protest march held in Miami on March 14, 1965. The march was for the purpose of demonstrating sympathy for the Negroes in the Selma, Alabama area. There were no incidents during the distribution of these leaflets.

On March 14, 1965, CHARLES WHITED, a reporter for "The Miami Herald", a daily Miami, Florida newspaper, advised he observed the march sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in downtown Miami on this date. During the march, he saw a young, white man passing out pamphlets, and obtained one. The pamphlet was captioned "Police Terror in Harlem", and was prepared by the Harlem Defense Council, 337 Lennox Avenue, New York, New York. The pamphlet stated that for further information, contact should be made with CERGE, 147 West 42nd Street, Suite 904, New York, New York.

The Harlem Defense Council is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

On March 15, 1965, "The Miami Herald" reported that at the March 14, 1965 protest march sponsored by the NAACP in Miami, there were more than 2,500 Negroes and whites who marched in sympathy for the Negroes and in "quiet protest" to racial violence in Selma, Alabama.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

MM 100-15058

On February 2, 1965, MM T-4 advised that PETER CHRISTIANSEN, a white male and recent graduate from the University of Miami [redacted] had been elected a new Chairman of the Miami Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). The other Co-Chairman will be ALBERT D. MOORE.

Albert D Moore

On March 12, 1965, Lieutenant HAVERT SWILLEY, Intelligence Unit, Miami Police Department, advised that a Mrs. DUDLEY BURTON, [redacted] contacted him on this date and advised as follows:

complainant b6 b7C

In the early part of November, 1964, PETER CHRISTIANSEN, who holds an office in CORE, appeared at the First Unitarian Church, 7701 Southwest 76th Avenue, Miami, for the purpose of participating in a debate concerning the merits and content of the book, "None Dare Call It Treason". During the debate, CHRISTIANSEN was asked a direct question, "Are you a Marxist?" He answered, "Yes, I am a member and I believe in Marxism". She said there were other persons present who could verify this statement during the debate.

Mrs. BURTON also said that CHRISTIANSEN appeared shortly thereafter at the home of MARY ANN MAC KENZIE, Florida State Legislator, [redacted] at which time he denied that he was a Marxist.

On March 4, 1965, MM T-2 advised that JOHN FREEMAN, DENNIS FLOOD, WILLIAM CHRISTIANSEN, and his brother, PETER, attended a meeting of CORE, held on March 3, 1965, at the Hampton House, 4200 Northwest 27th Avenue, Miami. MM T-2 stated FREEMAN and FLOOD were present only to pass out CERGE literature at the meeting.

MM 100-15058

Progressive Labor Movement

On February 4, 1965, MM T-2 advised that JOHN FREEMAN was the Chairman of the Miami PLM, and DENNIS ~~FLOOD~~ a (PLM) member. 7/A

On February 16, 1965, MM T-2 advised that according to JOHN FREEMAN, WILLIAM CHRISTIANSEN, [redacted] Miami, is quite a militant person and in sympathy with PLM activities. 7/A

b6
b7C

On March 2, 1965, MM T-5 advised that "Wm. Christiansen, [redacted] Miami [redacted], Fla." was then subscribing to "The Worker", with his subscription ending in March of 1966.

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

On August 15, 1962, MM T-4 advised that the Miami Branch of CORE has approximately 300 members, 60 of which are white members; however, out of the 300 members, only about 50 members are active in the organization. ALBERT MOORE was Chairman of the Miami Chapter of CORE.

The June 16, 1963 issue of "The Miami Herald" contained an article about ALBERT MOORE, in which MOORE estimated that there were about 200 active CORE members in the Miami Chapter.

On April 23, 1965, ERNEST E. LENT, JR., Executive Director, Community Relations Board, Dade County, Florida, advised the Miami Chapter of CORE meets once a week, with approximately 12 to 14 members present; however, there are several times this number of members who support CORE financially and take part in its protest activity. LENT advised the Co-Chairmen of CORE are ALBERT D. MOORE and PETER CHRISTIANSEN.

APPENDIX

HARLEM DEFENSE COUNCIL

Source advised that the Harlem Defense Council (HDC) was formed by the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) in New York City in 1964, as a front organization, with its main objective to get recruits for the PLM. As the PLM is known to be a very militant type organization, the leaders of the PLM hope to use the HDC to recruit Negroes and others, and gradually direct their recruits toward the aims and objectives of the PLM.

The HDC was also formed by the PLM to organize Negroes on a block-by-block basis in New York City, with plans to furnish these people with arms to defend themselves against the police.

Relet Bureau to Albany and all offices 8/28/64 and Memphis letter to Bureau, Knoxville and New York 1/18/65.

During the past three-month period, no positive information has been developed to show Communist Party influence in racial matters in the Memphis territory area. In view of this, no report is being submitted at this time.

A copy of this letter is being submitted to Knoxville Division for information since that Division covers a portion of Tennessee.

In connection with racial matters investigations in Fayette County, Tennessee, information has just been developed that two white males, DANIEL SAYRE BEAGLE, and his brother, PETER V. BEAGLE, both white males, are now residing in Fayette County and are attempting to organize Negroes to test various phases of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The first demonstration was held on 5/1/65.

CIRM

Reference memorandum dated May 19, 1965, captioned as above, setting out information concerning planned rallies in Elizabeth and Jersey City, New Jersey, on May 20, 1965, and May 21, 1965, respectively.

A characterization of the Labor Negro Vanguard Conference, which includes William J. Clark, Clarence Coggins, and Alvin Oliver, is appended hereto.

On May 20, 1965, Lieutenant Peter Simon, Elizabeth, New Jersey, Police Department, advised that Clarence Coggins, William J. Clark, and Alvin Oliver of the Labor Vanguard Democrats did not appear at First and Pine Streets in Elizabeth, from 7:00 p.m. until 9:30 p.m., which was the time and location for their scheduled rally in behalf of Clark's candidacy for Governor of New Jersey. Lieutenant Simon said there was no rally or crowd.

On May 21, 1965, Sergeant John Mc Laughlin, Jersey City, New Jersey, Police Department, advised there was no labor Vanguard Democrat rally at Ege and Ocean Avenues or at Forrest and Jackson Avenues in Jersey City.

ENCLOSURE

LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE,
Formerly known as the Labor-Negro
Vanguard Party

In a press release dated November 18, 1961, the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD PARTY (LNVP) stated:

"The growing influence of the irredentist forces upon the policies of our nation as indicated by the alarming drift towards war and the outlawing of the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) has accentuated the need for all racial, progressive, and liberal forces to unite in a common party."

In a leaflet entitled, "Call to Progressive Minded America," issued by the LNVP, its founding convention was scheduled for November 25, 1961, in New York City. The aims and purposes were listed as:

1. For the resurgence of the American Labor Movement.

2. For the winning of the struggle for Negro rights.

3. For an end of the cold war.

4. For economic security and higher mass living standards.

5. For the end of the exploitation of man by man.

A source advised on December 19, 1961, that CLARENCE COGGINS is considered the Provisional Chairman of the LNVP. Other active members include BERNARD (WHITEY) GOODFRIEND, ALVIN OLIVER, WILLIAM CLARK, and RODNEY OLIVER.

A second source advised on December 12, 1959, that CLARENCE COGGINS, BERNARD (WHITEY) GOODFRIEND, ALVIN OLIVER, WILLIAM CLARK, and RODNEY OLIVER were all members of the Harriet Tubman Section of the Essex County, New Jersey, CP, which was expelled from the Party with no right of appeal by action of the 17th National Convention, CP, USA, being held December 10-13, 1959.

A third source advised on March 7, 1962, that the SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP) and the LNVP are working closely in efforts to bring disgruntled CP members to their respective camps and are working jointly in the political field. FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, has asked SWP members to support the LNVP.

The third source advised on June 26, 1963, that due to mutual suspicion, the drive toward unity between these two organizations has ceased.

On January 15, 1963, the first source advised that the LNVP is now using the name LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE (LNVC) and is the name the organization is now known by and under which name all leaflets are issued.

On June 28, 1963, the first source stated that the LNVC does not exist on a national scale, and although CLARENCE COGGINS, Chairman of the LNVC, has traveled through the eastern portion of the country to promote the LNVC, the only organized group to date exists in New Jersey.

On May 18, 1964, a fourth source advised that the LNVC has divided its New Jersey group into three branches, with one each in Newark, Jersey City, and Orange.

On 5/12/65, Sheriff JOHN COATES, Erie County, Erie, Pa., furnished SA FRANK H. GEIERMANN with the names of individuals who had been arrested on 5/11/65 in connection with the picketing demonstration at the Hammermill Paper Company, Erie, Pa., on that date. He stated that these individuals had been charged with violation of an injunction issued in the Court of Common Pleas at Erie on 5/11/65 enjoining picketing demonstrators from interfering with or obstructing passages to the Hammermill Paper Company, from congregating, loitering or trespassing upon said company's premises.

Perusal of the list of persons arrested reveals the name of ALAN WACHTEL, [redacted] listed as residing at [redacted]. b6 b7C

It should be further noted that only those demonstrators who were actively obstructing entrance and exit to the Hammermill Paper Company were arrested.

DECLASSIFIED BY [redacted] ON 2/26/86

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 9, 1965, that a conference of Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC), and his advisors, including Andy Young (Executive Director of the SCLC), Harry Wachtel and Bayard Rustin, took place on that date. According to the source, the following transpired: (U)

It was agreed that King would decline the invitation to attend the rally at Madison Square Garden (on June 8, 1965), to be held under the auspices of the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE). His reason for declining will be attributed to pressing needs in Alabama in regard to the voting rights bill. (U)

Wachtel brought up the fact that the Hammermill Paper Company is having its annual meeting in Erie, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday (May 11, 1965), and in that regard, there is a movement underway to have a sit-in to protest segregated policies of the company in its Alabama mills. The sit-in, sponsored by college students, is being promoted by Esther Heifits (phonetic), according to Wachtel's son, who is a student at Oberlin College in Ohio. (U)

Another matter which was discussed was King's trip to New York, on Wednesday, May 12, 1965. In that regard, it was stated that he will arrive at Kennedy International Airport at 2:34 PM, and that all of those attending the conference will meet him. The purpose of the meeting, the source said, will be to go over plans for a summer project. (U)

King's main purpose in coming to New York, the source said, is to speak on Long Island on Wednesday night, and at Queens College, Long Island, on Thursday afternoon. (U)

The "Long Island Press", Saturday, May 8, 1965, reported that five Long Island communities will be visited by Martin Luther King on Wednesday before he is scheduled to speak at a voting rights rally in West Hempstead, at 8:00 PM, May 12, 1965. (U)

Wachtel told King that he would handle all arrangements in connection with his visit on Long Island. He also said he wanted to introduce King to some millionaires on the Island on Thursday morning. (U)

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, New York. CONFIDENTIAL

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (4)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto.

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (4)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (4)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (U)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates (U)

and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (4)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (4)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Re quarterly rep of Special Agent Ernest C. Wall, Jr., dated 4/30/65 at New Orleans.

The following Bureau observations are being made relative to rerep for corrective action as indicated and for the future guidance of your office in preparing reports in captioned matter.

(1) Your office was incorrectly listed as origin. New York is origin. Correct your copies.

(2) No local dissemination to the military intelligence agencies is indicated although instructions in the Manual of Instructions provide for such dissemination. You should now make the appropriate dissemination and advise the Bureau so that the necessary notations may be added to pages A and one.

(3) In justifying the classification "Confidential" it is stated that all the concealed sources are informants of continuing value. This would not appear to be applicable relative to T-2, T-3 and T-11. No action necessary.

(4) On page 3, information is reported from [redacted], National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and [redacted]. They furnished information concerning a demonstration which was to take place in New Orleans. It is reported [redacted] stated the following CP organizations would cooperate with and participate in the proposed demonstrations:" and then follows a list of several organizations including the NAACP. It is not believed that these individuals characterized the organizations listed, including their own, as CP organizations. Advise as to whether or not their information is correctly reported and what, if any, corrections are necessary. If they did not use such a characterization, it is suggested that a simple correction would be the deletion of "CP" from the sentence.

(5) Information is reported concerning the activities of one Virginia Collins and on page 6 an attempt is made to characterize her by stating that [redacted] advised that Collins is unknown to him and he does not know of any Party membership or activities of Collins. This negative type of information is believed to serve little, if any, purpose. In the future, restrict characterizing information to that which is positive.

(6) Information appearing at the bottom of page 8 and the top of page 9 is not clear. It is stated that an informant advised that Sargeant Caulfield had furnished "the following report on the work he is doing in the Lottsworth area"; The first item listed is at the very bottom of page 8 concerning the reorganization of the NAACP. Two items appear at the top of page 9, but they merely identify two Voter's Leagues. It is not indicated as to what Caulfield is doing in connection with these two organizations. Advise as to correction.

(7) The next to the last paragraph of page 9 states "Confidential informant NO T-7 advised on January 12, 1960 that he had received information from Louis Burnham, under the name F. Frazier, was elected to the National Committee of the CP,USA, in the 17th National Convention of the CPUSA, held December 11-13, 1959, in New York City."

It is believed that "from" preceding "Louis" should read "that." It is also not desirable to list the name "F. Frazier," the name under which Burnham was elected to the Party's National Committee. Furnish a revised page 9.

Expedite corrective action necessary, including advice to New York, origin, as well as making dissemination locally.

Form errors should be scored against responsible personnel. It is noted that by Lulet 11/10/64 it was necessary to call to your attention a number of form errors which occurred in the report of SA Wall, Jr., 10/30/64. In light of the errors which occurred in the 4/30/65 report, you are instructed to personally bring to SA Wall's attention the contents of instant communication and impress upon him the necessity for accuracy in the preparation of reports by him.

MARCH, 1965

Re Mobile let 5/11/65, copies to Atlanta and New York, setting out leads for the Atlanta Office to contact the Southern Christian Leadership Conference to determine whether Stanley David Levison participated in captioned marches and for the Mobile Office to contact the Montgomery Improvement Association, Montgomery, Alabama, for the same purpose.

Atlanta and Mobile should NOT make the contacts with the organizations indicated. Due to the sensitive and controversial nature of captioned marches, it is not believed that contacts should be made with the organizations indicated.

1 - New York (100-139735)

NOTE:

We had information that Levison had gone to Alabama for the marches and have been attempting to factually verify this because of Levison's important position in our CIRM investigation. The direct inquiry of the indicated organizations, however, could possibly prove embarrassing to the Bureau and it is therefore believed they should not be contacted.

Re New York letter to the Bureau, 4/13/65.

On 4/21/65, [redacted] Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) [redacted], advised SA MICHAEL L. COLEMAN, after examining a photograph of STANLEY DAVID LEVISON, that he was unknown to him.

[redacted] went on to say that he was of the opinion a list was maintained of individuals from other areas of the U. S. who participated in captioned marches. It was his belief that this list was now in the possession of the headquarters office of SCLC, Atlanta, Georgia, or the Montgomery Improvement Association (MIA) located at 716 Dorsey Avenue, Montgomery, Alabama.

For the information of Atlanta, re New York letter to the Bureau advised that on 4/12/65, a pretext telephone call was made to the office of STANLEY LEVISON, 1841 Broadway, New York, by SA JOHN C. SEATON. On that occasion, an unknown female responded to the telephone call, advising that her employer, STANLEY LEVISON, recently had gone to Montgomery, Alabama, to participate in the Civil Rights march which terminated in that city.

The New York Office made an attempt to confirm LEVISON's departure by contacting major airlines in New York City, but no pertinent information was developed.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

The following information was furnished by confidential sources of this Bureau who have supplied reliable information in the past.

At 10:08 a.m., May 13, 1965, Special Agents of this Bureau observed Stanley Levison enter the Sheraton Atlantic Hotel in New York City and take the elevator to the 16th floor where Martin Luther King, Jr. was registered in Room 1690. Commencing at 10:15 a.m., Levison conferred with some of King's advisors including Clarence Jones and Cordy Vivian. Their conference covered several matters including voter registration, Vietnam, peace and the civil rights movement in general. Levison said that what was needed in the civil rights movement was a broad base and that this could be realized by utilizing church groups and the clergy who have played a vital role in recent times. Concerning Vietnam and peace, Levison said that if King would join with other clergymen in urging peace, they would have a powerful voice due to King's having received the Nobel Peace Prize. King's stature could thus be capitalized on by urging others to join the movement for peace.

At 11:10 a.m., King joined the above group for a general conversation including the voter registration drive in Alabama. It was agreed by those present that they must insure that Alabama lives up to its promise to register 100 individuals per day.

At 12:40 p.m., King was observed to leave the Hotel with Jones. Levison was observed departing at 12:41 p.m.

Levison, a frequent advisor of King's, is a long-time communist whose secret membership in the Communist Party, USA, has been established as recently as July, 1963. Jones is also a frequent advisor to King and during the mid-1950's held a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League, an organization which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Vivian was a member of the Communist Party, USA, in 1947.

On 5/4/65 IC HERBERT C. MEYER was advised that the records of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. reflect that telephone number 642-7800 is subscribed to by the Essex County Hall of Records, Newark, N. J. Telephone number [redacted] is listed for a KEATING D. FISHER, [redacted]

Information concerning telephone number 642-7800 with the results of a Newark file review on the "Mr. HARRIS" at that number is set forth in enclosed letterhead memorandum.

Newark files contain no information concerning KEATING D. FISHER or Rev. JOHN W. WALKER, [redacted]

It was subsequently determined that the information concerning the subscriber to telephone number [redacted], KEATING D. FISHER, was in error and that the subscriber was Rev. JOHN W. WALKER as set out in referenced Atlanta airtel.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]:

[redacted] Postal Inspector's Office, U. S. Post Office, Camden, N. J., advised that [redacted], is occupied by GEORGE E. CLISBY and Rev. JOHN W. WALKER. The address [redacted] is actually located in Cherry Hill Township and not in Merchantville.

Records of the Camden Credit Association, 817 Cooper Street, Camden, N. J., reveal that CLISBY is the son-in-law of Rev. WALKER. Both have favorable credit records. Credit records further reflect that JOHN W. WALKER, SR., Merchant St., Cherry Hill, died on 12/10/62. GEORGE E. and HARRIET W. CLISBY, reside at [redacted].

Records of the Cherry Hill, New Jersey, Police Department contain no record for WALKER or CLISBY.

It is believed that Rev. JOHN W. WALKER is related to WYATT WALKER, the former executive director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who formerly resided in Merchantville, New Jersey.

SECURITY MATTER - C

[On April 14, 1965, NK T-1 advised] ~~X~~U that the notation: "Mr. Harris - 201 Newark 642-7300 Has gone for the day," was among others noted on a piece of legal-size yellow paper found in the room at the Miami International Airport Hotel, Miami, Florida, that had been occupied by Martin Luther King,Jr.

It was determined that 201-642-7800 is the telephone number of the Essex County Hall of Records, Newark, New Jersey.

[On May 6, 1965, NK T-2 advised] ~~X~~U that Mr. Harris at the Essex County Hall of Records is one Earl Harris, a Negro, born January 1, 1918, who resides at 382 Badger Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, and who is a Freeholder of Essex County. According to NK T-2, Harris recently took a trip to Selma, Alabama, to participate in the civil rights activity there.

~~REASON~~ FCIM II, 1.2.4.2
~~DATE OF REVIEW~~ 5-19-89

The March 10, 1965, edition of the "Star Ledger", a newspaper published daily in Newark, New Jersey, contained an article on Page 9, indicating that a party of elected Negro public officials from New Jersey that had been assembled by Essex County Freeholder Earl Harris was scheduled to leave Newark Airport on that date en route to Selma, Alabama, and the civil rights struggle. Harris was described as having been "designated National Co-ordinator of the effort by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference of which Dr. Martin Luther King is the leader." Harris was to continue his efforts to mobilize public officials from a base in Selma working directly with Dr. King.

(U)

~~X~~NK T-3 advised on [January 21, 1944,] ~~X~~ that one Earl Harris was a registered member of the Communist Party (CP) in the Third Ward Branch, Essex County, New Jersey. He added that Harris had registered on January 4, 1944. He was 26 years ~~X~~ of age at that time and had been in the CP for six months. NK T-3 stated that Harris was a club subscriber to the "Daily Worker". (U)

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast communist newspaper which discontinued publication in January, 1958.

NK T-4 advised on June 21, 1945, that Earl Harris, 535 Bergen Street, Newark, New Jersey, age 27, was a member of the Third Ward Branch of the Communist Political Association in 1943.

NK T-4 and NK T-5 advised on August 16, 1943, and December 17, 1943, respectively, that Earl Harris, 535 Bergen Street, Newark, New Jersey, was a member of the "Daily Worker" Press Club as of August, 1943.

The "Daily Worker" Press Club has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On February 29, 1956, Earl Harris was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at his home, 382 Badger Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, at which time he furnished the following information concerning himself:

He stated that in 1942 or 1943 he had been introduced to Martha Stone for business reasons. He said he knew Martha Stone to be a Communist Party official.

NK T-6 advised on April 3, 1957, that Martha Stone was then New Jersey Communist Party State Chairman and member of the National Communist Party Committee. (U)

He said that Martha Stone was to attempt to have the Continental Ballroom manager rent the hall to a social group to which Harris belonged. Harris stated he met Martha Stone in an office on Market Street, in Newark, New Jersey, at that time. He stated that he may have given Martha Stone a dollar or two merely as a gesture on his part to thank her for interceding for him in his cause, rather than a donation to the CP. Harris denied ever attending any CP meetings at the CP Headquarters or any other place and further denied he was ever active in any subversive activity.

Harris stated that he had received the "Daily Worker" at his residence in the 1940's, but denied ever subscribing to the "Daily Worker" or donating any moneys to the "Daily Worker". Harris added that the "Daily Worker" was left at his residence on Sunday mornings by various individuals whom he did not know, and he said he had never met them. Harris also stated he did not know anyone who had ever been active in any subversive activity.

On April 23, 1956, Harris was reinterviewed, at which time he stated that it was possible that he may have signed papers which resulted in his becoming a CP member, but he denied ever attending any CP meetings or acting in any capacity which would be termed as anti-American.

A "Security Investigation Data for Nonsensitive Position" form, dated December 4, 1957, executed by Lenora Harris, Nee May, reveals that on July 12, 1941, at Newark, New Jersey, she married Earl Harris, born January 1, 1918, Dawson, Georgia. Her residence was listed as 382 Badger Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, since June, 1948. From June, 1941 - June, 1948, she resided at 535 Bergen Street, Newark, New Jersey.

On May 11, 1965, records of the Garden State Credit Bureau, Clifton, New Jersey, which covers Newark, New Jersey, as per Receptionist June Krouse, disclosed that Earl Harris, born 1918, wife Lenora, resides at 382 Badger Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. His employer is given as the Board of Freeholders, Newark. The record reflects a suit on March 3, 1964, #471718, by the National State Bank of Newark, in the amount of $364.00 and a suit on December 14, 1964, #496337, by M. William Weinstein and Alfred J. Krug in the amount of $31.80. A judgment was reflected on January 22, 1964, #464820, for the Hertz Corporation, in the amount of $775.75.

Credit records further reflect that there were approximately 24 suits and judgments against the Harrises prior to 1964.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Identification Officer Frank Hogan, Bureau of Records, Newark, New Jersey, Police Department, advised on May 12, 1965, that police department records reflect an arrest for Earl Harris, a Negro male, born January 1, 1918, for false pretense on January 22, 1957. On June 13, 1957, the complaint was dismissed by the Grand Jury. Police Department records further reflect a traffic warrant, #2796, issued at Newark, on March 2, 1965, for Harris, as well as a motor vehicle violation warrant by South Orange, New Jersey, for Harris dated July 26, 1963.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information developed.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. GARY FREEDOM MOVEMENT COUNCIL

The Gary, Indiana Freedom Movement Council held a prayer demonstration at the main downtown intersection of Fifth and Broadway in Gary, Indiana, from 3:30 PM to 3:50 PM on March 11, 1965. This "pray-in" was held for the Reverend James Reeb, a white minister who had been injured in Selma, Alabama.

Approximately 120 Negroes and ten whites participated in this "pray-in." The demonstrators were headed by Reverend Julius James of St. John The Baptist Church, Gary.

The request of the GFMC was granted by Mayor A. Martin Katz and the Chief of Police C. C. Mullins of Gary, who allowed the group to block the main intersection for a period of 20 minutes.

Among those participating in this demonstration were Richard G. Hatcher, a member of the Gary City Council, IND. and Randall Morgan, a member of the Gary Police Civil Service Commission. IND.

Chief of Detectives Edward Barsley, Gary, Indiana Police Department, advised on March 11, 1965, that this demonstration was an orderly and peaceful one. He stated that no incidents of violence or disruption occurred during or in connection with this demonstration.

The November 25, 1964, issue of the "Gary Post-Tribune," a daily newspaper published in Gary, Indiana, contained an article reflecting that the "Gary Freedom Movement Council" was founded at a "Mass Civil Rights Rally" held on November 24, 1964, in Gary. According to this article, this rally was attended by approximately 500 Negroes, including leaders working in the field of civil rights in the City of Gary, Indiana. The rally had been advertised as a "call to action by all Negroes in Gary until full rights are secured" and was held primarily for the purpose of informing the people in Gary of their disapproval of the defeat of the "omnibus civil rights bill" by the Gary City Council by a vote of five to four on November 13, 1964. b6 b7C

The above newspaper article continued that Reverend Julius James, Pastor of the St. John the Baptist Church of Gary, was selected as Chairman of the newly formed "Gary Freedom Movement Council" and listed as one of the leaders of this Council, Arthur Daronatsy. IND.

In September, 1959, Confidential Informant IP T-1 described ARTHUR DARONATSY, a Gary, Indiana attorney, as a member of the CP in Gary, Indiana, at that time.

JOSEPH EDMUND LA FLEUR, [redacted] an active Party member in Gary from 1943 to 1951 and a functionary in the Party during 1944 - 1945, advised that ARTHUR DARONATSY was named Chairman of the Citizens

Committee of the CP in Lake County, Indiana, June 19, 1947, and in August, 1947, was coordinator for the Party in Lake County.

The GFMC of Gary, Indiana, sponsored a mass meeting at 8:00 PM on March 12, 1965, at the Van Buren Baptist Church auditorium, 2585 Van Buren Street, Gary, Indiana. The featured speaker at this mass meeting was Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, an official of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Reverend ABERNATHY told the gathering that the Negroes' problem in the South is no different from that in the North, except that the Negro in the North ends up more disillusioned. He stated a Southern Negro who has dreamed of the North as a "promised land," only finds discrimination does not end in the North. In frustration, some of these people turn to the extremes, the Black Nationalists, and the Black Muslims.

He called for all conscientious Americans to join the army of freedom and dignity. He remarked, "We are engaged in a war, a non-violent war, but no army goes to war without expecting some casualties."

Reverend ABERNATHY remarked of the brutal murder of Reverend JAMES REEB in Selma, Alabama, and asked that a memorial be dedicated to the slain minister, such as a movement to free this Nation and make it the "home of the free and the brave."

He stated the Nation would be free the week after next if all twenty million Negroes in the United States would stand up against the segregated system. He announced that he came to Gary again with mixed emotions. He remarked, "More than 50 per cent of Gary's population lives in six square miles of the City's 53 square miles. The Negroes in Gary who believe in freedom and human dignity do not like this. Something must be done about it."

Reverend ABERNATHY remarked that Reverend REEB would not have died if Federal Marshals had been stationed in Selma. ABERNATHY accused President LYNDON B. JOHNSON of not saying a "mumbling word" while the Negroes' non-violent expression of his rights and injustices against him were being demonstrated in Selma, Alabama.

Reverend ABERNATHY announced that he was leaving Gary to return to Selma, Alabama, to participate in a memorial march in honor of Reverend JAMES REEB.

Sergeant JOHN RAZUMICH, Gary, Indiana Police Department, advised that this mass meeting was an orderly and peaceful gathering. He stated that no incidents of violence or disorder occurred.

Twenty members of the GFMC were observed picketing the Tolleston Branch of the Gary National Bank, 2203 West 11th Avenue, Gary, Indiana, during the hours of 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 Noon, Saturday, March 27, 1965. Demonstrators carried placards and signs calling for the passage of an omnibus civil rights bill by the Gary City Council. Other pickets carried signs calling upon citizens of Gary to back the economic boycott in progress by the GFMC. Others carried placards calling for an Easter economic boycott in the City of Gary. One white picket was observed among the demonstrators. The rest were Negroes.

Sergeant FRANK GUCCIARDO, Detective Bureau, Gary, Indiana Police Department, advised on March 27, 1965, that the target of the demonstration of the Tolleston Branch of the Gary National Bank is PAUL GUIST, Manager of the Tolleston Branch, a Gary City Councilman and a vice-president of the Gary National Bank, who voted against passage of a fiar housing bill in the Gary City Council on November 13, 1964.

Sergeant GUCCIARDO advised that no violence, disruption, or disorder occurred in connection with the demonstration. He stated the demonstration was peaceful and orderly.

Eighteen members of the Gary Freedom Movement Council were observed picketing in front of the Tolleston Branch of the Gary National Bank, 2203 West 11th Avenue, Gary, Indiana, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 Noon, April 3, 1965. Negro pickets carried signs calling for a fair housing ordinance and an economic boycott of the Gary National Bank and other retail merchants in the City of Gary. They emphasized that all should participate in an Easter boycott.

RANDALL MORGAN, a member of the Gary Police Civil Service Commission, and a Negro, was observed coordinating the demonstrators in this picket line.

Sergeant FRANK GUCCIARDO, Detective Bureau, Gary, Indiana Police Department, advised that no violence or disorder occurred in connection with this demonstration. He stated the pickets were peaceful and orderly.

"The Chicago Tribune," a daily newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, in its issue dated April 7, 1965, reflects that PAUL GUIST, Councilman from the Third District, City of Gary, Indiana, announced his resignation from the Gary City Council on April 6, 1965. GUIST announced he was quitting for personal reasons. He had served as a City Councilman for nine years.

The article reflected that GUIST is the Manager of the Tolleston Branch of the Gary National Bank in Gary. According to the article, GUIST had incurred the wrath of integration groups last year when he voted against a so-called open occupancy bill in the Cary City Council. Members of the GFMC picketed the Offices of the Tolleston Branch of the Cary National Bank and had demanded either his resignation from the Cary City Council or from the Gary National Bank.

Mrs. MARECE NEAGU, an official of the Gary Freedom Movement Council, a Negro Rights organization, Gary, Indiana, announced on the morning of April 10, 1965, that the council would sponsor a 200 car motorcade through downtown Gary at approximately 1:00 PM on April 10, 1965, in connection with demands for fair and equal housing for Negroes in Gary.

WARREN HALES, Radio Station WWCA, Cary, Indiana, announced at 2:00 PM on April 10, 1965, that the motorcade sponsored by the GFMC at approximately 1:30 PM on the afternoon of April 10, 1965, was unsuccessful. He related that only 40 cars out of the expected 200 participated in the motorcade. He stated that the 40 cars fell far short of the number previously announced by the GFMC. Participants in the motorcade had signs calling for fair housing for Easter and equality now.

Sergeant RAY SCHULTZ, Detective Bureau, Gary, Indiana Police Department, advised on April 10, 1965, that the Gary Police Department counted approximately 37 cars participating in the aforementioned motorcade. He stated that no violence or disruption occurred in connection with this demonstration.

B. NAACP, GARY, INDIANA

At 12 PM on March 16, 1965, approximately 25 individuals representing the Gary, Indiana Branch of the NAACP, formed a picket line in front of the building housing the FBI, Gary Resident Agency. The pickets carried placards highlighting the need for Federal intervention at Selma, Alabama.

The pickets were led by JEANETTE STRONG, President of the NAACP, Gary Branch. She personally called at the Office of the Gary Resident Agency and was invited into the Office by the Senior Resident Agent with the Assistant Senior Resident Agent present.

Mrs. STRONG, who was alone, presented an "open letter," which read as follows:

"Director, Gary Bureau
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Gary, Indiana "Open Letter

"The Gary Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, with citizens of the community, pause today in deep respect in reverend memory of Rev. James Reeb, a soldier in the war against discrimination and injustice, who made the supreme sacrifice to the end that we shall overcome.....while we pause for this reverend occasion, we echo the world demand for Federal intervention in the current crisis in Alabama.....for we all watch with deep concern and feeling:

cognizant of the fact that Governor George Wallace of Alabama still is not ready to accept the responsibility for a positive position regarding the rights of all citizens of the state, regardless of race, creed or color. It is necessary that protection be afforded those persons who would work and demonstrate in the cause of justice and freedom, thereby creating an atmosphere which will bring peace, and tranquility, brotherhood and understanding.....

We, today, call upon this Bureau to express the concern of the citizens of this community for the safety of both black and white who are involved in the nonviolent struggle for freedom and equality....in the police state of Alabama and throughout the southland....for it is inevitable that should Federal intervention not be forthcoming, another needless loss of life will result, as in the death of the Rev. James Reeb, who died that all men shall be free, not only in Selma, Alabama, but in Gary, Indiana, too."

Mrs. STRONG was courteously received and the Bureau's jurisdiction in Civil Rights matters was fully explained to her. She was advised that the letter which she had presented to the Senior Resident Agent would be brought to the attention of the Department of Justice. Mrs. STRONG, who conducted herself with dignity, expressed gratitude for the opportunity afforded her and departed to join the picket line.

It was observed that the pickets were orderly and that they were to continue picketing until 3 P.M. this date.

The Gary Police Department was aware of the picketing and had a number of officers in the area.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. GARY CHAPTER, NAACP

The "Gary Post Dispatch," a daily newspaper of Gary, Indiana, on December 18, 1964, listed the officers for the Gary NAACP Branch for the coming year. Among those listed was JEANNETTE STRONG as president, and attorney BURTON WECHSLER as Second Vice-President. JEANNETTE STRONG is the wife of CURTIS STRONG.

AKA MRS. [illegible] OF THE NATIONAL [illegible] FOR THE [illegible]

Confidential Informant IP T-2 on May 3, 1963, advised that CURTIS STRONG had been closely associated with CP members in Gary, Indiana, in connection with his union activities; however, informant did not know him to have ever been a CP member.

Confidential Informant IP T-3 advised on February 20, 1953, that BURTON WECHSLER, as of that date, was considered the attorney for the CP in Lake County, Indiana.

IP T-2 advised on April 22, 1965, that the Gary Chapter of the NAACP continues to maintain a membership of approximately 1,000.

IP T-2 on April 22, 1965, and IP T-3, on April 26, 1965, advised JESSE REESE and ART ADAMS, both known to these informants as current CP members in Gary, Indiana, are also members of the Gary Chapter of the NAACP. They advised these two individuals held no official positions in the NAACP and to their knowledge the CP exerts no influence over the Gary Chapter of the NAACP nor has the CP issued any instructions with reference to infiltration of the NAACP.

B. GARY FREEDOM MOVEMENT COUNCIL

Chief of Detectives EDWARD BARSLEY, Gary, Indiana Police Department, advised on December 9, 1964, that the GFMC was founded at a mass rally held in Gary, November 24, 1964. This organization was founded for the purpose of protesting the defeat of the "omnibus civil rights bill" by the City Council of Gary, November 13, 1964.

Chief BARSLEY stated this organization has its headquarters at 1920 Broadway Street, Gary, Indiana, and its Chairman is Reverend JULIUS JAMES, Pastor of the St. John the Baptist Church of Gary. The controling committee of this Council is composed of ten individuals, among which is attorney ARTHUR DARONATSY who is characterized heretofore in this report.

IP T-2 on April 22, 1965, and IP T-3, on April 26, 1965, advised that to their knowledge, the CP in Gary, Indiana exerts no control over the GFMC. These informants advised that individual Party members and persons with a history of Party activity are in complete sympathy with the aims and purposes of the organization; but, with the exception of ARTHUR DARONATSY, none hold any official position and in no way have influence or control over the organizational policies or projects being promoted by this organization in the Gary, Indiana, area.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

On April 1, 1965, Confidential Informant IP T-4 advised that on April 2, 1965, a meeting would be held between the Reverend ANDREW J. BROWN, Pastor, St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Martindale, Indianapolis, Indiana, and CORDY T. VIVIAN. Source advised the meeting would be open to the public and held at St. John's Missionary Church. Source described Reverend BROWN as President of the Indianapolis Social Action Committee (ISAC) and that the meeting was to pave the way for the appearance of the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING at a later date.

Source advised the possibility existed that the ISAC organization might be made a chapter of the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING'S Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

On April 2, 1964, a meeting was held at the St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Martindale, Indianapolis, Indiana. It was a public meeting presided over by the Reverend ANDREW J. BROWN and approximately 600 people attended this meeting.

In attendance at this meeting were the Reverend V. MILLER NEWTON, Pastor, Fletcher Place Methodist Church, and Director of the Christian Inner City Association; Reverend JOHN NATHAN LA BAUVE, St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church, Indianapolis, and a member of the Christian Inner City Association; and Reverend BERNARD STRANGE, Pastor, St. Rita's Catholic Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. Both Reverend STRANGE and Reverend NEWTON participated in the Selma March to Montgomery, Alabama.

The "Indianapolis News," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana, on April 3, 1965, carried the following story concerning the meeting. It was under the caption, "King Aid Calls for 'Bama Boycott' Here," and is as follows:

"An aid to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., last night called upon Indianapolis citizens to join in the economic boycott of Alabama.

"The Rev. C. T. Vivian, in Indianapolis following a strategy meeting with Dr. King in Baltimore, spoke before 600 persons in St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Martindale.

"'You say the Negroes of Alabama might suffer in the event of an economic boycott,' the Rev. Mr. Vivian said.

" 'What does it matter if they suffer for six months if it will end their suffering for six generations?'

"The Rev. Mr. Vivian said the time has come for the civil rights movement to deal with basic issues.

"HOUSING, JOBS AND EDUCATION

" 'For all practical purposes, the battle for public accommodations is over.

" ' Now the North and the South, both black and white, must answer the questions of housing, jobs and education.'

"The fiery minister said that 18 per cent of America's Negro working force is without employment.

"In England, the political party in power would be swept out of office overnight if unemployment reached just 2 per cent, he implored.

" 'Yet, here in America the Negro is the last person to be hired and the first to be laid off.'

"About 75 whites, most of them representatives of various religious faiths and denominations, attended the meeting."

The "Indianapolis Star," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, carried the story on April 3, 1965, under the caption, "King Aide Urges Civil Rights for All," and is as follows:

" 'This is our day - - our hour,' the Rev. C. T. Vivian of Atlanta, Ga., told a cheering crowd of several hundred persons jammed into the St. John Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Martindale Avenue, last night.

"The Rev. Mr. Vivian, one of the chief aides of the Rev. Martin Luther King -- fresh from a strategy meeting with Dr. King in Baltimore, Md. -- told the group: 'We have no other choice but to move in this hour.'

"He said that the American Negro 'has come to understand that states rights mean human wrongs,' and he declared that the reason 'President Johnson got in front of the television cameras the other day was because men black, white and polka dot stood up and marched for freedom in Alabama.'

"The Rev. C. T. Vivian, Atlanta, Ga., had just come from a strategy meeting on the boycott with the Rev. Mr. King and other leaders of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

"The Rev. Mr. Vivian was here to get support in Indiana for the boycott. Several hundred persons attended the meeting at St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Martindale.

"The Rev. Mr. Vivian said of the proposed boycott, 'The suffering it will engender will be a redemption for both the whites and the Negroes.'

"He is director of affiliates for the leadership conference.

"'Six months of suffering as a result of the boycott can cause an end to it for the future years,' the Rev. Mr. Vivian said.

"He said that the Selma-to-Montgomery march helped awaken the national consciousness and made the country aware of wrongs 'being inflicted on the Negroes under the doctrine of "state rights."'

"The Rev. Mr. Vivian was one of the leaders of the march. He said he was physically assaulted by Dallas County (Selma) Sheriff, James Clark.

" 'This is no longer a racial issue. It is a national issue. We are out to move a state. We are changing Alabama,' said the Rev. Mr. Vivian."

Confidential Informant IP T-5 advised in November, 1947, that C. T. Vivian was a member of the Community Section of the CP in Peoria, Illinois.

In June, 1948, the same source advised that C. T. VIVIAN had not been active in CP affairs in the Peoria area for some time and further advised C. T. VIVIAN had not been in the area for a long period of time.

In January, 1965, Confidential Informant IP T-6 advised the Reverend C. T. VIVIAN of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with GEORGE MEYERS. The purpose of this contact was unknown.

USA V Confidential Informant IP T-7 advised that GEORGE MEYERS is a member of the CP, USA National Executive Committee, and knows MEYERS to be a CP organizer for the Southern Region of the CP.

It was observed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Indianapolis, Indiana, that approximately one hundred people, both Negroes and whites, picketed the State Capitol on February 12, 1965.

The demonstrators marched on the sidewalk on Capitol Avenue bearing large placards which read, "We oppose weak housing bill," "Must there be a third party," "Whitewash housing will lose black votes", and "Our votes will count in '66."

"The Indianapolis News," a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana, dated February 12, 1965, revealed that delegations came from Gary, Muncie, South Bend, Fort Wayne, and Indianapolis, Indiana, to march as pickets in the demonstration. The article reflects the organizations represented included Jewish Community Relations Council, Indiana Council of Churches, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Core, and others.

The article reveals that at least six state police troopers, several state police detectives, and State Police Superintendent ROBERT O'NEAL were on hand.

The article continues that the spokesman for the demonstrators, WILLARD B. RANSOM, AKA WILLARD RANSOM, Chairman of the Indiana Conference on Civil Rights Legislation, said, "We're seeking a more effective fair housing bill. We favor Senate Bill 115 in its original form with enforcement powers in it." IND.

Confidential Informant IP T-8 advised WILLARD RANSOM trusted by CP leadership District 10. Requested by EMANUEL BLUM, Organizer, District 10, CP, USA, to join the CP in 1953. RANSOM declined because he felt it would be impossible to keep CP member a secret and he did not want to be known publicly as a member of the CP.

The article reveals that before it passed the fair housing bill, a Senate committee removed a provision for "cease and desist" authority by the Indiana Civil Rights Commission. The bill makes housing a civil right but limits enforcement only to public housing and that financed by the Federal Government.

NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS
INTERNAL SECURITY-C

NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows on May 12, 1965:

The New Jersey Conference For Rights of Migrant Workers held a meeting of their Executive Board at the Wesley A.M.E. Church, Burlington, New Jersey, on May 8, 1965, with seven persons present including the Chairman, Nick Kourambis.

A characterization of the New Jersey Conference for the Rights of Migrant Workers is contained in the appendix hereto.

NK T-1 advised that the meeting centered around planning for voter registration, Operation Friendship, and plans to use some of the student workers from Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) in the fight for betterment of conditions for the migrant workers. Voter registration is being pushed in order to gain more political control of Port Norris, New Jersey, and surrounding communities where there appears to be a concentration of the migrant workers. With regard to Operation Friendship, it is hoped that members of the Conference for the Rights of Migrant Workers will make friends with migrant workers in the Port Norris area, go to church with them, visit in their homes, and come to know their problems better. It was stated at the conference that owners of the farms where the migrant workers are employed will not permit strangers to come on the premises, but friends of the workers could gain access.

NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS

The plan is to have students selected by SDS come to the farm area, mingle and work with the migrant workers, and then attempt to organize them. It is planned to use the young female students to care for children while the mothers work in the fields. The plan is to have SDS select the students, but to have them paid by the New Jersey State AFL-CIO. It was mentioned at the Executive Board meeting that this is not to be publicized or discussed even among the rank and file members of the Conference. The next meeting of the group is to be held May 14, 1965, to work out further details.

NEW JERSEY CONFERENCE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 15, 1964, that TONY CASCONE announced at a meeting of the State Board of the COMMUNIST PARTY of New Jersey (NJCP) on December 5, 1964, that a new forum had been organized for the purpose of helping the cause of migrant workers and their families. CASCONE stated that one meeting had been held, and the next meeting would be held at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. He stated that he and NICK KOURAMBIS had co-sponsored the meeting. CASCONE noted that KOURAMBIS is the Chairman of the Labor and Industry Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP).

The same source had previously advised on March 24, 1964, that CASCONE was a member of the State Board of the NJCP. The same source had also advised on August 4, 1964, that NICK KOURAMBIS had attended a meeting of the NJCP State Board on August 2, 1964.

The "Newark Evening News," a daily at Newark, New Jersey, in the issue dated January 31, 1964, printed a letter to the editor from [redacted], Labor and Industry Chairman, New Jersey State Conference of Branches of the NAACP, in which KOURAMBIS stated that on February 8, 1964, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, a [redacted] would be initiated to raise the social, political, [redacted] of migrant workers in New Jersey.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on [redacted] a meeting was held at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, [redacted] on January 8, 1965, to initiate a statewide campaign for [redacted] of the migrant workers in New Jersey, and also [redacted] formed an organization called the [redacted] RIGHTS OF MIGRANT WORKERS (NJCMW). Internal Security-C

"The Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, in its issue of May 2, 1965, page three, contained an article "2000 Hail Paul Robeson At Freedomways Tribute". The article states that "an overflow audience of 2000 friends and admirers" of Paul Robeson greeted him at the Hotel Americana the previous week (April 22, 1965) on the occasion of the salute by "Freedomways" to Robeson on his 66th birthday.

The article reflects that John Lewis, Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) spoke at this affair. The article states that Lewis spoke of Robeson's past accomplishments. It continues as follows: N.Y.

"He too spoke of Robeson's 'years of persecution' and praised him for not 'compromising important principles. We of SNCC are Paul Robeson's spiritual children. We too have rejected gradualism and moderation. We are also being accused of radicalism, of Communist infiltration'".

A characterization of Freedomways Associates, publishers of the magazine "Freedomways" is set forth in the attached appendix.

The Late City Edition of "The New York Times", December 23, 1963, reported that Paul Robeson left the United States on July 10, 1958, after an eight year legal flight and a Supreme Court ruling to obtain a passport.

According to the article, Paul Robeson once said he loved "the Soviet people more than any other nation because of their suffering and sacrifices for us, the Negro people, the progressive people, the people of the future in this world".

Most of the questions directed at Robeson on his arrival in New York City on December 22, 1963, were answered by his wife who told reporters her husband still thinks Communism is "terrific".

Reurtel 2:43 p.m. 5/14/65 which reported information from highly sensitive coverage as well as observations of Bureau Agents revealing a personal meeting between Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley David Levison on the morning of 5/13/65. The contacts which took place that morning are considered most pertinent.

As you are aware, the Bureau has many times indicated the importance of obtaining information relative to personal meetings between King and Levison as well as the intelligence derived from such meetings indicating the influence which Levison exerts upon King. It is difficult for the Bureau to understand why it took over 24 hours before the first written communication was dispatched from your office reporting on such an important and urgent matter as the King -- Levison meeting.

The Bureau expects that in the future there will be absolutely no delay in furnishing the Bureau the necessary teletype communications in urgent matters.

NOTE:

The referenced teletype contained, among other things, information concerning Levison's counsel that King inject himself into the Vietnam situation by joining with other clergymen in urging peace. We disseminated this information to the White House, Vice President and Attorney General by letter 5/15/65. More prompt handling by the New York Office would have enabled us to disseminate the information a day earlier.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A characterization of the Labor Negro Vanguard Conference, which includes William J. Clark, Clarence Coggins, and Alvin Oliver, is attached as an appendix hereto.

Police Director Gustave Brugger, Elizabeth, New Jersey, Police Department, advised May 18, 1965, that letter received on that date by police department from Clarence Coggins, Provisional Chairman, Labor Vanguard Democrats, stating that a campaing rally for William J. Clark, Labor Vanguard Democrat candidate for governor, is to be held May 20, 1965, at 7:00 p.m. at First and Pine in Elizabeth.

Brugger stated the area of planned rally is a racially mixed neighborhood and the scene of 1964 summer racial riots in Elizabeth.

Chief Joe Smith, Jersey City, New Jersey, Police Department, advised May 18, 1965, that a similar letter was received there announcing a Clark rally May 21, 1965, at 6:00 p.m. at Ege and Ocean Avenues and at 7:00 p.m. at Forest and Jackson, both Jersey City.

Reference is made to New Haven quarterly report of SA W. C. Hendricks Jr. dated 4/30/65.

Five full pages (2-6) are devoted to a full report on the appearance of Henry Winston at New Haven, Connecticut, 3/6/65. Although Winston's address delivered that date was entitled "What's Ahead for the Negro Freedom Movement - A Marxist Viewpoint," Winston covered a variety of subjects, both domestic and foreign, many not pertinent to CIRM. Although it might have been appropriate to report Winston's activities and address in such detail in reports concerning Winston and Public Appearances of Party Leaders, such detailed information should not have been reported in a CIRM report. Only the material pertinent to CIRM should have been included in rcrep.

It is also noted that pages 6, 7, 12, and 13 contain the expression "No information developed" under various sub-headings. Your attention is directed to Bureau routing slip 2/9/65 concerning the previous quarterly report from your office, that of SA Hendricks dated 1/29/65. You were advised that the expression "No information developed" should be used only for main headings denoted by Roman Numerals. You were directed to Bulet 8/28/64 which set out the basic Bureau instructions for the preparation of quarterly CIRM reports.

The foregoing should be brought to the attention of SA Hendricks and the supervisor who approved the most recent report. SA Hendricks should be instructed to thoroughly review Bulet 8/28/64 prior to the preparation of future CIRM reports so that it will not again be necessary for the Bureau to direct correspondence to your office such as instant communication.

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Page 10124. Congressman Waggonner, (D) Louisiana, commented on the connections between representatives of the Communist Party and leaders of the civil rights movement and referred to an article which appeared in the May 18th issue of National Review magazine. The article makes reference to a recent meeting held in Washington by the American Committee on Africa under the general title of "National Conference on South African Crisis." Mr. Waggonner quoted the article as follows: "It was routine that the meetings should be presided over by Bishop James A. Pike and should feature such delegates as Victor Reuther--Walter's brother, James Farmer--CORE--and James Forman--SNCC. What was a new departure for American organizations in this field was the presence of two official Communist representatives: the Byelorussian and Ukrainian members of the U.N. Special Committee on Africa, no doubt on hand as representing subject nations seeking a few pointers on how to cast off the yoke of imperialism."

ADMINISTRATIVE

The delay in submission of this report is due to case Agent working on other expedite matters and being utilized as relief supervisor in absence of supervisor personnel.

It will be noted that numerous individuals, with their subversive backgrounds, are again set forth in this report. It was felt this was necessary to show the continuing activities and influence these individuals are exerting in the Mississippi Project.

This report is being classified ~~"Secret"~~ inasmuch as it contains information from highly sensitive sources, the unauthorized disclosure of these sources could seriously impair the investigation of subversive matters and thereby endanger the national defense interests of the United States.

JN 100-57

CHARLES HORWITZ, Communications Officer, Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), 507½ North Farish Street, Jackson, Mississippi, advised a Special Agent of the FBI during April, 1965, there is no Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters in the State of Mississippi. He said the headquarters of SNCC continues to be Atlanta.

He said COFO has some 16 local offices scattered throughout the state and COFO is primarily a SNCC activity.

He furnished the following District Directors and members of the five-man board of SNCC in the State of Mississippi:

DONALD WHITE	1st Congressional District, Columbus
EDWARD BROWN	2nd Congressional District, Lexington
JESSIE LEE HARRIS	3rd Congressional District, Vicksburg
DICK JEWETT	4th Congressional District, Jackson
DOUGLAS SMITH	5th Congressional District, Hattiesburg.

The above also have the same official title in COFO.

[JN T-1] advised a Special Agent of the FBI on [May 3, 1965] that he has determined through conversations with Civil Rights Movement Workers that the organization known as COFO is actually controlled and operated by SNCC in Atlanta. All salaries of COFO personnel are paid by SNCC headquarters in Atlanta. Informant has determined the Civil Rights Movement will continue using the name COFO since COFO is well known throughout the United States and the American Public will continue sending contributions to COFO for their work in the State of Mississippi.

BRYCE ALEXANDER, Chief of Police, Indianola, Mississippi, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on April 16, 1965, that the following individuals who are associated with COFO at Indianola and Sunflower County, Mississippi, were among a group who were on a chartered bus to Washington, D. C., on April 15, 1965, to participate in the march on Washington held on April 17, 1965, sponsored by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). ALEXANDER said HERSCHEL KAMINSKY obtained the chartered bus and appeared to be in charge of the delegation.

HERSCHEL KAMINSKY
JAMES JOHN DANN

The SDS is described as a Socialist oriented youth group which claims to have over 1400 member and chapters on 41 campuses.

HERSCHEL KAMINSKY

JN T-2 advised on May 2, 1962, that KAMINSKY was at that time a member of the Executive Board of the Minnesota Fair Play for Cuba Committee (MFPCC). MISS. WASH D.C.

JAMES JOHN DANN CALIF MISS. WASH D.C.

(U)

JN T-3 advised on April 12, 1964, DANN attended a meeting of the West Los Angeles W. E. B. DuBois Club on March 1, 1964, at 1559 Brocton Street, Los Angeles. At this meeting DANN stated he had talked to the strike director of a local telephone union which was on strike and offered the cooperation of the club.

Information concerning the MFPCC and W. E. B. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles is set forth in the Appendix Section.

PHILLIP SANDERS LAPSANSKY

CHARLES HORWITZ, COFO, advised on April 13, 1965, that PHILLIP SANDERS LAPSANSKY was employed in the Communications Section of COFO at Jackson. He had just returned from the West Coast.

On March 16, 1965, the issue of "The Sun," Vancouver, B. C. Canada newspaper, carried an article captioned, "Busy Students at University take Rights Talk on the Run." The article indicated over 2000 students at the University of British Columbia gathered on the campus on Monday to listen to two leaders of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee tell of problems and hate in the deep South. One of the speakers was reportedly to be PHILIP LAPANSKY. JN T-4 advised on April 7, 1965, a farewell party had been given to LAPSANSKY in Seattle on April 6, 1965, and LAPSANSKY was returning to Mississippi where he hoped to make his life's work in Civil Rights affairs. Informant said LAPSANSKY apparently has the sanction of the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and was reported to have given a lengthy talk at SWP headquarters in Seattle on April 4, 1965.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Seattle Branch, SWP, is characterized in the Appendix Section.

FRANK THOMAS CIECIORKA, JR.

ALBERT BLAIR, Tate County Sheriff, Senatobia, Mississippi, advised in October, 1964, that CIECIORKA intended to establish a Freedom School in Tate County. He said he resided at the COFO headquarters, Freedom House, Holly Springs, Mississippi.

JN T-5 advised on January 22, 1964, that CIECIORKA met with two known Communist Party members in January, 1964, and discussed his joining the Communist Party. The three decided that CIECIORKA might be more useful to the communist cause if he did not become a member. (U)

Reverend WARREN HENRY MC KENNA

Chief of Police W. C. BURNLEY, JR., Greenville, Mississippi, Police Department, advised during April, 1965, MC KENNA had been very active in COFO activities in the Greenville, Mississippi area.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION

The "Brockton Daily Enterprize," Brockton, Massachusetts, on Tuesday, January 10, 1961, carried an article captioned, "Communism is discussed at Holbrook." The article went on to say among other things, that Reverend MC KENNA had made a statement to the paper concerning his affiliations with certain groups. MC KENNA denied being a communist but stressed the difference between communism and dissent. He told the newspaper he was not a communist but it does not mean he could not join or support something or someone that is trying to make this a better country. In the article a man who identified himself as JAMES MC ELLIGOTT, [redacted] appeared before the meeting and read excerpts from "The Firing Line," a publication of the American Legion's National Americanism Committee, in which one Reverend WARREN HENRY MC KENNA of Amesburg, Massachusetts, was listed as being an affiliate of several organizations. Some of those mentioned were the Samuel Adams School, Civil Rights Congress, International Workers Order, and The American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born.

b7C

The above listed organizations have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DAVID MICHAEL NOVICK

SALLY SAUNDERS, [redacted] a Marquette University student, was interviewed by FBI Agents on September 19, 1963. She said she and NOVICK became acquainted in early 1962. She said she was formerly a member of the Citizens for Peace and Disarmament (CPD), as was NOVICK. Through this organization she met JOHN GILMAN, who, in her opinion, was probably a card carrying Communist Party member. Someone, in fact, had told her so and she thought NOVICK had mentioned it.

Chief W. C. BURNLEY, Greenville, Mississippi, Police Department, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on March 22, 1965, NOVICK is employed by COFO in Greenville. He was arrested on March 22, 1965, for failure to obey the lawful order of a police officer; this was a result of picketing by COFO of the Greenville Mills. (U)

Information concerning the CPD is set forth in the Appendix Section.

MARTIN ALBRECHT NICOLAUS
ELENA VICTORIA ORTIZ NICOLAUS

JESSE LEE HARRIS, SNCC Project Director, Vicksburg, Mississippi, advised Special Agents of the FBI during March, 1965, that a Freedom Library is a project of the COFO office in Jackson. He said MARTIN NICOLAUS and his wife, VICTORIA, have been working on this project attempting to obtain books and to get the library operating. NICOLAUS and his wife reside in Jackson.

On September 22, 1964, a Federal Grand Jury, Eastern District of New York, Brooklyn, New York, returned a true bill charging MARTIN NICOLAUS and eight others with conspiracy to violate Title 8, United States Code, Section 1185 (b) in regard to existing United States laws restricting travel to Cuba. A signed court order dated November 20, 1964, extended the parole limitations for MARTIN NICOLAUS to go to and from the State of Mississippi for purposes of employment by COFO in Jackson.

On April 4, 1965, JN T-6 furnished information to the effect that in February, 1965, Mrs. VICTORIA NICOLAUS, COFO, Jackson Freedom Center, W. E. B. DuBois Freedom Library, 852 Short Street, Jackson, Mississippi, contacted the managing editor of the magazine, "Freedomways," 799 Broadway, New York, New York. (U)

Mrs. NICOLAUS explained she and her husband are spending the year in Jackson and one of the things which they had done was set up the W. E. B. DuBois Freedom Library. She requested a (U) picture of W. E. B. DuBois and multiple copies of the special memorial issue of "Freedomways." This is a special memorial issue devoted to W. E. B. DuBois. (U)

Concerning W. E. B. DuBois, "The New York Times" on August 8, 1963, Page 3, contains an article that W. E. B. DuBois died on August 28, 1963. He went to Ghana as the guest of President Kwame Nkrumah to become Director of the Encyclopedia Africana, which was sponsored by the Government of Ghana, and became a citizen of that country. The article states that "During his later years, he was active in many left-wing and Communist activities. In the Fall of 1961, at the age of 93, he joined the Communist Party."

A characterization of Freedomways Associates Incorporated, publisher of the magazine "Freedomways" is set forth in the Appendix.

CHARLES EDSON SCATTERGOOD

JN T-7 advised on February 12, 1964, SCATTERGOOD lived at the residence of ROSCOE PROCTOR, [redacted], during January, 1964. He was then affiliated with [redacted] and SCATTERGOOD had plans to travel to southern states to participate in racial demonstrations.

JN T-8 advised in April, 1964, that ROSCOE PROCTOR is a member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA.

BRYCE ALEXANDER, Chief of Police, Indianola, Mississippi, Police Department, advised during April, 1965, SCATTERGOOD is very active in COFO activities in the area. He has been arrested in the past for his actions involving racial demonstrations.

JN 100-57

THERESA E. DEL POZZO

CHARLES HORWITZ, Communications, COFO, Jackson, Mississippi, advised on April 28, 1965, DEL POZZO is working for COFO in Jackson. She resides at the Girls COFO Freedom House.

MISS WIS

The May 22, 1964, issue of "The Daily Cardinal," the student campus organ at the University of Wisconsin, reported that the final semester meeting of Friends of SNCC, on Thursday night on the University campus, THERESA DEL POZZO was one of the chairman appointed for the summer.

The April 10, 1962, issue of "The Daily Cardinal" reported that JOSEPH HANSEN, editor of "The Militant," official organ of the Socialist Workers Party, gave a talk on the night of April 9, 1962, before the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC).

JN T-9 (C) U advised in April, 1962, DEL POZZO was at the above meeting and had attended other meetings of the club.

Informant also advised in July, 1962, that the WSC had held a meeting on July 29, 1962, and the speaker was DAVID EAKINS.

NEWELL CHILTON SELLS, a Communist Party member from 1948 to August, 1955, advised in 1957 that he knew DAVID EAKINS as a member of the Communist Party.

WIS

A characterization of the WSC appears in the Appendix Section of this report.

JN T-10 on March 2 and 8, 1965, made available information which reflected the following offices of COFO were receiving the Week end and Mid-week Editions of "The Worker": (C) (U)

JN T-15 advised on October 23, 1963, that at a meeting of the Connecticut Branch, Socialist Workers Party held on October 6, 1963, at New Haven, Connecticut, it was mentioned that the Reverend ROBERT FORSBERG was a member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and had paid his Fair Play for Cuba Committee membership dues. (X) U

b7C

A characterization of the Connecticut Branch, Socialist Workers Party appears in the Appendix.

JN T-16 on July 14, 1964, made available information which reflected that in July, 1964, Reverend ROBERT FORSBERG, [redacted], had renewed his subscription to "The Militant". (X) U

WILLIAM L. MESSING

[JN T-12] made available during the fall of 1964, information indicating that WILLIAM L. MESSING, a lawyer with the firm of MC LAUGHLIN, FOUGNER and MESSING, 17 East 49th Street, New York City, participated in the Mississippi Summer Project.

[JN T-17 on September 17, 1964,] made available information which indicated that WILLIAM MESSING, 17 East 49th Street, New York, New York, was then associated with the National Lawyers Guild.

A characterization of the NLG appears in the appendix of this report. b6 b7C

Mrs. CAROLINE BALLIN

[JN T-12] made available during the fall of 1964, information indicating that Mrs. CAROLINE BALLIN, [redacted] had reportedly participated in the Mississippi Summer Project at Meridian, Mississippi, from August 1, 1964, to August 23, 1964.

[JN T-18 advised on September 24, 1957, and December 26, 1957, that BALLIN was a member of the Queens County Executive Committee of the Communist Party.

[JN T-19] identified BALLIN as the Communist Party delegate from New York who attended the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) convention held from July 2 to July 9, 1962, in Atlanta, Georgia.

Informant further advised that on April 26, 1964, CAROLINE BALLIN attended a Communist Party sub-committee meeting on NAACP affairs at the Chelsea Hotel, New York City, which meeting was open to both members and non-members of the Communist Party. (U)

b6
b7C

Reverend T. W. SIMER

JN T-12 made available during the fall of 1964 information indicating that T. W. SIMER, [redacted] may have participated in the Mississippi Summer Project. He was reportedly scheduled to participate in voter registrations at Canton, Mississippi during the period February - May, 1964.

JN T-20 made available information that in September, 1943, Reverend T. W. SIMER, [redacted] was contained on a mailing list of the "Daily Worker" and/or "The Worker".

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

Reverend LEE H. BALL

JN T-17 made available during the fall of 1964, information indicating that Reverend LEE H. BALL, [redacted] participated in the Mississippi Summer Project in Jackson, Mississippi from July 20, 1964 to July 31, 1964.

JN T-21 on March 6, 1964, advised that Reverend LEE HAMPTON [redacted] was then Executive Secretary of the Methodist Federation of Social Action (MFSA).

A characterization of the MFSA is contained in the Appendix of this report.

JN T-22 and JN T-23 advised on June 11, 1963, and June 10, 1963, respectively, that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held in New York City on May 28, 1963, Reverend LEE HAMPTON BALL was nominated and unanimously elected to the position of treasurer of the NYCAHUAC.

A characterization of the NYCAHUAC appears in the Appendix Section of this report.

Reverend SHELTON B. WATERS b6 b7C

Reverend SHELTON B. WATERS

JN T-12 (S)(U) made available during the fall of 1964, information indicating that the Reverend SHELTON B. WATERS, [redacted], participated in the Mississippi Summer Project.

JN T-24 on July 17, 1957, advised that RALPH ADAMS and BILL CRAWFORD attended an executive meeting of the 24th Ward Club of the Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD). CRAWFORD stated that another member had given him a package of leaflets for him to distribute. The leaflet, above, was a mimeographed invitation to the first public meeting of a Provisional Committee to Improve Our Neighborhood, set for July 18, 1957, at the First A.M.E. Church, 42nd and Girard Avenue, Philadelphia. Among the listed speakers of this affair was Reverend SHELTON WATERS, Pastor of the First A.M.E. Church. (U)

JN T-25 on May 2, 1955, (S) U advised that Reverend SHELTON WATERS, [redacted], allowed the use of his mimeograph machine for the publication of literature for the Memorial Hall Committee Association.

Philadelphia

Informant also advised that IRENE GARRETT, [redacted] was chairman or president of the Memorial Hall Committee Association.

JN T-26 on January 7, 1955, (S) U advised that IRENE GARRETT then held the position of club organizer in the 24th Ward Section, CPEPD.

S DOROTHEA HAVEN HEGARTY, professionally known as DOROTHEA SCOVILLE

Negroes in Mississippi. This informant advised that HEGARTY does not intend to practice medicine in Mississippi, but will lecture to Negroes on good health practices and diet.

Informant advised that HEGARTY is not going to Mississippi under the sponsorship of any group and intends to contact various organizations in the racial field in Jackson, Mississippi, upon her arrival.

JN T-28 in April, 1959, furnished a Communist Party registration form from Marin County, California, which contained identifying background information similar to that of DOROTHEA HEGARTY. (U)

While at the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), 1017 Lynch Street, Jackson, Mississippi on another matter, Special Agents of the FBI overheard MARY ANN SHUPENKO, co-worker at COFO, made the following statement to MURIEL TILLINGHAST, Office Manager, on March 18, 1965: "How long will we have to put up with the old lady, Dr. SCOVILLE? She's more trouble than she's worth. She can't hear, nor see and I'm not about to lead her around by hand." TILLINGHAST then remarked, "Not too long, she won't stay."

CHRISTOPHER BRATT

JN T-27 on February 28, 1965, (S) U advised that Subject, a [redacted] had departed on February 26, 1965, for Mississippi. Informant advised that BRATT contemplated a stay of about one month in Mississippi to help rebuild burned-out churches.

JN T-29 on September 30, 1954, advised that a subscription to the "People's World" (PW) was maintained in the name of CHRISTOPHER BRATT, [redacted]. This subscription was due to expire April 12, 1955, and was on a yearly basis. (S) U

JN T-30 advised in September, 1958, (S) U that Subject attended a picnic and dinner on September 13, 1958, sponsored by the PW at Muir Beach, Marin County, California.

The PW is a West Coast communist newspaper. b6 b7C

The Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, in November, 1961, made available petitions sent to President EISENHOWER in late 1960. These petitions urged clemency for MORTON SOBELL. One of the petitions bore the name CHRISTOPHER BRATT, [redacted]

A characterization of MORTON SOBELL appears in the Appendix of this report.

ABRAHAM OSHEROFF, also known as Abe Osher, Abraham Osherov, Abe Osherow was a member of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade

JN T-31 advised on July 9, 1964, that OSHEROFF had indicated he had raised enough money to build a freedom school and community center just outside of Jackson, Mississippi, with the assistance of another man and the people near Jackson, Mississippi.

JN T-32 advised on January 15, 1965, that at a meeting of the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Los Angeles, California, on January 15, 1965, OSHEROFF gave a lecture concerning his experiences in Mississippi during the summer of 1964, and showed pictures he had taken of his stay there. He said he had collected $10,000 to aid the Negroes in the South and that he and another carpenter had built a community house for Negroes in a community in Mississippi.

Records of the Manhattan Board of Elections, New York, New York, reviewed in October, 1942, indicated OSHEROFF was listed on a petition as a candidate of the Communist Party for the New York State Assembly from the 23rd Assembly District, Kings County in the autumn of 1940.

JN T-33 advised in December, 1944, that OSHEROFF admitted on July 24, 1944, that he had been an active member of the Communist Party prior to the time that he entered the United States Army.

Informant further advised that OSHEROFF had also indicated in July, 1944, that while in the Armed Forces his status in the Communist Party might be described as being "on leave" from political activities.

JN T-34 advised on various dates during the period June 2, 1947, to March 22, 1951, that OSHEROFF continued his activities in the Communist Party in New York during the same period, occupying many positions of leadership.

The November 3, 1940, issue of the "Daily Worker" contained an article indicating that OSHEROFF was a member of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and fought in the Spanish Civil War.

> The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958. The Abraham Lincoln Brigade and Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 23, 1956, OSHEROFF was interviewed in New York by Special Agents of the FBI and furnished information concerning his membership in, and disillusionment with, the Communist Party. He said he had been associated with the Communist Party for twentyfive years, and was moving to the West Coast to start a new life and break all his party ties in New York. He said that as a matter of principle, he could not furnish any information about his associates in the Communist Party and could not bring himself to talk about his past Party activities because it might involve others. On August 7, 1962, he advised Special Agents of the FBI that he had broken from the Communist Party in 1957, and did not desire to discuss his membership or activities further. He said he was sorry he had stayed in the Party as long as he did, and had no intention of returning to the Communist Party.

[JN T-17] (X)U furnished a copy of the National Lawyers Guild Book captioned "Project Mississippi," which contained a list of lawyers participating in the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South (CLAS), a project of the NLG for the summer of 1964.

Among the 66 lawyers listed in this operation were the names of two attorneys from Philadelphia, HARRY LORE, assigned to Greenwood, Mississippi the week of August 17, 1964, and IRVING MILLER, who was assigned to the same location at the same time.

HARRY LORE

JN T-35 on August 25, 1954, advised that one HENRY LORRE (Phonetic) on that date had contact with Dr. BARNEY MALBIN in Portland, Oregon. Informant learned that MALBIN had not seen LORRE before. Informant stated LORRE (Phonetic) was apparently on a hitchhiking trip and intended returning to Philadelphia where he was a student in an unnamed law school. LORRE (Phonetic) claimed that while he was in the Merchant Marine Service, he visited Communist Party headquarters in France. Informant was unable to learn the purpose of or significance of LORRE's (Phonetic) contact with MALBIN. (U)

On December 28, 1954, Informant identified a photograph of LORE as being identical with the individual whom he reported as being in contact with Dr. MALBIN on August 25, 1954, and whom he identified at that time as being one HENRY LORRE (Phonetic). (U)

[JN T-36 on April 14, 1955] (X)U advised that Dr. BARNEY MALBIN was known to him as a member of the Communist Party, District 11, in Oregon in 1948. Informant stated MALBIN has been active in Communist Party front activity in District 11 from 1948 to April, 1955.

[JN T-37 on February 11, 1955] (X)U advised he was acquainted with LORE while at the Temple University during the academic year 1953 - 1954 and stated that in discussions, LORE always praised the Russian form of government and criticized the United States Government. According to Informant, LORE on at least one occasion, stated that the various international situations that developed were the fault of the United States Government. (X)

The September, 1960, issue of the "New York Guild Lawyer" which is self-described as a publication of the National Lawyers Guild, sets forth the officers and members of the National Executive Board of the NLG elected at July, 1960 Convention. Listed on the Executive Board from Philadelphia was HARRY LORE.

IRVING MILLER

The February 22, 1962, edition of the "New York Times" contains a full-page advertisement of the Ad Hoc Committee to Abolish the HCUA, 160 North 15th Street, Philadelphia. This ad, which appeared on Page 17, was in the form of "An appeal to the House of Representatives to Abolish the UCA," and listed numerous individuals. Listed under Business and Professional Leaders was the name ERWIN MILLER, Attorney, Philadelphia.

[JN T-17 on September 7, 1964,] (X) U made available the current mailing list of the NLG. This list contained the name of ERWIN MILLER, Esquire, [redacted] (X)

OTHELL MALLOUF

JN T-38 advised on January 28, 1965, that on January 29, 1965, OTHELL MALLOUF, [redacted] and four other carpenters from the San Francisco Bay area, would depart by car and proceed to an area about sixty miles from Jackson, Mississippi, for a period of two to three weeks to aid in re-building burned churches. Informant advised that the identities of the other four members of the party are unknown to him. (C) (U)

Informant advised that MALLOUF is a current active member of the Marin County, California, Communist Party.

B. MISSISSIPPI FREEDOM DEMOCRATIC PARTY

On May 13, 1965, Reverend ROBERT L. T. SMITH advised that he was elected treasurer of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party at its inception during 1963. The original concept of this group was to set up democratic clubs throughout the State of Mississippi and through these clubs get qualified candidates elected to offices throughout the political structure and through this system exert pressure upon other duly elected officials to improve the overall conditions of the Negro people in the State. He said it was not the purpose of this original group to start another political party in the State of Mississippi.

He stated he became disillusioned with the way the party was being handled and felt its motives and objectives were not what they should have been. He said it was difficult to determine just who was making the decisions of the party, even though he was the treasurer.

Reverend SMITH advised on October 1, 1964, that he sincerely felt the Freedom Democratic Party was a "mistake." He stated he had become skeptical of the motives of ROBERT MOSES and Mrs. FANNIE LOU HAMER because they did not return to Mississippi after the Democratic National Convention and instead had taken a trip to Europe for a "rest." He stated that it is quite obvious from the caliber of some of the candidates picked by the backers of the Freedom Democratic Party that capable persons were not wanted, and that the ideas in choosing the candidates appear to be the ease of control.

He stated that such motives as one man rule in the absence of the Executive Committee of the Freedom Democratic Party had led him to believe that influence was being exerted by certain individuals working not for the Negro but for the communists.

CHARLES EVERS, State Field Secretary, NAACP, State of Mississippi, on October 1, 1964, stated that the Freedom Democratic Party was doomed to failure because they wanted "too much too soon" and had no foundation of education, registered voters among the Negroes and/or financial backing. He said that the group which attended the National Democratic Convention did not have the welfare of the country or Mississippi at heart and were primarily interested in personal gain, i.e. "patronage."

JN T-39 furnished information on December 18, 1964, to the effect that a meeting was held on December 8, 1964, at the offices of Harlem Parents Committee, 514 West 126th Street, New York City, for the formation of the Ad Hoc Committee for the support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party; also that a rally of the Ad Hoc Committee was scheduled to be held on December 20, 1964, in Harlem, New York City. This was to be a "kick-off rally" and blacks as well as whites were welcome. Speakers would include MALCOLM X and JESSE GRAY. 51 (X) 4

The first speaker at the rally was Mrs. FANNIE LOU HAMER of the MFDP. Mrs. HAMER stated that the "Challenge" would begin on January 4, 1965, at Washington, D. C., with some sort of demonstration, possibly a march. The "Challenge" will continue until July 4, 1965.

MALCOLM X spoke on the Congo and the Kenya rebellion in Africa and pointed out that the African freedom fighters, better known as the Mau Mau, were needed to straighten things out in Mississippi and Harlem. MALCOLM X acknowledged that freedom is won by ballots and votes, but stated that freedom fighters were needed where justice did not prevail.

JESSE GRAY, Harlem Rent-Strike Organizer, said that the MFDP needs an appeal to the masses; more black people should join in MFDP.

JN T-40 advised on August 6, 1964, (X) 4 that MALCOLM X is Founder and President of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated.

A characterization of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated appears in the Appendix of this report.

JN T-41 advised on November 20, 1958, that JESSE GRAY had been the organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party but this position terminated during November, 1958.

JN T-42 advised on January 24, 1964, that according to WILLIAM PATTERSON, Chairman of the New York District, Communist Party, JESSE GRAY is no longer a Communist Party member, but is friendly to the Communist Party. (U)

JN T-43 and JN T-44 advised on December 22 and 23, 1964, respectively, that they had just received via mail an undated letter on letterhead stationery of the MFDP, which set forth eighteen typewritten signatures, together with the title and organizational affiliation of each.

The letter declared that 1000 Negroes from Mississippi wish to march on Washington, D. C., for the opening day of Congress, January 4, 1965, to speak for freedom with their bodies. The letter pointed out that Negro citizens of Mississippi were talking about going to Washington but had been prevented by a Mississippi State injunction from raising the money for their trip. It noted that $50,000.00 was needed by January 1st to pay the costs of travel to Washington, D. C. The letter solicited funds for this purpose. The letter appeared over the names of the following individuals:

FRANK BRANN, Vice-President, California Democratic Council; FRANKLYN Keith BRANN

NANCY SWADESH, member, California State Democratic Central Committee;

WESTER SWEET, Attorney at Law;

Reverend SIDNEY A. PETERMAN;

JESSICA MITFORD, author ("American Way of Death," etc.);

Rabbi SIDNEY AXELROD;

JN 100-57

EMMA GELDERS STERNE, author ("Mary McLeod Bethune," etc.);

VICTOR K. ULMER, President, Local 957, American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO;

JOHN E. THORNE, Attorney at Law;

JOHN HOWARD GRIFFIN, author ("Black Like Me," etc.);

MARSHALL WINDMILLER, Associate Professor of International Relations, San Francisco State College;

HENRY PITCHFORD, President, Santa Clara County Catholic Interracial Council;

WILLIAM F. STANTON, JR., Assemblyman, 25th A.D., California;

JOHN DEERMAN, Chairman, San Francisco Friends of SNCC;

BARBARA ULMER, Northern California Regional President, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom;

WILFORD T. USSERY, National Second Vice President, Congress of Racial Equality;

Father THOMAS FRY, Chaplain, Santa Clara County Catholic Interracial Coucil;

WILLIAM CHESTER, Regional Director, Northern California ILWU.

FRANKLYN KEITH BRANN, also known as FRANK BRANN, advised Special Agents of the FBI on July 11, 1956, that he had joined the San Francisco Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) about 1951, and that he served as a member of the Executive Board for a short time. He stated that he decided to leave the NLG and explained his position clearly to the Executive Board of that organization, and withdrew from the group. BRANN is not currently active in the NLG.

JN T-45 advised on April 1, 1953 (X) U that JESSICA TREUHAFT was reported as a Communist Party member in California in 1948 and was described as an individual having an understanding of Marxism who helped shape local Communist Party policy.

TREUHAFT is also known as JESSICA MITFORD, author of "The American Way of Death."

JN T-46 on December 16, 1964, (X) U advised that EMMA GELDERS STERNE is a current active member of the Communist Party in San Jose, California.

JN T-47 on October 22, 1963, (X) U advised that JOHN THORNE, an attorney in San Jose and a member of the NLG is a Communist Party sympathizer, who participates in activities promoted by the Communist Party in the San Jose, California area.

JN T-8 on February 26, 1962, (X) U advised that MARSHALL WINDMILLER is an Associate Professor of International Relations at San Francisco State College.

On February 12, 1962, MERLE BRODSKY, former Chairman of the Communist Party, East Bay Region, stated that Professor MARSHALL WINDMILLER of San Francisco State College was closely connected with the Communist Party. BRODSKY commented that WINDMILLER must avoid close identification with the Communist Party because of his position as a teacher. BRODSKY observed that it was to the advantage of the Communist Party to have someone like WINDMILLER on the campus because he served the aims and purposes of the Communist Party, even though he attacked the Communist Party at times.

JN T-49 on November 27, 1942, advised that WILLIAM HICKS CHESTER is the Northern California Regional Director of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California. CHESTER originally was recruited into the Communist Party by a member of the Fillmore Section of the San Francisco County Communist Party in 1942.

JN T-50 who is familiar with certain phases of communist activities in the Baltimore, Maryland, area on December 31, 1964, advised that GEORGE MEYERS, Communist Party, National Executive Committee member and organizer for the Communist Party Southern Region, was trying to get a group of Communist Party members and "friends" to go to Washington, D. C., on January 4, 1965, to meet with Mrs. VICTORIA GRAY, Mrs. FANNIE LOU HAMER and Mrs. ANNIE DEVINE of the MFDP and escort them around Washington, D. C., as they contact Congressmen for the purpose of making known the fact that the MFDP is challenging the seating of newly elected Representatives from Mississippi. Informant advised that MEYERS did not intend to accompany the group. (U)

On January 1, 1965, Miss EMILY GORDON, Council of Federated Organizations volunteer, Jackson, Mississippi, advised Special Agents of the FBI that Mississippi Negro residents slightly in excess of 500 would participate during January 2 through 7, 1965, in what was being considered "The Challenge" of Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party. She stated definite goals of this Challenge would be formulated at Washington, D. C., on January 3, 1965, when participants would assemble at one of several churches not determined at this time. She stated in general the group would lobby for Freedom Democratic Party candidates, confer with the press and speak with congressmen in an effort to urge recognition of Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party representatives in Congress.

She listed the persons JAN GOODMAN and LAWRENCE GUYOT as organizers of "The Challenge" at Washington, D. C. She included the name STOKELEY CARMICHAEL, associated in Jackson, Mississippi with Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee as involved in the organization effort. She also named Miss ROBERTA GALLER, connected with the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party at Jackson, Mississippi as responsible in the State of Mississippi for organization.

JN T-51 advised on September 24, 1963 that among those individuals at this high school who in his opinion had been "devoted to left wing activities" was one STOKELY CARMICHAEL, 1810 Amethyst Street, Bronx, New York, a graduate of the class of 1960. According to this informant, CARMICHAEL, a Negro, was a close friend to EUGENE DENNIS, JR., son of the former General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, EUGENE DENNIS, now deceased.

The "San Jose Mercury," a daily newspaper, dated January 4, 1965, carried a story, dateline January 4, 1965, at San Jose, California, reporting that approximately 375 people appeared at a rally in front of the United States Post Office in downtown San Jose on Sunday, January 3, 1965, to protest the seating of three Mississippi Congressmen in Washington, January 4, 1965.

FRED HIRSCH, Co-Chairman of the Santa Clara Valley Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, urged the crowd to make phone calls and send telegrams to local Congressmen urging the Mississippi Congressmen not be seated on January 4, 1965.

JN T-5 who is aware of the identity of Communist Party members in Santa Clara County, advised on January 4, 1965 that he observed the following individuals, known to him to be current, active members of the Communist Party in Santa Clara County, attending the rally on January 3, 1965:

JOE GRAHAM
FRIEDA GRAHAM
FRANCIS FINK
VIVIAN FINK
DON CLARK
SAUL WACHTER

BILLIE WACHTER
BARBARA LINDSAY
EMMA STERN
CHARLES BROWN
PHYLLIS BROWN. CALIF

In addition, informant advised that FRED and VIRGINIA HIRSCH, who attended the rally, were active members of the Communist Party in San Jose until 1963, at which time they resigned from the Communist Party so that FRED HIRSCH could advance in his union and become active in Santa Clara County politics.

Informant advised that he was told by Communist Party officials in San Jose to be certain to attend the rally on January 3, 1965. (C) (U)

WILLIAM THORNTON BELCHER, JR. CALIF

The "San Francisco Chronicle" on January 14, 1965, reported that San Francisco Bay Area lawyers were bound for Mississippi to assist in the taking of depositions to support the challenge against the Congressmen elected from Mississippi. The article identified BELCHER as one of the group due to arrive in Mississippi, Wednesday, January 20, 1965, to join lawyers from other parts of the country.

JN T-52 (X) reported that during the early part of 1946, BELCHER attended meetings of the Seamen's Branch, San Francisco County Communist Party, which were held at 1402 Powell Street, San Francisco.

EDWARD STERN CALIF

STERN was reportedly one of the attorneys who was scheduled to come to Mississippi to assist in taking depositions.

CONFIDENTIAL

STERN is self-employed as an attorney in San Francisco, California. In the June 30, 1964, issue of the "National Lawyers Guild News Letter," STERN was identified as a member of the San Francisco Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild who was participating with a panel of sixty lawyers in some forty trials of 1,000 defendants arrested in civil rights demonstrations.

SAUNDERS was reportedly one of the attorneys who was scheduled to come to Mississippi to assist in taking depositions. He resides at [redacted] SAUNDERS was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at Stockton, California on July 22, 1957. He stated he first became a Communist Party member in the fall of 1948 at the University of North Carolina. He was a member of the Communist Party at the University of Wisconsin in 1949. He also admitted being a member of the Communist Party at the University of Texas from 1950 - 1951, and a member of the Communist Party at Berkeley, California, from 1953 to the spring of 1957.

51 BENJAMIN BALLINGER DREYFUS, also known as Barney Dreyfus

The "San Francisco Examiner," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, on January 19, 1965, contained an article indicating that San Francisco attorneys left San Francisco on January 19, 1965, and were proceeding to Mississippi. The attorneys are proceeding to the Fourth Congressional District which includes Neshoba County, Mississippi, in order to perfect a challenge to the Mississippi Congressional Delegation. Included in this group which left on January 19, 1965, was Subject DREYFUS.

Subject was born March 9, 1910, at San Francisco. He resides at 1 Blythedale Terrace, Mill Valley, California. He is an attorney with offices at 341 Market Street, San Francisco. He is 5'10", weighs 160 pounds, medium build, light brown hair, balding, blue eyes, and fair complexion.

CONFIDENTIAL

JN T-53, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party on June 23, 1955, stated that he was a member of the Haymarket Club, Professional Section of the Communist Party from 1935 - 1950. BENJAMIN DREYFUS was identified as a Communist Party member from 1942 - 1950.

On June 21, 1957, BENJAMIN DREYFUS testified that he had been a member of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) for many years. When he was asked if he was a member of the Communist Party in San Francisco, he refused to answer and took refuge in the First and Fifth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

JN T-54 advised DREYFUS was National President of the NLG from 1962 - 1964.

MATTHEW J. WADLEIGH

On January 20, 1965, M. J. WADLEIGH, an attorney from San Francisco, California, while obtaining depositions from Negroes in Leake County, Mississippi, advised Special Agents of the FBI that he had volunteered his services to the MFDP for a number of days in order to secure depositions.

JN T-55 on August 10, 1961, advised that at a National Executive Board meeting of the NLG in Chicago, Illinois, on May 20, 1961, M. J. WADLEIGH, 345 Franklin Street, San Francisco, was appointed to the Special Sub-Committee on Atomic Disarmament.

ANNA RIGGS LANGFORD

JN T-56 advised on January 21, 1965, that a briefing session of the Chicago Chapter of the NLG was held January 16, 1965, at Chicago, for lawyers interested in helping unseat Mississippi's "Five Man Congressional Delegation." As a result of this meeting, lawyers from across the United States were to go to Mississippi between January 25 and February 12, 1965, to work with the Council of Federated Organizations in taking depositions from Negroes deprived of voter rights. Pressure would then be brought on Congressmen by letter and petition from individuals and organizations to vote for new elections in Mississippi, with the Negro exercising his voting rights.

ANNA RIGGS LANGFORD was one of a group of Chicago attorneys scheduled to participate in the above program, according to the informant.

WILLIAM KUNSTLER

An article appearing in the January 25, 1965 issue of the Clarion Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi newspaper, indicated that KUNSTLER was one of the attorneys directing the taking of depositions in support of the allegation that Negroes had been deprived of their right to register or vote in the November election.

JN T-23 advised on October 29, 1962, that a rally was held on October 24, 1962, sponsored by the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee at the Manhattan Center, 34th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City. WILLIAM KUNSTLER spoke at the rally and told the audience that the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) interferes with social progress and the brotherhood of man. KUNSTLER called for the abolition of the HCUA.

JN T-57 advised on November 3, 1962, that KUNSTLER had had the "Daily Worker" delivered to his home in Port Chester, New York.

ARTHUR KINOY

In an article appearing in the Clarion Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi daily newspaper, dated January 25, 1965, it was indicated that certain attorneys will work in Jackson, Mississippi taking depositions in an effort to obtain evidence in support of the allegation that Negroes had been improperly deprived from registering to vote in the November, 1964, election in Washington. The article stated that among the attorneys directing the case are ARTHUR KINOY and WILLIAM KUNSTLER.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(U)

JN T-58 on August 30, 1960, advised that ARTHUR KINOY had attempted to set up a Communist Party Club of professionals following the 16th National Communist Party Convention in 1957. (X)

On January 26, 1965, MORTON STAVIS, of counsel to the Mississippi Challenge, was in contact with the FBI Office in Jackson, Mississippi at which time he advised that attorneys have arrived in Mississippi from many states in the union and will commence the taking of depositions in respect to the challenge of the five Mississippi Congressmen.

JN T-59 advised on August 3, 1954, (X)4 that STAVIS was known to him as a Communist Party member and that in the presence of a third person, also known to informant as a Communist Party member, STAVIS had discussed action to be taken when approached by members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. (X)

On January 27, 1953, WILLIAM WALLACE, a self-admitted former Communist Party member from 1949 to 1955, stated that all members of the Communist Party in New Jersey had received instructions that should they be interviewed by Agents of the FBI they should report what had gone on at the interview to MORTON STAVIS.

OTHER Per Court Order

STAVIS invoked the Fifth Amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee on February 28, 1956, when asked questions concerning present or past Communist Party membership.

An article appearing in the "Los Angeles Daily Journal", January 27, 1965, sets forth information that twelve Los Angeles attorneys have volunteered to give legal aid during the "Challenge," and that co-ordinators for the local group were HUGH R. MANES and LARRY SPERBER. S1

JN T-17 on May 19, 1964, (X) U furnished a letter dated May 8, 1964, prepared on the stationery of the National Lawyers Guild, Committee to Assist Southern Lawyers, office address 3220 Cadillac Tower, Detroit. Among the officers of this organization was listed the name of [redacted] (X)

OTHER Per Court Order

JN T-60 advised on May 6, 1963, (X) U that on May 1, 1963, LAWRENCE RAYMOND SPERBER attended a National Lawyers Guild banquet at 12825 Ventura Boulevard, North Hollywood, California. At this meeting it was announced LARRY SPERBER was editor of a newspaper called "Law In Transition" published by the NLG. It was announced SPERBER also contributed $300.00 to a collection at this banquet.

JN T-61 on January 27, 1965, (X) U advised Attorney FRANK PESTANA had been in Mississippi for a few days and expected to return in about one week. Informant did not know where PESTANA was in Mississippi, or whether he was connected with the group of twelve volunteer attorneys; however, informant was of the opinion PESTANA was undoubtedly there in connection with the civil rights struggle in that area.

Informant advised as of January 5, 1965, FRANK PESTANA was a member of the Professional-Cultural Section, Southern California District Communist Party. S1

JN T-47 advised on January 28, 1965, (X) U that Attorney NORMAN HOWARD was among a group of attorneys leaving San Jose, California, Friday, January 29, 1965, destined for Mississippi. S1

JN T-62 advised on February 27, 1962 that as of 1946, NORMAN HOWARD was a member of the Mike Quinn Club of the Communist Party of Los Angeles, California.

JN T-63 advised on May 14, 1953 that HOWARD was being transferred from the Los Angeles County Communist Party to the Communist Party of Northern California. He complained to the Party that security of his job as attorney for Shell Oil Company had been jeopardized as a result of contact by a Communist Party member under conditions not insuring security.

JN T-64 advised on June 24, 1959, that at a Communist Party meeting in Santa Clara County, California, held June 11, 1959, Communist Party members discussed obtaining a "People's World" contribution from HOWARD. (U)

The "PW" is a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

The January 29, 1965, issue of "The Record," published daily at Hackensack, New Jersey, on Page 13, contained an article stating that WALTER T. WITTMAN, a well known local attorney of Paramus, New Jersey, left for Jackson, Mississippi, on January 28, 1965, to assist in taking depositions.

JN T-65 advised on December 19, 1953, that WALTER WITTMAN was a member of a professional group of the Communist Party from 1947 until late 1950 or early 1951 and attended meetings of the group, some of which were held at WITTMAN's residence.

MARGARET MERRITT

The "San Francisco Examiner," a daily newspaper on January 30, 1965, set forth that various court reporters were proceeding to Mississippi as volunteers on the MFDP challenge.

[redacted] CONFIDENTIAL

Among a group of court reporters proceeding from the San Francisco Bay area is MARGARET ANNE MERRITT, nee SCHROETER, also known as MARGARET ANN PURSLEY.

JN T-66 (X)U reported in June, 1944, that MARGARET ANN PURSLEY was a new member of the Southwest Berkeley Club, Alameda County Communist Party. Informant reported PURSLEY attended meetings of this club in 1947, 1948 and 1949.

BENJAMIN MARGOLIS

JN T-61 on February 9, 1965 (X)U learned that Attorney MARGOLIS was in Mississippi in behalf of Negro citizens disputing their exclusion from the recent elections.

Informant advised that as of February, 1961, BEN MARGOLIS was a member of the Lawyer's Club, Professional-Cultural Section, Southern California District, Communist Party.

HUGH BRAZEL MILLER appeared at the San Francisco Office of the FBI on February 8, 1965. He stated that he spent the first week of February, 1965, as a volunteer worker on the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party challenge.

JN T-67 (X)U advised that San Francisco Attorney HUGH MILLER had been a member of the Professional Section of the Communist Party in San Francisco from 1945 - 1951. Informant advised that MILLER's wife, HELEN MILLER, had been a Communist Party member from 1937 - 1950.

JN T-68 (X)U reported that as of March, 1964, HUGH B. MILLER, [redacted], was a member of the San Francisco NLG.

b7C

An article appearing in the "People's World" of February 13, 1965, reported that fourteen attorneys from the Los Angeles area had volunteered to go to Mississippi to gather evidence to substantiate the challenge of the present "all-white Mississippi Congressional Delegation."

[redacted] CONFIDENTIAL

Some of those listed were as follows:

ALAN NEIMAN

On April 27, 1962, ALAN NEIMAN, Attorney, represented CHAUNCEY ALEXANDER before a subcommittee hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) in Los Angeles. ALEXANDER refused to answer questions other than those relating to his identity.

JN T-69 in May, 1955, advised CHAUNCEY ALEXANDER joined the Communist Party in 1939 and was a member until the end of 1954, with the exception of the years he spent in the Armed Forces. He paid his Communist Party dues to the end of 1954. He dropped from the Communist Party on the basis that he was "tied up" obtaining his PH.D., but indicated he still supported the program of the Communist Party and wished eventually to rejoin.

EDWARD MOSK

JN T-70 advised in the early 1940's, MOSK was associated with LEO GALLAGHER, Attorney, who handled the cases of many communists in California during that period. MOSK served in the Office of Strategic Services during World War II, and thereafter in the American Military Government in Germany.

JN T-71 in 1947 advised MOSK was a member of the Hollywood Arts, Sciences and Professions Council (HASP).

A characterization of the HASP appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-72 advised in 1947 that MOSK was a sponsor of the Civil Rights Congress (CRC) in Los Angeles in 1947.

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

JN T-73 advised in July, 1948, ED MOSK became the first chairman of the Independent Progressive Party (IPP) and in August, 1948, was a member of the IPP, State Executive Committee.

A characterization of the IPP appears in the appendix of this report.

IRVING ROSENFIELD

JN T-74 advised in 1953 that IRVING ROSENFIELD was a team captain of the University of California at Los Angeles Club of the Labor Youth League (LYL) in early 1953. He attended LYL meetings in 1951 and 1953, and was a member of the Executive Board, UCLA Club, LYL, from June to September, 1953.

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In August and November, 1956, ROSENFIELD was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI in Denver, Colorado, at which time he admitted attending LYL meetings, but stated he never considered himself to be a member. He furnished names of other individuals in attendance at these meetings. He stated his LYL activity ceased when he entered law school in 1953, stated the reading of transcripts of Smith Act trials "opened his eyes" and was of the opinion the LYL was an organization dominated and controlled by the Communist Party. He stated he believed the Communist Party and its front organizations constituted a threat to the internal security of the United States.

CHARLES B. STEWART, JR.

Appearing in "The Los Angeles Daily Journal" of February 1, 1965, was an article reporting recent NLG elections in Los Angeles. Among the new officers was listed CHARLES B. STEWART, JR., Vice-President of the Los Angeles NLG.

JN T-60 on March 2, 1965, advised there was a National Lawyers Guild (NLG) luncheon at 1123 North Vine Street, Los Angeles. BEN MARGOLIS was speaker of the day and described the time he spent in Mississippi taking depositions in the Challenge against the current congressional representatives from that state. Among those present who went to Mississippi for the same reason were IRVING ROSENFIELD, HARRIET BUHAI, PAULINE EPSTEIN and MAYNARD OMERBERG.

HARRIET BUHAI

JN T-75 advised that as of March, 1947, HARRIET BUHAI was a member of the Culver City Club, Los Angeles County Communist Party.

JN T-76 advised in October, 1957, that BUHAI stated she had been a Communist Party member from 1941 to 1953.

JN T-77 advised that BUHAI was a member of the NLG in 1958, 1961 and 1962.

PAULINE EPSTEIN

JN T-78 on April 9, 1963, furnished the 13th Annual Conference Journal of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (LACPFB) for the year 1963. On Page 8, PAULINE EPSTEIN was listed as a member of the Legal Panel of the LACPFB.

A characterization of the LACPFB appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-77 advised PAULINE EPSTEIN was a member of the NLG in 1955, 1956, from 1958 to 1962 and in 1964.

MAYNARD OMERBERG

JN T-78 on July 13, 1964, advised that at an enlarged board meeting of the LACPFB on July 9, 1964, it was announced OMERBERG would go to Mississippi to help register Negroes and instruct them in their civil rights. (U)

JN T-79 in April, 1948, advised OMERBERG was an Independent Progressive Party candidate for Congress from the 15th Congressional District in Los Angeles.

JN T-80 advised that during the latter part of 1950, OMERBERG was a member of the Lawyers Panel of the Civil Rights Congress as of January, 1949.

GEORGE SLAFF

Appearing in the "Beverly Hills Times" of February 25, 1965, March 4, 1965, and March 11, 1965, were three articles written by Attorney GEORGE SLAFF regarding his trip to Mississippi. In the first article SLAFF wrote that BOB SHUTAN of Beverly Hills was one of the attorneys who traveled to Mississippi.

From 1948 to the present, SLAFF has been legal counsel for Samuel Goldwyn Productions, Hollywood, California.

In February, 1942, SLAFF furnished a statement to the Federal Power Commission, categorically denying he had ever been a member of an organization which advocated the overthrow of the Government by force and violence.

JN T-81 in 1942 advised SLAFF was considered an extreme radical, if not a communist, by a large number of his associates in the Federal Power Commission. Informant further advised SLAFF believed completely in Government ownership of utilities and big business.

ROBERT SHUTAN

Records of the California State Bar Association reflect ROBERT H. SHUTAN was born May 12, 1918 and was admitted to the California Bar on February 1, 1943.

JN T-73 on December 2, 1960 advised SHUTAN was a sustainer of the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms, (CCPAF).

A characterization of the CCPAF appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-17 advised in September, 1964, that as of September, 1964, the name and address of ROBERT SHUTAN, Esquire, 315 South Beverly, Beverly Hills, were maintained by the NLG.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY,
CONNECTICUT BRANCH

A source has advised that on March 10, 1961, the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) Political Committee approved the formal constitution of an SWP branch in Connecticut.

Another source advised on March 28, 1961, that a communication from the National Office of the SWP in New York City commending Connecticut on becoming a branch of the SWP was read at a meeting of the Connecticut SWP members held March 25, 1961, at Milford, Connecticut.

On May 18, 1964, a third source advised that the Connecticut Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP) is affiliated with and follows the aims and purposes of the National SWP.

On October 20, 1964, the third source advised that on that date William Winnick, CBSWP organizer, stated that the membership of the CBSWP voted to dissolve the CBSWP at a meeting held on August 2, 1964, at New Haven, Connecticut.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB
OF WEST LOS ANGELES

On April 28, 1964, a source advised that the W. E. B. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles, was organized by Ruth Greenbaum with the assistance of Marvin Treiger in February, 1964.

A second source advised on April 17, 1964, that as of April, 1964, Ruth Greenbaum was a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) and that Marvin Treiger was chairman of the Youth Commission, SCDCP.

The first source above stated that the DuBois Club was organized mainly to meet the needs of Marxist-Orientated students at the University of California at Los Angeles, (UCLA), but that the club eventually hopes to spread its influence into other areas in West Los Angeles.

The records of the Office of Dean of Student Activities at UCLA, revealed that the DuBois Club has filed for permission to hold meetings and other special functions on the UCLA campus and that permission has been granted. The chairman of the DuBois Club is listed as Ruth Greenbaum. In making this application, the club listed a statement of purpose which states in part, "We the members of the W. E. B. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles, join together to help further the development of a socialist system, free from ignorance, poverty, fear and the economic power exercised by the few over the many.

"Although we view socialism as the likely solution to the ills of the present society, we do not make this an a priori commitment for any honest person to join with us in fighting for a better America and a more rational world."

A third source advised on March 12, 1964, that at a Communist Party (CP) meeting held in Los Angeles, February, 1964, Ben Dobbs, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, spoke on the

OF WEST LOS ANGELES

CP youth movement and stated that the DuBois Club was one of two youth groups operating in the Los Angeles area, both groups were Marxist-Orientated and that members considered themselves Marxists.

A fourth source advised on October 5, 1964, that since its inception, the activities of the DuBois Club have been mainly limited to participation in protests against alleged racial discrimination, participation in Marxist classes and participation in conferences which lead to the creation of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America in the Summer of 1964. This source advised that the W. E. B. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles is not affiliated with the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America and is operating as a chapter of that organization.

On 4/21/65, [redacted] furnished SA JOHN W. WORSHAM one copy of a magazine-type publication entitled "Communists in Civil Rights," shown as "Prepared by the Staff of The Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace, State Capitol Building, Montgomery, Alabama." This informant [redacted]

The informant desired this item returned to him, and this is being done. The original is printed on slick-finish heavy paper, typical of the more expensive types of magazine.

There are enclosed for the Bureau 3 Xerox copies and for Mobile 1 copy for information. It will be noted that on page 8, following the name of Dr. LINUS PAULING, there is a portion obliterated. On the original this was done heavily in black ink. As nearly as can be determined, the obliterated part reads: (honored last year by President JOHNSON after being fired as an atomic secret security risk). Only the last six words can be read positively on the original. Since it has to be returned to informant, further examination cannot be made.

2. NY 2010-S* advised on May 11, 1965, that one [redacted] contacted CP Headquarters, NYC, and asked for HENRY WINSTON who was not in. (C) (U)

3. NY 2745-S* furnished the following information on May 13, 1965, concerning a conversation between HENRY WINSTON and HELEN WINTER: (C) (U)

HELEN asked WINSTON if he knew who the person was. WINSTON said he knew him very well which is why he was interested. She also asked if WINSTON wanted to know what "they" looked like "health-wise." WINSTON told her to generally size "him" up that "he" was in the Soviet Union the last time he, WINSTON, was there. WINSTON added that "he was booted out because he, everybody is of the common opinion, was instrumental among the Africans which started this big to do over there. So he, while I was over there, tried to get me, which I didn't do at all. He went over there under the pretext that he wanted to become a student-Marxist." (C) (U)

WINSTON continued that "he" came back and that he, WINSTON, saw him at the PAUL ROBESON affair (probably the Salute to PAUL ROBESON sponsored by "Freedomways" magazine on April 22, 1965). WINSTON added that then the news came "the other day"that a Negro was "booted out" and "it was after this that he called me." (C) (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

HELEN WINTER inquired if WINSTON knew what the circumstances were surrounding the attache who was "booted out." WINSTON did not know. WINTER mentioned that he was a Negro and WINSTON said he knew he was, that "that is why he called me." (C) (U)

WINSTON added that "he" was coming to see him and HELEN WINTER remarked that she would "keep an eye open" and would "certainly watch him". WINSTON also mentioned that "you know he is associated with 'Freedomways' which we didn't know....JIM JACKSON called me last night." WINTER stated she would talk to JIM about it. (C) (U)

It should be noted that WINSTON is almost completely blind which may explain WINTER's remarks about "watching him." (C) (U)

4. NY 2360-S* advised on May 14, 1965, that a [redacted] (ph) was in contact with HENRY WINSTON at CP Headquarters that date. Their discussion which will be disseminated by separate memorandum concerned what [redacted] (ph) is doing now and their meetings "there" [redacted] remarked that he is working on [redacted], according to [redacted] He said he would like to get WINSTON's comments. WINSTON told him he was agreeable to any time after Thursday (May 20, 1965). (C) (U)

[redacted] (ph) noted that he had left "there" around the middle of February. "It was urgent because - had not been renewed...." [redacted] mentioned also that it "might have been for political reasons, whether they felt I was stirring up trouble, I don't know. It's difficult to say." (C) (U)

OTHER Per Court Order

NY 100-149162

NY 4092-S* advised on [redacted]

On May 14, 1965, a Special Agent of the NYO observed an unknown male Negro departing from CP Headquarters and identified a photograph of [redacted] as that person. On the afternoon of the same date, surveillances were conducted at CLARENCE JONES' office, 165 Broadway, NYC, and at STANLEY LEVISON's office, 1841 Broadway, NYC. JONES was observed returning to his office at 2:35 p.m., but LEVISON and [redacted] were not observed.

b6
b7C
b7D

It should be noted that LEVISON and JONES met with MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. in NYC, on May 13, 1965, and that discussion could have been had concerning [redacted] at that time negating the necessity for the tentative 2:30 meeting of May 14, 1965.

Concerning the Negro attache whom WINSTON and WINTER discussed, it is noted that the "New York World Telegram", 5/12/65, page 3, contained an article "Russia Ousts American Diplomat as Meddler" which states that "Norris D. Garnett a cultural attache on the U.S. Embassy Staff in Moscow was expelled by the Soviet Government on a charge of carrying on work hostile to the U.S.S.R. among African students." ~~(C)~~ (U)

It is also noted that information has been furnished by NY 3246-S* that JOHN HENRIK CLARKE, Associate Editor of "Freedomways" magazine had corresponded with [redacted] in 1963, while [redacted] has been a subscriber to "Freedomways." ~~(C)~~ (U)

b7D

The timing of his contact with WINSTON (5/14/65) which coincides with the dismissal of the cultural attache, NORRIS GARNETT, appears strange in view of the fact that [redacted] had been in New York prior to this time and could have contacted WINSTON earlier. ~~(C)~~ (U)

It is further noted that [redacted] told WINSTON that he "hoped" to be going to Europe in about 3 weeks, a combination of "work and pleasure" trip. As of 3/5/65, [redacted] resided at [redacted] ~~(C)~~ (U)

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: MAY 5, 1965

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Page 9085. Congressman Waggonner, (D) Louisiana, spoke concerning the news blackout on the association of men and organizations with Communist leanings with the leaders of the civil rights movement pointing out that it is well known to those in authority but these connections are very seldom made known to the people. He stated "In an effort to circumvent the news blackout on this vital subject, I plan, from time to time, to make these associations known by publishing them in the Congressional Record, where censorship cannot erase the facts from public view. The first of these insertions concerns the Communist Party and Martin Luther King and appeared in the current issue of the National Review Bulletin, volume 17, No. 19."

CIRM

Reference is made to Boston quarterly report of SA Kenneth P. West 5/13/65.

The following observations are being made for the future guidance of your office in the preparation of reports in captioned matter.

Pages two and three contain information concerning what took place at a meeting of the Communist Party, USA, National Negro Commission 3/20-21/65, New York City. The information was reported by a Chicago and a Baltimore informant. Because the meeting took place at New York City, full details thereof were reported by the New York Office. It would, therefore, have been unnecessary for your office to have included the information concerning that meeting.

On pages 14-17 almost four complete pages are devoted to a verbatim account of what appeared in a publication. It is not desired that lengthy verbatim accounts of publications be included in reports. They should, instead, be summarized. The same applies for the verbatim record of a newspaper article as appearing on pages 23 and 24.

On page 25 information is reported under a subheading "Student March on Washington, April, 1965." There is no apparent connection between the information as reported and CIRM. Insure that information included in quarterly reports in captioned matter is related to CIRM.

There is no apparent reason why rerep contained an Appendix characterization of the Nation of Islam.

The foregoing should be brought to the attention of SA West and the supervisor who approved rerep. No corrective action is desired in this instance.

Reference is made to Miami letter to Bureau 3/16/65, Bureau letter to Miami 3/29/65, and Miami letter to Bureau 3/31/65 relating to information furnished by HARVEY MORRISON ROUNDTREE, of Homestead, Fla. ROUNDTREE had alleged that he had been approached by one EDWARD MATHEWS shortly after his release from Kilby Prison, Montgomery, Ala., in 1951, and MATHEWS attempted to recruit him into the Communist Party.

Mobile Office Indices contain no information which would identify the woman referred to by ROUNDTREE, or to support the story told by ROUNDTREE.

APPROX. 1946

On 5/21/65, Mr. J. J. SUNSERI, Alabama Board Of Corrections, Montgomery, Ala., after a review of prison records, located a record of EDWARD LIONELL MATTHEWS, Aka EDWARD L. MATHEWS, who appears to be identical with the individual referred to by ROUNDTREE. This individual is a WM, Age 47 (In 1950), 5'7¼", 159 lbs., blue eyes, sandy hair, ruddy complexion, Alabama State Prison #58094, FBI #260113. MATTHEWS was sentenced on 3/27/50 in Jefferson County, Ala. to serve a period of two years and two days on two cases of Forgery Second Degree. He was released on 11/5/51, and his address was then given as 1245 North 30th St., Birmingham, Ala. His prison record listed a brother, HAROLD I. MATTHEWS, of Hawthorne, Ala. SUNSERI furnished photographs of EDWARD LIONELL MATTHEWS.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. JES SJ (A)

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (4)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates (4)

and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (4)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

On May 13, 1965, Lieutenant Neil Costello of the Nassau County Police Department, Long Island, New York, advised that on May 12, 1965, Martin Luther King, accompanied by Harry Wachtel and others in King's party, went directly from Kennedy Airport on a tour of Long Island towns, namely: Inwood, Rockville Center, Long Beach and Hempstead. In these towns, according to Costello, they observed slum conditions.

Costello further advised that King, Rustin, Wachtel and John Lewis appeared at a voting rights rally, which was held in the Island Garden Arena, West Hempstead, Long Island, that night. King, Costello reported, did not arrive until 11:10 PM.

On May 13, 1965, on page 2 of "Newsday", a Long Island daily newspaper, there was an article captioned, "Rights Leaders Hit U.S. Foreign Policy". The article reports that a rally in Martin Luther King's honor was held on May 12, 1965, in the Island Garden Arena, West Hempstead, Long Island.

The article reports that King appeared at the rally following remarks of Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York, Bayard Rustin, John Lewis of SNCC, and Lincoln Lynch, Director of the Long Island Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), all of whom assailed the federal government for becoming involved in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic instead of doing more for civil rights and the war on poverty.

King criticized President Johnson for not having made the abolition of the poll tax an integral part of the voting rights bill, but made no mention of Viet Nam or the Dominican Republic.

On May 13, 1965, at 10:08 AM, a Special Agent of the FBI observed Stanley Levison enter the Sheraton Atlantic Hotel, 34th Street and Broadway, New York City, and take an elevator to the 16th Floor.

An inquiry at the hotel registration desk by the Special Agent disclosed that Martin Luther King's suite was 1690-1.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, N.Y.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in November, 1947, advised that C. T. Vivian was a member of the Communist Party (CP) in Peoria, Illinois. On June 24, 1948, this source advised that C. T. Vivian had not been active in CP affairs in the Peoria area for some time and advised he had not been in the area for a long period of time.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On June 1, 1965, Confidential Source One advised that RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL (Program Director of Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) continues to become a more important figure in the operation of SCLC. In the Source's opinion, BLACKWELL is somewhat contemptuous of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY and other ministers at SCLC and has indicated that these ministers, while creating a favorable impression for the organization, do not really understand the purpose of the organization. BLACKWELL has indicated that he is hostile to law enforcement agencies. He has urged other persons at SCLC not to call upon law enforcement agencies for assistance, particularly the Federal Bureau of Investigation. XU

BLACKWELL has developed a close relationship with ERIC and ANN KINDBERG, employees at SCLC. Their relationship appears to be of a political nature and the KINDBERGS appear to have a common political outlook with BLACKWELL. It is known that the KINDBERGs were responsible for the receipt of copies of the publication "Freedomways" at SCLC headquarters and distribute copies of this publication at SCLC. XU

On February 26, 1953, Confidential Source Two advised RANDOLPH BLACKWELL had been a member of the Communist Party in the District of Columbia. XU

It is to be noted that extreme caution must be exercised with respect to the following information inasmuch as this information could conceivably be traced to NY 694-S*. Care must be taken that this source is not placed in jeopardy. This information should not be included in a report unless it is received from another source.

On 6/22/65, there were received from the Soviets via radio six ciphered messages to GUS HALL. One of the messages was as follows: "We hoped to be informed on your plans in respect of sending to USSR CP Delegation composed of 7 persons, CP delegation of CP members active in Negro movement".

GUS HALL informed the Soviets on 6/21/65 of Comrades of CPUSA who would be traveling to the USSR as guests of the CCCP /SU. HALL stated that he would advise as to "what capacity they will go to the USSR" (as activists or as guests of the CCCP/SU). Among those on the list were CARL WINTER and THOMAS DENNIS.

On 6/29/65, there were received from the Soviets, via radio, ciphered-coded messages, one of which was as follo "It is not clear to us what is the purpose of new group of y CP members visit to Moscow. Do they go for rest (according to your quotas you may send 8 persons more) or do you send them instead of a women or Negro delegation that we invited".

Information was also received that PETTIS PERRY will wait for his wife in Moscow.

My dear Mr Hoover:

CIRM

Your files will most likely show something I'd like to get definite on. Some fifteen years ago, the first of the "sit ins" knell -ins, marches occured in Greensboro, N. C., which was the then address of one Mary Price, later admitted and convicted spy who had been the state manager of Henry Wallace's Presidential campaign, Greensboro likewise being the address of one Junius Scales, communist--- thats where the marches started, and how well the communists have done what they said they would do, is shown by the Reverends and the Churches that have been "out front" so to speak, in the hypocritical conspiracy. As I recall back as far as 1928 or thereabouts, an article in the news giving the U.S. Communist party platform.

Some fifteen years ago (time gets by before one realizes it) a communist party organizer by the name of Joseph Kohanfelder, I believe this is how the name was spelled, resigned from the party and appeared before the Un-American Activities Committee of the Senate where he was quoted as having made a statement about as follows: "We were told by our leaders that American people are religious. That those in the South are more religious than those in other sections, and that all negroes are religious. Therefore, we shall reach them through their churches. We shall arouse the negroes and seek to create a guilt complex among these whites. Thus America will be delivered to our cause. "

From the foregoing information, it would seem that no firm plans exist regarding a delegation of Party members active in the Negro movement going to the Soviet Union. It is to be noted, however, that TOM DENNIS, PETTIS PERRY and CARL WINTER, all of whom have attended CPUSA Negro Commission meetings, will be going to the Soviet Union.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The "Chicago Tribune", a Chicago daily newspaper, issue of Thursday, July 1, 1965, page one, column two, carried an article entitled "Daley Tells Red Role in Willis Row."

This "Chicago Tribune" article indicated that Mayor Richard J. Daley, at a press conference the previous day, had indicated that Chicago Police Department files show that many of the marchers in Chicago's civil rights demonstrations protesting the rehiring of Chicago's School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis are communists, and the article further indicates that Daley stated that communist funds were helping to finance these demonstrations.

The article quoted Daley as stating some of the "troublemakers" of a communist nature were drawn to Chicago by the House Committee on Un-American Activities hearings which were held in Chicago in May, 1965. The article quoted Daley as stating "You know, those people take part in any disturbing thing they can."

The article indicated that Daley's statement concerning communists was made as a result of a reporter at the press conference asking Daley if he thought communists dominated the marches. When asked if he thought communists dominated the marches, Daley said he could not answer the question.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

The "Chicago Tribune" article also referred to a statement by Deputy Police Superintendent Joseph Morris, wherein Morris had stated to the press he had turned over to Mayor Daley's office information indicating that communists were taking part in the demonstrations. The article quoted Morris as stating that the police have "checked more than 50 names of demonstrators and at least 11 are communists or members of communist front organizations."

The "Chicago Tribune" article also quoted Albert Raby, Convenor of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO), the prime mover of the demonstrations, as accusing Mayor Daley and his remarks relative to the communists in the demonstrations as engaging in "witch hunting." The article stated that Raby indicated that Daley was probably taking lessons from Governor Wallace of Alabama, and Raby stated that he wished the Mayor was as interested in resolving the school crisis as he was to participate in witch hunting.

The article also quoted Arthur Brooks, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) as being shocked and dismayed by Mayor Daley's charges. According to the article, Brooks, who attended the national convention of the NAACP at Denver, Colorado, had demanded that the Mayor support his charges. The article indicated that Brooks had sent a telegram from Denver to Mayor Daley indicating his displeasure. In this telegram, Brooks was alleged to have stated that the anti-Willis demonstrations of June 11-12, 1965, were wholly financed by funds of the NAACP. Brooks also indicated that Daley's charges have prompted an independent investigation into the source of other funds which were made available to the demonstrators.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN

The "Chicago Daily News", a Chicago daily newspaper, late edition, issue of June 30, 1965, page one, columns three and four, also carried Mayor Daley's statement concerning the communists' participation in the anti-Willis demonstrations in an article entitled "Communists Aiding Willis Foes -- Daley."

This article quoted Mayor Richard J. Daley as making a statement to the effect that communists are participating in civil rights protest marches against School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis, and said that Daley said "Many of the people that are marching are communists. That's been printed and the police department files show this to be true."

The article also stated that Daley, when asked if communist money was being used to finance the demonstrations, answered "some of it, yes." This "Chicago Daily News" article also quoted Albert Raby, leader of the CCCO, as stating "We don't make political threats in the Civil Rights Movement. I don't ask any questions. I don't ask anyone if they are Democrat, Republican, fascist or communist." Raby was also quoted as stating he was not surprised at Mayor Daley's charges because as Raby stated "This is traditionally, throughout the country, one of the ways of attacking the Civil Rights Movement. It is interesting that the power structure of the City of Chicago, symbolized by Mayor Daley, is making the same kind of attack in Chicago as is being made in Alabama."

On July 1, 1965, [redacted] of the Security Section, Intelligence Division, Bureau of Inspectional Services, Chicago Police Department, and a unit of Deputy Police Superintendent Joseph Morris' Division, advised that just prior to Mayor Richard J. Daley's press statement,

However, [redacted] stated he referred Morris to an article which had appeared in the June 24, 1965 issue of the "Chicago American" listing nine individual communists who had appeared in these demonstrations. [redacted] advised this "Chicago American" article had been prepared by Sam Blair, a reporter for the "Chicago American" and that [redacted] advised Morris that in addition to the names appearing in the Blair article, Morris could also throw in an additional two or three others by number, who had participated in these demonstrations but whose names [redacted] could not specifically recall at that time.

In connection with the article by Sam Blair in the "Chicago American" it is to be noted that this newspaper on June 24, 1965, page one, column one, carried an article by Blair entitled "Reds Linked To Willis Protestors." This article indicated that more than a dozen individuals had been identified as members of the Communist Party (CP) in Chicago as having infiltrated civil rights meetings and marches directed against Chicago's School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis.

This article also noted that in addition some of the individuals involved had been in the forefront of the demonstrations that had erupted around the old United States Court of Appeals Building at 1212 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, during the hearings by the House Commitee on Un-American Activities held at that location in May, 1965. The article identified nine of these individuals by name along with descriptive data as follows:

DANNY QUEEN

"Danny Queen, [redacted], an executive committee member of the Communist party of America, once head of Illinois' Communist party youth commission, and described by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as one of the nation's 'most promising and active young Communists.' b6 b7C

RICHARD L. CRILEY

"Richard L. Criley of 1845 S. Keller av., identified several times by both Senate and House subcommittees as being a Communist both before and after World War II. Criley is a founder of the Fair Play for Cuba committee, a communist front organization, and secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, another organization cited by its own members as a foe of the HUAC.

ISHMAEL FLORY

"Ishmael Florey, director of the Afro-American Heritage association, 306 E. 43rd st., a former organizer for the communist party in the 24th ward and a legislative director of the party for the south side of Chicago. He was also identified as a Communist by Mrs. Holmes at the hearings.

MILTON M. COHEN

"Milton M. Cohen of 5428 Kimbark av., a member of the Communist Abraham Lincoln brigade in 1937 and a former teaching colleague of Claude Lightfoot, executive secretary of the communist party in Illinois. They taught 'Fundamental Principles of Marxism.'

WILBERFORCE COX JONES

"Wilberforce Cox Jones of [redacted], named as a Communist at the HUAC hearings. Jones refused to answer when committee attorneys asked him if he was a Communist and if he gave his American passport to anyone during a trip to Europe. Jones is a former union steward for the United Auto Workers.

The article also identified Flory as Director of the Afro (African) American Heritage Association. Appended hereto is a characterization of the African American Heritage Association.

MILTON COHEN

CG T-3 on June 16, 1965, advised that Cohen is a current member of the CP of Illinois State Board.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

In connection with Cohen, the article referred to him as a member of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in 1937. The Abraham Lincoln Brigade is an organization which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In connection with Cohen, the article also referred to him as a former teaching colleague of Claude Lightfoot.

Concerning Claude Lightfoot, it is to be noted that CG T-4 on June 25, 1965, advised that Claude Lightfoot is Chairman of the CP, USA National Negro Commission and Chairman of the CP of Illinois.

WILBERFORCE COX JONES

CG T-5 in March, 1965, advised that Jones was a member of the Lieber Club, CP of Illinois.

ANN PROSTEN

CG T-6 on December 1, 1962, and May 2, 1963, advised that up to December, 1962, Ann Prosten was attending CP of Illinois Club meetings; however, in April, 1963, it was learned that she would no longer be coming to CP Club meetings.

CG T-3 on April 2, 1964, advised that at a meeting of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission in April, 1964, a CP member stated that Ann Prosten was not a current CP member but that she was still a Marxist.

In reference to Ann Prosten, the article referred to the fact that she was a former writer and co-editor of the "Daily Worker." The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast communist daily newspaper which suspended publication January 13, 1958.

The article also referred to Ann Prosten as the wife of Jesse Prosten and identified him as another member of the Board of the CCDBR.

Concerning Jesse Prosten it is to be noted that CG T-7 on June 4, 1962, advised that as of June, 1962, CP of Illinois leaders were interested in maintaining continuous contact with Jesse Prosten, a key CP contact in the packing industry. These contacts with Prosten were to obtain financial contributions and to keep him current on CP policy.

EUGENE TOURNOUR

CG T-3 on March 26, 1965, advised that as of March, 1965, Tournour was a member of the CP and was active in the Congress of Racial Equality in behalf of the CP of Illinois.

The article also identified Tournour as having attended a meeting of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago (DCC) last month at 333 West North Avenue. Appended hereto is a characterization of the DCC along with a characterization of the national organization, W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America.

Rev. WILLIAM T. BAIRD

CG T-2 on June 21, 1965, advised that Baird is the current Executive Director of the CCDBR.

The article, in connection with Biard, also mentioned that Baird was a principal sponsor of a dinner at the Hamilton Hotel held October 27, 1963, honoring Gil Green.

CG T-3 in October, 1963, advised that as of October, 1963, Gil Green was a member of the CP of Illinois Staff.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

It is to be further noted that CG T-3 on June 22, 1965, and July 1, 1965, advised that the CP of Illinois does not in fact agree with many of the methods being employed by the demonstrators such as civil disobedience in connection with anti-Willis demonstrations. CG T-3 further advised that the CP of Illinois as an organization has no influence in the anti-Willis demonstrations and is in no position to give directions to the individuals involved. CG T-3 stated that if CP members are involved in these picket lines, there are acting as individuals or as representatives of participating organizations and not specifically at the direction of the CP. CG T-3 also advised that Albert Raby, Convenor of the CCCO, has no present or past communist background. CG T-3 also advised that the CP of Illinois Negro Commission has received no CP funds for these demonstrations.

Communists Back Daley's Red Charges

CHICAGO (AP)—A city hall spokesman called upon a national church leader yesterday to retract his criticism of Mayor Richard J. Daley.

He made the suggestion after a delegation of 77 clergymen and layment from the National Convention of the United Church of Christ marched around the city hall.

Daley had stated Wednesday that Communists are aiding the demonstrators.

Two Illinois Communist spokesmen, James West and Claude Lightfoot, conceded Friday that Daley's charge was correct.

Jack Reilly, an assitant to Daley, "invited" a retraction by Dr. Robert W. Spike of New York City, director of the National Council of Churches' commission on religion and race.

With newspaper clippings of that story in hand, Reilly tried to reach Dr. Spike yesterday. Dr. Spike wasn't with the church people in the march.

Dr. Spike, in a speech to the United Church of Christ meeting Friday, accused Mayor Daley of an intemperate attack on demonstrators who have been marching on the city hall almost every day since June 10, demanding the ouster of School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

In connection with the protest demonstrations currently being held in Chicago, Illinois, protesting the rehiring of Superintendent of Schools Benjamin C. Willis and previously published press statements of Mayor Richard J. Daley to the effect that these demonstrations have been infiltrated by Communists and Communist funds are being used in part to support these demonstrations, it is to be noted that the "Chicago American", a Chicago daily newspaper issue of July 2, 1965, carried an article entitled, "Admits Some Are Workers -- King Denies Commie Influence in Movement."

This "Chicago American" article reported that the Reverend Martin Luther King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who was in Chicago, had stated "No Communist influence or infiltration" exists in the civil rights movement, but Communists do work "here and there" in the movement.

The article noted that the Reverend King was asked for a reaction to Mayor Richard J. Daley's charges that the civil rights movement in Chicago had Communist support. King was reported to have replied that "What they are saying now is what they have always said. This is just another way of evading the main issues. I am convinced the rights groups are doing everything in their power to get rid of elements opposed to democracy. Our love is for America. We do not want or need Communism in the movement. Our group has made it clear that our people cannot be Communists."

The article referred to noted that when asked about Mayor Daley's statement, King replied, "I don't know the view of local groups about banning Communists but in our group Communists are banned from membership. Our whole approach is opposed to Communism."

The "Chicago American" article also referred to the fact that two local Chicago Communist spokesmen, that is, Claude Mack Lightfoot and Jim West, had issued statements verifying that individual Communists had been part of the anti-Willis demonstrations.

Lightfoot and West were quoted as saying, "The fact that Communists support integration and have done so for over 35 years is neither a startling revelation nor does it make a crime of integration just as it is no crime to be a Communist. The fact that Communists participate in demonstrations and integration is likewise no crime or a startling discovery. Where else does Mayor Daley expect the Communists to stand on integration, with the KKK and the John Birch Society, who fight to preserve Jim Crow segregation ?"

This news article reports Claude Lightfoot and West, in referring to Daley's remarks, as stating that Daley is, "attempting to red bait the Chicago civil rights movement. He has run out of meaningful arguments to defend his indefensible position".

The article closed by noting that Claude Lightfoot and Jim West also accused Mayor Daley of having refused to take a forthright stand on integration and of refusing to use the power of his high position to help break down Jim Crow walls in housing and education. They further noted in the article that Daley had said he wanted to keep politics out of education but by his statements concerning Communism he has brought the cheap politics of red baiting into the controversy.

CIRM

Reference is made to recent teletypes from Atlanta and New York concerning the visit to Atlanta by Stanley David Levison who is meeting with staff members of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), including its head, Martin Luther King, Jr.

Immediately, upon the departure of Levison from Atlanta (which is scheduled for 7/14/65), Atlanta should advise the Bureau by teletype including a resume of previously unreported information concerning Levison's activities in Atlanta. It is imperative that this matter be given most prompt handling so that the Bureau may make appropriate dissemination on a timely basis.

Both recipient offices should be extremely alert to information which may be developed relative to Levison's visit to Atlanta and promptly apprise the Bureau of such information. Also, follow with LHMs suitable for dissemination.

New York should, by return teletype, advise of any information available of a subversive nature concerning Mrs. Wallace Albertson who accompanied Levison to Atlanta. Such information would be urgently needed in the event this woman has a subversive background.

APPENDIX

REVOLUTIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL

A source advised on September 9, 1964, that the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International (RCFI) was also known as the Spartacist Committee and the Spartacist Group. This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4, 1964, that Farrell Dobbs, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minotiry faction of the SWP, James Robertson, announced on February 10, 1964, that his faction would publicly criticize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The July-August, 1964, issue of "Spartacist" in its masthead describes this publication as follows: "...published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." This masthead sets forth that the editor of the publication is James Robertson , and its main address is Post Office Box 1377, General Post Office, New York, New York.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Re Richmond airtel and letterhead memorandum dated 6/11/65, captioned above.

The letterhead memorandum indicated that a car was rented by one BERNARD S. LEE, 1327 Outten St., Norfolk, Va.

This BERNARD S. LEE is possibly identical to BERNARD SCOTT LEE, who was involved in a sit-down demonstration held at Montgomery, Alabama, in March, 1960. This person was expelled from Alabama State College for his participation. The Bureau was furnished a letterhead memorandum on March 12, 1960 entitled "BERNARD SCOTT LEE."

Richmond is being furnished copies of this letterhead memorandum as well as two newspaper articles concerning BERNARD SCOTT LEE, both of which appeared in the "Virginian-Pilot," Norfolk newspaper of general circulation.

On 6/16/65, Reverend DONALD W. JOHNSON, President of the Tidewater Chapter, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Norfolk, said BERNARD SCOTT LEE, a Norfolk native, has been attending Norfolk Division, Virginia State College, and chauffeuring a Mr. BARCO (phonetic), a cripple. This Mr. BARCO, according to Reverend JOHNSON, has some connection at the Norfolk Division of Va. State College--his wife possibly teaches or Mr. BARCO is a student at this institution.

Reverend JOHNSON indicated that Mr. BARCO and BERNARD S. LEE have been active in the civil rights movement in Norfolk in the past.

The Norfolk file contains no information linking BERNARD SCOTT LEE with subversive groups.

One copy is furnished Atlanta and New York in view of the fact both offices have investigative interest in captioned matters.

All confidential sources referred to in this communication have furnished reliable information in the past.

Confidential Source 1 furnished the following information on July 7, 1965:

Jesse Gray, Harlem Rent-Strike Organizer, on July 7, 1965, was in contact with Rose Jennings of Chicago, Illinois, telephone TR 4-1853. Rose stated that "Dick" (possibly Dick Gregory, Negro comedian) comes in for the "march" and then goes to the airport. He makes the trip every day so that the movement will not go under. According to Rose Jennings, Dick is inviting Jesse Gray to come into Chicago and help him out. Dick can get money for Jesse Gray to come to Chicago. Gray thought that he would go to Chicago and stay with Dick for a while. Gray stated that when he arrives in Chicago, he wants to get to work and not worry about money.

Rose Jennings further stated that "King" (possibly Martin Luther King) met in Chicago, July 6, 1965, and was staying at the Palmer House; further that "they" told King they had invited Jesse Gray to come to Chicago and that King had accepted it; further that King could not lead the movement in Chicago.

Jesse Gray agreed to be in Chicago by Saturday, July 10, 1965, and would try to get there as early as July 8, 1965.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

This is in reference to my earlier memorandum to you today, 7-1-65, concerning the communist influence in the recent demonstrations in Chicago concerning School Superintendent Willis.

A "Chicago Tribune" article 7-1-65 reported Chicago Mayor Daley making charges as to communist involvement from information in Chicago police files. Article reported that Deputy Police Superintendent Joseph Morris stated he had turned over to Daley information indicating that communists are taking part in demonstrations. Article also quoted Albert Brooks, head of Chicago National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as sending telegram to Daley attacking the Mayor's charges and stating demonstrations 6-11/12-65 financed by National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"Chicago Daily News" article 6-30-65 indicates Daley stated charges based on Chicago police files and an article in "Chicago American" by Reporter Sam Blair. Blair's article identified nine communists.

Our Chicago Office has talked to [redacted]. [redacted] is a good police contact of ours and stated that just prior to the Mayor's release of charges [redacted] was requested by Morris to furnish list of communists in demonstrations. [redacted] was not in position to furnish Morris any list and instead referred Morris to Blair's article which listed nine names. [redacted] told Morris to throw in two or three others by number. [redacted] advised that Morris is unfamiliar with the specific names of demonstrators and undoubtedly used [redacted] in report to the Mayor without mentioning specific names. [redacted] noted that Morris has no independent sources for subversive information and relies on [redacted].

100-442529

It is noted that Morris is quoted in the press as stating police have checked more than 50 names of demonstrators and 11 have communist backgrounds. (This figure of 11 undoubtedly accounted for by the nine*listed in the Blair article plus two additional added by [redacted], by number only). It is significant to note that there have been hundreds of demonstrators involved in the various demonstrations and as many as 1,500 on one occasion. Captain William Duffy of the Police Security Unit has told our Chicago Office that the figure of 50 was chosen arbitrarily by Morris and that police information concerning the communists is primarily from public records. b6 b7C b7D

Chicago's Police Superintendent, O. W. Wilson, has instructed Duffy to assign all personnel of the Security Unit to cover the demonstrations.

Roy Wilkins, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has also sent a telegram to Mayor Daley demanding that he either withdraw his charges or provide evidence to prove they are true.

RECOMMENDATION:

For information. Our Chicago Office is under instruction to give this matter meticulous and penetrative action. We will keep you promptly informed of developments.

*According to Bufiles 6 of the 9 are current Communist Party members. Two others are identified as Communists as of 1962 and 1963, and one is a member and official of the Communist initiated organization called Chicago Committee to Defend Bill of Rights.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago is currently making charges that communists are involved in the civil rights demonstrations which have been taking place in Chicago this past month. The point of issue is a protest against the reappointment of Chicago School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis because he has not prevented alleged de facto segregation in the Chicago schools. This is an informative memorandum to give you an up-to-date picture of the extent of communist involvement.

Several of the well-known civil rights organizations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Congress of Racial Equality and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee have participated along with local groups, one of which is the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations which has taken the leading role in coordinating the protest. Demonstrations have taken the form of marches, sit-ins, and the like with as many as several hundred persons participating at given times. The disreputable Dick Gregory has been prominent in these demonstrations which at times have lead to mass arrests by local police.

ST-118 REC-73 100-442529-[illegible]

Our coverage through on-the-scene observations by Bureau Agents and through informants has revealed that there has been some communist participation in the demonstrations and in two instances "workshops" concerning the demonstrations were headed by two current Communist Party members (Eugene Tournour and Wilberforce Jones.) Other activists have been Ann Prosten, a former Party member, and Rev. William Baird, Executive Director, Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, a communist-initiated organization. The communist participation has included several other current and former Party members and others having present and former connections with communist-front and splinter groups. In terms of the large numbers participating in these demonstrations, the number of communists has been relatively small. b6 b7C b7D

2 JUL 15 1965

[redacted] has given us what appears to be the clearest picture of the situation. He said that Party member Foster Stockwell is a delegate to the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations which is coordinating the protest. This organization is headed by

100-442529
50 JUL 27 1965
SFP:den (9)

CONTINUED - OVER

Albert Raby concerning whom the Chicago Office has no subversive references. According to our informant, the Party in Illinois has definitely not given Stockwell any directions concerning the protest. He says that the Party has issued no instructions to anyone to obtain support of the demonstrations; that the Party does not agree with some of the methods being employed by the demonstrators. The Party has called no special meetings and has made no special efforts to mobilize forces for participation in the demonstrations. Another informant, [redacted] who belongs to the same Party Club as Stockwell, has advised that no instructions have been issued to his Club for Party participation in the protest.

We have had our Chicago Office conducting an intensified investigation relative to the communist involvement in this protest and have been, on an almost daily basis, disseminating information relative to this situation to the Department, military intelligence and Secret Service.

RECOMMENDATION: b7D

For information

ADDENDUM: SFP:deh, 7/1/65

Chicago Office telephoned the following latest information this morning, 7/1/65. During a press conference, Mayor Daley was specifically asked whether communists dominated the demonstrations. He replied that he could not answer. [redacted] has also informed that the Party's Negro Commission in Illinois has received no Party funds for this protest.

ADDENDUM (J.H.Gale 7/1/65): Domestic Intelligence Division is contacting the Chicago Office with the view to determining if there is any reason why Deputy Superintendent Joseph Morris should not be interviewed concerning this matter. Morris is the individual who has been furnishing information to Mayor Daley concerning the communist infiltration into the civil rights demonstrations in Chicago.

CIRM

Reference is made to recent letters from your office, the last dated 6/24/65, which reported the results of interviews with individuals who it was believed might furnish information concerning possible membership in the Communist Party, USA, during the mid 1940's by Harry Wachtel, a close advisor of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Research conducted by your office developed the identities of a number of individuals considered for interview. Of those enumerated in your letter of 2/17/65, all have now been interviewed except Charles and Leah Miras (husband and wife). As of February, 1965, the employment of Charles was unknown; his wife was then employed as a clerk-typist for a law firm in Suffern, New York.

You are instructed to determine the current employment of Charles Miras and verify the continued employment of Mrs. Miras. Thereafter, unless some information is developed which would preclude the desirability of an interview with these individuals, they should be interviewed, separately and away from their employments.

Note particularly that Mrs. Miras held an official position in the Party Club to which Mrs. Wachtel belonged and that Mrs. Miras was apparently a very close associate of the Wachtels. In view of the foregoing, the interviews with the Mirases should be meticulously handled to avail ourself of the fullest possible potential, bearing in mind that, at least for the present, these individuals offer our only promise of hard facts concerning possible Party membership on the part of Harry Wachtel.

This matter should be given immediate attention and the Bureau kept promptly advised of the developments.

NOTE:

We have been trying to establish Party membership on the part of Harry Wachtel during the 1940's when his wife was a Party member. New York identified a number of persons who might have been associated with the Wachtels in the 1940's and to date all but the Mirases have been interviewed with negative results. We withheld the interview with the Mirases in order to possibly develop some documentary material incriminating to Wachtel but that effort resulted negatively. We feel that the Mirases should now be interviewed so that no stone will have been left unturned in our probing of Wachtel's past since he is such a close advisor to King.

On July 13, 1965, CG 5824-S* furnished SA RICHARD W. HANSEN with a 25-page carbon copy of an article entitled "The Path to Negro Freedom in the United States" which the source was to review for possible correction. This item was prepared by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, leading functionary of the CP of Illinois and head of the Negro Commission, CP, USA, and is being sent by him to the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical organ of the international communist movement, Prague, Czechoslovakia. The article will be one of a number to be published in a special edition of the "World Marxist Review" devoted to the United States and United States problems.

At the same time, source advised that he had just learned that GUS HALL had prepared an article dealing with the subject of the nature of United States imperialism which had been already submitted to the "World Marxist Review" and will be published in this same special edition.

Source also added that LEM HARRIS had prepared an article dealing with the farm question which is to appear in this special edition of the "World Marxist Review."

The original of the above-noted LIGHTFOOT article was returned by the source to CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT; however, Xerox copies were made of it. One Xerox copy each of this article is being enclosed herewith for the Bureau and New York. Another copy of this article is being maintained by the Chicago Office as an exhibit in CGfile 61-867.

It is most imperative that there be an immediate determination as to the positive identity of this woman, what her specific connections are with SCLC and such key individuals as Levison and the SCLC head, Martin Luther King, Jr., and what, if any, subversive background she has.

Recipient offices should immediately run out all appropriate leads and, particularly, Los Angeles and New York should establish with certainty any subversive connections.

As it appears that Mrs. Albertson is a present resident of New York City, all pertinent information developed should be expedited to the New York Office which should then prepare an appropriate characterization of this woman suitable for dissemination. On 7/6/65, [redacted], who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following concerning "Project Vision": (The original of this information is located in Birmingham file [redacted].) b7D

"Project Vision" deals with giving assistance to Negro students to get them ready for college. It is also helping some students in the lower grades; that is, in grammar and junior high schools.

The scope of this project is not limited to Alabama; it goes into several southern states, but source does not have definite information concerning this point.

The SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC) is the main sponsor of this project as far as source can determine. Source believes that in addition, there is a Negro church in Louisiana assisting in this project, but of this he is not positive.

Headquarters for this project in Birmingham is the St. Paul's Methodist Church, of which Rev. J. E. LOWERY is the pastor. However, classes are being held in various churches in Birmingham.

This project is in operation at this time. It began on 6/30/65, and the schedule is for this project to be concluded within the following eight weeks. The hours, at this time, are from 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon on week days.

Most of the instructors for this project are local people. It was originally thought that college professors and high school teachers would come in from other states and assist in this project, but this did not materialize to any great degree.

On 6/28/65, source stated, a meeting of the Alabama Christian Movement For Human Rights was held at St. Paul's AME Church, Birmingham. A Mr. ALBERT SAMPSON of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference spoke at this meeting in the interest of that group's "Vision Tutoral Project." SAMPSON stated that registration for the 12th grade students would begin 6/29/65 at St. Paul's Church and that other students would register later. These students will attend classes from 9:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. in churches near their homes. College graduates, teachers and instructors from out of Birmingham will also serve as tutors. It is expected they will be paid $20 a week for expenses.

PICKETING OF PATERSON, NEW JERSEY POLICE
HEADQUARTERS, JUNE 21, 1965

On July 10, 1965, Chief of Police FRANK POLIZZO, Paterson New Jersey Police Department, advised that the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) held a rally on the playground of school six near Fair and Carroll Streets, Paterson, New Jersey, from around 5:30 to 7:00 PM, July 10, 1965. About twenty individuals attended. All of the individuals were Negro. No violence occurred.

CORE had a loud speaker and portable tape recorder at the rally.

Edward Carter, Passaic County Chairman of CORE, appeared to be the leader of the rally.

On July 10, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that CORE held a rally on the playground of school six, near Fair and Carroll Streets, Paterson, New Jersey, from approximately 5:30 to 7:00 PM, July 10, 1965. Only about fifteen individuals were present, all Negro. Master of Ceremonies was Henry Pitts of the local CORE Chapter.

Mr. Edward Carter, Chairman of the Paterson CORE Chapter, was the main speaker. He announced that his program for CORE is to embrace the subjects of Police Brutality, Rentgouging by Landlords, and the issue of United States Involvement in Viet Nam and Santo Domingo. Mr. Carter was asked by a news reporter if he was going to discuss the USSR and Chapter replied "What about it?". The reporter answered, "The USSR is supposed to be an enemy of free people so why not discuss the USSR too?". Carter replied, "I'm not free yet so I can't discuss it". Carter alleged to those present that the people of Paterson were coerced not to attend this rally. He was not specific as to whom he meant by this statement.

Carter discussed the facts of his arrest about two weeks ago by Paterson Police alleging that he was a victim of police brutality.

Harold Primus also present but did not speak due to litigation pending against him. He was introduced as alleged victim of police brutality, in Paterson, New Jersey.

Stanford Lowery, a Negro male, from Paterson, New Jersey, was introduced as a victim of Paterson Police brutality. He stated that on July 4, 1965, at Hinchcliff Stadium, he went outside the stadium after having been inside. When he tried to reenter, Paterson Police allegedly refused him entrance and "roughed him up". He claimed that 11 policemen participated in this assault on him.

The source observed a poster at the rally which portrayed a City Official with his hands over his eyes so he would not see the police beating a Negro.

The July 10, 1965, issue of the 'Paterson Morning Call", a Paterson, New Jersey, daily morning newspaper, related that a 'Morning Call reporter counted seventeen adults and some children at the CORE rally, on July 10, 1965, and that Carter later announced a crowd of 2,509 present.

On July 10, 1965, Agent [redacted], 108th INTC Group, Region II, Newark, New Jersey, was advised at 10:35 PM, by Clerk [redacted] of the CORE rally, in Paterson, New Jersey. b6 b7C

On 6/1/65, W. C. HAMILTON, Executive Secretary to the Mayor, City of Birmingham, Ala., telephonically advised a Negro minister, [redacted], had informed him "they" had knowledge there were two active card-carrying Communist Party (CP) members involved in the demonstrations in Selma, Ala. [redacted] identified these people as the Rev. E. PREWITT and Rev. LEONARD R. MITCHELL. [redacted] furnished Mr. HAMILTON a calling card from each of these people, which Mr. HAMILTON forwarded to the Birmingham Office.

Mr. HAMILTON stated [redacted] is a long-time Negro resident and considered a responsible Negro minister.

An interview with [redacted], who resides at [redacted] was sought on 6/15 and 25/65. He was reported by his wife to be "out of town". [redacted] was requested to have [redacted] call the Birmingham Office at his first opportunity.

[redacted] called on 6/29/65. Efforts were made to arrange an appointment to meet with him to discuss this matter. He evaded committing himself to an appointment, but in continuing the conversation the following information was obtained:

[redacted] had no personal knowledge that PREWITT and MITCHELL are "card-carrying" CP members. He appeared to have been told this by someone whom he could not, or would not, identify and believed it personally because these two ministers seemed to him to be "beatniks". [redacted] said the "beatniks", the ones who "wore the beards" were Communists. They were the outsiders who instigated "the trouble."

Along this line [redacted] said he had been a supporter of EUGENE "BULL" CONNER and had furnished information to a Mr. BURNS (phonetic) at Pizitz Department Store. It may be gathered from his remarks that [redacted] served as an informant for "BULL" CONNER when CONNER was Birmingham's Director of Public Safety, and the information he provided PIZITZ was concerned with Negro demonstrations which might interrupt business.

[redacted] also said he has received threats against his life, but declined to say whether these threats were made by Negroes or whites, or to furnish any details concerning them.

In view of the evasiveness of [redacted], an effort was made to meet him for the purpose of developing whatever information he might have. He declined to see a Special Agent at his residence, saying his wife had heart trouble and was very nervous. He finally agreed to come to the Birmingham Office on 6/30/65, but did not keep the appointment nor has he since contacted the office.

Birmingham indices are negative regarding [redacted], PREWITT and MITCHELL.

The Birmingham street directory shows [redacted]'s full name as [redacted].

The above is furnished for the information of the Bureau and offices receiving copies of this letter. In the event the indices of the Minneapolis or Philadelphia Offices contain derogatory information concerning MITCHELL or PREWITT, respectively, which is not in the possession of Mobile, it is requested they advise Mobile thereof.

Birmingham does not contemplate any further contact with [redacted] in view of his uncooperative attitude and the strong probability that he acts as an informant for either Birmingham City officials or Pizitz Department Store and the possibility he would not keep any relationship with the Bureau in confidence. b6 b7C b7D

Dear sir:

I have just read an article in Parade on - An important message for America's youth. You are so wrong concerning some of it that I have felt impelled to write. It probably wont do much good since you are entrenched in your ideas. From your point of view I take it that you have adopted the typical "Early" northern view about the nigger and the south.

The writer is a northerner. Fundamentally (the nigger problem in the south) it is not a matter of geography. It is a matter of biology. This is the most important point that all discussions on the race question blithly omit. It is the most important point.

We have the same reaction to the negro as other races have. This cannot be equaled to social, economic or idealistic concepts whatsoever. All the law makers and all the so called sensible middle of the roaders like yourself do not understand even the fundamental problem here.

You cannot mix oil with water. It is just as fundamental as that. It is too bad legislatures and other so called people trained in liberal arts do not have the opportunity of studying science and they do not have the real plain common sense that any uneducated (as to book training) farmer could tell him. The mixing of races is a failure. We have to admit it. The more you try to shove the nigger down the white mans throat the more hatred you stir up. Millions of white people in the north hate the nigger just as much as the white people in the south. You are going to find this out some day when probably the biggest explosions are going to be in the north.

REC 48 100-442529-1225

We do not have democracy in this country. The main laws now are against the majority in this country who are the white people. This is white peoples country. If the nigger doesn't like it he should get back to his former country in West Africa just as many of them did after the civil war. The government should have sent them all back then. The Congress gave the nigger citizenship. The white people themselves never have & never will. The Congress passes laws for tother Americans to kow-tow to by means of pressure groups. Many Americans who voted on the civil rights bill know nothing about the negro & have hardly seen them. Do you call this democracy? And again they want other white people to do what they don't do themselves. For instance many Congressmen and even the President Kennedy & Johnson themselves insist on integration (forced integration is unconstitutional) for other white groups but not for themselves. They send their kids to private schools which are not integrated. They have wealth enough to choose their own environment far removed from the nigger. The majority & not the minority should rule; yet the President, the Supreme Court & certain groups of leftists in Congress have found the nigger down on the majority. When seven million dollars are used to buy votes directly or indirectly is this democracy? When demagogery is used & the use of Federal funds as lawyers for many groups. "Uncle Sam does everything for you" the great society, the new deal, the fair deal, the new frontier & all the cheapies we have seen for low these many years. Is this democracy? This is only half the problem in this country. The other half is the terrific danger of communism taking completely over in this country. We have many of these communist laws passed by the Congress in recent years. We have gone a long way down the road to communism. Yet when people of the so called far right get up & fight about it you call them extremists just like the communist do. Furthermore there has been many evidences that the minority group such as the niggers is 100% backed by the communists. This makes it all the more dangerous to give them voting rights which the communists will use to ride to power in America. It is so obvious the same trick of using minorities in countries where communist have taken over already that it is unbelieveable that even an average person cant see this trick. The churches, one of the big groups which pressured the civil rights bill hide behind religion to spew forth immorality & pro communist doctrines. They are brain washed like a lot of the so called middle of the roaders. This is no respect for laws which are contrary to the real desires of the majority of the people. We have much more crime now & its increasing. We had much more crime in prohibition days as you recall also. Furthermore the teaching in our schools & colleges is now almost under communistic control but the average person does not speak out against the nigger & the communist. He may lose his job. The real patriots of America are the ones now being discriminated against. This occurs in all governmental positions so the white people keep quiet. The older people fearful of their pensions & social security may be interfered with also keep quiet. Tension & hatred is building up & will more & more as whites are being shoved around more & more. They are fed up to the teeth right now. A civil war against the nigger & communist of whom the Jew forms a large part is building up fast. All people against the white people are enemies of the white people. There is no sitting on the fence in this war. There has been sporadic shooting but the real explosion is yet to come & it will come. Hatred such as I have never seen before in this country is growing more & more. Labor unions which is backing the negro is controlled by the communist ideas. The Karl Marx's who control the business (as well as labor unions) in this country set the pace for their ideas to be accepted by businessmen. We have lost the friendship of many countries because of our allowing the Jew Karl Marx to take over in this country and the Jew is behind the nigger.

There will be much destruction in America & possibly a depression in the offing which will hasten the inevitable crash. Perhaps you can see that the far righters as you call them are fundamentally far more American than anyone else & far more loyal to the real principles of the constitution. The present day communist Supreme Court which was started by the biggest communist this country has had viz Roosevelt cannot read English without putting a communist interpretation on the constitution. The Supreme Court has lost respect of the American people i. e. the thinking people. The civil rights bill took the freedom from every white person in this country. Forced integration insures the loss of the white race. If you think for one moment that the white people, the great majority of whom do not want the nigger around, are going to sit down & be kicked around and abused & made slaves of the nigger & the communist you had better get out of your position. We are going to fight for our country & get our freedom back. Every nigger will get back to West Africa or he will be killed. If you fight on the side of the nigger & communist Jew against the white people we will destroy you. You cant seem to realize that we are in a civil war at the present time. and it is going to get a lot hotter. If we let the nigger vote it means a vote for communism. We want to explain to you why the most law abiding people in this country are going all out to fight with guns, bombs, pitch forks or what ever they can get hold of to defend this country & get it back for the whites. You would condemn the revolutionary soldiers under Washington for not obeying the laws!! When laws are passed to coerce & dominate the people against what the people want the people will fight. There are millions of people in this country who are not intelligent enough to vote. This is the great drawback of democracy. They vote as the are told to do. We are getting the nigger out of this country, back to West Africa, because we don't want him. We have to consider you an enemy of the white people when you fight for the nigger & the communist Jews. We are sorry about this because it means we cannot trust you. The white people of the south are the only people actively fighting for the white people & we support them 100%. Too many people in the north who have been brain-washed by propaganda, criticize the southern people only until they get the experience of the nigger themselves & then they change their minds.

I am taking the time out to write in order to make it clear to you although you dont agree with their point of view the people who do not obey these present laws such as the civil rights bill are probably much more patriotic to the fundamental American principles of the constitution than you are. We do not have any freedom left in this country. You cant seem to get this into your head. There are a lot of people like you & that is why we are in for the most terrible civil war this country has ever seen. The civil war in fact never did end. It is still continuing from 1865 & it will never stop until every nigger gets out of here. Now you know why niggers will be killed by the millions not just one or two & you wont stop it the way you are doing now.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A. West Tennessee Voters' Project

On May 10, 1965, Memphis Confidential Informant T-1, who is familiar with many phases of Negro activities in Fayette County, Tennessee, advised that DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE, a white civil rights worker who is a recent graduate student at the University of Wisconsin (UW), Madison, Wisconsin, has been in Fayette County, Tennessee. BEAGLE has been working with a group known as the Original Fayette County Civic and Welfare League, which group is headed by JOHN MC FERREN and in which group MRS. JOHN MC FERREN's wife, VIOLA MC FERREN, has been active.

ME T-1, as recently as May 10, 1965, advised he is concerned about people like BEAGLE who come in from other areas. ME T-1 advised that BEAGLE has claimed approximately thirty to forty students from such schools as Cornell University, the University of Wisconsin, and the University of Chicago, are coming to Fayette County, Tennessee, and surrounding rural West Tennessee counties to work among and with Negro rural residents in voter registration and related civil rights activities.

ME 100-4070

On June 3, 1965, Memphis Confidential Informants T-2 and T-3, who are both familiar with certain activities in rural counties of West Tennessee, advised that a group of responsible West Tennessee Negroes connected with the Tennessee Voters Council, a Negro political group aimed at getting out the Negro vote in the State of Tennessee, has encouraged registration of Negro voters in such rural West Tennessee counties as Fayette, Haywood, Tipton, Lauderdale and Hardeman Counties, primarily working through such local Negroes as JOHN and VIOLA MC FERREN in Fayette County and ODELL SANDERS in Haywood County. Through these contacts, ME T-2 and ME T-3 and some of their key associates have learned that off and on for the past several years, various Northern white college students and professors have come into these counties every summer to help out in Negro voters registration and related civil rights type activities. They added that during the Spring of 1965, such whites as DANIEL BEAGLE, Graduate student of the University of Wisconsin, and some of his associates have come into Fayette County and have also done a limited amount of work in the other rural counties, seemingly wanting to engage in massive projects of all phases of racial desegregation.

TENN.

One of the white volunteer workers, TIM HALL, recently told ME T-2 that a vanguard of some thirty volunteer workers would be coming into these counties during the Summer of 1965, and they specifically named BOB GABRINER, graduate student, UW, and Professor DOUGLAS DOWD of Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, as being among the coordinators of this project and expected them to be on the scene.

On June 17, 1965, ME T-1 advised that ROBERT GABRINER and his wife, VICKI GABRINER, both of the UW, had arrived in Fayette County, Tennessee, and were active in the coordination of the West Tennessee Voters' Project, which is the titular name of the integration movement spearheaded by these outside white students and professors.

ME T-1 pointed out that among the leaders of the movement were ROBERT and VICKI GABRINER, DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE, and one TRENA LORRAINE TAYLOR, also a white student from the UW.

On or about February 10, 1965, Memphis Confidential Informant T-4 advised that on January 15, 1965, CARL BRADEN then Field Organizer for the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., (SCEF), Louisville, Kentucky, in discussing programs in which BRADEN and his organization, known as SCEF, were interested, commented that some of the people with whom he would be working or had been working consisted of DANIEL BEAGLE, [redacted], and BOB and VICKI GABRINER, [redacted], all described as students at the UW, Madison, Wisconsin. b6 b7C

Alberta Ahearn, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP) in Louisville, Kentucky, on December 11 and 13, 1954, in her testimony in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Court in the prosecution of CARL BRADEN, husband of ANNE BRADEN, testified that CARL and ANNE BRADEN were known to her as members of the CP in Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, to December, 1954, which was during the period of her (AHEARN's) CP membership.

A characterization of the SCEF is attached hereto in the Appendix Section.

On June 2, 1965, in connection with another FBI investigation, [redacted] appeared at the Memphis FBI Office to furnish information regarding another matter. She indicated that she was active in the West Tennessee Voters' Project (WTVP) and associated with TRENA LORRAINE TAYLOR, white female, and DOUG KORTY, white male. [redacted] volunteered information that she became acquainted with WTVP through DOUG (DOUGLAS) KORTY, who she indicated was a young, white male, native of Cleveland, Ohio, and recently a student at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin. She had originally met KORTY while attending an "encampment for citizenship" operated by the Ethnical b6 b7C b7D

Cultural Society of New York, Fieldston, New York, during the Summer of 1964. [redacted] apparently recommended [redacted] as a WTVP volunteer worker. [redacted] indicated that if she would work in the Project he and his associates would assist her in enrolling in the University of Wisconsin. [redacted] went to Madison, Wisconsin, and attended an orientation course for the WTVP, part of which was conducted in the University Student Union. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] accompanied [redacted] to the Memphis FBI Office and in furnishing information regarding another matter described herself as follows:

Name: [redacted]
Race: White
Sex: Female
Date of Birth: [redacted]
Place of Birth: [redacted]
Education: [redacted]

Height: [redacted]
Weight: [redacted]
Eyes: [redacted]
Hair: [redacted]

At that time [redacted] were living [redacted]

During this interview, [redacted] pointed out that, among other things, the volunteer workers of the Project would attempt to register to vote as many Negro sharecroppers as possible, in rural West Tennessee Counties and would attempt to intensify racial desegregation of all heretofore white schools by insisting that Negro parents fill out proper forms whereby they could apply for transfers of their children to these heretofore all-white schools. The group, she said, would also train and orient local Negroes to assume leadership in counties of Tipton, Hardeman, Fayette, and Haywood, all in West Tennessee.

She stated that the West Tennessee Voters' Project headquarters is located in a community center just south of Somerville, Tennessee, in Fayette County near the store of Negro leader JOHN MC FERREN and added that she understood the project would be directed by DANIEL BEAGLE, BOB GABRINER (also known as ROBERT GABRINER), and DOUGLAS DOWD, understood by her to be a professor possibly from Cornell University.

She stated ten automobiles would be sent to Project workers from Lancaster, Pennsylvania. She did not elaborate.

B. TRENA LORRAINE TAYLOR

On February 18, 1965, ME T-4 identified TRENA LORRAINE TAYLOR, University of Wisconsin student, Madison, Wisconsin, as a coordinator for the regional meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) to be held in Madison, Wisconsin, February 20 and 21, 1965.

On January 13, 1965, ME T-4 advised that one PEGGY GOLDMAN, then Mid-West Coordinator of the DCA, commented that TRENA TAYLOR was a Communist Party (CP) member.

(The CP, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.) Characterization of DCA is set out in Appendix Section attached hereto.

On April 24, 1965, ME T-4 advised that on April 23, 1965, TRENA TAYLOR and BOB GABRINER had indicated that GABRINER had recently been in Fayette County, Tennessee, in connection with a program relating to poverty conditions in that county. TAYLOR mentioned that there was a group known as the May 2nd Movement comprised of individuals who are splitting away from the Labor Movement for the purpose of aiding the underprivileged in Fayette County and that this movement, according to TAYLOR, was using the address of MICHAEL BROWN, [redacted].

b7C

On April 27, 1965, Memphis Confidential Informant T-5 advised that MICHAEL BROWN was elected to the National Coordinating Committee of the May 2nd Movement on April 18, 1965.

Characterizations of the May 2nd Movement (M2M) and its affiliate organization, the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), are attached hereto in the Appendix Section.

On September 2, 1964, a Federal Grand Jury in the Eastern District of New York (EDNY), Brooklyn, New York, returned a true bill charging nine defendants, including MICHAEL BROWN, with conspiracy to violate existing United States laws restricting travel to Cuba. This indictment specifically charged them with violation of Title 8, U. S. Code, Section 1185(b).

On November 12, 1964, according to VINCENT T. MC CARTHY, Chief Assistant Attorney, EDNY, Brooklyn, New York, BROWN and his co-defendants entered pleas of not guilty before Chief Judge JOSEPH ZAVATT in the EDNY. The defense counsel entered arguments following which Judge ZAVATT stayed the trial in this matter until a decision was rendered by the United States Supreme Court in the case of "ZEMEL Versus RUSK." Judge ZAVATT had previously said that in his opinion the issues in the ZEMEL case and in BROWN's case were identical. BROWN as of June, 1965, was living in [redacted]. b6 b7C

By communication dated June 30, 1965, the New York Division advised that to date it had developed no information to indicate that either the M2M or the Progressive Labor Party had plans to send anyone from the New York organization to work in Voter registration or civil rights activities in the Fayette County or adjoining areas.

C. DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE

On January 8, 1965, [redacted], Registrar's Office, University of Wisconsin (UW), Madison, Wisconsin, advised from records that DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE, born [redacted], matriculated at UW as a graduate student, September 14, 1964, being admitted from Columbia College, New York, New York. His original home address was [redacted].

On December 26, 1962, in connection with another FBI investigation, [redacted], Building Superintendent, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that at that time DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE resided in Apartment [redacted] at this address with his parents, SIMON and REBECCA BEAGLE, and a brother, PETER BEAGLE. This family had lived at this address since about 1941 and SIMON BEAGLE was a retired Principal from the New York City School System, and was then a lecturer.

On December 26, 1963, in connection with another FBI investigation, [redacted], Clerk, Columbia College, 116th Street and Broadway, New York, New York, advised IC [redacted] that records of this school reflected DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE was then attending Columbia College andhad so attended since September, 1960.

Records of the Subversive Activities Control Board reflect that public hearings were held in New York, New York, during 1963 on a petition by the United States Attorney General to the Subversive Activities Control Board for an order requiring the organization "Advance" to register as required by the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950. In connection with these hearings on December 16, 1963, the respondent ("Advance") called as a witness DANIEL S. BEAGLE then living at [redacted], who testified he was a senior student at Columbia University and was chairman of a political campus group known as "Action." BEAGLE stated that his organization had joined with "Advance" in several protest meetings and that he had sponsored the appearance of MARVIN MARKMAN on the campus of Columbia as a speaker and that his (BEAGLE's) organization, "Action," had been active in publicizing a protest of the Government's petition against "Advance."

BEAGLE testified under cross-examination by the Government that he, BEAGLE, attended an Executive Board Meeting of Advance in January or February, 1963, and had known MARVIN MARKMAN for approximately two years.

On December 18, 1963, BEAGLE was recalled to the stand for additional cross-examination and then testified he had conferred with MARKMAN and another individual concerning what way BEAGLE's organization, "Action," could assist Advance. BEAGLE said that subsequently Action conducted meetings, published leaflets, and sponsored speeches in an attempt to persuade people that the McCarran Act should be repealed. He claimed Action was not a CP front.

Information regarding MARVIN MARKMAN is contained in the characterization of "Advance" which appears in the Appendix Section of this report.

During 1944, the United States Office of Censorship, Washington, D. C., now defunct, made available information reflecting that BEAGLE's father corresponded with ROSE BIEGEL ARENAL and that she and RITA BIEGEL SEBORER, also known as Mrs. Max Seborer, were sisters of DANIEL S. BEAGLE's father. ROSE ARENAL was in Mexico City, Mexico, at the time.

MEXICO

On November 30, 1945, ELIZABETH T. BENTLEY, self-admitted CP courier and former Soviet espionage agent, now deceased, advised that during the latter part of 1939, ROSE ARENAL received mail from LEOPOLDO ARENAL and that she, BENTLEY, picked up this mail and delivered it to her espionage principal. These letters stopped arriving about the time of the murder of LEON TROTSKY.

BENTLEY further stated that she had been informed by her espionage principal MEXICO that LEOPOLDO ARENAL was a high ranking CP functionary in Mexico. She stated she received about ten of these letters which she delivered unopened to her espionage principal.

LEOPOLDO ARENAL was the brother-in-law of ROSE ARENAL.

ROSE ARENAL advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on April 30, 1951, that she received mail from Mexico in 1939 and turned mail over to ELIZABETH BENTLEY but denied involvement in espionage.

She stated that after the attempt on the life of LEON TROTSKY in May, 1940, she felt the letters she turned over to BENTLEY might have concerned the assassination.

On May 16, 1955, [redacted] at 101 West 80th Street, New York, New York, advised SA JOSEPH F. DIFFLEY that MAX SEBORER advised him his wife RITA SEBORER died on May 7, 1955.

On April 25, 1956, Memphis Confidential Informant T-6 identified a photograph of MAX SEBORER as that of a person she had known from 1938 to 1944 as a member of the Communist faction of the Teachers Union of New York. b6 b7C

(A characterization of the Teachers Union appears in the Appendix Section attached hereto.)

On May 5, 1965, DANIEL SOYER BEAGLE who was then living [redacted], in connection with making a complaint to the FBI, advised that he and other individuals, both white and Negro, had been engaged in testing various public facilities in the vicinity of Somerville, Tennessee, to determine if the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Public Accommodations Section, had been complied with. At that time he furnished descriptive data regarding himself as follows:

DANIEL JOYER BEAGLE — DANIEL S BEAGLE — DANNY BEAGLE — DAN BEAGLE

Date of Birth: [redacted]
Height: 6 feet
Weight: 155-160 pounds
Eyes: Hazel
Hair: Light Brown
Build: Slender

RES. [redacted]

Records of the Student Personnel Office, University of Wisconsin, as of May 17, 1965, reflected that BEAGLE listed his parents as SIMON BEAGLE, [redacted] and that his major at the University of Wisconsin was History, his faculty adviser being Professor J. R. HOLLINGSWORTH. The records indicated he did part-time work for the State of Wisconsin Historical Society. His student address was listed as [redacted], which was also listed as the residence of ROBERT S. GABRINER, Madison, Wisc. b6 b7C

On May 19, 1965, in connection with another investigation, Associate History Professor J. R. HOLLINGSWORTH, University of Wisconsin, advised that BEAGLE was then registered at the University of Wisconsin as a graduate student but was not attending classes; however, he was working on his thesis, some of the work being done in the State of Tennessee where he assumed BEAGLE was then located. He commented that he had received correspondence from BEAGLE on the letterhead of the Tennessee Historical Society.

The 1964-65 University of Wisconsin Student Directory listed DANIEL S. BEAGLE, a graduate student, residing [redacted], which, according to the December, 1964, Madison Telephone Directory, was also the address of [redacted].

On June 22, 1964, Memphis Confidential Informant T-7 advised that a group known as the May 2nd Committee for Peace in Vietnam was registered as a temporary student organization at the University of Wisconsin on April 27, 1964, "with a purpose to focus public attention on the need for speedy withdrawal of United States military personnel and aid from Vietnam." JOHN COATSWORTH was listed as Chairman of this organization. ME T-7 added that since his arrival in Wsiconsin in September, 1963, COATSWORTH received a great deal of publicity in college and noncollege newspapers in Wisconsin regarding his travel to Cuba in the Summer of 1963, with a group of youths, said travel being in defiance of a U. S. State Department prohibition. ME T-7 added that COATSWORTH had made speechs to various groups in connection with this trip exhibiting a very sympathetic attitude therein to the CASTRO government in Cuba and voicing a very critical attitude regarding United States policy in connection with Cuba.

The September 23, 1964, issue of the "Milwaukee Journal," a daily newspaper published at Milwaukee, carried an item captioned "Nine Indicted for Tie With Cuban Trip." This item over a Washington, D. C., date line stated that a Federal Grand Jury indicted two women and seven men on charges of conspiring to organize and promote an illegal trip to Cuba by 84 Americans in July and August. The article further stated that the Attorney General of the United States said the indictment was returned in Federal Court, Brooklyn, New York. One of the females listed as indicted was PATRICIA ANN SOPIAK. Coatsworth [redacted]

Records of the University of Wisconsin reflect that PATRICIA ANN SOPIAK, an undergraduate student there, is the wife of JOHN COATSWORTH. MRS b6 b7C

The October 22, 1964, issue of "The Daily Cardinal," student campus organ of the University of Wisconsin, carried an article by DANIEL S. BEAGLE in which he states that he spent the past summer in Fayette County, Tennessee, as a member of a voter registration--political education--project, and that he is now engaged in collecting money, old clothes or cans of food for needy sharecroppers and requested that checks be made payable to the Fayette County Civic and Welfare League and mailed to DANIEL S. BEAGLE, [redacted]. He also listed a telephone number of [redacted] to be called and he would be happy to pick up old clothes and cans of food.

The May 5, 1965, issue of "The Capital Times," a daily newspaper published at Madison, Wisconsin, reported that two University of Wisconsin students, DEBORAH RIB and DANNY BEAGLE, participated in last Saturday's demonstrations in Somerville, Tennessee. The article identified them as field workers for the West Tennessee Voters Project. The article further stated that the purpose of the sit-ins, according to Mr. and Mrs. GABRINER of [redacted], Northern coordinators of the Project, was to test the facilities in Somerville under the terms of the 1964 Civil Rights Act. Most of the 100 persons who participated were served but several, including the two University of Wisconsin students, were treated roughly, the article stated.

The May 6, 1965, issue of the "Daily Cardinal," reported that the West Tennessee Voters Project, a group sponsored by a campus organization, is recruiting individuals and raising funds for their volunteers. The article stated that already, two University students, DAN BEAGLE and DEBBIE RIB, are in Fayette County in Tennessee registering voters. The summer project will stress voter registration, the head-start program for children under the War On Poverty Program, and school integration work. The article concluded by stating that those wishing to contribute should make checks payable to the West Tennessee Voters Project, in care of DEBBIE RIB, and mail to [redacted]. Also, for further information, calls should be made to [redacted], BOB or VICKI GABRINER. b6 b7C

At a meeting of the Madison, Wisconsin, chapter of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) held on the night of December 7, 1964, at 440 West Gorham Street, Madison, Special Agents of the FBI observed what appeared to be a tall blond male arriving alone, driving an automobile bearing 1964 Tennessee plate A 73 412. After the meeting, this automobile was observed parked in front of the address of [redacted], which was then the residence of TRENA TAYLOR, who during the Fall of 1964, had been observed by Special Agents of the FBI as in attendance at meetings of the DCA, Madison, Wisconsin, chapter.

On February 5, 1965, [redacted], Motor Vehicle Revenue Division, State of Tennessee, advised that Tennessee license A 73 412 is issued to DANIEL S. BEAGLE, [redacted], for a 1956 Ford sedan.

ME 100-4070

D: MRS. ROBERT STEPHEN GABRINER and wife, VICKI GABRINER DOB. [redacted]

On March 3, 1965, ME T-4 advised that during the period February 20 and 21, 1965, in connection with a mid-West conference of the DCA, a characterization of which is attached hereto, ROBERT and VICKI GABRINER, then graduate students at the University of Wisconsin, commented that the GABRINERs were involved in a project which was under way in Fayette County, Tennessee.

ROBERT GABRINER indicated that he and his wife had first worked for JESSE GRAY in New York. They then worked for CARL and ANNE BRADEN in Louisville, Kentucky, and both ROBERT and VICKI GABRINER had worked in the Fayette County, Tennessee, area in a project to organize sharecroppers. ROBERT GABRINER added that he was very much concerned that any project with which he was involved taught socialism to the field workers; that it was not enough just to conduct a civil rights movement; that it was imperative that a socialist understanding be developed among the people with whom he was working.

ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP) in Louisville, Kentucky, on December 11 and 13, 1954, in her testimony in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Court, in the prosecution of CARL BRADEN, husband of ANNE BRADEN, testified that CARL and ANNE BRADEN were known to her as members of the CP in Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, to December, 1954, which was during the period of her (AHEARN's) CP membership.

On February 26, 1965, [redacted], Registrar's Office, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, advised from records that ROBERT STEPHEN GABRINER, born [redacted], was admitted to the University of Wisconsin first semester of the 1964-65 school year, commencing in September, 1964, and also as of February 26, 1965, registered in the second semester of said school year. He was admitted from Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. His original home address was listed as [redacted], the most recent Madison, Wisconsin, address shown for him was [redacted]. The same University of Wisconsin records revealed that VICKI GABRINER, born [redacted], had been attending graduate school at the University of Wisconsin since September, 1964, being admitted from Cornell University, with her original home address being [redacted], and her Madison, Wisconsin, address being [redacted].

1 APPENDIX

BURNING ISSUES

A source advised on May 11, 1961, that a meeting was held on May 8, 1961, in New York City, under the auspices of the Discussion Group for those in their twenties and thirties. Said meeting was the third or fourth meeting of the group.

A second source advised on June 14, 1961, that a business meeting of the Discussion Group was held on May 12, 1961, in the name of Burning Issues.

According to information furnished by the second source on December 28, 1961, MARVIN MARKMAN, New York District Youth Director, Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), declared on December 20, 1961, that Burning Issues (BI) was formed without the permission of the Communist Party (CP) and was in effect competing with Advance, a CP-initiated Marxist-Leninist youth organization. MARKMAN stated that BI must cease to compete with Advance and declare itself a left-wing organization.

The second source furnished information on January 28, 1963, reflecting that at the Third Annual Convention of Advance, held in New York City on October 13, 1962, the name of the organization was changed to Advance and Burning Issues Youth Organizations (A-BI). This action was taken because BI, a separate youth organization, organized in New York City in May, 1961, as a discussion club, became an affiliate of Advance.

A third source advised on June 26, 1963, that at a meeting of the City Board of A-BI held at the organization's headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York City, on June 25, 1963, it was voted to disassociate BI from the Advance organization.

BURNING ISSUES

The third source advised further on July 11, 1963, that the membership of BI met in New York City on July 10, 1963, and voted to dissolve.

MAY 2 MOVEMENT (M2M)
Formerly known as May 2 Committee

A source advised on March 3, 1965, as follows:

The M2M is the name now used by the May 2 Committee which was organized on March 14, 1964, at New Haven, Connecticut, by a group of young people participating in a symposium "Socialism in America" being held at Yale University. The original aim of the M2M was to plan and execute a demonstration in New York City on May 2, 1964, demanding withdrawal of the United States troops from Vietnam.

The M2M is dominated and controlled by the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) and has for its aim and purpose the embarrassment of the United States Government by meetings, rallies, picketing demonstrations and formation of University level clubs at which a Marxist-Leninist oriented approach and analysis is taken of United States domestic and foreign policies.

The M2M has no fixed location which serves as a headquarters; however, Post Office Box 153, Village Station, New York, New York, is utilized as a mailing address.

FOSTER STOCKWELL

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memoranda dated June 14, 1965, and June 23, 1965, which set out information that Foster Stockwell had been in contact with a Communist Party (CP) member residing near South Bend, Indiana, and solicited assistance relative to the protest demonstrations underway at Chicago, Illinois, relative to alleged defacto school segregation and that sources in Chicago, Illinois, had no information that the CP of Illinois was supporting these demonstrations.

A confidential source at South Bend, Indiana, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 28, 1965, repeated that on June 13, 1965, Foster Stockwell, identified by source as a CP member from Chicago, Illinois, called a CP member residing near South Bend, Indiana, stating, "We are calling our good friends" concerning a protest march to be held in Chicago, Illinois, on June 19, 1965, to protest the retention of Benjamin C. Willis as Chicago Superintendent of Schools. Stockwell stated, in effect, "We are going to make another Selma to Montgomery march. We are calling our close friends to ask them to come down and help with the demonstration. If they can't do this, they should gather money to help pay the bonds and fines of those who will be arrested."

Source continued that Rhoda Stockwell, wife of Foster Stockwell, on June 27, 1965, had stated that she, Rhoda, had dropped out of the CP about two years ago. Foster, however, is still attending CP meetings. Rhoda stated that Foster was the "only Party person" who was doing any work on civil rights. No one in the Party is giving Foster any credit for what he is doing in civil rights. Rhoda did not know how long Foster would continue in the Party since he is getting no support for his work in civil rights.

Source stated that in view of the comments of Rhoda Stockwell on June 27, 1965, he was now of the opinion that when Foster Stockwell had requested assistance on June 13, 1965, he was either acting as an individual CP member or was representing one of the neighborhood or Methodist organizations in which he had been working in the Chicago area.

Internal Security - C

The second quarter 1965 issue of "Freedomways" magazine is devoted to the theme "Mississippi: Opening Up the Closed Society". This issue notes that the Editor for the issue is J. H. O'Dell who also is listed as one of the contributing editors to the magazine.

A characterization of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, publisher of the magazine "Freedomways" is set forth in the Appendix pages.

A confidential source advised in July, 1962, that, as of that time, O'Dell was considered by the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) as being a member of its National Committee.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Freedomways Associates Incorporated

The editorial of this issue is divided into three parts:

1. "Mississippi - State of the Union"
2. "Investigating the Ku Klux Klan"
3. "The War in Vietnam"

The Ku Klux Klan has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In the first part of the editorial, it is stated that "'Freedomways' is publishing this special issue on Mississippi to fill a need both for the Freedom Movement and the country. The need is for an in-depth analysis of Mississippi; of the political, economic and cultural factors which have historically served to institutionalize racism in this state. The purpose of such an analysis is perhaps best expressed in the theme we have chosen: 'Opening Up the Closed Society'; the purpose being to provide new insights rather than merely repeating well-known facts about Mississippi."

It notes that "The Closed Society" has its roots in the slave society of the 19th Century and that Mississippi "represents, in aggravated form, all of the major economic, political and moral contradictions present in American society as a whole....." It adds that "the embarrassment which Mississippi causes to the nation arises out of the fact that the nation has finally arrived at a 'national consensus' (not to yield any substantial power to the black community) but to at least enlarge the 'place', to include public accomodations, etc."

This editorial comments on the white supremacist politicians that arose in Mississippi and states that "such politicians in America rely heavily upon the national psychosis of anti-Communism, which is almost a national illness in our country. This psychosis provides them with a convenient rationale for attacking the Freedom Movement....."

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Freedomways Associates Incorporated

It notes that Mississippi racists see "Communist infiltration" in every form of protest made by the Negro community against injustices, but that Mississippians "are not the creators of this mentality, they are merely the cultivators of it. The myth is molded for them in high echelons in Washington, D.C. and in other parts of the country, in the drawing rooms of the Power Elite....."

The second part of the editorial states that the Johnson Administration's selection of the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) to investigate the Ku Klux Klan is designed to "sabotage" the demand that the Klan be investigated while pretending to meet it. It attacks the HUAC, calls for its abolishment, and describes the giving of investigative responsibility of the Klan to the HUAC as "one of the most ludicrous events in modern American political history". It advocates the investigation of the Klan by a joint committee of both members of Congress.

In the third section of the editorial, the United States' intervention in Vietnam is described as "one of the most tragic and morally unjustifiable adventures in our nation's history" and as "naked intervention, as was the case in the Korean War". It also states that this intervention is a "full scale war". It continues, "The familiar picture of an American soldier painting an inscription on a bomb intended to be dropped on Vietnam villages, with an inscription reading 'from Raleigh, North Carolina' speaks eloquently enough of the real nature of American involvement in Vietnam. Nor is it purely a coincidence that among the loudest supporters of this unjust adventure are such ardent segregationists as Senator Long of Louisiana and the Goldwater Republicans. This is not the first racist war in which the American people have been dragged by their political leaders. This country, indeed, is peculiarly shaped, in part, by its history of wars - against the Indian population, Mexico, the Philippines, Cuba, Haiti and the Korean people."

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Freedomways Associates Incorporated

According to this editorial, "The fundamental reason why our government can so arrogantly violate the right of the Vietnamese people (and the people of Santo Domingo), to settle their disputes in their own way, is because the government of the United States has a 'tradition', over the past 90 years, of never having upheld and defended the right of the black people of the southern states to choose the kind of government they wish to live under, by guaranteeing to them the ballot and free elections. This is the link that connects Selma and Saigon."

This editorial calls for a "fuller cooperation between the grass-roots participants and leaders of the Peace Movement and the Civil Rights Movement. Each has a stake in the goals of the other."

CAROL HOOVER

A news item in "The Atlanta Daily World" (an Atlanta, Georgia, daily Negro newspaper) dated May 21, 1965, titled "Albany 'Justice' Assailed," datelined Hapeville, Georgia, sets forth information regarding a semi-annual board meeting of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, (SCEF) held in Hapeville during the previous weekend. The article reports that Miss CAROL HOOVER, Atlanta, Georgia, an administrative assistant at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was one of four new members added to the board of SCEF at this meeting.

A Characterization of the SCEF is attached hereto.

On August 22, 1964, CAROL HOOVER of SCLC, Atlanta, Georgia, told STANLEY LEVISON she was glad to have seen him at the party the previous Wednesday, according to Confidential Source Seven on March 27, 1965.

She also asked LEVISON for a financial contribution to the campaign fund of DONALD ~~L.~~ HOLLOWELL who was running for Judge of the Superior Court, Atlanta, Georgia.

LEVISON advised HOOVER that in response to her request he had contributed $50.

STANLEY LEVISON

Confidential Source Eight advised in April, 1964, that STANLEY LEVISON was a secret member of the Communist Party, USA, in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position in civil rights. LEVISON's differences with the Communist Party; however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

C. T. VIVIAN

Confidential Source Nine in November, 1947, advised that C. T. VIVIAN was a member of the Community Section of the Communist Party in Peoria, Illinois. On June 24, 1948, this source advised that C. T. VIVIAN had not been active in Communist Party affairs in the Peoria area for some time and advised he had not been in the area for a long period of time.

On January 14, 1965, Confidential Source Four advised that C. T. VIVIAN of SCLC was in contact with GEORGE MEYERS of Baltimore, Maryland, and agreed to see MEYERS on that date. The purpose of this meeting is not known.

GEORGE MEYERS

Confidential Source Ten on January 28, 1965, said he knows MEYERS to be a member of the Communist Party (CP), USA, National Executive Committee and also knows him to be the CP organizer for the Southern Region of the CP.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 6, 1965, that on that date Clarence Jones stated that he had been elevated to the position of General Counsel of the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee (LCDC).

"The New York Times," June 8, 1964, page 19, contained an article which stated that the LCDC would direct the activities of about 150 lawyers who volunteered to work in the South without fee, handling civil rights cases during the summer of 1964.

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League.

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Coggins further stated that he is helping to organize a picket line in Newark, New Jersey in relation to police brutality; that "Human Relations" is having a meeting, but it will be a "white wash", and they are going to picket it at 6:30 p.m., July 13, 1965 in Newark. Coggins stated that it will probably get full television coverage and that both Jesse Gray and Rudy Jones, assistant to Jesse Gray should be over to take advantage of the television exposure. Miss Glenn stated she would deliver the message to Jesse Gray when he came back and to Rudy Jones. Confidential source Number 1 had earlier advised that Jesse Gray was in Chicago on July 13, 1965.

Rudy Jones had announced that he is running for New York State Senator in the Democratic Primary. Confidential source Number 2 advised on April 15, 1958 that at the meeting of the Communist Party (CP), Waterfront Section held on April 11, 1958, at 167 Second Street, New York City, it was stated that Rudy Jones was a member of the Waterfront Section, CP, who was behind in his dues payment.

Confidential source Number 3 advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer of the Harlem Region CP, but this position was terminated during November, 1958.

On 7/1/65, Mr. JAY RICHARD KENNEDY telephonically contacted the NYO and spoke to SA JOHN C. SEATON. Mr. KENNEDY stated that the group called "The Deacons" is still taking an active part in the civil rights struggle in the area which includes Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi. According to Mr. KENNEDY, "The Deacons" has 10,000 individuals enrolled and under instruction. However, Mr. KENNEDY added that if this group is known to have 10,000 members, he feels that there must be another 10,000 who are not known, bringing the total to 20,000.

Mr. KENNEDY was asked what his source was for the information concerning "The Deacons" to which he responded that he got the information from "a friend who lives elsewhere." Mr. KENNEDY would not further identify the source. It is to be noted that when Mr. KENNEDY speaks over the telephone, he uses cryptic language which is difficult to follow. He leads one to believe that he feels that his telephone is tapped.

Mr. KENNEDY remarked that in the recent past, JAMES FARMER has been pushed into making some simple statements. He said that FARMER has to be educated and he stated he would let FARMER go for awhile and then he would give him some education.

Mr. KENNEDY stated that he feels that he should have a talk with the Director about these matters.

On 7/6/65, Mr. KENNEDY called the NYO and once again spoke with SA SEATON. He spoke about the Congress of Racial Equality Convention which was held in Durham, North Carolina. Mr. KENNEDY referred to an article appearing in "The New York Times" of 7/6/65, in which it was reported that CORE had voted for the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Viet Nam. According to the article, this decision was reversed after a fight led by JAMES FARMER. Mr. KENNEDY stated that he was in touch with FARMER over the week end and that it was he (KENNEDY) who got FARMER to reverse this stand.

Mr. KENNEDY remarked that NORMAN HILL attended the CORE Convention, but conveniently disappeared when FARMER came under attack at the Convention. Mr. KENNEDY stated that he never cared for NORMAN HILL and that on one occasion he had a heated argument with HILL. According to Mr. KENNEDY, he spoke with Mrs. FARMER about HILL and she voiced the opinion that she thought he (HILL) was a Communist. KENNEDY said that he asked her what JAMES FARMER thought about HILL, and she said that she did not know but that her husband might have to re-evaluate this.

According to Mr. KENNEDY, Mrs. FARMER mentioned that JULIAN HOBSON was one of those involved in the Convention proceedings. JULIAN HOBSON, according to the information furnished by Mrs. FARMER to Mr. KENNEDY, is a Communist. Mr. KENNEDY stated that through his sources, whom he would not identify, he learned that JULIAN HOBSON is a Communist.

Mr. KENNEDY stated that ERNEST THOMAS of Jonesville, La., is the leader of the group known as "The Deacons." He further stated that THOMAS attended the convention, and he added that the Black Muslims and "The Deacons" were invited to attend the CORE Convention.

It is to be noted that JULIAN HOBSON may be identical with JULIUS W. HOBSON who is Chairman of Associated Community Teams (ACT), Washington, D.C.

At the conclusion of this call, Mr. KENNEDY specifically requested to meet with the Director. He was advised that Mr. HOOVER has an extremely busy schedule and his availability is unknown by the NYO and that NYO would not set up an appointment for Mr. HOOVER. Mr. KENNEDY stated he may communicate with Mr. HOOVER for an appointment.

inasmuch as information furnished, if divulged, might compromise the sources.

From available information, it appears that the CP has no connection whatever with the Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals (CMNR). It should be further noted that [redacted] b7D [redacted] advised that the CP has made no attempts to penetrate or associate with CMNR.

[redacted] advised that the CP in its high level meetings, has never discussed the CMNR. It should be noted that [redacted] advised that it is highly unlikely the CP will ever attempt to associate in any way with CMNR, inasmuch as the CP would not condone the type of activities advocated by the CMNR. [redacted] explained that the CMNR would have a anti-coalition policy to which the CP would be opposed. Further, the CP advocates a united front movement where as the CMNR would be a narrow sect type organization. This source further stated that the CMNR policy would border on violence, and the CP wants no part of any violence at this time.

In view of the information furnished by [redacted] and the fact that the above listed sources, all of whom are familiar with CP activites in the Civil Rights movement, were unable to furnish any evidence of CP interest in the CMNR, it is recommended that no investigation be conducted under the COMINFIL caption, and no report will be submitted by Chicago UACB.

It is recommended that a continuing investigation of the CMNR be conducted as a racial type organization, and Chicago will UACB handle as racial investigation.

On June 28, 1965, a source who is familiar with the activities of the Chicago group of the Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals (CMNR), advised that as far as the Chicago group is concerned, there is no connection between the group and the Communist Party (CP). According to this source, the majority of the individuals active in the CMNR are connected with ACT, but have no CP connection. This source further advised the main guiding forces of the group in Chicago, are Lawrence Landry, National Chairman of ACT; and Nahaz Rogers, an officer in the Chicago ACT organization. This source further advised that at meetings of the CMNR, there has never been any mention made to seek any type of assistance or support from the CP.

On June 29, 1965, a second source advised that the CP of Illinois, has made no attempts to penetrate or associate with the CMNR. The CP of Illinois, in its high level meetings, has never discussed the CMNR. This source explained that it would be highly unlikely the CP would ever attempt to associate in any way with the CMNR, inasmuch as the CP would not condone the type of activities advocated by the CMNR. This source explained that the CMNR would have an anti-coalition policy in which the CP would be opposed, since the CP advocates a united front movement, where as the CMNR would probably be considered a narrow sect type organization. A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 9, 1965, that, on that date, Stanley Levison contacted Bill Stein, who is working with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Stein told Levison that the Reverend (Martin Luther) King read Levison's memorandum and would bring it before the executive committee on July 19, 1965. Levison stated that he too had spoken with Andy (Andy Young, Executive Director of the SCLC), and was advised of the same information.

Levison said that the one who will have to be convinced of the memorandum is the Reverend (Ralph) Abernathy, (Treasurer of the SCLC) because Abernathy does not want to spend money. Levison stated the the object of the memorandum is to raise funds through the SCLC by soliciting contributions from various churches. He said that the decision had been made to hire one Joe Lowery (Joseph E. Lowery, Nashville, Tennessee, Second Vice-President of the SCLC), to handle this solicitation and that Lowery would be made a first secretary of the church and would contact various churches for funds.

Levison advised that he was leaving for Atlanta, Georgia, on Sunday night (July 11, 1965) accompanied by a woman, Wally Albertson, whom he intended to introduce to members of the executive staff meeting.

The source was unable to advise the reason for Albertson's intended meeting with SCLC members in Atlanta.

On the night of July 11, 1965, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Stanley Levison, accompanied by unknown white female (Wally Albertson), board Delta Airlines Flight Number 923, at Kennedy International Airport, New York, which flight was scheduled to depart New York for Atlanta at 6:40 PM.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

A representative of the Airport Sales Corporation, United Terminal Building, Insurance Counter, Kennedy International Airport, made available information on July 11, 1965, that Mrs. Wallace Thomson Albertson had made application for insurance on the evening of July 11, 1965. She gave her address as [redacted] Los Angeles, California, and she listed the name of her beneficiary as Jack Albertson, 130 East 18th Street, New York City. NY

ORGANIZATION FOR BLACK POWER (OBP)

Confidential sources utilized in this communication and in the appendix, have furnished reliable information in the past.

On July 12, 1965, Julius W. Hobson, chairman, Washington, D. C., chapter of Associated Community Teams (ACT) advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Washington, D. C., that he had not made any arrangements for Jesse Gray to appear on any television or radio news program in Washington, D. C., for July 12, 1965. Mr. Hobson stated he had arranged for a reporter from the "Evening Star", a daily newspaper, Washington, D. C., to interview Gray at the Washington ACT office on the evening of July 12, 1965. The reporter wanted to write a future newspaper article based on the interview. Gray did not arrive on time for the interview, therefore the reporter departed without contacting Gray, according to Hobson on July 13, 1965.

Jesse Gray according to Confidential Source number one advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer for the Harlem Region Communist Party (CP) but this position terminated during November, 1958.

Confidential Source number two advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William L. Patterson, chairman of the New York District CP, Jesse Gray is no longer a member of the CP, but is friendly with the CP.

On July 12, 1965, Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) Radio and Television News Bureaus advised that they had no plans to have Jesse Gray or Julius W. Hobson appear on any CBS programs on July 12, 1965.

A Special Agent of the FBI on July 12, 1965, monitored the CBS radio and television newscasts from 8 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. without obtaining any news regarding Jesse Gray or Julius W. Hobson.

Hobson advised on July 13, 1965, that neither he or Jesse Gray appeared on radio or television programs in Washington, D. C., on July 12, 1965.

On July 12, 1965, Hobson advised a meeting was to be held that evening at the Washington ACT office with representatives of OBP present from Baltimore, Detroit, New York City, and Philadelphia. These persons were to discuss possible future plans of the OBP. Hobson stated he would be in the meeting as he wanted to retain contact with the OBP in order to know what is happening in the "coalition" of the various Negro organizations which met on the "July 4th" (1965) weekend in Chicago.

On July 13, 1965, Hobson stated a meeting was held on July 12, 1965, at the Washington ACT office which was attended by the following:

Jesse Gray, newly chosen chairman of OBP, from New York City

William R. Davis, member of Freedom Action Committee, 2621 West Thompson Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Davis is Coordinator of the OBP activities on the East coast. He called the meeting held on July 12, 1965, in D. C.

Jacob Green, member "Jobs for Freedom," 2544 Lauretta Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland

Paul Brooks, member "Freedom Now Party," 9770 Chenlot, Detroit, Michigan

Julius W. Hobson, Chairman, Washington, D. C., Chapter of ACT.

CONFIDENTIAL

ORGANIZATION FOR BLACK POWER

Confidential Source number three stated Jacob Green is a member of the National Committee CP, United States of America from the Maryland - Washington, D. C. District as of April 25, 1961.

Hobson stated the meeting on July 12, 1965, discussed, in general, the future direction of OBP activities with some discussion regarding "disobedience" of the United States Government's new "Poverty Program". The discussion was general and is to be continued on Sunday, July 18, 1965, at 5 p.m. in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 2621 West Thompson Street, the address of William R. Davis. Those in attendance on July 12, 1965, are to attend the Philadelphia meeting and are to be joined there by three or four other persons (unnamed).

Hobson further stated that he believes the OBP will attempt to get the cooperation of numerous Negro organizations now involved in the civil rights movement in the United States. He added that it is his opinion the OBP may have a great influence on the younger generation by having as an Executive Committee Jesse Gray, James Boggs, and Lawrence Landry. These are older men who have a very convincing way of speaking.

James Boggs

Confidential Source number four advised on September 26, 1963, that James Boggs and wife, Grace Lee Boggs were members of the Correspondence Group in Detroit at that time.

Confidential Source number five, on May 8, 1962, advised that as of that date, James Boggs was National Chairman of the Correspondence Group.

A characterization of the Correspondence Group is contained in the characterization of the Facing Reality Publishing Company in the appendix pages.

FACING REALITY PUBLISHING COMPANY AND CORRESPONDENCE

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past on August 1, 1958, stated that as a result of the split in the Johnson-Forest Group (JFG), which occurred in 1955, two factions emerged, the Johnson Faction and the Forest Faction. According to the source, the Johnson faction was composed of the followers of C.L.R. JAMES, also known as James Johnson and the Forest Faction was composed of the followers of RAE DWYER, also known as Freddie Forest. The co-founders of the JFG were C.L.R. JAMES, known as Johnson, who was deported from the United States as an undesirable alien in 1953, and RAE DWYER, known as Forest.

The JFG has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 26, 1962, that subsequent to the split in the JFG, the Johnson Faction took the name Correspondence Group, which continued until February, 1962, when this group again split with the majority aligning themselves with JAMES behind the leadership of MARTIN GLABERMAN of Detroit, Michigan.

On May 8, 1962, this source furnished material in which JAMES BOGGS, the National Chairman of the Correspondence Group, stated that the Correspondence Group had made a clear and clean break with C.L.R. JAMES, and the 19th Century development of Marxism. He stated that the Correspondence Group was trying to provide a center or basis where workers, technicians and intellectuals,

This source reported on July 19, 1962, that the group of individuals at Detroit, Michigan, who formerly belonged to the Correspondence Group there had taken the name Facing Reality Publishing Company or Committee, while the three former members of the Group at New York had met informally in support of the Detroit group, which had issued neither directions nor instructions. The New York Group has no officers or headquarters.

On March 7, 1963, the same source advised that the Facing Reality Publishing Company or Committee seeks to create a Marxist society based on the dialectical concepts of Marxism-Leninism as interpreted by C.L.R. JAMES, establishing government by workers rather than government by a Marxist political party. The prime movement in securing the support of the people is considered to be a publication to be used by the workers in their daily fight against capitalism. This group rejects the vanguard party concept of Marxism and has established the theory that trade unions keep the workers under subjugation by preventing their channeling of their own efforts to take over the means of production and through this to in Reference memorandum dated July 13, 1965, and captioned as above relating that the Labor Vanguard Democrats would picket Newark City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, on July 13, 1965.

On July 13, 1965, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed eight adults and seven children, ages fifteen and under, picket the Newark City Hall from 7:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Among the adult demonstrators were Clarence Coggins, his wife Agatha Coggins, Alvin Oliver, Esther Nette, Peter Shuchter, and two unidentified Negro males. William Clark, unsuccessful Labor Vanguard Democrat candidate for Governor of New Jersey in the Democratic primary of June 1, 1965, joined the picketing demonstrators at 8:55 p.m.

Characterizations of Clarence Coggins, Alvin Oliver, and William Clark are included in the Characterization of the LNVC which is attached hereto.

NK T-1 advised on May 3, 1965, that Esther Nette has been an active member of the LNVC since 1961.

NK T-1 advised on May 3, 1965, that Peter Shuchter is one of the children of Lillian Shuchter. NK T-1 stated Lillian Shuchter was expelled from the Communist Party (CP) about 1957, attempted unsuccessfully to get readmitted to the CP, was active in the early days of the LNVC but has been inactive in the LNVC in recent years. NK T-1 said Lillian Shuchter's activities in recent years have been primarily political in one of the major parties.

Observation by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on April 16, 1961, revealed that on that date Peter Shuchter accompanied Robert Hamilton to 165 Franklin Street, Bloomfield, New Jersey, an apartment building in which Harry Bloksberg then resided.

NK T-2 advised on August 2, 1961, that Robert Hamilton had been teaching a Marxist class for young people for the New Jersey Communist Party. Harry Bloksberg had been active in this class.

Some of the demonstrators carried signs, reading, "Labor Vanguard Democrats", "Police Review Board Now", and "We Want Action". There were no incidents.

At 8:00 p.m. the demonstrators entered the Newark City Hall and seated themselves among about two hundred people who were attending a public hearing on the merits of establishing a police review board for the Newark Police Department. The hearing was held by the Newark Human Rights Commission.

On July 14, 1965, Deputy Chief John Redden, Newark, New Jersey, Police Department, advised that Clarence Coggins and Willian Clark appeared before the Newark Human Rights Commission on July 13, 1965, and called for a police review board. Redden described Clark's appearance as mostly incoherent. He stated that Coggins was interrupted by a question from Newark Detective Louis Roberts who asked if Coggins was now or ever had been a member of the Communist Party.

Doctor Maxwell Kaye, Chairman of the Newark Human Rights Commission, ruled immediately that the question was not germane and that Coggins need not answer. Coggins did not.

segments of the Negro community, then engaged in a boycott of Public School #6 at Buffalo in an effort to remove its principal PHILIP PATTI, who was alleged to be discriminating against Negro children. This "Freedom School" was staffed by volunteer teachers for the purpose of giving instruction to children whose parents were boycotting Public School #6. The idea of this temporary "Freedom School" collapsed on March 30, 1965, since there was insufficient interest in maintaining such an operation. As of March 29 and 30, 1965, JOSEPHINE SPORN and her husband, PAUL, were upset because other persons in the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) such as CARL and JOAN MOOS were not interested in assisting in this project.

March 29, 30, 1965

Characterizations of PLP, both nationally and locally, are contained in the appendix section of this report.

In 1961 BU T-1 advised that JOSEPHINE SPORN was a former member of the Erie County Communist Party (ECCP) who had discontinued her membership in early 1960. This same source reported periodically during mid 1965 that since 1962 JOSEPHINE SPORN had closely associated with PLP members.

BU T-1 reported periodically in 1961 that PAUL SPORN was until late 1961 the Educational Director of the ECCP and that in late 1961 he was expelled from the CP for having taken a leadership role in a factional dispute with National and New York State CP leadership.

BU T-3 in May, 1965, advised that PAUL SPORN was at that time one of the leaders of PLP in Buffalo, New York.

In October, 1964, BU T-3 advised that as of that time CARL MOOS was attending meetings and study classes of PLP at Buffalo, New York. This same source in May, 1965, advised that as of that time CARL MOOS was a PLP member.

BU T-3 in May, 1965, advised that as of that time JOAN MOOS was considered to be a PLP member at Buffalo, New York.

At a meeting of the ECCP held April 13, 1965, one of several points on the agenda concerned a discussion of whether or not the CP in Buffalo should support SAUL ALINSKY and his Industrial Areas Foundation if this controversial sociologist were brought into Buffalo to attempt to improve the Negro community. No decision was reached, and it was finally decided to wait and see how the drive to bring ALINSKY to Buffalo develops before making a determination as to what the Party's decision will be.

An item in the April 28, 1965 edition of "The Record," a student publication of the State University College at Buffalo, Buffalo, New York, thanked various individuals for having assisted in staging a folk concert in behalf of a campus civil rights group to raise funds to assist the integration effort in Laurel, Mississippi. One of the individuals thanked was WALTER ZVALEKO.

BU T-1 reported periodically in 1961 that WALTER ZVALEKO was until late in that year active in the ECCP and that in late 1961 he participated in a factional revolt and left the CP.

BU T-3 in May, 1965, described WALTER ZVALEKO as occupying a leadership role in PLP at Buffalo, New York.

At a meeting of the ECCP on April 26, 1965, it was again revealed that no firm CP decision had been reached as to whether the CP should support SAUL ALINSKY. MARTY ZELMAN said that he would obtain the views of the New York State CP concerning this matter.

A review of [redacted] Bureau file 62-77787 entitled "INDONESIAN DELEGATION TO THE UN" fails to reveal any information indicating Indonesian delegates are running social organizations in Harlem as a means of passing on Communist indoctrination.

A review of [redacted] Bureau file 100-399321, entitled [redacted] specifically, report of SA [redacted] at NY, dated 1/20/65, reveals data concerning MALCOLM X's tour to Africa during 1964 and his relationship with subversive organizations. Attention is directed to pages 77-138. The above supplements data set forth under Item 5 of referenced letter.

A review of same indicates MALCOLM X's tour of Africa was not directly for the purpose of raising funds, but rather to express anti-white views to African countries and gain support from their leaders to take the so-called question of treatment of Negroes in America to the UN. b3 b7E b6 b7C

Accordingly, since the above has previously been submitted in a form suitable for dissemination, only the highlights of same are set forth in the enclosed LHM.

A review of [redacted] Bureau file [redacted] entitled "AFRICA, LATIN AMERICA, ASIA REVOLUTION; RA-AFRICA" reveals that complete background on this publication has been previously furnished to the Bureau under the above caption and file number.

Data set forth in the enclosed LHM relating to news articles appearing in the "China Daily News" (CDN) are contained in NY file 100-63825, Bureau file 100-196148 entitled "CHINA DAILY NEWS aka; IS-CHINA."

A canvass of agent personnel assigned to "Racial Matters and Nationality Group Coverage-Africa, reveals no knowledge on their part relating to the items set forth in referenced letter.

It is noted that the items listed in referenced letter, for the most part, are subjects of individual investigations in the NYO and therefore information is furnished to the Bureau concerning same on a continuing basis. Accordingly, it is believed that any subversive and/or Communist links between Harlem and Africa would be determined through these individual investigations.

During April and May, 1965, confidential sources, who are familiar with racial matters and Communist Party (CP) activities in the New York area, were contacted, but could furnish no information directly indicating Micheaux was distributing Communist literature.

During June, 1965, NY T-1 advised that Louis Micheaux principally distributes "Back to Africa" literature at his store at Seventh Avenue and 125th Street, New York City. NY T-1 related he had visited this store frequently and has never seen Communist literature; however, it was the opinion of the informant that Micheaux would distribute Communist literature if it would support or advance the "Black Nationalist Movement."

It is noted that During March, 1965, NY T-2 furnished information indicating that Stephen Nwasokwa, Secretary for the Coordinating Committee for African [illegible] Day, Pan African Students Organization in the Americas (PASOA), New York City Chapter, was in touch with the Guinean UN Mission and invited the ambassador to speak to the PASOA concerning the Congo issue. According to NY T-2, the ambassadors from Tanzania, United Arab Republic and Liberia were also invited to speak before the PASOA on related subjects.

The PASOA is an African student organization which has been engaged in anti-United States demonstrations in the New York area.

Malcolm X

During June and July, 1964, confidential sources, who are familiar with racial matters in the New York area, furnished information indicating Malcolm X had spoken numerous times before the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

The SWP is characterized in the appendix of this memorandum.

According to these sources, Malcolm X reportedly stated that Negroes had the right to use whatever force is necessary to gain their rights. He went on to say that the Black man will not wait any longer for his rights, not getting them for 350 years. There will be no policy of turning the other cheek. There will be no sit-ins, no leg-ins, no play-ins. The law has been defined by the United States Supreme Court and still the Negro has to fight for his civil rights. The days of non-violence are over. There will be no race riots, but race wars.

During May, 1964, NY T-3 advised that at a meeting of the Southern California District CP, held on May 12, 1964, at Los Angeles, California, Bob Thompson, a CP spokesman for New York, spoke at this meeting on the activities in the New York area dealing mainly with civil rights. Thompson mentioned that Malcolm X is the official spokesman for the organization "ACT". According to Thompson, Malcolm X instructed members of "ACT" not to leave their own organizations, but remain in them, and influence the thinking of the organization. Malcolm X, according to Thompson, advocates the next stage of the struggle is arms. Thompson further stated that more organizations will emerge as has in the past, which were not civil rights organizations at their beginning, but eventually find themselves in the civil rights orbit.

ACT

As a guest of the 'Bob Kennedy Show,' over Radio Station WHZ, Boston, Massachusetts, on March 24, 1964, Malcolm X, during an interview, advised that on February 14, 1964, he attended a civil rights conference in Chester, Pennsylvania. According to Malcolm X, persons attending this conference were Negro entertainer Dick Gregory and civil rights leaders from New York City, Cambridge, Maryland, Chester, Pennsylvania, and Chicago, Illinois. Malcolm X said this group formed an organization known as ACT. He stated that although the initials mean nothing, the group is designed to act at any time, anywhere, to bring about results in the civil rights efforts. Malcolm X claimed that this group is not committed to positive resistance. He said the chairman of this group is Mr. Lawrence Landry of Chicago, Illinois, who led the recent school boycott in Chicago.

A meeting of the District Board of the CP, Southern California, was held on May 28, 1964. At this meeting, the Chairman of the District Board, CP, told those attending the meeting that a decision has been made in the party to concentrate on capitalizing "on the militancy of the Negro people for improving the relationship of the party in this movement."

During July, 1964, NY T-4 furnished an itinerary of Malcolm X during his trip to Africa which indicated the following schedule:

April 13, 1964	He departed the States for Cairo, Egypt.
April 14 to May 5, 1964	In Cairo, United Arab Republic, Beirut, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia, where he completed pilgrimage to Mecca.
May 6, 1964	In Lagos, Nigeria
May 8, 1964	In Ibadan, Nigeria.
May 10, 1964	In Accra, Ghana.

At the above African cities, Malcolm X made numerous inflamatory anti-United States, anti-white speeches.

During June, 1964, NY T-5, [redacted] b7D advised that Malcolm X emphasized the following basic themes during his tour to Ghana:

1. The Negroes were stolen from Africa and forced to forget their culture and traditions, yet they never have been accepted into American society.

2. The Christian religion has been used to oppress Negroes and encourage them to accept an inferior position.

3. Force is the only possible way to achieve equality.

4. The United States is the "master of imperialism" without whose support other imperialistic nations could not exist.

5. White America is guilty of dehumanizing the American Negro and putting him to death as a human being.

6. If America is not interested in human rights in America, how can she be interested in human rights in Africa? The American Government should not send the Peace Corps to Africa, they should send them to Mississippi and Alabama.

7. The only difference between apathy in South Africa and racism in the United States is that "while South Africa preaches and practices segregation, the United States preaches integration and practices segregation."

It is noted that the magazine "Newsweek" issue of March 9, 1964, contains an article alleging that during the Summer of 1963, the magazine "Revolution" received a grant of $70,000 from the Red Chinese Embassy in Bern, Switzerland.

A Registration Act investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) concerning the above publication was discontinued during 1964 upon the registration of its United States of America agent, Vincent Ted Lee, on September 1, 1964, under the provision of the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

Chinese Influence

The following are brief translations of representative articles appearing in the "China Daily News" (CDN) highlighting cooperation between Communist Chinese and African nations since late 1964.

A characterization of the CDN appears in the appendix section of this memorandum.

"DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC AND COMMUNIST CHINA

"(Bangui, Sept. 29, AP):

"It was announced by the government of the Central African Republic that it would establish diplomatic relations with the government of Communist China. Meanwhile, the communist Chinese delegation that visited Bangui at that time signed a treaty of economic, technical, and cultural aid between the two countries."

"TANGANYIKA-ZANZIBAR HAS RIGHT TO TAKE CHINA'S MILITARY AID

"(News from Hong Kong):

"Communist China offered to give Tanganyika-Zanzibar some military aid. The governments of some countries did not think that the Chinese offer should be accepted. But, the President of Tanganyika-Zanzibar said he had the right to make his own determination and accept the military aid from Communist China."

"CONGOLESE MILITARY DELEGATION VISITING PEKING

"(News from Hong Kong):

"The Congolese military delegation led by Major Felix (phon.), went to visit Communist China. They were received by the communist Chinese Premier, Chou En-lai. At the invitation of Chairman Liu Shao-chi, the President of Congo would also go to visit Communist China about the end of September."

"NIGERIA CONSIDERS ESTABLISHING RELATIONS WITH CUBA

"(Lagos, French News Agency):

"Nigeria is considering the exchange of diplomatic representatives with Communist China. When the communist Chinese delegation was visiting Nigeria, the Nigerian Foreign Minister, Famali (phon.), told news reporters that his country has already accorded a de facto recognition to Communist China; hence, the two governments concerned would agree to exchange diplomatic representatives with each other."

"Chinese Foreign Ministry Issues Communique on Congo (Leopoldville)

"...the Chinese Government never hesitates at reasserting its deep sympathy with the common people of Congo and going to their aid in their struggles for independence from foreign oppression and exploitation. China is opposed to another American scheme to make of Congo a second Vietnam."

"COMMUNIST CHINA RECOGNIZED BY CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC

"(News from Hong Kong):

"It was reported from Bangui, the capital of Central African Republic, that Communist China has been recognized by that African government. The Charge d'Affaires of Nationalist China was notified to this effect. Thus, a joint communique was made public on September 29, which said that diplomatic representatives would be exchanged between the two governments."

"COOPERATION BETWEEN CHINA AND AFRICAN COUNTRIES STRENGTHENED

"(Special news from Hong Kong):

"At the invitation of the communist Chinese chairman Liu Shao-chi and Premier Chou En-lai, the President of Tanzania (Tanganyika and Zanzibar) and his wife will go to visit Communist China around the middle of February.

"(Consolidated reports):

"Three African countries have reached some kind of an agreement of cooperation with Communist China.

"CHINA AND TANZANIA SIGN A FRIENDSHIP TREATY

"(Hong Kong, the 20th, 'The New York Times')

"The People's Republic of China and the Republic of Tanzania signed a friendship treaty in Peking today."

"President Nyerere, Arriving in Dar es Salaam, Urges Countrymen to Follow Chinese Example

"Hong Kong - On arrival in Dar es Salaam from a tour of China, President Nyerere urged his countrymen to follow the Chinese example..."

The following article appeared in the "New York Times" of June 6, 1965, and concerns a speech given by Premiere Chou En-lai at Tanzania on June 5, 1965:

"Chou En-lai declared today that not only Africa but also Asia and Latin America were ripe for revolution.

"Addressing a rally of 20,000 Tanzanians in the National Stadium here, the Chinese Communist Premier delivered a devastating denunciation of the United States. He called it a 'cornered dog' that was bullying the peoples of Vietnam, the Dominican Republic and the Congo and blocking the African march to independence and prosperity.

On May 4, 1965, NY T-7 related that Susan Frank had reportedly instructed Leo Huberman, Co-Editor of "Monthly Review", to submit appropriate travel papers to 2200 R Street, North West Washington, D.C. (It is noted that this is the address of the Algerian Embassy of the democratic and popular republic of Algeria.)

Characterizations of Leo Huberman and "Monthly Review" are contained in the appendix of this memorandum.

On March 1, 1965, NY T-12 advised that during January, 1965, Leo Huberman had written a letter to Joseph Murumbi, Foreign Minister of the Republic of Kenya. Huberman reportedly addressed the Minister as "Dear Joe" and introduced a supporter of "Monthly Review" who would be visiting Kenya. He recalled the enjoyable memory of their previous discussions, and looked forward to their meeting again.

NY T-12 advised on March 2, 1965, that in fulfilling instructions from his government, Alex Quaison-Sackey, then Ghana Ambassador to the UN, had contacted Leo Huberman of "Monthly Review" concerning a party book shop to be established in Accra, Ghana. According to the informant, Huberman apparently furnished a cumulative index of books, pamphlets and periodicals with recommended titles indicated.

CHINA DAILY NEWS

On May 19, 1965, a source advised that the "China Daily News" (CDN) was founded in 1940 by a group of Chinese Communists and that the persons who controlled its policies from then to the present time have all been known to him as Chinese Communist leaders within the Chinese Communist movement in the New York area.

Another source, who is a stockholder in CDN, advised May 20, 1965, that the CDN is known in the New York Chinese community as a pro-Chinese Communist newspaper. This source stated that most articles printed in the paper advocate the Chinese Communist policies and present a favorable picture of conditions on the Chinese mainland.

The CDN, on December 29, 1962, contained an article on page 1 which stated that the financial situation has become more acute in recent days, and in order to operate it was necessary to economize. The article also stated that the CDN would only be published twice weekly, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

A third source has advised during 1963 and 1964 that the CDN receives current news releases from the China News Service. The news releases are from Peking, Shanghai and Canton, China.

On February 16, 1955, the CDN paid a fine of $25,000.00 and EUGENE MOY, its managing editor, began serving a one-year prison sentence after conviction in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, for a violation of the Trading with the Enemy Act, in connection with the paper's printing of advertisements for Chinese Communist banks which sought to induce Chinese in the United States to send money to Communist China. EUGENE MOY died on December 14, 1958.

MONTHLY REVIEW

A source advised on March 24, 1953, that Monthly Review, Inc., was incorporated in the State of New York on October 19, 1951, and the corporation papers reflected it succeeded the individual business of LEO HUBERMAN at 66 Barrow Street, New York, New York, which operated since 1949 under the title, Monthly Review Press.

The publication is "An Independent Socialist Magazine" with editorial and business offices at 333 Sixth Avenue, New York 14, New York, and mailing address at 66 Barrow Street, New York, New York, according to the March, 1961, issue of "Monthly Review." Its editors are listed as LEO HUBERMAN and PAUL M. SWEEZY.

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, former editor of the "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958, advised on June 23, 1950, that LEO HUBERMAN was a member of the CP in 1945.

Another source advised on November 2, 1954, that PAUL M. SWEEZY was known as a Marxist, but not as a Communist Party (CP) member. The same source stated that the CP hard core had been critical of SWEEZY because of his independent application of Marxist theory. According to the source, SWEEZY was used to advantage in many CP front activities in the 1930's.

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

APPENDIX

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

MALCOLM X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, while addressing an OAAU rally at the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

On July 14, 1965, Deputy Chief John Redden, Newark, New Jersey, Police Department, advised that neither Jesse Gray nor Rudy Jones participated in the picketing of Newark City Hall by the Labor Vanguard Democrats on the evening of July 13, 1965, which was held prior to meeting of Newark Human Rights Commission. Redden advised additionally that neither of these two individuals participated in the public meeting of the Newark Human Rights Commission.

NK T-1 advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer of the Harlem Region of the Communist Party and the position was terminated during November, 1958.

NK T-2 advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District Communist Party, Jesse Gray was no longer a Communist Party member, but was friendly to the Communist Party.

NK T-3 advised on April 15, 1958, that at the meeting of the Communist Party Waterfront Section held on April 11, 1958, at 167 Second Street, New York City, it was stated that Rudy Jones was a member of the Waterfront Section Communist Party, who was behind in his dues payment.

LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE
Formerly known as the Labor-Negro Vanguard Party,
Also known as
Labor Vanguard Democrats

In a press release dated November 18, 1961, the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD PARTY (LNVP) stated:

"The growing influence of the irredentist forces upon the policies of our nation as indicated by the alarming drift towards war and the outlawing of the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) has accentuated the need for all racial, progressive, and liberal forces to unite in a common party."

In a leaflet entitled, "Call to Progressive Minded America," issued by the LNVP, its founding convention was scheduled for November 25, 1961, in New York City. The aims and purposes were listed as:

1. For the resurgence of the American Labor Movement.
2. For the winning of the struggle for Negro rights.
3. For an end of the cold war.
4. For economic security and higher mass living standards.
5. For the end of the exploitation of man by man.

A source advised on December 19, 1961, that CLARENCE COGGINS is considered the Provisional Chairman of the LNVP. Other active members include BERNARD (WHITEY) GOODFRIEND, ALVIN OLIVER, WILLIAM CLARK, and RODNEY OLIVER.

A second source advised on December 12, 1959, that CLARENCE COGGINS, BERNARD (WHITEY) GOODFRIEND, ALVIN OLIVER, WILLIAM CLARK, and RODNEY OLIVER were all members of the HARRIET TUBMAN Section of the Essex County, New Jersey, CP, which was expelled from the Party with no right of appeal by action of the 17th National Convention, CP, USA, being held December 10-13, 1959.

On January 15, 1963, the first source advised that the LNVP is now using the name LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE (LNVC) and is the name the organization is now known by and under which name all leaflets are issued.

APPENDIX

(Cont'd)

The May 2, 1965, issue of the "Newark Evening News", a daily Newark, New Jersey, newspaper, contained an article that the Labor Vanguard Democrats, running an insurgent slate in the June 1, 1965, Democratic Primary opened their official campaign May 1, 1965, with a "May Day Rally" in Military Park at Newark.

WILLIAM CLARK headed the Labor Vanguard Democrat ticket as candidate for Governor of New Jersey. Other candidates on the ballot were ESTHER NETTE of Newark, candidate for Assembly; HERMAN D. KLEIN of East Orange, candidate for Freeholder; and ALVIN OLIVER of Newark, candidate for Essex County Clerk.

On May 18, 1965, a third source advised that the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE had been inactive for about seven months until CLARENCE COGGINS and ALVIN OLIVER stimulated the current political activity under the designation of Labor Vanguard Democrats.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated July 15, 1965.

At 3:00 p.m. on July 15, 1965, Special Agents of the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed approximately 80 demonstrators, inclusive of approximately 20 children, gather in the vicinity of Buckingham Fountain in Grant Park for a planned march in protest of the rehiring of Chicago School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis.

Following assembly of the demonstrators at approximately 3:30 p.m., they departed the vicinity of Buckingham Fountain and walked north in Grant Park to the statue of Abraham Lincoln. There the group stopped for moments of silence. Dick Gregory made a brief speech in which he expressed great admiration for Abraham Lincoln. From Lincoln's statue the demonstrators proceeded to march to City Hall, arriving at City Hall at approximately 4:45 p.m.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS,
PROTESTING REHIRING OF SCHOOL

The demonstrators were co-led by Dick Gregory and Reverend William T. Baird. Moments of silence were maintained at City Hall by the demonstrators upon their arrival. The marchers disbanded at approximately 5:15 p.m., without any incidents or arrests occuring. Gregory stated as the crowd was leaving that he would be seeing them tomorrow, July 16, 1965.

The demonstrators marched in silence during the complete march as a tribute to the late Adlai E. Stevenson. Albert Raby, Convenor, Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, was present during the gathering of the demonstrators, however, he did not participate in the march nor did he make any speeches.

A source advised on March 12, 1964, that as of March, 1964, Baird was Executive Secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR). (U)

A characterization of the CCDBR appears in the Appendix section of this memorandum.

On July 15, 1965, at approximately 11:15 p.m., Sergeant Ira Harris, Second District, Chicago Police Department, advised as follows concerning a march and demonstration protesting the retention of Chicago School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis:

The demonstration began with a meeting at 47th and South Park, Chicago, at approximately 8:00 p.m., this date. Nahaz Rogers, a former Chicago school teacher, who is a member of the organization ACT, spoke for two hours. Rogers in his speech attacked the City administration from the Mayor to the Aldermen who run the City districts. Rogers shouted that the Negro must seize power from the white man and rule his own Negro must seize power from the white man and rule his own community. His goal would be to have the Negro community free of any white merchants, workers or professional people. Harris stated that Rogers then turned his attention to Superintendent Willis, calling Willis a racist and denouncing Willis' attempt to construct mobile classrooms on the playground at the Du Sable High School.

Sergeant Harris continued by stating that following Rogers' speech, the demonstrators began to march, proceeding west on 47th Street to State Street, south on State to 50th Street. Continuing, the group proceeded to Du Sable High School at 5030 South

Wabash, where a demonstration developed, with many children and adults in the group venturing into the area where excavation has recently occurred and pipe is being laid in preparation for mobile classrooms to be placed on the school property. Harris said the time was now approximately 10:00 p.m. and that the group was led by Lawrence Landry, National Chairman of ACT and Chicago Chapter. The demonstrators now numbered approximately 75.

Sergeant Harris said he ordered five uniformed policemen to the scene, as the group began to throw debris into the excavated area. At approximately 10:00 p.m., the demonstrators charged toward the police ring formed around the excavated area. He stated that the crowd was rebuffed by the policemen who stood their ground. The group backed away from policemen and proceeded to the front of the school yard where Landry spoke to them, telling them that the school system and school officials would never be successful in their project to install portable classrooms at Du Sable.

After Landry's speech, the demonstrators disbanded following a promise by them that they would return on July 16, 1965, at the same time, where marches and protest will again take place.

Sergeant Harris concluded by stating that there were no arrests and no injuries incurred in the above related incident. He pointed out that no information had come to his attention that Jesse Gray was in the area.

A second source furnished substantially the same information as above concerning the latter demonstration at Du Sable High School, but noted that Jesse Gray did arrive during the above demonstration in a car driven by Charles Hamilton. This particular car happened to be a Nash Rambler bearing 1965 Illinois license [redacted] (U)

b6

This source also stated that it was announced during the rally at Du Sable High School that regular daily meetings of a similar nature (protesting the retention of Superintendent Willis) would be held in Garfield Park, Chicago, beginning Sunday, July 18, 1965; no time for the rallies was announced.

A third confidential source advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been the organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party (CP) but that this position had been terminated in November, 1958. (U)

On January 24, 1964, a fourth confidential source advised that according to William L. Patterson, Chairman of the New York District of the CP, Jesse Gray was no longer a member of the CP but is friendly to the CP. (U)

On March 30, 1960, a fifth confidential source advised that in March, 1960, Charles Hamilton attended meetings sponsored by the CP of Illinois pertaining to a subscription drive for "The Worker." (U)

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper. (U)

On February 27, 1955, a sixth confidential source advised Charles Hamilton was known to be a CP member as far back as 1948 and claimed to be an active CP member in 1955. (U)

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC), MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

LR T-1 advised on June 17, 1965, that the Pine Bluff Student Movement, 2006 West 9th, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, has a yearly subscription to the "Peoples World."

The "Peoples World" is a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

On July 14, 1965, Reverend BENJAMIN GRINAGE, [redacted] Pine Bluff, Arkansas, a field secretary for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), advised that the Pine Bluff Movement, a non-membership and non-dues paying organization, was originally called the Pine Bluff Student Movement and the name was changed to the Pine Bluff Movement about one year ago. He advised this group was organized by a group of local Negroes to facilitate integration in all fields in the Pine Bluff, Arkansas, area and is considered to be an affiliate of the SNCC. Reverend GRINAGE advised that at one time he was the chairman of the Pine Bluff Movement.

CG T-1. [redacted] advised on July 15, 1965, that a demonstration against the administration of Superintendent of Schools Benjamin C. Willis, sponsored by the Chicago ACT organization, was held on the evening of July 14, 1965, at DuSable School, 49th and Wabash, Chicago.

This demonstration, consisting of approximately 75 individuals, was led by Jesse Gray of the ~~Progressive Labor Movement~~ and also noted in participation was Douglas Andrews. During the demonstration approximately 100 teen-age youths from the Robert Taylor Homes, a Chicago housing project, who had heard from the speakers that portable school facilities were being placed on the DuSable School grounds, started throwing stones. These stones damaged school property to the extent of approximately $250.

It was announced that a similar anti-Willis demonstration would be held on the evening of July 15, 1965.

Concerning Jesse Gray, CG T-2 advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer of the Harlem Region Communist Party (CP), but this position was terminated during November, 1958.

CG T-3 advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District CP, Jesse Gray was no longer a CP member but was friendly to the CP.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated May 7, 1965.

Chicago T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 5, 1965, that Claude Lightfoot, a leading functionary of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois and head of the CP's National Negro Commission was present at Denver, Colorado, during the week of June 28 through July 3, 1965, at which time the National Convention of the NAACP was held.

Lightfoot took with him from Chicago to Denver several hundred copies of "The Worker" and a number of pamphlets on colonialism. He later indicated these items were distributed by Denver CP people. He was able to obtain a press badge and was observed in and about the convention on several occasions.

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

Prior to the convention, Lightfoot directed a CP of Illinois member who is active in the affairs of the NAACP to attend this convention. Lightfoot suggested that they not set up a CP caucus in the true sense but he proposed to set up a group of several CP members and several persons progressive and/or sympathetic to the CP. This was done and this "group" met on three occasions during the convention. They discussed strategy in regard to defeating the Chicago Branch resolution to reject the plan of multiple branches; support for the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party and, last, the injection of the peace issue. They were successful in the first two endeavors mainly through pressures exerted as individuals on various officers but were soundly beaten on the peace issue.

Lightfoot met with various individuals from time to time to keep abreast of convention activities but did not participate as such in any discussions of the "group." He had private conversations with known CP members on several occasions.

Re: Communist Influence in

On February 26, 1957, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954, to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL).

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The source advised in 1946, that during 1946, he asked Ralph Helstein, President of the United Packing House Workers of America, if he was a Communist. Helstein replied to the effect that he probably could be considered a Communist in view of the nature of his beliefs. Helstein did not elaborate or explain this statement.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

In April, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party (CP), United States of America (USA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 or early 1964, Levison criticized the CP, for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

On December 23, 1952, according to a "United Press" dispatch, dated December 24, 1952, from Washington, D.C., [redacted] b7D

He added that Pauling was a member of the Advisory Board that selected fellowship recipients for the Guggenheim Foundation.

In response to the above, Pauling, in an "Associated Press" dispatch, dated December 24, 1952, from Washington, D.C., denied the above allegation and was quoted as saying, "this statement is a lie. I have never been a member of the CP, and I have sworn to this fact."

Re: Communist Influence in

"Time," a weekly news magazine, in its issue of April 21, 1958, page 13, column 3, characterized Dr. Linus Carl Pauling as a "long time supporter of Communist line fronts."

To substantiate this characterization, "Time" quoted a House Committee on Un-American Activities report in 1951, as follows:

"Professor Pauling", it stated, "has not deviated a hairbreath from this pattern of loyalty to the Communist cause since 1946."

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild.

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto.

Re: Communist Influence in

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Regarding Mrs. Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP.

Wachtel 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, N.Y.

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the SCLC, of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

ALABAMA LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO PRESERVE THE PEACE

Returned herewith is a copy of the "Biennial Report to the Alabama Legislature by the Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace," which you furnished me by memorandum dated July 13, 1965, with a request for any comments I may have concerning this Report.

I thought that you would be interested to know that on July 1, 1965, Congressman James D. Martin of Alabama contacted this Bureau concerning the Report, copies of which he was expecting to receive. The Congressman wanted to know if this Bureau would review the Report and then confirm or deny the allegations contained therein. He was told that this would not be possible since information in our files is ~~confidential.~~ Concerning Congressman Martin, you will recall that by letter dated June 3, 1965, I sent you copies of newspaper items which reported that the Congressman had stated that the President would expose information concerning Martin Luther King, Jr., when it would be politically expedient to do so.

The Alabama Report is made up of several parts all dealing, generally, with the subject of communist influences in the civil rights movement. Included are a June, 1964, Study by the Alabama Commission concerning the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and a Study entitled "The 1964 Civil Rights Bill...Its Pattern...Its Architects." The Report attaches considerable communist taint to the civil rights movement, including the part being played by the National Council of Churches, and alleges that the 1964 Civil Rights Bill "was copied from the Communist Party platform of 1928."

The Report contains no facts new to this Bureau in regard to communist efforts to infiltrate the civil rights movement. It is replete with generalizations and conclusions, and I do not necessarily subscribe to all of them.

The Attorney General

A grossly inaccurate statement is ascribed to me in the Report on page 25 where it is stated, "J. Edgar Hoover said in his report to Congress last year that many of the persons in clerical garb who took part in the march on Washington were identified by the FBI as Communist Party members." I, of course, have never made such a statement.

While ordinarily I might be inclined to contact the Commission relative to this inaccuracy, I believe it undesirable to do so for two reasons. First, to correct this inaccuracy in the Report might lead to the inference by the Commission that I agree with the remainder of the Report, which is not necessarily so. Second, it would likely inject this Bureau into a highly controversial area with political overtones. Either of these two strong probabilities would be highly undesirable.

Recipient offices have been previously advised concerning the "people to people" tour of Northern cities which is being taken by Martin Luther King, Jr., and members of his staff of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). The tour is to start 7/24/65 in Chicago and probably end sometime in the first week in August in Washington, D.C. Cities scheduled to be visited include those of recipients of instant communication. Activities in the various cities will be generally in the racial field and will include rallies, demonstrations and similar activities. Prior correspondence in this matter has been in a variety of titles including "Martin Luther King, Jr., SM-C"; "COMINFIL of SCLC, IS-C"; and "CIRM."

This is to alert recipient offices to the absolute necessity of developing all possible information concerning communist participation and/or influence in the various activities which will take place. Separate prompt communications should be submitted to the Bureau in the CIRM caption which will report the communist influence in racial matters. Information which may be disseminated should be included in letterhead memoranda.

Reurairtel 7/20/65 suggesting that the classification of a letterhead memorandum (LHM) prepared by your office dated 5/5/65 be downgraded from ~~"Secret"~~ to ~~"Confidential."~~

The Bureau does not concur with your recommendation and believes the classification should remain "Secret" for the reasons originally stated by your office relative to the necessity for maintaining the security of a very valuable informant of your office, [redacted] b7D

NOTE:

It was originally necessary for the LHM in question to be classified "Secret" because a very limited number of individuals were present at an important meeting of the Executive Committee of the Party in Philadelphia. [redacted] is highly placed in the Party and it is therefore believed that a doubt which exists relative to maintaining the security of this informant be resolved in favor of maintaining the classification as "Secret."

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

On July 21, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a meeting of the District Board, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), was held on July 13, 1965. At this meeting, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AYCOX, JR., Civil Liberties and Civil Rights Secretary, CPEPD, stated the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had vowed to continue the demonstrations at Girard College until the college is integrated.

According to AYCOX, a meeting was being held that same night at the NAACP Headquarters and he expressed a desire to attend this meeting. He was then excused from the meeting of the District Board to attend the NAACP meeting.

IRVING GOFF, National Communist Party Representative, assigned to Philadelphia, advised AYCOX he should stress a continuation of the demonstrations and suggest the NAACP sponsor a large rally featuring well-known speakers and entertainers.

AYCOX left the District Board meeting to attend the NAACP meeting, but returned shortly thereafter, saying there was no meeting and none would be held for several weeks.

Re Burlet to AL 8/28/64; EP letter to Director 4/28/65.

On 7/16/65, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that no information has come to his attention during the past three months regarding any Communist influence in racial matters in the El Paso area. The informant advised that the racial situation in the El Paso area is "very quiet" and that there have been no racial disturbances to his knowledge. b7D

No information regarding the captioned matter has come to the attention of the EP Office from any source whatever; and, therefore, in accordance with current Bureau instructions, no quarterly report is being submitted at this time.
